Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 972—MILK IN THE TRI-STATE MARKETING AREA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

§ 972.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held on March 7–8, 1947, upon a proposed marketing agreement and to proposed amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area; and the decision (12 F. R. 4144) was made, with respect to the amendments, by the Secretary on June 20, 1947. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to the persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary to make effective promptly the present amendments to the order, as amended, to reflect current marketing conditions and to give producers immediately some assurance of a substantial seasonal increase in prices as an incentive to a needed increase in milk production during the fall and winter months of 1947–48. Any delay in the effective date of this order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will seriously threaten the supply of milk for the Tri-State marketing area and, therefore, it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this order for 30 days after its publication. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the milk covered by this order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Tri-State marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area; and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, further amending the aforesaid order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period (April 1947), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

It is hereby ordered, That such handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Delete § 972.1 (h) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 972.1 Definitions. • • •

(h) "Fluid milk plant" means a plant out of which a route is operated wholly or partially within the marketing area: Provided, That a "fluid milk plant" shall not mean such portions of a building or facilities used for receiving or processing such milk, or milk product, as is required by the appropriate health authority to be kept physically separate from the receiving or processing of Class I milk for the community(s) served.

2. Delete § 972.5 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 972.5 Minimum class prices. • • •

(b) Class I milk prices. Subject to the provisions of (e), (f), (g) and (h) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight on a 3.5 percent butterfat content basis to be paid by each handler for producer milk classified as Class I milk, shall be the basic formula price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus the following amounts for the delivery periods indicated:

Delivery period	Huntington district plants	Other plants
May and June	$1.10	$0.90
March, April, July, and August	1.20	1.00
September, October, November, December, January, and February	1.35	1.15

Provided, That for the months of July and August, 1947, the price for Class I milk shall not be less than $4.62 and $4.42 for the Huntington and other than Huntington district, respectively, and for the months of September, October, November and December, 1947, such prices shall not be less than $5.06 and $4.86: And provided further, That the Class I prices for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I prices minus $0.44 and that the February 1948 Class I prices shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I prices minus $0.44.

3. Delete § 972.5 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Class II milk prices. Subject to the provisions of (e), (f), (g) and (h) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight on a 3.5 percent butterfat content basis to be paid by each handler for producer milk classified as Class II milk, shall be the basic formula price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus the following amounts for the delivery periods indicated:

Delivery period	Huntington district plants	Other plants
May and June	$0.80	$0.60
March, April, July, and August	.90	.70
September, October, November, December, January, and February	1.05	.85

Provided, That for the months of July and August, 1947, the price for Class II milk shall not be less than $4.32 and $4.12 for the Huntington and other than Huntington district, respectively, and for the months of September, October, November and December, 1947, such prices shall not be less than $4.76 and $4.56: And provided further, That the Class II prices for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class II prices minimum $0.44 and that the February 1948 Class II prices shall not be less than the January 1948 Class II prices minus $0.44.

4. Delete § 972.8 (g).

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of June 1947, to be effective on and after the 1st day of July 1947.

PART 974—MILK IN COLUMBUS, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

§ 974.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held on March 10–14, 1947, upon a proposed marketing agreement and to proposed amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area; and the decision (12 F. R. 4147) was made, with respect to the amendments, by the Secretary on June 20, 1947. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to the persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary to make effective promptly the present amendments to the said order, as amended, to reflect current marketing conditions and to give producers immediately some assurance of a substantial seasonal increase in prices as an incentive to a needed increase in milk production during the fall and winter months of 1947–48. Any delay in the effective date of this order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will seriously threaten the supply of milk for the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area, and, therefore, it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this order for 30 days after its publication. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237.)

(c) Determination. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the milk covered by this order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area; and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, further amending the aforesaid order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (April, 1947), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

It is hereby ordered, That such handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Delete § 974.1 (e) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.1 Definitions. • • •

(e) "Fluid milk plant" means the premises and portions of the building and facilities used in the receipt and processing or packaging of milk all or a portion of which is disposed of from such plant during the delivery period on a route(s), wholly or partially within the marketing area, but not including any portion of such buildings or facilities used for receiving or processing milk or any milk product required by the appropriate health authorities in the marketing area to be kept physically separate from the receiving and processing or packaging of milk for disposition as Class I milk in the marketing area.

2. Add at the end of § 974.1 the following paragraph:

(l) "Route" means a delivery (including a sale from a plant store) of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, or flavored milk drink in fluid form to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including a State or municipal institution, other than to a fluid milk plant(s) or to a plant(s) manufacturing milk products.

3. At the end of § 974.4 (b) (4) change the period (.) to a colon (:) and add thereafter the following: "Provided, That producer milk transferred by a handler to any plant of another handler without first having been received for purposes of weighing and testing in the transferring handler's fluid milk plant shall be included in the receipts at the plant of the second handler for the purpose of computing his plant shrinkage and shall be excluded from the receipts at the fluid milk plant of the transferring handler in computing his plant shrinkage."

4. Delete § 974.5 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.5 Minimum prices—(a) Basic formula prices for skim milk and butterfat. The basic formula prices of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, shall be computed by the market administrator for each delivery period in the following manner:

(1) Compute the arithmetical average of the basic (or field) prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture by the companies listed below:

Companies and Locations

Borden Co., Black Creek, Wis.
Borden Co., Greenville, Wis.
Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Jefferson, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(2) Compute the price per hundredweight by adding together the amounts resulting under subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph:

(i) From the arithmetical average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period in which such milk was received, subtract 3.5 cents, add 20 percent, and then multiply the resulting amount by 3.5, and

(ii) From the arithmetical average of the carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk solids (not including that specifically designated animal feed), roller and spray process, f. o. b. Chicago area manufacturing plants, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, deduct 4 cents, multiply by 8.5, and multiply by 0.965.

(3) Multiply the higher of the prices resulting from subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph by 0.2798 (which amount shall be known as the basic formula price per hundredweight of skim milk); and

(4) Multiply the higher of the prices resulting from subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph by 20.86 (which amount shall be known as the basic formula price per hundredweight of butterfat).

(b) Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received at his fluid milk plant and classified as Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk, respectively, shall be determined by adding the appropriate amounts set forth in the following schedule to the basic formula prices per hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for the delivery period:

	Skim milk		Butterfat
	August through March	April through July	August through March	April through July
Class I milk	$0.2798	$0.2098	$20.86	$15.64
Class II milk	.2098	.1399	15.64	10.43
Class III milk	.1679	.0979	12.52	7.30

Provided, That in no event shall the price of skim milk or butterfat in any such class be lower, respectively, than the skim milk and the higher butterfat prices, in Class IV milk: And provided further, That for the month of August, 1947, the prices per hundredweight for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk shall not be less than $1.175 and $87.61, respectively, and in Class II milk not less than $1.105 and $82.40, respectively; and for the months of September, October, November, and December, 1947, such prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk shall not be less than $1.298 and $96.79, respectively, and in Class II milk not less than $1.228 and $91.58, respectively: And provided also, That the prices per hundredweight for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for January, 1948, shall not be less than the December, 1947, prices of skim milk and butterfat in such classes minus $0.123 and $9.18, respectively, and such prices for February, 1948, shall not be less than such prices for January, 1948, minus $0.123 and $9.18, respectively.

(c) Class IV milk prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section the minimum prices to be paid by each handler for that portion of skim milk or butterfat in producer milk received at his fluid milk plant and classified as Class IV milk shall be determined as follows:

(1) The price per hundredweight of such skim milk shall be the prices determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) (ii) of this section, divided by 0.965; and

(2) The price per hundredweight of such butterfat shall be the arithmetical average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, multiplied by 120: Provided, That the price per hundredweight of butterfat made into butter shall be such price per hundredweight less $4.20.

(d) Prices of Class I milk and Class II milk disposed of outside the marketing area. The price to be paid by a handler for Class I milk or Class II milk disposed of outside the marketing area shall be the same as the price applicable within the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area: Provided, That Class I milk or Class II milk disposed of in another marketing area covered by a Federal milk marketing agreement or order, issued pursuant to the act, shall be the price applicable within the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area, pursuant to this section, or the price applicable for milk of similar use or disposition in the other marketing area, whichever is higher.

(e) Emergency price provisions. (1) Whenever the provisions in this part require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining minimum class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy, or other similar payment, being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk, or product, associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated, the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: Provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the Secretary determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

(2) Whenever the Secretary finds and announces that the price of Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk computed for any delivery period pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section is above a level which is in the public interest, the price of Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk for such delivery period shall be the same as the corresponding price for Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk for the delivery period immediately preceding.

5. Delete from § 974.6 (a) the following proviso: "Provided, That if such handler received milk, skim milk, or cream from a handler who received no producer milk other than that of his own production and disposed of the skim milk or butterfat contained therein as other than in the lowest-priced use of the receiving handler, there shall be added an amount equal to the difference between (1) the value of such skim milk or butterfat at the price of such lowest-priced use and (2) the value computed in accordance with its class use."

6. Delete from § 974.6 (c) (3) the term "4 percent" wherever it appears and substitute therefor the term "3.5 percent."

7. Delete from § 974.6 (c) (5) the term "4.0 percent" and substitute the term "3.5 percent."

8. Delete from § 974.7 (f) the section reference "§ 974.5 (e) (2)" and substitute therefor the section reference "§ 974.5 (c) (2)."

9. Delete the provisions of § 974.8 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.8 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to § 974.2 (c) (3) each handler shall pay the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period 2 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all receipts of skim milk and butterfat (except receipts from other handlers) in (a) producer milk and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant.

10. Delete the provisions of § 974.9 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler shall deduct from his payments pursuant to § 974.7 (a), 4 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all producer milk (except such handler's own production) received during each delivery period, and shall pay such deduction to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to check weights, samples, and tests of such producer milk and to provide producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Reg. Serial No. 394]

PART 302—DESCRIPTION OF FUNCTIONS; COURSE AND METHOD BY WHICH FUNCTIONS ARE CHANNELED; SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF DOCUMENTS

CHANNELING OF CERTAIN ROUTINE FUNCTIONS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly section 205 (a) thereof, and pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, particularly sections 3 and 12 thereof, and in order to provide for the processing of applications filed with the Board pursuant to §§ 292.1 and 292.5 of the Economic Regulations, hereby amends § 302.4 (c) of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows, effective immediately:

§ 302.4 Channeling of certain routine functions. * * *

(c) Requests and submissions from air carriers. (1) The Director of the Economic Bureau is authorized to take the following preliminary action on behalf of the Board:

(i) To approve any application for Letter of Registration filed pursuant to § 292.1 of this chapter. (Pursuant to such approval, such Letter will be issued by the Secretary of the Board.)

(2) The Director of the Economic Bureau, with the concurrence of the Assistant General Counsel having jurisdiction over the subject matter involved, is authorized to take the following preliminary action on behalf of the Board:

(i) To approve all Airport Notices from holders of certificates indicating an intention to serve regularly a point through any airport not then regularly used by such holder, including the granting or denying of requests for an effective date earlier than thirty days subsequent to filing such notice, if no new and substantial question of policy appears to be involved.

(ii) To approve Nonstop Notices from holders of certificates indicating an intention to inaugurate a scheduled nonstop service between any two points not consecutively named in the certificate, including the granting or denying of requests for an effective date earlier than twenty days subsequent to the filing of such notice, if such nonstop service does not appear to be adverse to the public interest, or to involve a substantial deviation from the shortest course between such points as determined by the route described in the certificate, or to involve a schedule designated for the transportation of mail and the inauguration of such service on such date would be prohibited pursuant to the provisions of section 405 (c) of the act; or to involve a new and substantial question of policy.

(iii) To approve revocation or modification of suspension of service orders in cases in which the carrier concerned requests such revocation or modification, if no new and substantial question of policy appears to be involved.

(iv) To approve contracts and agreements, and modifications and cancellations thereof, filed under section 412 of the act, relating exclusively to the following enumerated services and facilities: Air conditioning; oxygen bottles; cleaning machines; radio site space; office space; field post offices; porter, janitor, and guard services; flight quarters and lounge space; storage space for cargo, gasoline, or parts; electric power and light; and other joint facility arrangements involving similar routine matters.

(v) To approve, in whole or in part, any application for Letter of Registration filed pursuant to § 292.5 of this chapter. (Pursuant to such approval, such Letter will be issued by the Secretary of the Board.)

(vi) To deny any application for Letter of Registration filed pursuant to §§ 292.1 or 292.5 of this chapter.

(58 Stat. 984 as amended; secs. 3, 12, 60 Stat. 238, 284, 49 U. S. C. 425)

Whereas by Proclamation No. 2714 of December 31, 1946, the President proclaimed the cessation of hostilities in World War II, effective December 31, 1946:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Possession by the Government of all bituminous coal mines (except as provided in paragraph 5 hereof), including any and all real property, franchises, rights, facilities, funds and other assets used in connection with the operation of such mines, taken by the United States pursuant to Executive Order 9728 and Orders 2200 and 2200-B of the Secretary of the Interior and now in Government possession, is hereby terminated.

2. There shall be conspicuously displayed at each such mine property on July 1, 1947, and for a reasonable period thereafter, a copy of a poster, to be supplied by the Coal Mines Administration, which shall read as follows:

NOTICE. Government possession and control of the coal mines of this mining company have been terminated by order of the Secretary of the Interior.

3. This order shall not affect, and shall not be deemed to have relieved any operating manager of any of the aforesaid mines from the obligation to comply with applicable directions and orders of the Coal Mines Administrator issued during the period of Government possession. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to preclude the Government from requiring the submission of information relating to operations during the period of Government possession for the purpose of ascertaining the existence and amount of claims against the United States, if any, so that the administration of the provisions of Executive Order 9728, pursuant to which Government possession was taken, may be concluded in an orderly manner.

4. The appointment of each of the operating managers of the aforesaid mines is terminated, upon condition, however, that (a) the operating manager shall have fully and completely complied with all applicable directions and orders issued by the Coal Mines Administrator during the period of Government possession, and (b) the mining company shall have executed and filed with the Coal Mines Administrator an Instrument of Agreement and Certification or shall have executed and filed either an Instrument No. 1 or an Instrument No. 2. The appointment of any operating manager not terminated under this paragraph shall continue solely for the purposes of complying with applicable directions and orders issued by the Coal Mines Administrator during the period of Government possession and for the purposes of accounting in the event that the mining company fails to execute and file one of the above-mentioned instruments.

5. This order shall not apply to the Olga #1, Olga #2, and Caretta #5 Mines of the Carter Coal Company or to Mine No. 3 of the Fox Coal Company, concerning which separate orders are being issued at this time.

6. This order shall become effective as of 12:00 noon, e. s. t., June 30, 1947.

Statement To Accompany Amendment 117 to the Rent Regulation for Housing, and Amendment 109 to the Rent Regulation for Transient Hotels, Residential Hotels, Rooming Houses and Motor Courts

By these amendments the application of the rent regulations is terminated in a portion of the Austin Defense-Rental Area, consisting of Bastrop County in Texas.

It is the judgment of the Housing Expediter, that these amendments are necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act.

No provisions which might have the effect of requiring a change in established rental practices have been included in the amendments unless such provisions have been found necessary to achieve effective rent control and to prevent circumvention or evasion of the rent regulations and the act. To the extent that the provisions of these amendments compel or may operate to compel changes in established rental practices, such provisions are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the rent regulations and the act.

It is the judgment of the Housing Expediter, that the issuance of these amendments compel or may operate to compel changes in established rental practices, such provisions are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the rent regulations and the act.

By these amendments the application of the rent regulations is terminated in a portion of the Austin Defense-Rental Area, consisting of Bastrop County in Texas.

It is the judgment of the Housing Expediter, that these amendments are necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act.

No provisions which might have the effect of requiring a change in established rental practices have been included in the amendments unless such provisions have been found necessary to achieve effective rent control and to prevent circumvention or evasion of the rent regulations and the act. To the extent that the provisions of these amendments compel or may operate to compel changes in established rental practices, such provisions are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the rent regulations and the act.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter VIII—Coal Mines Administration, Department of the Interior

[Order No. CMAN T-7]

APPENDIX TO PART 801—OPERATION OF COAL MINES UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL

TERMINATION OF POSSESSION OF CERTAIN BITUMINOUS COAL MINES

Whereas under authority of the War Labor Disputes Act, the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to Executive Order No. 9728, took possession of certain bituminous coal mines in the United States; and

Whereas the War Labor Disputes Act by its terms shall cease to be effective at the end of six months following the termination of hostilities in the present war as proclaimed by the President of the United States; and

and 9758 and Orders No. 2200 and 2230½ of the Secretary of the Interior, is hereby terminated.

2. There shall be conspicuously displayed at such mine property on July 1, 1947, and for a reasonable period thereafter, a copy of a poster, to be supplied by the Coal Mines Administration, which shall read as follows:

NOTICE. Government possession and control of the coal mines of this mining company have been terminated by order of the Secretary of the Interior.

3. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to preclude the Government from requiring the submission of information relating to operations during the period of Government possession for the purpose of ascertaining the existence and amount of claims against the United States, if any, so that the administration of the provisions of Executive Order 9728, pursuant to which Government possession was taken, may be concluded in an orderly manner.

4. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to affect, or to require the Government to pay over to Ralph A. Fox d. b. a. Fox Coal Company, or any other person or corporation, monies or funds utilized by the Government in the operation of said mine, or monies or funds derived from the operation of said mine by the Government for its account and risk.

5. This order shall become effective as of 12:00 noon, e. s. t., June 30, 1947.

J. A. KRUG,
Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Order 127-C]

PART 15—RADIO STATIONS IN THE WAR EMERGENCY RADIO SERVICE

STATE GUARD STATIONS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

Whereas, by Order No. 127 (10 F. R. 11157) the Commission ordered that all War Emergency Radio Service station licenses (including State Guard stations), all War Emergency radio operator permits, and the rules and regulations governing the operations of stations and of operators in this service be cancelled, effective November 15, 1945; and

Whereas, by Order No. 127-A (10 F. R. 14029) the Commission amended Order No. 127 to permit State Guard stations to operate on the frequencies 3655 and 3825 kilocycles until July 1, 1946, and to permit the rules and regulations governing the War Emergency Radio Service, to the extent that they relate to State Guard stations, to remain in effect until July 1, 1946; and

Whereas, by Order No. 127-B (11 F. R. 6685) the Commission amended and extended the provisions of Order No. 127-A to permit State Guard stations to operate on the frequency 5500 kilocycles until July 1, 1947, and to permit the rules and regulations governing the War Emergency Radio Service, to the extent they relate to State Guard stations, to remain in effect until July 1, 1947; and

Whereas, the War Department has requested the Commission to permit the continued operation of State Guard stations in the War Emergency Radio Service for the proper training and functioning of State Guard organizations for a further temporary period pending reactivation of the National Guard; and

Whereas, the frequency 5500 kilocycles is available for assignment to State Guard stations; and

Whereas, it appears advisable to amend Order No. 127, as amended by Orders No. 127-A and 127-B, to provide for the continued operation of State Guard stations in the War Emergency Radio Service for a further temporary period; It is ordered, That:

1. State Guard station licenses, now in effect or granted subsequent to the date of this order, shall remain in effect until July 1, 1948 (3 a. m. eastern standard time).

2. The rules and regulations governing the War Emergency Radio Service (Part 15), to the extent that they relate to State Guard stations and to operators of State Guard stations, shall remain in effect until July 1, 1948 (3 a. m. eastern standard time); Provided, however, That such stations may be operated only on the frequency 5500 kilocycles. The use of this frequency will be on a shared basis with stations operated by the War Department.

3. The provisions of Order No. 127, to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order are hereby revoked.

4. This order shall become effective on July 1, 1947 (3 a. m. eastern standard time).

By the Commission.

[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Parts 04a, 04b]

FIRE PREVENTION IN AIR CARRIER AIRCRAFT

JUNE 26, 1947.

A review of the fire prevention regulations adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board on September 20, 1946, reveals that practical application of these regulations requires minor changes in substance and some clarification of language. The proposed changes in substance are in line with the recently proposed International Civil Aviation Organization Airworthiness Standards which require the installation of fire detectors in the engine power section, irrespective of the presence of a shroud between the power and accessory sections. The implementation of the pertinent ICAO Standards by their inclusion in the Civil Air Regulations is considered in the public interest.

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, the Safety Bureau of the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby gives notice that the Bureau will propose to the Board amendments to the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

1. Amend the last paragraph of § 04a.062 to read as follows:

All aircraft certificated under the transport category, the manufacture of which is completed after September 30, 1947, shall employ with the following sections of Part 04b of the Civil Air Regulations as amended July —, 1947: §§ 04b.075, 04b.38210, 04b.38230, 04b.3824, 04b.38251, 04b.38252, 04b.4113, 04b.4211, 04b.4231 (c), 04b.425 through 04b.4251, 04b.4320, 04b.4321, 04b.433, 04b.434, 04b.441 and subsections, 04b.470 through 04b.472, 04b.49 through 04b.4902, 04b.491 and 04b.4910 through 04b.493.

2. Amend the last paragraph of § 04b.00 to read as follows:

All aircraft certificated under the transport category, the manufacture of which is completed after September 30, 1947, shall comply with the following sections as amended: §§ 04b.075, 04b.38210, 04b.38230, 04b.3824, 04b.38251, 04b.38252, 04b.4113, 04b.4211, 04b.4231 (c), 04b.425 through 04b.4251, 04b.4320, 04b.4321, 04b.433, 04b.434, 04b.441 and subsections, 04b.470 through 04b.472, 04b.49 through 04b.4902, 04b.491, and 04b.4910 through 04b.493.

3. Amend § 04b.49 to read as follows:

Engine power section.

Engine accessory section.

Complete powerplant compartments in which no isolation is provided between the engine power section and the engine accessory section.

Auxiliary power unit compartments.

Fuel burning heater and other combustion equipment installations.

Such zones shall be protected from fire by compliance with the following requirements.

4. Amend the last clause of the first sentence in § 04b.4901 to read as follows: "shall be flexible fire-resistant lines with fire-resistant end fittings of the permanently attached, detachable, or other approved types."

5. Add the following clause at the end of the last sentence of § 04b.491 (a): "* * *, except in the case of engine power sections which are completely isolated from the engine accessory section by a fireproof diaphragm complying with the provisions of § 04b.4700."

6. Amend § 04b.491 (b) to read as follows:

(b) The fire extinguishing system, the quantity of extinguishing agent, and the rate of discharge shall be such as to provide two adequate discharges. It shall be possible to direct both discharges to any main engine installation. Individual "one-shot" systems shall be acceptable in the case of auxiliary power units, fuel burning heaters, and other combustion equipment.

The Safety Bureau invites those interested to offer comments regarding the proposed amendment. Comments in writing should be addressed to the Safety Bureau, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C., for receipt within 30 days from the date of this public notice.

[14 CFR, Part 04b]

GYROSCOPIC BANK AND PITCH INDICATOR

JUNE 26, 1947.

Section 04b.51 (a) (5) currently requires that all airplanes subject to certification under the airworthiness requirements of Part 04b be equipped with a non-upsetting type gyroscopic bank and pitch indicator. A study of available instruments indicates that at this time no instruments of the non-upsetting type are available which would be considered sufficiently reliable in all respects. It appears therefore that at least for the present time safety would be served better if instruments which do not meet this restriction but which experience has shown to be reliable were allowed to be used.

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, the Safety Bureau of the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby gives notice that the Bureau will propose to the Board an amendment to the Civil Air Regulations deleting the words "non-upsetting type" from § 04b.51 (a) (5).

The Safety Bureau invites those interested to offer comments regarding the proposed amendment. Comments in writing should be addressed to the Safety Bureau, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C., for receipt within 15 days from the date of this public notice.

AMERICAN WATER WORKS AND ELECTRIC CO. INC., AND WICHITA WATER CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of June A. D. 1947.

American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, ("American"), a registered holding company, and its direct subsidiary, The Wichita Water Company ("Wichita"), an operating water utility company, have filed a joint application - declaration, with three amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the following transactions:

Wichita proposes to issue and sell to John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company $950,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series B, 2⅞%, due June 1, 1977, at a price of 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued interest. These bonds are to be issued under a mortgage and deed of trust dated as of April 1, 1941, between Wichita and City Bank Farmers Trust Company, as Trustee, and an indenture supplemental thereto to be dated as of June 1, 1947, John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company now owns all of the outstanding funded debt of Wichita consisting of $3,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, 3⅝%, due April 1, 1971. The proceeds of the sale of the bonds will be used by Wichita to pay its presently outstanding 2½% notes payable to banks in the aggregate amount of $280,000 and to pay for extensions, improvements and additions to its properties.

American proposes to make a capital contribution of $868,000 to Wichita in satisfaction of a like amount of advances on open account due from Wichita. The amount of this capital contribution is to be added by American to its investment in the common stock of Wichita and will be credited by Wichita to capital surplus. American owns all of the issued and outstanding common stock of Wichita (22,720 shares, par value $100 per share).

This joint application-declaration was filed on May 15, 1947, and the last amendment thereto on June 18, 1947. Notice of this filing was duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission has not received a request for a hearing with respect thereto, within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and has not ordered a hearing thereon.

The Commission finding with respect to said joint application-declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said joint application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective, and further deeming it appropriate to grant the request of applicants-declarants that this order become effective upon issuance;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that this joint application-declaration be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2735

FREE IMPORTATION OF TIMBER, LUMBER, AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Proclamation No. 2708 of October 25, 1946, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to permit, under such regulations and subject to such conditions as the Secretary may deem necessary, the importation free of duty of any articles which the Housing Expediter designates and certifies as timber, lumber, or lumber products suitable for the construction or completion of housing accommodations; and

WHEREAS it now appears that it would be in the public interest to terminate the aforesaid proclamation on August 15, 1947;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and in particular by section 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 590, 696), do hereby declare that Proclamation No. 2708 is hereby amended to provide that it shall terminate on August 15, 1947.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 28th day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-first.

[SEAL] HARRY S. TRUMAN

PART 251—WHEAT LOANS AND PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

1947 WHEAT LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

Pursuant to the provisions of Article Third, paragraphs (b) and (j) of the Corporate Charter of Commodity Credit Corporation; sec. 7 (a), 49 Stat. 4 as amended, sec. 8, 56 Stat. 767 as amended; 15 U. S. C. Sup., 713 (a), 50 U. S. C. App., Sup., 968, Commodity Credit Corporation and the Production and Marketing Administration have issued regulations (12 F. R. 4167) governing the making of loans and purchase agreements on wheat produced in 1947. Such regulations are hereby supplemented as follows:

§ 251.126 Rates at which loans and purchases will be made—(a) Rates at terminal markets. For loan or purchase at the full rate shown in the following schedule, the wheat must have been shipped on a domestic interstate freight rate basis. The rate at the designated terminal market will be reduced by the difference between the freight paid and the domestic freight rate on any wheat shipped at other than the domestic freight rate. The following schedule of rates applies to wheat delivered to any designated terminal market in carload lots which has been shipped by rail from a country shipping point to one of the designated terminal markets, as evidenced by paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges and other documents as required in 1947 C. C. C. Wheat Bulletin 1: Provided, That in the event the amount of paid-in freight is insufficient to guarantee minimum proportional freight rates from the terminal market, there shall be deducted from the applicable terminal rate the difference between the amount of freight actually paid in and the amount required to be paid in to guarantee outbound movement at the minimum proportional freight rate. The warehouse receipts must be accompanied by the registered freight bills, or by a statement written in the following form and signed by the warehouseman, or a certificate of such warehouseman containing such an undertaking, or such forms as may hereafter be approved by CCC. In the absence of such freight bills or certificates, a deduction of 6 cents per bushel shall be made.

(b) Rates at other than designated terminal markets. (1) For States and counties other than those designated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the rate for wheat in storage on the farm or in country warehouses shall be determined by deducting from the designated terminal market rate an amount equal to the receiving and loading-out charges computed in accordance with the schedule of rates of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement (CCC Form H, revised June 1, 1946) plus the all-rail interstate freight rate (plus tax) from the country warehouse point, or the shipping point designated by the producer, to such terminal market; except that in such counties of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Arkansas, Texas, and Wisconsin as may be recommended by the State PMA committee such rates shall be computed on the basis of the average freight rate from all shipping points other than subterminal markets in each county to the appropriate terminal market.

The rate for wheat stored in approved warehouses (other than those situated in the designated terminal markets or in the States and counties designated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) which was shipped by rail shall be determined by deducting from the appropriate designated terminal market rate an amount equal to the transit balance of the through freight rate from point of origin for such wheat to such terminal market, plus freight tax on such transit balance. Provided, That in the case of wheat stored at any railroad transit point, taking a penalty by reason of out-of-line movement, or for any other reason, to the appropriate designated market, there shall be added to such transit balance an amount equal to any out-of-line or other costs incurred in storing wheat in such position, as determined by CCC. The warehouse receipts, in addition to other required documents, must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges or by a statement of the warehouseman in the following form, or a warehouseman's supplemental certificate containing such information:

(2) Separate schedules of rates for wheat at other than designated terminal markets and for certain wheat at Norfolk, Virginia, will be issued with respect to the States and counties hereinafter set forth:

All counties in Arizona, Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia;

In New Mexico, the counties of Bernalillo, Colfax, Curry, Harding, Quay, Roosevelt, Sandoval, San Juan, San Miguel, Santa Fe, Torrance, Union, and Valencia;

In Colorado, the counties of Alamosa, Archuleta, Chaffee, Conejos, Costilla, Delta, Dolores, Eagle, Garfield, Grand, Gunnison, Hinsdale, Jackson, Lake, La Plata, Mesa, Mineral, Moffat, Montezuma, Montrose, Ouray, Pitkin, Rio Grande, Routt, Saguache, San Juan, San Miguel, Summit.

The rate for wheat originating in the counties of Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset, and Worcester in Maryland; all counties in Delaware; and Accomac and Northampton counties in Virginia which is shipped to Norfolk, Virginia, and stored in the Norfolk terminal elevator of the Norfolk and Western Railroad shall be the rate shown on such separate schedule for the county from which the wheat is shipped plus the amount of freight per bushel paid, plus 5½ cents per bushel.

The rate for wheat stored in other approved warehouses (except those situated at designated terminal markets) in the foregoing States and counties, which was shipped by rail in the movement of natural market direction as approved by CCC, shall be determined by adding to the county rate shown on such separate schedule for the county from which the wheat was shipped an amount per bushel equal to the receiving and loading-out charges computed in accordance with the schedule of rates of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement (CCC Form H, revised June 1, 1946), and an amount equal to the transit value of the freight paid from point of origin to markets designated by CCC, plus freight tax on the transit value from point of origin to the warehouse. Lending agencies and county committees are advised that in each instance the transit value must be verified by the Grain Branch Office serving the area. The warehouse receipts must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills or certificates of the warehousemen and other required documents as set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. If the wheat is stored in approved warehouses located at transit points, taking a penalty by reason of back haul, or out-of-line of natural market movement, such penalty or other costs by reason of such movement, as determined by CCC, shall be deducted from the loan rates as determined above.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture

[BEPQ 74]

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

CUT FLOWER QUARANTINE

Examination by plant quarantine inspectors of imported cut flowers arriving from foreign countries, especially via air cargo has disclosed that such flowers may carry injurious insects and plant diseases not known to occur in the United States. If introduced into this country, these pests could cause serious injury to our domestic floriculture and horticulture industries. To prevent the introduction of such pests, it has become necessary that authorization and procedures be established to regulate the entry of cut flowers from foreign sources. The accompanying quarantine and regulations issued in compliance with and under authority of the Plant Quarantine Act provide for this.

The Secretary of Agriculture has determined that the unrestricted importation of cut flowers from foreign countries, including those in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australasia, South America, Central America, North America, and other foreign countries and islands (other than cut flowers produced in the Dominion of Canada, Labrador, Newfoundland, and the United States), may result in the entry into the United States from these foreign countries and localities of injurious insects and plant diseases, including the citrus blackfly (Aleurocanthus woglumi Ashby) and a Cercospora leaf spot, and that it is therefore necessary to restrict the entry of cut flowers from these foreign countries and localities to prevent the introduction of such injurious insects and plant diseases into the United States.

AUTHORITY: §§ 319.74 to 319.74–6, inclusive, issued under secs. 5 and 7, 37 Stat. 316, 317; 7 U. S. C. 159, 160.

SUBPART—CUT FLOWERS

QUARANTINE

§ 319.74 Notice of quarantine. The Secretary of Agriculture, having given the public hearing required by law and having determined the pest risk involved, forbids the importation of cut flowers into the continental United States, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico from foreign countries, including those in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australasia, South America, Central America, North America, and other foreign countries and islands (other than cut flowers produced in the Dominion of Canada, Labrador, Newfoundland, and the United States), except as provided in the regulations supplemental hereto.

This quarantine shall not be construed to modify provisions applicable to cut flowers included in special quarantine or other restrictive orders now in force or hereafter promulgated.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

§ 319.74–1 Definitions. For the purpose of these regulations in this subpart the following words, names, and terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Cut flower. The highly perishable commodity known in the commercial flower-producing industry as a cut flower, and being the severed portion of a plant, including the inflorescence, and any parts of the plant attached thereto, in a fresh state. This definition shall not include dried, bleached, dyed, or chemically treated decorative plant materials; filler or greenery, such as fern fronds and asparagus plumes, frequently packed with fresh cut flowers; nor to Christmas greenery, such as holly, mistletoe, and Christmas trees.

(b) Inspector. An employee of the United States Department of Agriculture authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture to enforce the provisions of the Plant Quarantine Act.

(c) Permit. A form of authorization to allow the importation of cut flowers in accordance with the regulations in this subpart. In the case of cut flowers imported in small quantities, this may be an oral authorization by the inspector at the port of entry.

§ 319.74–2 Regulated articles. (a) All cut flowers imported into the United States from the foreign countries and islands designated in the quarantine are subject to the regulations in this subpart.

(b) Such types of cut flowers as may be determined by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine and designated by him in administrative instructions as involving special risk of introducing into the United States any new and potentially injurious insect or plant disease shall be admitted only under permit.

(c) Whenever, in the opinion of the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, a State or Territory of the United States shall have taken action to suppress types of pests that may be imported with certain cut flowers, and shall have promulgated, when such action contributes to the suppressive program, a plant quarantine prohibiting the entry in interstate movement of specific kinds of cut flowers that might introduce such pests, and further shall have requested through the responsible State official that the United States Department of Agriculture cooperate by restricting the importation from foreign countries named in this quarantine of such cut flowers into the State or Territory in question, importations thereof to said State or Territory may be denied by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine either through refusing approval of a permit or such other means as he may announce.

§ 319.74–3 Conditions governing the entry of cut flowers. (a) All cut flowers imported from the named foreign countries and localities, whether or not subject to permit requirements, shall be given such inspection and treatment at the port of entry as may be deemed necessary by the inspector. Any cut flowers found upon inspection to be infested with injurious insects or infected with plant diseases, which cannot be eliminated by treatment, shall be denied entry. The importer will be given the option of abandoning for destruction such rejected cut flowers or immediately shipping them to a point outside the United States.

(b) Under circumstances which will in the judgment of the inspector eliminate pest risk, the inspector may orally authorize entry in small quantities of cut flowers that are subject to the permit requirements.

(c) Whenever, during the inspection of cut flowers imported in accordance with the regulations in this subpart, the inspector shall find them to be infested with an injurious insect or infected with an injurious plant disease, either of which can be eliminated by a method of treatment selected by him in accordance with administratively authorized procedures known to be effective under the conditions applied, he may prescribe as a condition of entry that such treatment be applied by the importer or his agent, under the supervision of the inspector. All costs for such treatment, except for the services of the inspector, shall be borne by the importer or his agent. Neither the Department of Agriculture nor the inspector shall be deemed responsible for any adverse effects of such treatment on the cut flowers so treated. In lieu of treatment the importer of infested or infected cut flowers shall be given the option of immediately shipping them to a point outside the United States or abandoning them for immediate destruction.

§ 319.74–4 Procedure for obtaining permits. (a) Persons desiring to import cut flowers subject to the permit requirements of the regulations in this subpart shall submit to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, an application[1] stating the exact designation of the cut flowers to be imported, the name and address of the exporter, the country where grown, the port of entry, their destination in the United States, and the name and address of the importer or agent in the United States to whom the permit should be sent.

(b) Application for permit should be made in advance of the proposed importation.

(c) Upon receipt and approval of such application by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, a permit will be issued which will authorize the importation, specify the port of entry, and prescribe conditions that may be needed to safeguard against the entry of pests.

§ 319.74–5 Notice of arrival. Immediately upon the arrival at a port of entry of a commercial shipment of cut flowers, the entry of which is permissible only under permit, the permittee shall submit to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine through the Collector of Customs, duplicate copies of a notice of arrival. A form is provided by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine for that purpose.

§ 319.74–6 Shipments for experimental or scientific purposes. Cut flowers may be imported for experimental or scientific purposes by the United States Department of Agriculture upon such conditions and restrictions as the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine may prescribe.

This quarantine and these regulations shall be effective on and after August 1, 1947.

Done at the city of Washington this 26th day of June 1947.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

DESIGNATION OF CUT FLOWERS SUBJECT TO PERMIT REQUIREMENTS UNDER CUT FLOWER QUARANTINE

§ 319.74-2a Administrative instructions relative to the cut flower quarantine. Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by paragraph (b) of § 319.74-2 (Notice of Quarantine No. 74), it has been determined that the following types of cut flowers involve special risk of introducing into the United States new and potentially injurious insects or plant diseases when imported into the continental United States, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico from the foreign countries and localities designated in § 319.74:

Camellia—Camellia spp.
Gardenia, cape jasmine—Gardenia spp.
Rhododendron—Rhododendron spp. (including Azalea)
Rose—Rosa spp.
Lilac—Syringa spp.

Accordingly it is hereby required that the above types of cut flowers may be imported from the designated foreign countries and localities only under permits issued in accordance with the procedure authorized in §§ 319.74-3 to 319.74-5, inclusive.

These instructions shall be effective on and after August 1, 1947.

(Sec. 5, 37 Stat. 316; 7 U. S. C. 159; §§ 319.74-2 to 319.74-5, inclusive)

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO THE BUDGET OF EXPENSES AND THE FIXING OF RATES OF ASSESSMENT FOR THE 1947-48 SEASON

Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 3033), dated May 7, 1947, that consideration was being given to proposals regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rates of assessment for the 1947-48 season under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California. This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Control Committee (established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 936.201 Budget of expenses and rates as assessment for the 1947-48 season—(a) Rate of assessment for general overhead expenses. The general overhead expenses necessary to be incurred by the Control Committee and each of the commodity committees, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, for the maintenance and functioning of the said committees for the season beginning April 1, 1947, and ending March 31, 1948, both dates inclusive, will amount to $40,910.00, and the rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who handles fruit shall be nine mills ($0.009) per hundred pounds of fruit handled by such handler during said season; and such rate of assessment is hereby approved as each such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(b) Rate of assessment for additional expenses. The additional expenses necessary to be incurred, during the aforesaid season, by the respective commodity committees in administering the regulation of shipments of fruit pursuant to sections 3, 4, and 5 of the amended marketing agreement and §§ 936.3 to 936.5, both inclusive, of the amended order, will be in the following amounts:

(1) To be incurred by the Bartlett Pear Commodity Committee: $1,390.00;

(2) To be incurred by the Plum Commodity Committee: $1,315.00;

(3) To be incurred by the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee: $645.00; and the rate of assessment for such additional expenses to be paid, in accordance with the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, by each handler who handles fruit with respect to which regulations are made effective during said season shall be one mill ($0.001) per hundred pounds of fruit so handled; and such rate of assessment is hereby approved as each such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(c) Effective date. Compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that (1) the respective rates of assessment are applicable to all fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches shipped during the aforesaid season; (2) the fruit season in California is somewhat earlier than usual this year; (3) the shipment of plums was begun during the week beginning May 11, and nine regulations have already been placed in effect; (4) it is expected that the first shipments of Early Elberta peaches will begin about June 20; (5) initial shipments of Bartlett pears are expected during the first week in July; and (6) in order for the aforesaid necessary assessments to be collected, it is essential that the specification of the assessment rates be issued immediately so as to enable the said Control Committee and commodity committees to perform their duties and functions under said amended marketing agreement and order.

As used herein, the terms "handler," "handle," "fruit," "shipped," and "shipments" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1947.

Secretary.

Chapter XXI—Organization, Functions and Procedure

Subchapter C—Production and Marketing Administration

PART 2301—OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

ORGANIZATION

Section 2301.1 (b) Office of the Administrator (11 F. R. 177A-258) is amended in the following respects:

1. Subparagraph (1) is revised to read as follows:

(1) The Administrator. Under the general direction of the Secretary, the Administrator is responsible for the formulation and administration of all programs assigned to the Production and Marketing Administration. Authority is delegated to the Deputy Administrator to act for and on behalf of the Administrator. Authority is delegated to the Assistant Administrators to act on behalf of and for the Administrator except with respect to authorities which are restricted from redelegation.

2. The following subparagraph (1a) is inserted between subparagraphs (1) and (2):

(1a) Deputy Administrator. Under the general direction of the Administrator, the Deputy Administrator (who is a Vice-President of Commodity Credit Corporation), is assigned general responsibility for all activities of the Administration.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of May A. D. 1947.

In the Matter of Emmett J. Smith and Sarah Alma Maxwell, Individuals Trading as Emmett J. Smith and Daughter, Smith Baby Chix, and Emmett J. Smith and Daughter Poultry Farms

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission as amended, answer of the respondents, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence, and brief in support of the complaint (no brief having been filed by respondents or oral argument requested), and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

I. It is ordered, That the respondents, Emmett J. Smith and Sarah Alma Maxwell, individually and trading as Emmett J. Smith and Daughter, Smith Baby Chix, or Emmett J. Smith and Daughter Poultry Farms, or trading under any other trade name, and their respective representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of chickens and baby chicks or other poultry in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents are U. S. Record of Performance breeders or R. O. P. poultry breeders or that they operate a poultry plant under the supervision of an official from the agency supervising U. S. Record of Performance work.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents own, operate, or control a hatchery wherein their baby chicks are produced when in fact such chicks are procured from various hatcheries for resale by respondents to their customers.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents' baby chicks are produced from or sired by U. S. Record of Performance males unless the chicks so offered for sale have been actually sired by males which have been officially banded with U. S. R. O. P. sealed and numbered official leg bands and duly registered as such.

4. Using the term "U. S. Approved" or any other term of similar import or meaning or any other official terminology of the National Poultry Improvement Plan, to designate or describe chickens or baby chicks sold by the respondents.

II. It is further ordered, That the respondents, Emmett J. Smith and Sarah Alma Maxwell, individually and trading as Emmett J. Smith and Daughter, Smith Baby Chix, or Emmett J. Smith and Daughter Poultry Farms, or trading under any other trade name, and their respective agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of their medicinal preparation known as "Save'm" and "Va-Po-Spra," or any other preparations of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails or by any means in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents directly or by implication:

a. That respondents' preparation Save'm has any therapeutic value in the treatment of diarrhea, coccidiosis, typhoid, cholera, worms, or paralysis in poultry or that it has any therapeutic value in the treatment of blackhead in turkeys or that the use of said preparation will prevent poultry or turkeys from contracting any of said ailments or conditions.

b. That respondents' preparation Va-Po-Spra is a competent or effective treatment for bronchitis, brooder pneumonia, gapes, colds, tracheitis, roup, canker, pox, or sore head in poultry or that its use will prevent chickens and turkeys from contracting any of said ailments or conditions.

c. That respondents' preparation Va-Po-Spra will kill a sufficient number of disease germs in or about the premises used or frequented by poultry so as to afford any significant protection to poultry.

d. That the use of respondents' preparation Va-Po-Spra is effective in preventing or combating respiratory ailments in dogs or that it has any value in the treatment of distemper or pneumonia.

e. That respondents' preparation Va-Pro-Spra will be effective in preventing or combating respiratory ailments in man.

f. That respondents' preparation Va-Po-Spra constitutes a cure or remedy for colds, asthma, or hay fever or that it has any value in the treatment thereof.

g. That respondents' preparation Va-Po-Spra will be effective in relieving pain incident to burns, bee stings, insect bites, or sunburn.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act of respondents' preparations, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in subparagraph 1 of paragraph II hereof or the subdivisions thereof.

III. It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

(Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U. S. C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Energetic Worsted Corporation et al., Docket 5280, May 5, 1947]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of May A. D. 1947.

In the Matter of Energetic Worsted Corporation, a Corporation, Spinnerin Yarn Company, Inc., a Corporation, and John J. Hosey, Jr., Edna M. McManus, Dorothy H. Cassel and Edna J. Hosey, Individually and as Copartners Trading and Doing Business as Norr-Bridge Yarn Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answers of the respondents, testimony and other evidence introduced before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner and the exceptions thereto, and briefs in support of and in opposition to the complaint (oral argument not having been requested) and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondent Spinnerin Yarn Company, Inc., has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That respondent Spinnerin Yarn Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of knitting yarns in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the word "Shetland", or any simulation thereof, either alone or in connection with other words, to designate, describe, or refer to any product which is not composed entirely of wool of Shetland sheep raised on the Shetland Islands or the contiguous mainland of Scotland: Provided, however, That in the case of a product composed in part of wool of Shetland sheep and in part of other fibers or materials, such word may be used as descriptive of the Shetland wool content if there are used in immediate connection therewith, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, words truthfully describing such other constituent fibers or materials.

2. Using the word "Cashmere", or any simulation thereof, either alone or in connection with other words, to designate, describe, or refer to any product which is not composed entirely of hair of the Cashmere goat: Provided, however, That in the case of a product composed in part of hair of the Cashmere goat and in part of other fibers or materials, such word may be used as descriptive of the Cashmere fiber content if there are used in immediate connection therewith, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, words truthfully describing such other constituent fibers or materials.

3. Using the word "Saxony", or any simulation thereof, either alone or in connection with other words, to designate, describe, or refer to any product not imported from the Province of Saxony or made of wool imported from said Province: Provided, however, That in the case of a product composed in part of wool imported from Saxony and in part of other fibers or materials, such word may be used as descriptive of the content imported from Saxony if there are used in immediate connection therewith, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, words truthfully describing such other constituent fibers or materials.

4. Using the word "Astrachan", or any simulation thereof, either alone or in connection with other words, to designate, describe, or refer to any product not imported from the City of Astrachan on the Volga Basin in Russia or made of wool imported from said city: Provided, however, That in the case of a product composed in part of wool imported from Astrachan and in part of other fibers or materials, such word may be used as descriptive of the content imported from Astrachan if there are used in immediate connection therewith, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, words truthfully describing such other constituent fibers or materials.

It is further ordered, That said respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to respondent Energetic Worsted Corporation and as to respondents John J. Hosey, Jr., Edna M. McManus, Dorothy H. Cassel and Edna J. Hosey, copartners, trading as Norr-Bridge Yarn Company.

By the Commission.

DRAPER CORP.

§ 3.39 Dealing on exclusive and tying basis: § 3.45 (c) Discriminating in price—Direct discrimination—Charges and prices. In connection with the sale, or any contract for the sale, of bobbins, shuttles, or any repair and replacement parts for any looms in commerce; (1) entering into or continuing in operation or effect any contract for the sale of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for any looms, upon or containing any condition, agreement, or understanding that a purchaser shall not use or deal in bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for looms of a competitor or competitors of respondent; or (2) discriminating between purchasers of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for looms by the sale thereof at different prices or on different terms or conditions, where such different prices, terms, or conditions are based on any agreement, condition, or understanding that a purchaser shall deal exclusively with or obtain all or substantially all of his requirements of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for any looms from respondent; prohibited. (Sec. 2 (a), 49 Stat. 1526; 15 U. S. C., sec. 13 (a); sec. 3, 38 Stat. 731; 15 U. S. C., sec. 14; sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U. S. C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Draper Corporation, Docket 5436, May 5, 1947]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of May A. D. 1947.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the amended answer of the respondent, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusions of law: (1) That said respondent has violated the provisions of section 2 (a) of the act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," as amended by section 1 of any act of Congress entitled "An act to amend section 2 of the act entitled 'An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. Title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes", approved June 19, 1936; (2) that said respondent has violated the provisions of section 3 of said act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes"; and (3) that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Draper Corporation, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale, or any contract for the sale, of bobbins, shuttles, or any repair and replacement parts for any looms in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act and the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Entering into or continuing in operation or effect any contract for the sale of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for any looms, upon or containing any condition, agreement, or understanding that a purchaser shall not use or deal in bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for looms of a competitor or competitors of respondent.

2. Discriminating between purchasers of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for looms by the sale thereof at different prices or on different terms or conditions, where such different prices, terms, or conditions are based on any agreement, condition, or understanding that a purchaser shall deal exclusively with or obtain all or substantially all of his requirements of bobbins, shuttles, or repair and replacement parts for any looms from respondent.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter IV—Home Owners' Loan Corporation

[Bulletin 428]

PART 401—GENERAL

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amending Part 401, Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Sections 401.05–1, 401.05–2, 401.10–20 and 401.12–4 (b) are amended to read as follows:

§ 401.05–1 Who may order; cost limits. Credit reports may be ordered from established and approved credit agencies by the Regional Manager or Regional Counsel, or by brokers when such credit reports are permitted or required by the regulations or are necessary in the business of the Corporation. The cost of such reports shall not exceed one dollar per report, except as is otherwise provided herein. Credit agencies must be approved by the General Manager or the Regional Manager, and notice of such approval shall be filed with the Comptroller.

§ 401.05–2 Additional costs. The General Manager may authorize compensation not exceeding two dollars per report to approved credit agencies in localities where such reports can not be obtained at a lower cost, and shall file with the Comptroller and with the Auditor a schedule of fees in excess of one dollar per report which are authorized generally for any locality; and such reports may be ordered within the limits of such schedules by the officers or brokers mentioned in the preceding section.

§ 401.10–20 Charges, how paid. All charges for services obtained on Government Transportation Requests will be paid only on bills to be rendered by the carrier to the Corporation. The carbon copies of the Transportation Requests shall be attached to Standard Form No. 1012 and, upon approval of the proper authority in accordance with the instructions herein contained, shall be forwarded to the Comptroller.

§ 401.12–4 Variations in quantity. • • •

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the Regional Manager or the Secretary may certify as to receipt of, and administratively approve vouchers for, supplies, equipment, or services performed under contracts for recurring services, where such purchases and contracts have been authorized previously by the General Manager. Such vouchers shall be transmitted directly to the Comptroller.

PART 402—LOANS AND PROPERTIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amending Part 402, Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The sixth unlettered paragraph of § 402.08–3, the third paragraph of § 402.08–4, and § 402.23–1 are amended to read as follows:

§ 402.08–3 Processing advances for reconditioning under § 402.08–2 (a) • • •

When the home owner informs the Corporation of the satisfactory completion of the work and furnishes the necessary forms, properly executed, the Analysis and Real Estate Section shall prepare and process a voucher for payment of the work performed by the contractor, provided that the amount of such voucher shall not exceed the amount of the advance, assemble all papers, and transmit with Form R–18 to the Comptroller for certification and disbursement. Any unexpended portion of the advance shall be credited to the home owner's account. With the advice of the Regional Counsel, the Regional Manager may direct that the funds advanced by the Corporation be made payable to both the contractor and the home owner.

Upon completion of the reconditioning and its acceptance by the home owner and by the Corporation, and after review by the Legal Department, if required, the Analysis and Real Estate Section shall prepare the proper vouchers for payment of the work and services performed, assemble all papers and transmit with Form R–18 to the Comptroller for certification and disbursement. Any unexpended portion of the advance shall be credited to the home owner's account.

§ 402.23–1 Schedule of broker's fees. The schedule of fees or compensation to be paid to brokers for the sale, rental, and management of properties shall be fixed by the General Manager and, in in specific cases, he may direct the payment of fees in amounts in excess of, or less than, those provided in any such schedule. Approved schedules of fees shall be filed with the Comptroller and Auditor.

Chapter VIII—Office of Housing Expediter

PART 803—PRIORITIES REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946

Section 803.10 Priorities Regulation 1 (formerly §§ 944.1 through 944.20), as amended March 4, 1947, is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (f) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) The above preference ratings were generally assigned as follows:

(i) The AAA rating was assigned in emergencies under existing procedures until March 31, 1947; and the RRR rating was assigned until June 30, 1947, in extreme emergencies and where an RR rating was inadequate. Some of the AAA ratings outstanding at the end of March 1947, expired at that time under the terms of Priorities Regulation 35.

(ii) The MM rating has in the past been assigned by the Army and Navy and other military and governmental agencies in accordance with the provisions of Directive 41 and other CPA directives issued from time to time. These directives have been revoked and no additional MM ratings will be assigned in the future. Revocation of these directives did not affect the validity of any ratings which were assigned under them before their revocation. However, some of these ratings expired at the end of March 1947, under the terms of Priorities Regulation 35.

(iii) The CC rating was assigned until March 31, 1947, as described in Priorities Regulation 28; and the RR rating was assigned before or after the end of March as described in Priorities Regulation 28 and Supplement 1 of that regulation. That regulation and supplement described the limited conditions under which the CC or RR ratings were assigned. Many of the CC ratings outstanding at the end of March 1947 expired at that time under the terms of Priorities Regulation 35.

(iv) The HHH and HH ratings were assigned for housing under the rules explained in Priorities Regulation 33. These ratings were not affected in any way by Priorities Regulation 35, but Amendment 1 to Schedule A to Priorities Regulation 33, March 31, 1947, established cut-off dates with respect to the placing of HH rated orders.

PART 803—PRIORITIES REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946

CERTIFICATES AND DIRECTIVES FOR SURPLUS MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

Section 803.4 Housing Expediter Priorities Regulation 4, as amended January 27, 1947, is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (q), which provides for the issuance of Housing Expediter directives, is deleted.

2. After paragraph (x), add a new paragraph (y) to read as follows:

(y) Termination date. This section became effective September 13, 1946 to provide special assistance, in the form of Housing Expediter certificates and directives, to qualified persons in obtaining surplus government materials and equipment which were needed for the housing program. The right to apply for Housing Expediter certificates or for the renewal of such certificates was suspended effective May 1, 1947, by Amendment 1 to this section. Issuance of Housing Expediter directives is suspended by this amendment.

This section shall terminate on June 30, 1947, except that:

(1) Housing Expediter directives issued under this section prior to the date of this amendment shall continue to be valid;

(2) Outstanding Housing Expediter certificates issued under this section shall continue to be valid until they have expired; and

(3) This amendment does not affect any liabilities incurred for violations of this section or for violations of orders issued by the Housing Expediter under this section.

SALE AND REMOVAL OF SURPLUS GOVERNMENT INSTALLATIONS

Section 803.7 Housing Expediter Priorities Regulation 7 is amended in the following respect:

1. Paragraph (w) is amended to read as follows:

(w) Effective date. This section became effective February 17, 1947 to provide for the sale and removal of certain surplus government installations and the channeling of the resulting structures, materials and equipment into the housing program. This section shall terminate on June 30, 1947, except that:

(1) Structures, materials and equipment publicly advertised under this section prior to the date of this amendment for sale after that date shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Structures, materials and equipment acquired under this section shall be used or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(3) This amendment does not affect any liabilities incurred for violation of this section or for violations of orders issued by the Housing Expediter under this section.

PART 803—PRIORITIES REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946

RESTRICTED PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE

1. After paragraph (h), add a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i) Termination date. This section, as amended, became effective May 9, 1947 to provide for special assistance in the form of RR ratings for producers of certain critical building products. Issuance of RR ratings is suspended by this amendment.

This section shall terminate on June 30, 1947, except that:

(1) Outstanding RR preference ratings shall continue to be valid.

(2) Materials and equipment obtained with RR ratings shall be used if possible for the production of the specific item or items for which the assistance was granted. If it becomes impossible to use the materials and equipment in the kind of production for which the assistance was given, they may be used for the production of any of the housing items listed on Schedule A to PR-33.[1] If even this use is impossible, an appeal for relief may be made in accordance with the Appeals Order.[2]

(3) This amendment does not affect any liabilities incurred for violations of this section or for violations of orders issued by the Civilian Production Administration, Office of Temporary Controls or the Office of the Housing Expediter under this section.

PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR MERCHANT PIG IRON, FOR CAST IRON SOIL PIPE AND CAST IRON SOIL FITTINGS

Direction 25 to Priorities Regulation 28, as amended April 29, 1947, is hereby amended in the following respect:

1. After paragraph (e), add a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) Termination date. This direction, as amended, became effective April 29, 1947, to provide special assistance in the form of authorization to producers of cast iron soil pipe and fittings to place certified orders for pig iron. Issuance of such authorization is suspended by this amendment.

This direction shall terminate on June 30, 1947 except that:

(1) Outstanding certified orders shall continue to be valid;

PART 809—VETERAN'S HOUSING PROGRAM ORDERS

GENERAL RESTRICTION ON CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIRS

Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, and the supplements and directions to that order, are revoked effective June 30, 1947, simultaneously with the approval by the President of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

However, all authorizations granted under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 to do work which is covered by the Construction Limitation Regulation (issued under the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, and effective simultaneously with this revocation) remain in full force and effect. All the restrictions imposed upon persons granted such authorizations also remain in full force and effect, in accordance with § 812.1 (t) and (u) of the Construction Limitation Regulation.[1] The Construction Limitation Regulation covers construction work on "structures to be used for recreational or amusement purposes," as defined in that regulation.

This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred for violation of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 or any of its supplements or directions; or for violation of any actions taken by the Civilian Production Administration, Office of Temporary Controls, or Office of the Housing Expediter under said order, supplements, or directions.

PART 809—VETERANS' HOUSING PROGRAM ORDERS

The following orders are hereby revoked:

Veterans' Housing Program Order 3, Cast Iron Soil Pipe—Use Restriction.

Veterans' Housing Program Order 4, Production Restriction on Cast Iron Soil Pipe and Fittings.

Veterans' Housing Program Order 5, Delivery Restriction on Douglas Fir and Western Pine Shop Lumber.

This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred for violation of any of these orders or of any action taken by the Civilian Production Administration, Office of Temporary Controls or the Office of the Housing Expediter under any of these orders.

PART 813—VETERANS' PREFERENCE REGULATION UNDER HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

§ 813.1 Veterans' Preference Regulation—(a) What this section does. This section (Veterans' Preference Regulation) explains the preference given to veterans and their families by the Housing and Rent Act of 1947 in the sale or rent of housing accommodations completed between June 30, 1947 and March 31, 1948. Among other things, it determines the manner in which such housing accommodations shall be publicly offered in good faith for sale or rent to veterans and their families.

The veterans' preference requirements for housing accommodations completed on or before June 30, 1947, continue as provided in Priorities Regulation 33, Housing Expediter Priorities Regulation 5 and the Housing Permit Regulation, which ever is applicable.

NOTE: This section of the Code of Federal Regulations, § 813.1, is called the "Veterans' Preference Regulation." When the term "this section" is used in this Veterans' Preference Regulation, it means this entire regulation and not just a part of it. The regulation is divided into paragraphs marked with small letters; these are divided into subparagraphs marked with numbers.

DEFINITIONS

(b) Definitions. As used in this section:

(1) The terms "veterans of World War II or their families," "veterans or their families," and "veterans" shall mean:

(i) A person who has served in the active military or naval forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable;

(ii) The spouse of a veteran (as described in the preceding subparagraph) who died after being discharged or released from service, if the spouse is living with a child or children of the deceased veteran;

(iii) A person who is serving in the active military or naval forces of the United States requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family;

(iv) The spouse of a person who served in the active military or naval forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and who died in service, if the spouse is living with a child or children of the deceased;

(v) A citizen of the United States who served in the armed forces of an allied nation during World War II (and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable) requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family;

(vi) A person to whom the War Shipping Administration has issued a certificate of continuous service in the United States Merchant Marine who requires housing accommodations for his dependent family; and

(vii) A citizen of the United States who, as a civilian, was interned or held a prisoner of war by an enemy nation at any time during World War II, requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family.

(2) The term "person" shall include an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or a legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing.

(3) The time at which construction of housing accommodations shall be deemed to be "completed" shall be the date on which the dwelling is first suitable for occupancy and all utility and service connections have been made, except for the installation of such items and the completion of such decoration work as, in accordance with the custom of the community, are left for installation by, or to the choice of, the purchaser or the tenant.

(4) The term "housing accommodations" shall include any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property sold or offered for sale or rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes (including houses, apartments, hotels, rooming or boarding house accommodations, and other properties used for living or dwelling purposes for other than transients) together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, and facilities connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

PREFERENCE PERIODS

(c) Veterans' preference in sale of housing accommodations. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families in the sale of housing accommodations designed for a single family residence, the construction of which is completed after June 30, 1947, and prior to March 31, 1948, the folowing rules must be observed:

(1) 30-day veterans' preference period. No person shall sell, offer to sell, or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations until 30 days after construction is completed, except for occupancy by veterans or their families.

No person shall purchase such housing accommodations until 30 days after construction is completed, unless such purchase is made in good faith for occupancy, during the time that this section remains in effect, by veterans or their families.

(2) 7-day offer at a price. No person shall sell, offer for sale, or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations to a non-veteran at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have been publicly offered for at least 7 days to veterans or their families. No non-veteran shall purchase such housing accommodations at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have been publicly offered for at least 7 days to veterans or their families.

This prohibits a sale or an offer to sell to, or a purchase by, a non-veteran unless the housing accommodations were first publicly offered for sale by the seller or his agent to veterans or their families for 7 days at the same price (or a lower price) than sold or offered for sale to a non-veteran. Any reduction in price (whether during or after the 30-day veterans' preference period provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) requires a public offering exclusively to veterans for at least 7 days at the reduced price.

This subparagraph applies to all sales and offers to sell whether made by the first or subsequent owner or purchaser.

(d) Veterans' preference in renting of housing accommodations. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families in the renting of housing accommodations designed for occupancy by other than transients, the construction of which is completed after June 30, 1947, and prior to March 31, 1948, the following rules must be observed:

(1) 30-day veterans' preference period. No person shall rent, offer for rent, or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations until 30 days after construction is completed, except for occupancy by veterans or their families.

No person shall acquire such housing accommodations by rent until 30 days after construction is completed, unless such acquisition by rent is made in good faith for occupancy, during the time that this section remains in effect, by veterans or their families.

(2) 7-day offer at a price. No person shall rent, offer for rent, or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations to a non-veteran at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have been publicly offered for at least 7 days to veterans or their families. No non-veteran shall acquire such housing accommodations by rent at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have been publicly offered for at least 7 days to veterans or their families.

This prohibits a renting or offer to rent to, or an acquisition by rent by, a non-veteran unless the housing accommodations were first publicly offered for rent by the landlord or his agent to veterans or their families for 7 days at the same price (or a lower price) than rented or offered for rent to the non-veteran. Any reduction in price (whether during or after the 30-day veterans' preference period provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) requires a public offering exclusively to veterans for 7 days at the reduced price.

This subparagraph applies to all rents, offers to rent, and acquisitions by rent whether made by the first or subsequent landlord or tenant.

PUBLIC OFFERING

(e) Public offering in good faith. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families, all housing accommodations covered by paragraph (c) and (d) of this section which are intended for sale or rent, must, until sold or rented, be publicly offered in good faith, as provided in this section, for sale or rent for occupancy by veterans or their families:

(1) Period during which offer must be made. Such public offering in good faith must be made (i) for not less than 30 days (excluding period of construction) immediately following completion of construction, and (ii) for not less than 7 days after any later reduction in offering price. This applies to the first and subsequent sales and rents as long as this section remains in effect.

(2) Must give veterans reasonable opportunity. To make a public offering in good faith, the owner must take such affirmative steps as, under the circumstances, will give notice to all veterans or a reasonably large class of veterans in the community that the accommodations are available and will give them a reasonable opportunity to negotiate for them. These affirmative steps include at least those steps which are customary in the community for making a public offering of housing accommodations. The refusal of the owner to sell or rent to a particular veteran for personal reasons, which are in accordance with local law and customary real estate practices in the community, does not by itself necessarily constitute a violation of this public offering requirement. If, however, the owner refuses to sell or rent to veterans whom he does not know to be unqualified or unable to purchase or rent, and then sells or rents to a non-veteran, the owner has violated this section.

(3) Posting of placards or signs. A placard or sign must be posted in front of each housing structure, or in a conspicuous location on the site of the construction of the housing accommodations. Such placard or sign must legibly contain the rent or sales price, the fact that the housing accommodations are offered for sale or rent exclusively to veterans or their families for the prescribed period, and the name and address of the person authorized to sell or rent the housing accommodations. If the rent or sales price is reduced after the placard or sign is posted, the price on the placard or sign must be changed accordingly.

(4) Newspaper advertisement. Unless already sold or rented to veterans, all such housing accommodations must be publicly advertised exclusively to veterans or their families for at least 3 days during the first 20 days of the 30-day preference period. This advertisement shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in the community where the housing accommodations are located. The advertisement shall contain the same information as required for placards and signs in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. If a newspaper advertisement is made as provided in this subparagraph, it is not necessary to advertise again in a newspaper during any 7-day public offering period required by subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph, unless newspaper advertising is the customary method in the community of making a public offering of housing accommodations.

MISCELLANEOUS

(f) Violations and enforcement—(1) General. The veterans' preference requirements of this section shall not be evaded either directly or indirectly. It shall be unlawful for any person to effect, either as principal, broker, or agent, a sale or rent or an agreement for the sale or rent, or to solicit or attempt, offer or agree to make such sale or rent, of any housing accommodations in violation of the veterans' preference requirements of this section. It shall also be unlawful for any such person to sell or rent or agree to sell or rent such housing accommodations during the veterans' preference periods if he knows or has reason to know that the housing accommodations will not be occupied by veterans or their families, and for any purchaser or tenant to effect or agree to effect a sale or rent for the purpose of evading the veterans' preference requirements of this section.

(2) Penalties. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this section or section 4 of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, and any person who knowingly makes any statement to any department or agency of the United States, false in any material respect, shall upon conviction thereof be subject to fine or imprisonment, or both. Any such person or any other person who violates any provision of this section may be prohibited or restrained as authorized by law.

(g) Exceptions. The veterans' preference requirements set forth in this section are not applicable to:

(1) Housing accommodations which are built to replace a dwelling destroyed or damaged by fire, flood, tornado, or other similar disaster;

(2) Sales of housing accommodations in the course of judicial or statutory proceedings in connection with foreclosures;

(3) The occupancy by an owner, or his building service employee, of a dwelling unit which does not exceed in floor space (i) a normal one family unit in the structure or project, or (ii) 15 percent of the residential floor space of the structure or project.

(4) Sales of any housing accommodations to any person for investment purposes rather than for occupancy by the purchaser; but the purchaser of such housing accommodations is bound by the veterans' preference requirements in this section in renting or selling for occupancy.

(h) Appeals. Any person who considers that compliance with any provision of this section would result in a hardship on him may appeal for relief. The appeal shall be in the form of a letter in duplicate and should be filed with the Housing Expediter, Washington 25, D. C., marked "Appeal Veterans' Preference Regulation." The appeal must state clearly the specific provision of this section appealed from and describe the substantial injury which will result from compliance with the section. TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

PART 705—ADMINISTRATION

EXEMPTIONS FROM PRICE CONTROL OF CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS IN SUGAR

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947, it is ordered:

§ 705.107 Exemption from price control of certain transactions in sugar. Notwithstanding the provision of any maximum price regulation, sales, contracts, and the trading in contracts for the sale of raw cane sugars or direct consumption sugars for delivery on and after March 1, 1948, entered into between members of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, and subject to the rules of that Exchange, are exempt from price control. "Raw cane sugars" and "direct consumption sugars" mean "raw cane sugars" and "direct consumption sugars" as defined in Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 16[1] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 60,[2] respectively.

This General Order shall become effective July 1, 1947.

(Public Law 30, 80th Cong., 1st session)

Issued this 27th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture, Opinion Accompanying General Order 7

The New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, which has been closed since January 1, 1942, is planning to reopen. The Secretary has informed members of the Exchange that the Agriculture Department has no objection to the reopening of the Exchange for the purpose of permitting members of the Exchange to sell or enter into sales contracts, and trading in contracts, subject to the rules of the Exchange, providing for the delivery of sugar on or after March 1, 1948. In order to permit such trading while sugar remains subject to price control, the accompanying order is issued exempting from price control sales, contracts, and the trading in contracts for raw cane sugars or direct consumption sugars for delivery on and after March 1, 1948, when such transactions are entered into between members of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange and subject to the rules of that Exchange.

PART 707—RATIONING OF SUGAR

SUGAR

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Third Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respect:

Section 5.5 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) This section shall not apply to deliveries of sugar to be made on and after March 1, 1948, pursuant to contracts, agreements, or commitments between members of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, entered into in, and subject to the rules of, said Exchange, and providing for delivery on and after March 1, 1948.

This amendment shall become effective July 1, 1947.

Issued this 27th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Rationale Accompanying Amendment No. 58 to Third Revised Ration Order 3

The New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange which has been closed since January 1, 1942 is planning to reopen. The Secretary of Agriculture has informed members of the Exchange that the Agriculture Department has no objection to the reopening of the Exchange for the purpose of permitting members of the Exchange to sell or enter into sales contracts, and trading in contracts, subject to the rules of the Exchange, providing for the delivery of sugar on and after March 1, 1948.

With certain exceptions, the present regulations provide that a person is not permitted to deliver sugar pursuant to a contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, providing for delivery more than three days after the making thereof. Also, a person is prohibited from delivering sugar to fill any order, regardless of when received, calling for delivery more than three days after the receipt of the order.

In order to allow trading in sugar on the Exchange while rationing controls continue, this amendment provides that the general prohibition against future deliveries shall not apply to deliveries of sugar to be made on and after March 1, 1948, pursuant to contracts, agreements, or commitments entered into between members of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, subject to the rules of the Exchange, and providing for delivery on and after March 1, 1948.

AUTHORITY: §§ 321.0 to 321.19, inclusive, issued under 58 Stat. 889, as amended by sec. 4, Pub. Law 526, 79th Cong.; 16 U. S. C. Sup. 460d.

§ 321.0 Determination of the Secretary. The Secretary of War, having determined that use of Lake Texoma and Denison Reservoir area by the general public for boating, swimming, bathing, fishing, and other recreational purposes will not be contrary to the public interest and will not be inconsistent with the operation and maintenance of the reservoir for its primary purposes, thereby prescribes the following rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of an act of Congress approved December 22, 1944 (58 Stat. 889; 16 U. S. C. 460d) as amended by section 4 of the Flood Control Act of 1946 (Public Law 526, 79th Congress) for the public use of Lake Texoma and the Denison Reservoir areas.

§ 321.1 Areas administered by other Federal agencies. The War Department has basic administrative jurisdiction over the entire Denison Dam and Reservoir Project area; however, arrangements have been made with other Federal agencies whereby those agencies are responsible for managing certain areas in the project area as follows:

(a) National Park Service Area. In accordance with a cooperative agreement between the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, and the Chief of Engineers, War Department, approved April 18, 1946, the National Park Service is responsible for and controls all recreational activities to be conducted in the National Park Service Area which includes all the Denison Dam and Reservoir Project area with the exception of the Tishomingo and Hagerman Wildlife Refuge, the Cumberland Oil Field, areas licensed to the States of Texas and Oklahoma, and the area in the immediate vicinity of the Denison Dam. The National Park Service, in accordance with that agreement, is also responsible for the issuance of leases, licenses, permits or other instruments regarding the occupation of lands in the National Park Service area, except such occupation as is necessary in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Denison Dam and Reservoir for its primary purposes, and that Service is authorized to make and enforce such rules and regulations in addition to regulations in this part as may be necessary for the safety and health of the using public and as may be necessary for the conservation of any historic or archeological remains, and for control of all archeological excavation and historic or archeological research within the National Park Service Area.

(b) Tishomingo and Hagerman National Wildlife Refuges. Approximately 13,450 acres of land and water areas on the Washita River arm of the Denison Reservoir in Oklahoma and approximately 12,650 acres on the Mineral Creek arm of the reservoir in Texas are reserved for the use of the Department of the Interior as the Tishomingo and Hagerman National Wildlife Refuges in accordance with Public Land Orders 312 and 314. These land orders are published under Title 43—Public Lands: Interior, Chapter I—General Land Office, of the Code of Federal Regulations. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, is administering and developing these refuge areas in accordance with laws and regulations governing national wildlife refuges. Use of these areas by the general public for recreation is subject to the prior requirements in administering and developing the areas as wildlife refuges.

§ 321.2 Definition of enforcement areas. The functions, responsibilities, and duties, as contemplated by the regulations in this part, to be exercised within the area by either the National Park Service or the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, shall be performed (a) by the National Park Service within the National Park Service areas as defined in § 321.1 (a), and (b) by the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, within the remainder of Lake Texoma and the Denison Reservoir area.

§ 321.3 Boats, commercial. No boat, barge or other vessel shall be placed upon or operated upon any water of Lake Texoma for a fee or profit, either as a direct charge to a second party or as incident to other services provided to the second part, except as specifically authorized by lease, license, concession contract, or other written agreement with either the National Park Service or the Corps of Engineers on behalf of the United States.

§ 321.4 Boats, private. (a) The operation of boats on Lake Texoma for fishing and recreational use is permitted except in prohibited areas designated by the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, in charge of the area, or the National Park Service.

(b) No privately-owned boat, raft, shooting blind, or other floating structure shall be placed or operated on the waters of Lake Texoma without a permit from the National Park Service.

§ 321.5 Houseboats. No houseboat shall be placed or maintained upon the waters of Lake Texoma, nor may any boat be used for permanent living accommodations. In the case of a boat having a paid crew, a member or members of the crew may be permitted to live aboard if necessary for the care and operation of the boat.

§ 321.6 Swimming and bathing. Swimming and bathing are permitted except in prohibited areas. Swimming and bathing near the regularly travelled thoroughfares without proper bathing clothes is prohibited.

§ 321.7 Fishing. Fishing is permitted in accordance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, except in prohibited areas designated by the District Engineer or the National Park Service.

§ 321.8 Hunting. (a) Hunting is permitted in accordance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations except in prohibited areas designated by the District Engineer or the National Park Service.

(b) Hunting shall be with shotgun only.

§ 321.9 Camping. Camping is permitted only at areas designated by the National Park Service in accordance with additional rules governing the use of the individual camp areas.

§ 321.10 Picnicking. Picnicking is permitted except in prohibited areas designated by the District Engineer or the National Park Service.

§ 321.11 Access to water areas. (a) Pedestrian access is permitted along the shores of the lake except in areas designated by the District Engineer or the National Park Service.

(b) Automobile access is permitted only over open public and reservoir roads.

§ 321.12 Destruction of public property. The destruction, injury, defacement, or removal of public property or of vegetation, rock, minerals, or relics, except as specifically authorized, is prohibited.

§ 321.13 Firearms and explosives. Loaded rifles, loaded pistols and explosives of any kind are prohibited in the area, except when in the possession of a law enforcement officer on official duty or specifically authorized. Loaded shotguns are also prohibited in the area except during the hunting season, when in the possession of a law enforcement officer on official duty, or when specifically authorized.

§ 321.14 Gasoline and oil storage. Gasoline and other inflammable or combustible liquids shall not be stored in, upon, or about the lake or shores thereof without written permission.

§ 321.15 Sanitation. Refuse, garbage, rubbish or waste of any kind shall not be thrown on or along roads, picnicking or camping areas, in the reservoir waters or on any of the lands around the reservoir, but shall be burned or buried, or disposed of at designated points or places designed for the sanitary disposal thereof.

§ 321.16 Fires. Due diligence shall be exercised in building and putting out fires to prevent damage to trees and vegetation and to prevent forest and grass fires. In areas provided with such facilities, the fireplaces constructed for the convenience of visitors must be used. The building of fires on any lands within the reservoir area may be prohibited or limited when the hazard makes such action necessary.

§ 321.17 Advertisements. Private notices and advertisements shall not be posted, distributed, or displayed in the reservoir area except such as the District Engineer or his authorized representative, or the National Park Service, may deem necessary for the convenience and guidance of the public using the area for recreational purposes.

§ 321.18 Unauthorized solicitations and business activities. No person, firm or corporation, or their representatives, shall engage in or solicit any business on the reservoir area without permission in writing from the District Engineer, National Park Service, or in accordance with terms of a lease, license, or concession contract with the United States.

§ 321.19 Commercial operations. All commercial operations or activities on the waters of the reservoir or on the lands under the control of the War Department around the reservoir shall be in accordance with lease, license, concession contract or other written agreements with the United States.

Subchapter B—Carriers by Motor Vehicle

PART 166—IDENTIFICATION OF VEHICLES

DISPLAY OF IDENTIFICATION PLATES BY MOTOR CARRIERS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that the Commission, Division 5, by order of March 21, 1947 (12 F. R. 2203), instituted an investigation, designated Ex Parte No. MC-41, for the purpose of revising rules and regulations prescribed by the said Division by unnumbered order of May 7, 1937 (49 CFR, Cum. Supp. 166.1-6), as modified by order of the said Division of September 30, 1943 (49 CFR, 1943 Supp., 166.11), in Emergency Order No. M-4, respecting identification of motor vehicles;

It further appearing, that recommendations have been received and conferences conducted on the need for said revision and without public hearing such need has been shown to exist; It is ordered, that:

Sec.
166.1 Vehicles subject to regulations.
166.2 Method of identification.
166.3 Size, shape, and color.
166.4 Vehicles in driveaway service.
166.5 Use of identification plates prohibited.

AUTHORITY: §§ 166.1 to 166.5, inclusive, issued under 49 Stat. 546, 566; 52 Stat. 1237, 1240; 54 Stat. 921; 56 Stat. 176; 49 U. S. C. 304, 324.

§ 166.1 Vehicles subject to regulations. Every for-hire motor carrier operating under authority granted pursuant to the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U. S. C., 1 et seq.) shall observe the rules and regulations prescribed in this part respecting each motor vehicle operating under such authority.

§ 166.2 Method of identification. There shall be displayed on both sides of each vehicle operated under its own power, either alone or in combination, except as otherwise provided in this part respecting vehicles in driveaway service, the name or trade name, of the motor carrier under whose authority the vehicle or vehicles is or are being operated, and the certificate, permit, or docket number assigned to such operating authority by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Such certificate, permit, or docket number, or numbers, shall be in the following form: "I. C. C. ----------", but shall not include any sub numbers which may have been assigned. If the name of any persons other than the operating carrier appears on the vehicle operated under its own power, either alone or in combination, the name of the operating carrier shall be followed by the information required above, and be preceded by the words, "Operated by". Nothing in the regulations in this part shall prohibit display of such additional identification as is not inconsistent herewith.

§ 166.4 Vehicles in driveaway service. If a removable device is used on vehicles in driveaway service it either may be affixed on both sides, or, at the rear of the singly driven vehicle. In the case of a combination driveaway operation the removable device may be affixed on both sides of any one of the units comprising the combination, or at the rear of the rearmost unit of the combination.

§ 166.5 Use of identification plates prohibited. On and after September 1, 1947, identification plates theretofore issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission shall not be displayed on any motor vehicle operating under authority of that Commission, or otherwise.

It is further ordered, that the said orders of May 7, 1937, and September 30, 1943 (49 CFR 166), be, and they are hereby, vacated effective September 1, 1947, and the current order also shall become effective that date.

And it is further ordered, that a copy of this order be served upon all for-hire motor carriers and that notice hereof be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 5.

[7 CFR, Part 51]

U. S. STANDARDS FOR RAW WHITE SPANISH PEANUT KERNELS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of the United States Standards for Raw White Spanish Peanut Kernels, pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., approved June 22, 1946), and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., Approved August 14, 1946). These standards will supersede the United States Standards for Shelled White Spanish Peanuts that have been in effect since September 1, 1939.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.319 Raw White Spanish Peanut Kernels—(a) Grades. (1) U. S. No. 1 shall consist of White Spanish peanut kernels which are not noticeably or badly discolored, or damaged, and which are free from foreign material. The kernels shall be whole and shall not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use, having $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(a) 1.0 percent for kernels of other varieties.

(b) 1.25 percent for kernels with noticeably or badly discolored skins but which are otherwise undamaged: Provided, That not more than one-fifth of this amount, or 0.25 percent of the kernels may have badly discolored skins.

(c) 0.75 percent for damaged kernels, damaged portions of kernels, and kernels in the shell.

(d) 0.1 percent for foreign material.

(e) 2.0 percent for split or broken kernels.

(f) 2.0 percent for whole kernels which are not damaged but which will pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{11}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots.

(2) U. S. No. 2 shall consist of White Spanish peanut kernels which are not damaged, and which are free from foreign material. The kernels may be whole, split or otherwise broken, but shall not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{17}/_{64}$ inch round openings.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(a) 1.0 percent for other varieties of peanut kernels.

(b) 2.5 percent for damaged kernels, damaged portions of kernels, and kernels in the shell.

(c) 0.25 percent for foreign material.

(d) 6.0 percent for kernels or portions of kernels which are not damaged but which will pass through a screen of the type customarily in use, having $^{17}/_{64}$ inch round openings.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Noticeably discolored" means that more than one-fourth of the skin of the kernel is affected by a medium blue, medium gray, or dark brown discoloration or staining. A kernel having a darker shade of discoloration on a lesser area which affects the appearance to as great an extent as the discoloration described above shall also be considered noticeably discolored.

(2) "Badly discolored" means that more than one-half of the skin of the kernel is affected by a dark blue, dark gray, or blackish-brown discoloration or staining. A kernel having a darker shade of discoloration on a lesser area, which affects the appearance to as great an extent as the discoloration described above shall also be considered badly discolored.

(3) "Damaged" means that the kernel is affected as follows:

(i) Rancid or decayed to an extent visible externally.

(ii) Moldy.

(iii) Very soft and spongy.

(iv) Sprouted, with sprout extending more than one-eighth inch from the end of the kernel.

(v) Distinctly dirty.

(vi) Wormy, or has worm frame adhering, or has worm cuts which are more than superficial.

(vii) Defective in any way to the extent that its edible or keeping quality is materially affected.

(4) "Foreign material" means any substance other than peanut kernels or portions of kernels. Empty hulls shall be classed as foreign material.

(5) "Whole" means that the halves of the kernel are not completely separated, and that not more than one-fourth of the kernel has been broken off.

(6) "Slots" are holes which are rectangular in shape except that the corners are slightly rounded.

(7) "Split" means the separated half of the kernel.

Issued this 27th day of June 1947.

STANDARDS FOR RAW RUNNER PEANUT KERNELS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of the United States Standards for Raw Runner Peanut Kernels pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., approved June 22, 1946), and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., approved August 14, 1946). These standards will supersede the United States Standards for Shelled Runner Peanuts that have been in effect since September 3, 1946.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.320 Raw Runner peanut kernels—(a) Grades. (1) U. S. No. 1 shall consist of Runner peanut kernels which are not damaged and which are free from foreign material. The kernels shall be whole and shall not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(a) 1.0 percent for kernels of other varieties.

(b) 2.5 percent for damaged kernels, damaged portions of kernels, and kernels in the shell.

(c) 0.1 percent for foreign material.

(d) 3.0 percent for split or broken kernels.

(e) 2.0 percent for whole kernels which are not damaged but which will pass through a screen having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots.

(2) U. S. No. 2 shall consist of Runner peanut kernels which are not damaged and which are free from foreign material. The kernels may be whole, split or otherwise broken but shall not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{15}/_{64}$ inch round openings.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(a) 1.0 percent for kernels of other varieties.

(b) 2.5 percent for damaged kernels, damaged portions of kernels, and kernels in the shell.

(c) 0.25 percent for foreign material.

(d) 6.0 percent for kernels or portions of kernels which are not damaged but which will pass through a screen having $^{15}/_{64}$ inch round openings.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Damaged" means that the kernel is affected as follows:

(i) Rancid or decayed.

(ii) Moldy.

(iii) Very soft and spongy.

(iv) Sprouted, with sprout extending more than one-eighth inch from the end of the kernel.

(v) Distinctly dirty.

(vi) Wormy, or has worm frass adhering, or has worm cuts which are more than superficial.

(vii) Defective in any way to the extent that its edible or keeping quality is materially affected.

(2) "Foreign material" means any substance other than peanut kernels or portions of kernels. Empty hulls shall be classed as foreign material.

(3) "Whole" means that the halves of the kernel are not completely separated, and that not more than one-fourth of the kernel has been broken off.

(4) "Slots" are holes which are rectangular in shape except that the corners are slightly rounded.

(5) "Split" means the separated half of the peanut kernel.

U. S. STANDARDS FOR FARMERS' STOCK RUNNER PEANUTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of the United States Standards for Farmers' Stock Runner Peanuts pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., approved June 22, 1946) and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., approved August 14, 1946). These standards will supersede the United States Standards for Farmers' Stock Runner Peanuts that have been in effect since September 1, 1931.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.321 Farmers' Stock Runner Peanuts—(a) General. Farmers' Stock Peanuts often contain varying amounts of loose shelled kernels and foreign material. Such kernels and material are objectionable, and in making inspections, their weight shall be included in the total weight of the sample. Loose kernels shall not be included with the kernels obtained from shelling the sample in determining the percentage of kernels in the sample. All calculations of percentages shall be made on the basis of the total weight of the sample.

(b) Grades. (1) U. S. No. 1 shall consist of Runner peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 65 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided,

That for each percent above 65 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 3 percent in U. S. No. 1.

(2) U. S. No. 2 shall consist of Runner peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 60 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided, That for each percent above 60 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 5 percent in U. S. No. 2.

(3) U. S. No. 3 shall consist of Runner peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 55 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided, That for each percent above 55 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 6 percent in U. S. No. 3.

(c) Unclassified shall consist of Runner peanuts in the shell which fail to meet the requirements of any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(d) Explanatory table showing kernel requirements of U. S. standards:

The percentages below apply only to kernels which will not pass through a screen having $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots. All percentages are based on the total weight of the sample

Grade	Tolerance for other varieties	Kernels free from damage	Tolerance for damaged kernels
	Percent		Percent
U. S. No. 1	1	65 percent	2
		66 percent or more	3
U. S. No. 2	1	60 percent	2
		61 percent	3
		62 percent	4
		63 percent or more	5
U. S. No. 3	1	55 percent	2
		56 percent	3
		57 percent	4
		58 percent	5
		59 percent or more	6

(e) Definitions. (1) "Slots" are holes which are rectangular in shape except that the corners are slightly rounded.

(2) "Sample" means the total quantity of peanuts taken for the determination of grade, including loose shelled kernels and foreign material.

(3) "Foreign material" means any substance other than peanuts in the shell, loose kernels or portions of kernels.

(4) "Damaged" means that the peanut kernel is affected as follows:

(i) Rancid or decayed.

(ii) Moldy.

(iii) Very soft and spongy.

(iv) Sprouted, with sprout extending more than one-eighth inch from the end of the kernel.

(v) Distinctly dirty.

(vi) Wormy, or has worm frass adhering, or has worm cuts which are more than superficial.

(vii) Defective in any way, to the extent that its edible or keeping quality is materially affected.

Issued this 27th day of June 1947.

U. S. STANDARDS FOR FARMERS' STOCK WHITE SPANISH PEANUTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of the United States Standards for Farmers' Stock White Spanish Peanuts pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., approved June 22, 1946), and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., approved August 14, 1946). These standards will supersede the United States Standards for Farmers' Stock White Spanish Peanuts that have been in effect since October 11, 1926.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.322 Farmers' Stock White Spanish Peanuts—(a) General. Farmers' Stock peanuts often contain varying amounts of loose shelled kernels and foreign material. Such kernels and material are objectionable, and in making inspections, their weight shall be included in the total weight of the sample. Loose kernels shall not be included with the kernels obtained from shelling the sample in determining the percentage of kernels in the sample. All calculations of percetanges shall be made on the basis of the total weight of the sample.

(b) Grades. (1) U. S. No. 1 shall consist of White Spanish peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 70 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided, That for each percent above 70 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 3 percent in U. S. No. 1.

(2) U. S. No. 2 shall consist of White Spanish peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 65 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided, That for each percent above 65 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 5 percent in U. S. No. 2.

(3) U. S. No. 3 shall consist of White Spanish peanuts in the shell which are mature and dry. When shelled, the kernels which will not pass through a screen of the type customarily in use having $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots shall meet the following requirements:

(i) Not less than 60 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are free from damage.

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of the sample may consist of kernels of other varieties.

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of the sample shall consist of kernels which are damaged: Provided, That for each percent above 60 percent of the kernels which are free from damage there may be an equal percentage above 2 percent of damaged kernels, but in no case shall the damaged kernels exceed 6 percent in U. S. No. 3.

(c) Unclassified shall consist of White Spanish peanuts in the shell which fail to meet the requirements of any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards, but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(d) Explanatory table showing kernel requirements for U. S. standards:

The percentages below apply only to kernels which will not pass through a screen having $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch slots. All percentages are based on the total weight of the sample

(e) Definitions. (1) "Slots" are holes which are rectangular in shape except that the corners are slightly rounded.

(2) "Sample" means the total quantity of peanuts taken for the determination of grade, including loose shelled kernels and foreign material.

(3) "Foreign material" means any substance other than peanuts in the shell, loose kernels or portions of kernels.

(4) "Damaged" means that the peanut kernel is affected as follows:

(i) Rancid or decayed.

(ii) Moldy.

(iii) Very soft and spongy.

(iv) Sprouted, with sprout extending more than one-eighth inch from the end of the kernel.

(v) Distinctly dirty.

(vi) Wormy, or has worm frass adhering, or has worm cuts which are more than superficial.

(vii) Discolored, with more than one-fourth of the skin of the kernel affected by a medium blue, medium gray or dark brown discoloration or staining. Darker shades of discoloration on lesser areas, which affect the appearance to as great an extent as the discoloration described above shall also be considered damage.

(viii) Defective in any way, to the extent that its edible or keeping quality is materially affected.

HANDLING OF MILK IN QUAD CITIES MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 7737; 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held at Rock Island, Illinois, on February 27, 1947, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area. The hearing, on the basis of which the proposed amendments hereinafter set forth have been formulated, was held pursuant to notice issued on February 19, 1947 (12 F. R. 1246).

A notice of a recommended decision and opportunity to file exceptions thereto was issued by the Assistant Administrator on May 21, 1947 (12 F. R. 3350).

The only material issue presented on the record of the hearing involved the sales of Class I and Class II milk in the marketing area by persons who are handlers under other milk marketing orders issued pursuant to the act.

Findings and conclusions. Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at such hearing it is hereby found and concluded that:

(1) Class I milk and Class II milk are being sold in the marketing area by a person who is a handler under another Federal milk marketing order issued pursuant to the act. This person is able to purchase such milk at minimum prices under the other Federal order of from 20 cents to 40 cents per hundredweight (approximately $^{1}/_{2}$ cent to 1 cent per quart) less than the minimum prices fixed by the Quad Cities order. Thus the handler subject to the other Federal order is able to market milk in the marketing area at a competitive advantage over handlers subject to the Quad Cities marketing order, and this situation constitutes a serious threat to the orderly marketing of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area.

(2) In order to place all handlers who market milk in the marketing area on a more equitable competitive basis with respect to the cost of milk, the Quad Cities order, as amended, should be further amended to provide that the order shall not apply to any handler who, as determined by the Secretary, disposes of the greater portion of his milk as Class I and Class II milk in another marketing area regulated by another Federal milk marketing order, except to the extent that (a) such handler shall file, with the market administrator of the Quad Cities area, such reports with respect to his total receipts and utilization of milk as the market administrator may require, and allow verification of those reports; and (b) if the price which such handler is required to pay under the other Federal order for milk which would be classified as Class I or Class II milk under the Quad Cities order is less than the price of such milk under the Quad Cities order, such handler shall pay into the producer-settlement fund under the Quad Cities order (with respect to all milk disposed of by him as Class I or Class II milk in the Quad Cities market) an amount equal to the difference.

(3) The proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(4) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, upon which a hearing has been held.

(5) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8c of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supply of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Rulings on requested findings and conclusions. No requested findings or conclusions have been submitted and no exceptions were filed to the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator.

Marketing agreement and order relative to handling. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area," and "Order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

Neither of these documents shall become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure have been met.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C. this 26th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Quad Cities Marketing Area

§ 944.0 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq.; 10 F. R. 11701;

11 F. R. 7737; 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof it is hereby found that:

(a) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supply of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

The foregoing findings are supplementary to and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments hereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

It is hereby ordered, That such handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Amend § 944.6 by adding at the end thereof the following:

(e) Handlers subject to other Federal orders. In the case of any handler, who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I and Class II milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this order shall not apply except as follows:

(1) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts and utilization of milk, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator in accordance with the provisions of § 944.5 (e);

(2) If the price which such handler is required to pay under the other Federal order to which he is subject for milk which would be classified as Class I or Class II milk under this order is less than the price provided pursuant to §§ 944.4 (a) (1) and (2) and 944.4 (c), such handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer settlement fund (with respect to all milk disposed of as Class I milk or Class II milk within this marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such milk as computed pursuant to §§ 944.4 (a) (1) and (2) and 9.44.4 (c) and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

NOTE: This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure have been met.

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE PHILADELPHIA, PA., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq., 10 F. R. 11791, 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a marketing agreement and an amendment to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.). Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the seventh day after publication of this report in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. On March 24, 1947, a hearing was announced to be held at Philadelphia beginning April 9, 1947, to consider amendments to Order No. 61. The hearing which lasted three days was conducted jointly with the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission. Conferences have been held with the Commission to discuss conclusions which would facilitate the issuance of orders for Philadelphia and for the adjacent territory by the Commission and the amendment of Order No. 61 so that regulation by the two authorities in this territory would operate concurrently to the maximum benefit of the industry and the public.

Findings and conclusions—1. Class I price. Both producers and handlers expressed strong opinions with regard to the need for maintaining differentials between prices paid for milk in the flush season and prices paid for milk during the short season which would encourage farmers to deliver a greater proportion of their annual production in the short season and thus reduce the necessity for the procurement of milk during the fall months from sources as far away as Minnesota. Producers, as defined in the order, failed to supply the total Class I sales of handlers in the market during any short production season since 1943.

In 1947 a start was made in the Philadelphia milk shed on a program of encouraging the production of more milk in the fall months. The record indicated prices and rates paid for feed, labor, and farm machinery are higher than last year. These factors indicate that the program to encourage more fall production may be seriously hampered unless producers are assured of absolute floor prices for the rest of 1947.

The uncertainty of economic conditions in the fall and winter requires a safeguard in addition to minimum floor prices on Class I milk. Some provision for maintaining the Class I price on a level equivalent to that in competing markets should be adopted.

The New York market takes from equal to the quantity taken by Philadelphia, and is approximately three times as large. It is by far the strongest competitor of Philadelphia for milk supply. The Philadelphia Class I price should be adjusted to correspond with the New York price in a representative competitive area. The 51–60 mile zone represents the radius of the area within which one-half of the Philadelphia producer milk supply is received. That zone falls within Lancester County in which two plants regulated by an order of the Secretary regulating the handling of milk in the New York Metropolitan marketing area and three plants regulated by Order No. 61 are located.

The recommended amendment to the New York Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, June 14 (12 F. R. 3838), produces for the third quarter of 1947, a price of $4.695 for Class 1–A milk of 3.7 percent butterfat content, delivered at plants in the 141–150 mile zone from New York, the zone applicable under that order to plants in Lancaster County. Plants in Lancaster County supplying Philadelphia are located 51–60 miles from Philadelphia. The record shows 3.7 percent to be the approximate butterfat content of the largest volume item of Class I, Grade "B" milk, and it is also about the average test of all Class I products taken together. With a butterfat differential of six cents for each 1/10 percent discussed below, and the 33 cent differential applicable to that zone, the equivalent Class I price for 4 percent milk, f. o. b. Philadelphia, is $5.205 per hundredweight.

A survey of farmer's opinion indicated that they believe there is about one dollar per hundredweight difference between the cost of producing milk in the spring and in the fall and winter. Both producers and handlers suggested that a Class I difference of 80 cents to $1.00 would bring about the necessary fall production. A variation of 80 cents plus at least 20 cents difference in the blend which can be expected because of smaller utilization of milk in the lower value Class II use during the fall season, will reflect the $1.00 difference farmers believe is needed. The 40-cent increase for the last quarter should be assured by floor prices.

Producers and handlers contended that the direct dependence on the butter price for the preceding month in determining the Class I price should be deleted entirely from the order and fixed prices substituted for it. Exact levels of prices cannot be determined from this record for nine months to a year in advance. The recommended amendment to the New York Order provides for changes in the New York prices above the floor levels for the rest of 1947 and provides a method of determining the price in 1948. Therefore, in the event the Secretary is unable to hold a hearing and take action thereon for appropriate change in Class I prices in Order No. 61, the amendment should provide for the changes in the Class I price for Philadelphia consistent with changes that may occur under the New York Order. The Class I price in Philadelphia will thus be maintained at the same level as prices established for Class I–A milk sold in the New York marketing area and for Class I–B milk sold by New York handlers in Philadelphia.

Producers argued in a brief that the Class I price should be established at a level not less than parity. They maintained that the act requires such a finding. This requested finding is not made. Section 8c (18) of the act provides that in the case of milk and its products "parity" may be disregarded if it is found to be not reasonable in view of the other factors specified in the section. The seasonal supply and demand conditions in the Philadelphia market are such that a flat Class I price at the parity level will not produce the most desirable seasonal production pattern required to insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest. The record shows that prices under Order 61 should be governed by the standards of section 8c (18) of the act rather than by section 2 of the act. Moreover, even under section 2 parity need not be reached in all cases. Section 2 (2) of the act specifically provides that parity is to be approached with due regard for the protection of the consumer and the public interest.

Producers and several handlers urged the use of a precise cost of production figure for determining the Class I price. Producers relied to considerable extent on evidence of cost of producing milk as indicated by a survey of reported costs obtained from farmers in the Philadelphia milkshed. A comparison of the costs revealed by the survey with the actual prices and subsidies paid farmers during the survey period indicates that costs for the period were in excess of prices plus subsidies received. However, during the period, production per day per farm was 3 percent over the 12 months just preceding the survey. This increasing production when prices were below reported costs suggests that there is some upward bias in the costs reported or the cost price relationship was not the most important factor affecting the supply of milk in that period.

2. Class II price. Issues related to the Class II price arise out of proposals (a) to insert an additional ten cents per hundredweight in the butter formula minimum which would be used in case of inordinately low cream prices; (b) for a so-called "distress milk" provision; and (c) to change the milk powder quotation basis for the skim milk value in Class II.

(a) The function of the alternative method is to provide a floor in the butterfat value of Class II milk based upon the value of butterfat in butter. The addition of ten cents to the existing formula, as proposed, reflects the additional cost of shipping cream from midwest points instead of butter. Historically, there is a close relationship between the movement of cream and butter prices so that the alternative method for computing butterfat value of Class II milk would not come into operation unless erratic cream price movements distorted the historical butter-cream price relationship. Such a situation could occur at any time when the receipts of cream are not large and individual operations could unduly affect cream prices. These considerations were present and recited in the report which preceded the amendment effective September 1, 1945, and apply as well to the Class II–D price in the New York Order which would be identical in effect with the Class II price in Order No. 61. This change corrects an inadvertent omission in the September 1, 1945, amendment and should be adopted.

(b) The Class II price recognizes the average value of milk utilized in Class II. Since the present Class II price recognizes that a certain percentage of the Class II milk is disposed of in uses below as well as above the average value, it is concluded that determination of a lower price for milk used in products yielding a low return to the handler should be made in conjunction with a determination of the Class II price at a higher level if these low uses were removed from the application of the Class II price. The evidence in this record is not sufficient to support such a revision of the Class II price structure.

The proposed amendments could not be made effective before the end of the current flush production season and adequate time is available to resolve the whole issue through hearing procedure prior to the next flush production season.

(c) No change in the present skim milk portion of the Class II formula should be made at this time. Witnesses indicated that the price should be maintained in its present relationship to prices established under the New York Order. The change from Producer Price Current quotations to United States Department of Agriculture reported prices would have little effect on the resultant price, and both the New York Order and the orders of the Pennsylvania Milk Commission now use quotations from Producer Price Current.

3. Butterfat differential for Class I milk. The fluctuating butterfat differential on Class I milk has made it difficult to compare prices in the Philadelphia market with prices established under the order regulating the handling of milk in the New York market and with prices established by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission for other markets in Pennsylvania. Since the milksheds for Philadelphia, New York, and other Pennsylvania markets overlap so completely, it is important that price comparisons be obvious. The New York market and these other Pennsylvania markets now operate on fixed differentials applied to the Class I prices. A flat differential of 6 cents per 1/10 of one percent variation in butterfat content will permit ready comparisons even though the differential is not as low as in these other markets.

Although a proposal was made that the differential be fixed at the rate of 1.5 percent of the Class I price, the proponents indicated that the differential should at no time exceed 6 cents, and at present price levels a 6-cent differential would result in the correct relationship between fat and solids-not-fat in Class I milk. The 6-cent maximum which was recommended would apply in all instances at the price levels recommended herein.

The difference between the differentials in other markets and the 6-cent differential recommended for Philadelphia has been considered in determining the basic Class I price.

4. Optional differentials for plants located 11 miles or more from City Hall. The order recognizes the existence of a number of plants located various distances from the center of the city of Philadelphia. For plants within a radius of 11 to 31 miles from City Hall, allowances are established by 5 mile distance zones to offset the difference in hauling rates on shorter hauls from farm to receiving plant. The current hauling charges do not decrease in direct progression with the distance of the receiving plant from the center of the city as the graduated series of deductions presupposes. Moreover, for a considerable length of time, the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission has had in effect a producer Class I price for its Area I–A, the immediate adjacent suburban territory, fifteen cents per hundredweight less than the price which it had set for its Area I.

As a result of the modification of the marketing area recommended herein, certain plants which have been regulated by Order No. 61 would come under the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission in its Area I–A and would be required to pay the prices established by the Commission which recognizes a 15-cent price difference between the Philadelphia area and the suburban area.

It is concluded that more uniform prices should be established in the suburban area. The graduated deduction permitted for these plants on all milk on an optional basis should be replaced by an allowance on Class I milk of 12 cents per hundredweight in the paragraph which deals with regular class differentials. This would equal approximately the same total deductions as the graduated deductions on all milk have hitherto provided.

(Paragraph (e) of § 961.8 should be deleted entirely including the three-cent deduction per hundredweight permitted at plants 31 miles or more from City Hall. The optional three-cent deduction was intended to compensate handlers for the operation of certain small volume plants which might otherwise have to close and leave producers without a market. Handlers testified that it had been used instead at various plants irrespective of volume according to the competition for supplies of milk in the area where the plant was located. The optional feature of deductions tends to vary the uniformity of payments to producers depending upon the bargaining power of such producers. An optional differential for this purpose does not tend to effectuate the declared purpose of the act.

5. Class I milk sold outside the marketing area. Four different proponents suggested adopting as the prices to be paid producers for Class I milk sold outside the marketing area in areas regulated by a state, the prices prescribed by the state for that area. The record indicates the great difficulty of adapting to the pricing and differentials in Order No. 61, various prices issued by state authorities. The market administrator ascertained as prevailing prices, the minimum prices prescribed by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission, only when such prices were ceiling prices prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

The adoption of the suggested language would not meet the problem of the prevailing cost of milk acquired from without the boundaries of the state but sold in competition with milk acquired by dealers within the state.

The evidence indicates that the Philadelphia and New York markets dominate the Philadelphia milkshed. The prices recommended herein for Class I will keep the prices for each of these markets in close alignment. Since these markets are so important in the region the prices established by Order No. 61 should be representative of the prices in the region. The prices established for Class I milk sold outside the marketing area should be the same as for Class I milk sold in the area. There is no present need for the section.

It is accordingly concluded that § 961.4 (d) should be deleted. The proposal to distinguish between sales from wholesale routes and sales from retail routes in determining out-of-area Class I sales is of no significance if all Class I sales are priced at the area price.

6. Butterfat differential to producers. Wide disparity between the butterfat differential prescribed in payments to producers and the butterfat differential applied to the Class I and Class II prices, has existed in recent months. The producer butterfat differential should be increased to 6 cents in line with the current higher values of milk and butterfat.

7. The Marketing area. A proposal to eliminate from the marketing area that portion of Delaware County lying south and west of Darby Creek has been raised in previous hearings without affirmative action thereon. This southwestern part of Delaware County includes rural territory as contrasted to communities where a distributor of milk would find himself in the marketing area on one side of a street and out of it on the opposite side of the street.

The population of metropolitan Philadelphia and its milk demands, so far outweigh this suburban territory as to influence completely the prices paid farmers for milk by outlying handlers and obviate the necessity for continuing the area beyond a well defined and visible line in Delaware County. Moreover, such outlying handlers will not be free of price regulation since the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission has issued an order for this area.

It is concluded that that part of Delaware County lying south and west of Darby Creek should be excluded from the marketing area.

8. Definition of producer plant. The farmers to whom minimum prices are required to be paid under Order No. 61 are designated by the definition of "producer" and "producer milk plant." By amendment effective September 1, 1945, certain plants of handlers were listed by name as producer plants. In addition, any other plant which shipped milk to a pasteurizing and bottling plant in the marketing area on twenty days or more was defined as a producer plant. Since this original listing plants have changed ownership, additional plants have been acquired, and some have been withdrawn as producer plants by handlers in the manner prescribed by the order.

The list of plants should be revised to show the changes in ownership and to include those plants which have been operated continuously as producer plants especially during the short production season. An essential test for the inclusion of any plant in a handler's pool during the flush season of the year is the extent to which that plant was drawn upon for milk during the previous short season and whether the milk was priced as producer milk during that period. The definition of producer milk should be changed to permit those plants which shipped twenty days in October, November, and December to become producer plants during the following April, May, and June without making shipments to Philadelphia.

9. Definition of Class II milk. The present designation of Class II milk as containing not less than 18 percent butterfat should be retained. The Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture prescribes a minimum of 18 percent butterfat for cream, the principal product of Class II milk.

10. Classification of non-producer milk. The proposal to eliminate the allocation of non-producer milk first to Class II during the months April-June ignored the opportunity to purchase milk as producer milk during April, May, and June. The proponents failed to establish any reasonable basis for a change.

11. Date for filing reports. Extension of one more day for filing reports, when holidays or long weekends intervene in the first eight days, appears reasonable and should be included in the amendment.

12. Time limit on reaudits. The proposal to provide a limit of two years with respect to reaudits and the issuance of revised billings should not be adopted at this time. The proponents of this proposal recognize the necessity for a limitation on the time in which a handler could claim credits from the market administrator, although they made no suggestions to cover this eventuality. The possibility of developing a standard rule for all Federal order markets was suggested. A provision dealing with a matter of this nature must be examined carefully in order to protect the rights of all persons. Since the proponents showed no instances of hardship which they suffer from the lack of such a provision, the order should not be amended hurriedly. The collateral issues and specific language concerning such issues should be described.

13. Emergency price provision. The language of this provision is interwoven with subsidies and other wartime market conditions and should be revised to remove reference to such obsolete matters.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative, Milk Distributors Association of the Philadelphia Area, Inc., and Miller-Flounders Dairy, Inc.

The briefs contain statements of fact, conclusions, and arguments with respect to nearly all of the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered, along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. Some of the proposed findings of fact are immaterial to the issues presented or outweighed by other facts found herein, and some of the proposed conclusions do not logically follow from the proposed findings of fact. To the extent that the proposed findings and conclusions are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the requests to make such findings are denied because of the reasons stated for the conclusions in this recommended decision.

Proponents of a modification of the provision with respect to out-of-area Class I pricing argued that the hearing notice did not give ample indication of the possibility that the provision should be deleted. The hearing notice and the record presented the issue of whether the present provision of the order has been effective and whether it tends to effectuate the purpose of the act. As stated elsewhere in this decision, the solution proposed by the proponents of an amendment to the provision failed to prove that their suggested change was desirable but did show that the present section is no longer useful or desirable. The deletion of the provision is a more proper and effective solution of the problem presented by the issue raised by the notice, and by the record, and is properly within the scope of the notice.

Recommended marketing agreement and amendments to the order. The following amendments to the order, as amended, are recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which these conclusions may be carried out.

The proposed marketing agreement is not included because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as amended, and as proposed here to be further amended.

1. In § 961.1 (a) (3) delete the words "thence along the Upper Merion Township line as it runs to the Delaware County line; then southeasterly along the Delaware County line as it runs to and along Brandywine Creek and the Delaware State Line to the Delaware River; thence northeasterly along the Pennsylvania State line to the Delaware River to the point of the beginning;" and substitute therefor, "thence along the Upper Merion Township line as it runs to the Chester County line; thence southwesterly along the Chester County line to Darby Creek; thence southeasterly along Darby Creek to the Delaware River and the New Jersey State line; thence northeasterly along the New Jersey State line in the Delaware River to the point of beginning."

2. In the list of plants in § 961.1 (a) (6) (i) delete "Gailey Ice Cream Company, Delta, Pa.," and "Penn Reed Milk Company, Belleville, Pa.," and add "Abbotts Dairies, Inc., Belleville, Pa., Abbotts Dairies, Inc., Reedsville, Pa., Delta Farm Products Co., Delta, Pa., and Philadelphia Dairy Products Co., Inc., Benton, Pa." At the head of the list delete the date "January 1, 1945" and substitute "January 1, 1947."

3. Revise § 961.1 (a) (6) (iii) to read as follows:

(iii) Any other plant from which during the month shipments of milk, except shipments for Class II use only, are made on 20 days or more to a pasteurizing or bottling plant described in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, or to a plant or plants supplying such pasteurizing or bottling plants: Provided, That a plant operated by any handler which was a producer milk plant during October, November, and December, shall be a producer milk plant of the same handler during the next April, May, and June, if such handler files with the market administrator not later than the date on which reports for April, May, or June receipts and utilization of milk are required pursuant to § 961.5 (a), a request that such plant be a producer milk plant for the previous month.

4. In § 961.4 (a) delete the words "Except as set forth in subparagraph (d) of this section," and capitalize the first letter of the following word "each"; and delete § 961.4 (a) (1) and substitute:

(1) Class I milk. (i) In 1947, $5.20 per hundredweight for August and September, 1947 and $5.60 per hundredweight for October, November, and December, 1947: Provided, That the price shall be not less than the price for Class I–A milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content at the 201–210 mile zone established by an order of the Secretary regulating the handling of milk in the metropolitan New York marketing area plus 62 cents during August and September, 1947, and plus 58 cents during October, November, and December, 1947; (ii) and after 1947 the price for each month shall be the above-named price established by an order of the Secretary for the metropolitan New York marketing area plus 62 cents.

5. In § 961.4 (a) (2) (i) insert just before the colon preceding the word "Provided," the words "and add 10 cents."

6. Revise § 961.4 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Butterfat differential. The Class I price shall be subject to a butterfat differential of 6 cents for each one-tenth of 1 percent variation above or below 4 percent and the Class II price shall be subject to a butterfat differential for each one-tenth of 1 percent variation above or below 4 percent calculated as follows: Divide the average of the cream quotations used in calculating the Class II price by 334.8 and subtract 0.67 cents; or in the case of butterfat in Class II to which the "butter-value" is applicable, divide the "butter-value" by 40.

7. Revise § 961.4 (c) (1) to read as follows:

(1) Class I milk. At plants more than 11 and not more than 31 miles from the City Hall in Philadelphia, 12 cents per hundredweight; at plants 31–40 miles from the City Hall in Philadelphia, 31 cents per hundredweight; and at plants in excess of 40 miles from the City Hall in Philadelphia, 31 cents per hundredweight plus 1 cent for each additional 10 miles or part thereof, except the total differential shall not exceed 64 cents per hundredweight.

8. Delete § 961.4 (d).

9. In § 961.5 (a) after the words "On or before the 8th day", insert a comma and the words "or if during the first 8 days, three days represent Saturdays, Sundays, or legal holidays, on or before the 9th day."

10. In § 961.8 (c) delete the words "5 cents per hunderdweight" and substitute the words "6 cents per hundredweight."

11. Delete § 961.8 (e) and renumber § 961.8 (f) as § 961.8 (e). In § 961.8 (a) (2) delete the words "subject to paragraphs (c) (d), (e), (f), and (g) of this section" and substitute "subject to paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section."

12. Revise § 961.10 to read as follows:

§ 961.10 Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price or prices for milk or any milk product, for the purpose of determining class prices, or for any other purpose, if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

[7 CFR, Part 970]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLINTON, IOWA, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 7737; 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held at Clinton, Iowa, on February 28, 1947, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area. The hearing, on the basis of which the proposed amendments hereinafter set forth have been formulated, was held pursuant to notice issued on February 19, 1947 (12 F. R. 1247).

A notice of a recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was issued by the Assistant Administrator on May 21, 1947 (12 F. R. 3351).

The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are:

(1) The status of handlers who sell milk in Clinton, Iowa, as well as in other marketing areas regulated by Federal milk orders, and

(2) The level of the Class I price.

Findings and conclusions. (1) Handlers, who the Secretary determines have their principal business in another area regulated by another order issued pursuant to the act, should be exempt from most of the provisions of the Clinton, Iowa, order. Such a handler, however, should be required to make reports to the market administrator, and in the event the prices fixed in the Clinton order are higher than those fixed in the other order to which he is subject, he should be required to pay into the producer-settlement fund, an amount equal to the difference in value, as computed under the two orders, of the milk disposed of as Class I milk within the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area. It appears that it would be unreasonable and impractical to pool the milk of a handler under two orders simultaneously. However, if a handler were permitted to purchase milk at a lower price than other handlers by virtue of having his prices fixed by another order he would enjoy a competitive advantage over other handlers in the market. Therefore, he should be required to pay any difference into the producer-settlement fund in order to equalize the buying price of all handlers. Where such a handler is required under the terms of the order to pay prices equal to or higher than those fixed in the Clinton order, no competitive advantage accrues to him and no payment shall be required.

(2) The price of Class I milk should be increased 20 cents per hundredweight.

It appears on the record that producers are entitled to some increase in price but there appears to be no basis for an increase of the amount requested. The City of Clinton recently adopted a new public health ordinance regulating the production and sale of milk in the city. While there seems to be very little difference in the terms of the existing ordinance as compared to that previously in effect, all of the evidence indicates that there is a wide difference in the degree of enforcement. That production costs have increased is evident from the fact that the number of producers has declined from 198 in February 1946 to 146 in January 1947. It was in February 1946 that the new ordinance with its strict enforcement became effective. Most of these producers either had their permits revoked by the health department or withdrew voluntarily because they were unwilling or felt unable to produce milk in accordance with the new requirements.

It appears from the record that producers have been required to make capital expenditures of approximately $400.00 per farm on the average. It appears that an increase of 5 cents per hundredweight would be ample to cover depreciation and interest on this investment. In addition to this capital expenditure producers will incur continuing costs for electricity, supplies and increased labor which were not required previously. Based on the record it appears that an additional 10 cents per hundredweight would cover these costs. In arriving at this figure we have disregarded many of the items mentioned by producers such as disinfectants, cleansers, paints, etc. These are costs which are a part of dairying under any conditions and it is very doubtful that expenditures on these items will be increased materially as a result of the enforcement of the ordinance. Since approximately 75 percent of the milk produced for the Clinton market is disposed of as Class I milk, an increase of 20 cents per hundredweight in the Class I price would return to producers an average of 15 cents per hundredweight on their entire production. Thus it appears that the proposed increase would be ample to compensate producers for the costs incurred by them as a result of the strict enforcement of the local regulations.

With respect to the proposal that the price for Class I milk sold in other markets regulated by other marketing orders, be either the Clinton price or the price prevailing in the market where sold, whichever is higher, we feel that the record is inadequate and fails to justify such an amendment.

(3) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(4) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended and as proposed to be amended, upon which a hearing has been held.

(5) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supply of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Rulings upon proposed findings and conclusions. Proposed findings and conclusions were submitted by the Clinton Cooperative Milk Producers Association, Inc., Elmwood Dairy Farms, and Golden-Mello Dairies. None of these contained any specific proposals with respect to the status of handlers who dispose of milk in the Clinton marketing area as well as in other marketing areas subject to Federal regulation.

The Clinton Cooperative Milk Producers Association, Inc., urged that the Secretary find that the Class I price be increased 50 cents per hundredweight as they had proposed at the hearing. It is their contention that this increase is justified on the record. However, our analysis of the record as set forth above indicates that an increase of 20 cents per hundredweight in the Class I price would be ample to compensate producers for their increased costs.

Elmwood Dairy Farms recommended that no increase in price be granted, largely on the grounds that the new ordinance is virtually identical with the old, and that many of the costs advanced by producers for disinfectants, scouring powders and the like are costs which they have always had and cannot be attributed to the new ordinance.

Granting that there is little difference between the two ordinances as written, the record indicates that there is a considerable degree of difference in the extent of enforcement. In the record Mr. Chester Ryder, proprietor of the Elmwood Dairy Farms, testified that the two ordinances were very closely related "with the exception that one was enforced and the other wasn't." The strict enforcement of the new ordinance has resulted in increased costs to producers. With respect to the point that many of the costs cited by producers are now new expenses resulting from the ordinance, it has been pointed out above that such costs were disregarded in arriving at the amount of increase which should be granted to producers.

Golden-Mello Dairies proposed that an increase of 20 cents be granted on milk disposed of as fluid milk but that no increase be granted on milk disposed of in other uses. Their contention is that such an increase would amply compensate producers for their added costs.

While it is probable that the proposal suggested by Golden-Mello Dairies would return to producers almost the same increase as has been recommended above, it is impossible to fix definitely what the increase would amount to since the record fails to disclose what percentage of Class I milk is disposed of as fluid milk and what percentage is disposed of as cream and milk drinks. The record also fails to show any basis for dividing the present Class I products into other categories. When the original order was issued all products which were required to meet the same health standards were placed in Class I and all other products which were not required to be made from inspected milk were placed in Class II or Class III. The record indicates that the health regulations are unchanged in this respect, and it contains no evidence in support of a change in classification.

No exceptions were filed to the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator.

Marketing agreement and order relative to handling. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area," and "order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

Neither of these documents shall become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure have been met.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C. this 26th day of June 1947.

Secretary of Agriculture.

Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Clinton, Iowa, Marketing Area

§ 970.0 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq.; 10 F. R. 11791; 11 F. R. 7737; 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof it is hereby found that:

(a) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supply of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

The foregoing findings are supplementary to and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments hereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

It is hereby ordered, That such handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Amend § 970.4 (a) (1) by deleting therefrom the words, "50 cents" and substituting therefor the words, "70 cents."

2. Amend § 970.6 by adding at the end thereof the following:

(f) Handlers subject to other Federal orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this order shall not apply except as follows:

(1) The handler shall with respect to his total receipts and utilization of milk, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator in accordance with the provisions of § 970.5 (a).

(2) If the price which such handler is required to pay under the other Federal order to which he is subject for milk which would be classified as Class I milk under this order is less than the price provided pursuant to § 970.4 (a) (1), such handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer-settlement fund (with respect to all milk disposed of by such handler as Class I milk within the marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such milk as computed pursuant to § 970.4 (a) (1) and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

NOTE: This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure have been met.

[Dissolution Order 54]

BYK, INC.

Whereas, by Vesting Order Number 34, dated June 30, 1942 (7 Fed. Reg. 5077, July 4, 1942), there were vested all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Byk, Inc., a Delaware corporation; and

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 363, dated November 13, 1942 (7 Fed. Reg. 9470, November 18, 1942), there were also vested all the right, title, interest and claim of Byk-Guldenwerke Chemische Fabrik, A. G., Berlin, Germany, in and to all indebtedness owing to it by Byk, Inc., and it has been ascertained that a certain claim in favor of Byk-Guldenwerke Chemische Fabrik, A. G. aggregating $17,108.25 was thereby vested; and

Whereas, by Subordination Order No. 2, executed July 8, 1942, the officers and directors of Byk, Inc., were directed to subordinate the vested claim in the name of Byk-Guldenwerke Chemische Fabrik, A. G. to the claims of other creditors of, and claimants against Byk, Inc.;

Whereas, Byk, Inc. has been substantially liquidated;

Now, under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Orders 9095, as amended, and 9788, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the claims of all known creditors have been paid, except such claim, if any, as the Attorney General of the United States may have for money advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation; and except the claim formerly of Byk-Guldenwerke Chemische Fabrik, A. G. which has been vested and subordinated as aforesaid; and

2. Having determined that it is in the national interest of the United States that said corporation be dissolved, and that its assets be distributed, and a Certificate of Dissolution having accordingly been issued by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, and a Certificate of Surrender of Authority to do business within the State of New York filed with the Secretary of State of the State of New York;

Hereby orders, that the officers and directors of Byk, Inc. (to wit, Francis J. Carmody, President, Treasurer and Director, Robert Kramer, Secretary and Director, and C. P. Goepel, Director, and their successors, or any of them), continue the proceedings for the dissolution of Byk, Inc.; and

Further orders, that the said officers and directors wind up the affairs of the corporation and distribute the assets thereof coming into their possession as follows:

(a) They shall first pay the current expenses and reasonable and necessary charges of winding up the affairs of said corporation and the dissolution thereof; and

(b) They shall then pay all known Federal, state, and local taxes and fees owed by or accruing against the said corporation; and

(c) They shall then pay over, transfer, assign and deliver to the Attorney General of the United States all of the funds and property, if any, remaining in their hands after the payments as aforesaid, the same to be applied, first, in satisfaction of the vested claim described above, second, in satisfaction of such claim, if any, as he may have for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation, and third, as a liquidating distribution of assets to the Attorney General of the United States as holder of all the issued and outstanding stock of the corporation; and

Further orders, that nothing herein set forth shall be construed as prejudicing the right, under the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, of any person who may have a claim against said corporation to file such claim with the Attorney General of the United States against any funds or property received by the Attorney General of the United States hereunder; Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating additional rights in such person; Provided, further, That any such claim against said corporation shall be filed with or presented to the Attorney General of the United States within the time and in the form and manner prescribed for such claims by the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and applicable regulations and orders issued pursuant thereto; and

Further orders, that all actions taken and acts done by the said officers and directors of Byk, Inc., pursuant to this order and the directions contained herein shall be deemed to have been taken and done in reliance on and pursuant to paragraph numbered (2) of subdivision (b) of section 5 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and the acquittance and exculpation provided therein; and

Further orders, that to the extent that the provisions of this order are inconsistent with the provisions of Subordination Order No. 2 executed July 8, 1942, the provisions of this order shall govern.

Executed at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of June 1947.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-200, G-207]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO. ET AL.

ORDER MODIFYING PRIOR ORDER CONTINUING EMERGENCY RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN DELIVERIES OF NATURAL GAS FROM PANHANDLE SYSTEM WHEN CURTAILMENT OF SUCH DELIVERIES BECOMES NECESSARY AND FIXING DATE FOR HEARING

In the matter of: City of Detroit, Michigan, and County of Wayne, Michigan v. Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company and Michigan Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G-200; Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Michigan Gas Transmission Corporation, and Illinois Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-207.

Upon consideration of (1) the record made during the course of hearings in this docket convened in Chicago, Illinois, October 23, 1946, and completed, after a recess, in Washington, D. C., on November 19, 1946, (2) the conference held in Chicago, Illinois, on December 4 and 5, 1946, between representatives of the staff of the Commission, in cooperation with representatives of State commisssions having jurisdiction over distributing companies dependent upon Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) for their supply of natural gas, and representatives of such distributing companies, and Panhandle, (3) the order of the Commission under date of December 12, 1946, making effective emergency service rules and regulations to govern deliveries of natural gas by Panhandle when curtailment of natural gas deliveries became necessary during the winter heating season of 1946-1947, (4) reports by Panhandle pursuant to the requirements of the order of December 12, 1946, showing the extent and duration of curtailments pursuant to such emergency service rules and regulations, as well as violations of such rules and regulations during periods of curtailment by reason of excess takes of gas by certain distributing companies, (5) monthly estimates of requirements of natural gas during 1947, and peak day requirements for the winter season of 1947-1948, supplied by individual distributing companies and Panhandle in response to requests for such information by the Commission during April 1947, (6) the order of the Commission under date of April 23, 1947, extending, until further order of the Commission, the emergency service rules and regulations to govern deliveries of natural gas during periods when curtailment of deliveries of gas by Panhandle may be necessary (emergency service rules), (7) data and information compiled by the Commission's staff and submitted at the conference in Chicago, Illinois, on May 7-9, 1947, between representatives of Panhandle, gas distributing companies served by Panhandle, State regulatory commissions of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, having jurisdiction over such distributing companies, and the staff of this Commission, and (8) revised data and information compiled by the Commission's staff, showing estimated requirements in the Panhandle area during the remaining months of 1947 and 1947-1948 peak day requirements, as well as like information and data for the Appalachian area, based on factual information and estimates supplied by distributing companies served by Panhandle and major gas distributing utilities serving the Appalachian area submitted at the conference in Washington, D. C., on June 4, 1947, between representatives of pipe line companies and distributing companies serving such areas, representatives of the regulatory commissions of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, District of Columbia and the staff of this Commission;

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) The record of the hearings convened in Chicago, Illinois, on October 23, 1946, and concluded in Washington, D. C., on November 19, 1946, disclosed that the sales capacity of the pipeline facilities of Panhandle was estimated at 405,000 Mcf per day for the winter season of 1946-1947; that the total estimated 1946-1947 peak day requirements of distributing utilities dependent upon Panhandle for their supply of natural gas and the requirements of direct industrial and other consumers served by Panhandle, adjusted to reflect zero degree temperature, was 522,562 Mcf (440,398 Mcf firm, 82,164 Mcf interruptible); that coincidental peak day deliveries from the Panhandle system during the winter season of 1946-1947 (February 4, 1947) totaled 466,434 Mcf (firm 456,692 Mcf, interruptible 9,742 Mcf), which total to the extent that it exceeds 405,000 Mcf represented utilization of line pack; and that deliveries of natural gas from the Panhandle system on February 4, 1947, adjusted to reflect zero degree temperature, would indicate firm requirements of 479,079 Mcf.

(b) Estimates of firm requirements (based on zero degree temperatures) to meet the consumer demands of distributing companies supplied from the Panhandle system, as compiled by the staff of the Commission from data submitted by Panhandle and such distributing companies, show that peak day requirements for the winter season of 1947-1948 will approximate 518,000 Mcf; that in estimating firm requirements for 1947-1948 at 518,000 Mcf there was not included any amount whatsoever for interruptible sales; that Panhandle has estimated its delivery capacity for the winter season of 1947-1948 at 425,000 Mcf; that such delivery capacity is based in part on the belief that the compressors and a part of the loop lines authorized by the Commission in its order of November 30, 1946, as modified by order of May 28, 1947, in Docket No. G-706, and that certain of the facilities authorized by order of April 22, 1947, in Docket No. G-784, will be completed and in operation early during the winter season of 1947-1948.

(c) The inability of Panhandle to complete facilities authorized by the Commission in Docket Nos. G-706 and G-784 is due to the prevailing shortage of pipe and other essential material and equipment, and Panhandle will be unable to improve the delivery capacity of its system substantially beyond the estimated 425,000 Mcf for the coming winter.

(d) By its order of June 12, 1947, in Docket No. G–880, providing for the allocation of emergency deliveries of natural gas from the Big Inch Lines, the Commission allocated 20,000 Mcf per day to Panhandle effective until November 1, 1947.

(e) Considering estimates of requirements by distributing companies dependent upon Panhandle for their supply of natural gas, the estimate of delivery capacity from the Panhandle system during the winter season of 1947–1948 (giving due consideration to the continuing emergency deliveries from the Big Inch Lines to the Panhandle area) and the deficiency in delivery capacity when compared with reasonable estimates of requirements, clearly indicate that the Panhandle system cannot meet the requirements of its attached customers during the coming winter season and that the excess of requirements over delivery capacity will be greater than that experienced during the winter season of 1946–1947.

(f) Conferences called by the Commission to effect a voluntary agreement between distributing companies served by Panhandle as a basis for allocation of available pipeline capacity during the winter season of 1947–48, and attended by representatives of such distributing companies, State regulatory commissions having jurisdiction over such distributing companies, Panhandle, and this Commission, in Chicago, Illinois, on May 7–9, 1947, and in Washington, D. C., on June 3–6, 1947, have not resulted in an accord; that subcommittees of such general conference are now working upon problems incident to agreement upon questions of allocation involved and a further meeting of the general conference will be called during the month of July upon completion of such subcommittees' studies and for receipt of and action upon reports from such subcommittees; that it is hoped that at such general conference satisfactory arrangements will be worked out so that revised emergency service rules may be filed and published to govern the allocation of pipeline capacity when curtailment of deliveries of natural gas by Panhandle becomes necessary during the winter season of 1947–48 (revised emergency service rules), that if such arrangements do not result, early public hearing will be necessary in the public interest so that revised emergency service rules may be established by order of the Commission and made effective not later than September 30, 1947.

The Commission finds that:

(1) Consumer demands upon distributing companies dependent upon the Panhandle system for their supply of natural gas will exceed the available pipeline capacity of the Panhandle system for the coming winter; and the establishment of revised emergency service rules are necessary and required in the public interest.

(2) Unless reasonable and non-discriminatory emergency service rules are filed by Panhandle as supplements to existing and presently effective rate schedules, then such reasonable and nondiscriminatory emergency service rules must be established by order of this Commission.

(3) By reason of the extreme emergency and the necessity that all distributing companies and consumers dependent upon Panhandle for their supply of gas may fully realize the urgency of the present situation, as well as the emergency which will obtain during the coming winter and the fact that during the coming winter distributing companies cannot expect substantially greater deliveries of firm natural gas from Panhandle on peak days than such companies were entitled to receive from Panhandle under step 4 of emergency service rules which were in effect during the winter season of 1946–1947, it is necessary in the public interest that the emergency service rules as provided by order of April 23, 1947, be continued in full force and effect until revised emergency service rules are adopted by the general conference to be convened in July, 1947, filed and published by Panhandle and permitted to become effective by order of the Commission, or upon failure to adopt such revised emergency service rules, then the presently effective emergency service rules shall remain and be effective until, after hearing, the Commission by order establishes revised emergency service rules to be thereafter effective.

Wherefore, the Commission orders that:

(A) A public hearing be held commencing at 10:00 a. m. (e. d. s. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington 25, D. C., on August 18, 1947, for the purpose of establishing all necessary facts respecting the natural gas requirements of Panhandle's direct customers and distributing companies depending upon Panhandle for all or any part of their supply of natural gas, the pipe line delivery capacity of the Panhandle system which will be available in meeting peak day requirements during the winter season of 1947–1948 and such other and further matters of fact as may be necessary or desirable to enable the Commission to establish reasonable nondiscriminatory emergency service rules to govern curtailment of Panhandle deliveries of natural gas when necessary during the winter season of 1947–1948 and thereafter until the Commission by order shall otherwise provide.

(B) The order of the Commission dated April 23, 1947, extending emergency service rules and regulations to govern deliveries of natural gas by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, be and the same is hereby modified to provide that such extension of emergency service rules therein specified is only to be effective until such time as reasonable and non-discriminatory emergency service rules are filed by Panhandle as supplements to existing rate schedules and made effective by the Commission or, upon failure to make such emergency service rules effective in such manner the Commission, following the hearing herein provided, shall by order establish such emergency service rules: Provided, however, That the presently effective emergency service rules shall not continue in force or effect beyond September 30, 1947, without further order of this Commission.

Date of issuance: June 25, 1947.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G–855]

MEMPHIS NATURAL GAS CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF AMENDED APPLICATION

JUNE 25, 1947.

In the matter of Memphis Natural Gas Company, and Kentucky Natural Gas Corporation, and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–855.

Notice is hereby given that on May 28, 1947, an amended joint application as supplemented June 17, 1947, was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Memphis Natural Gas Company (Memphis), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Memphis, Tennessee, and Kentucky Natural Gas Corporation (Kentucky), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Owensboro, Kentucky, and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Owensboro, Kentucky, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the acquisition and operation by Texas of the natural gas systems of Memphis and Kentucky upon consummation of the proposed merger of Memphis and Kentucky with and into Texas, in lieu of, and in substitution for the purchase proposed by Memphis of the gas system, and the related physical assets of Kentucky, as set forth in the original application filed herein on January 30, 1947, by Memphis Natural Gas Company and Kentucky Natural Gas Corporation.

Notice of the filing of the original application herein was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 22, 1947 (12 F. R. 1255). The facilities proposed to be acquired are generally described therein.

The amended application recites that Texas is not presently engaged in the transportation or sale of natural-gas but that it owns all of the outstanding stocks, both common and preferred of Kentucky, and approximately 25% of the issued and outstanding common stock of Memphis; that in addition to this 25% interest in Memphis which it owns directly, Texas, by reason of its ownership of all of the stock of Kentucky, is the indirect owner of approximately 24.8% of the issued and outstanding stock of Memphis, or a total ownership of approximately 49.8%.

The amended application recites that it is the intention of Texas, upon the consummation of the proposed merger, to continue without interruption the services presently being rendered by Memphis and Kentucky to the areas being served by the respective systems, which consist of the transportation and sale of natural-gas to distributors for resale to ultimate consumers in such areas.

The application recites that since Texas will not acquire the natural gas systems of Memphis and Kentucky by purchase, but will succeed to the ownership of these and all other assets of those companies by operation of law, no additional financing will be required.

It is further recited that Texas will adopt and continue to charge the present rates of Memphis and Kentucky, as filed with the Commission and published for the various classes of service rendered by the Memphis and Kentucky systems.

The amended application further recites that corporate integration and subsequent physical interconnection will provide the consumers in the area served by Kentucky and Memphis with a unified system under common operation and management reaching from Louisiana, and possibly Texas gas fields, to the distributors now selling gas to consumers, resulting in a larger and financially stronger company, which will be in a better position to finance and carry into effect any plan of physical interconnection the Federal Power Commission may deem appropriate and approve. The amended application recites that a direct merger will result in benefit to consumers and stockholders alike, viz., economies of purchasing as a result of quantity discounts which would not otherwise be available, current borrowing for construction can be effected more easily and at a lower interest rate, and additional supplies can be secured more promptly. Other advantages are stated to be simplification of corporate structure, the elimination of duplicated administrative and supervisory services, together with duplication in the matter of accounts, and transactions with State and Federal agencies.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the amended joint application shall be considered under the cooperative provisions of Rule 37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing as defined in said rule and the reasons for such request.

The amended joint application of Memphis, Kentucky and Texas is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the amended application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of the rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), and shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner's or protestant's alleged right or interest can be determined. Petitions for intervention shall state fully and completely the grounds of the proposed intervention and the contentions of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as to advise the parties and the Commission as to the issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted, by admitting, denying, or explaining specifically and in detail, each material allegation of fact or law asserted with respect to the application.

[Docket No. G–913]

MONTANA-DAKOTA UTILITIES CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 25, 1947.

Notice is hereby given that on June 17, 1947, Montana-Dakota Utilities Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at 831 2d Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and authorized to do business in Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate the following described facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission:

(a) One (1) 300 HP compressor at Applicant's Saco compressor station located near Saco, Montana.

(b) Two (2) 300 HP compressors at Applicant's Fort Peck compressor station, located near Fort Peck, Montana.

(c) Necessary auxiliaries, including cooling facilities, building additions and other changes incident to the installation of these compressors.

Applicant states that upon completion of the facilities proposed herein Applicant will have installed and in operation compressor engines totaling 1440 HP in the Saco compressor station, and will have installed and in operation compressors totaling 2400 HP in its Fort Peck compressor station; that construction and completion of the proposed facilities is desired for use to meet peak load requirements for the winter of 1947–1948, and are not intended to serve any new communities at the present time.

Applicant states the natural gas load in the territory served by the Baker-Glendive and Bowdoin fields has increased rapidly during the past several years, making necessary the imposition of restrictions on firm gas sales on peak days; that the proposed compressors together with the 10-inch pipeline authorized at Docket No. G–732, to be completed and in operation by July 1, 1947, will provide necessary additional capacity in the system; and that the decline in pressures in the Baker-Glendive field in Fallon and Wibaux Counties, Montana, and Bowman County, North Dakota, necessitate the use of additional gas from the Bowdoin field on peak days, and requires provision for increased storage in the Baker field of Bowdoin gas to provide increased service on peak days. Applicant further asserts under present load conditions and under the load conditions which will exist upon completion of installation of the 10-inch pipeline authorized in Docket No. G–732 Applicant will have no spare capacity in any compressor station on its Baker-Bowdoin system.

According to the Applicant, the proposed facilities are necessary to enable the Applicant to meet peak load conditions and to carry on its storage program during the summer months.

Applicant estimates that the total over-all cost of the proposed facilities is $188,452, which will be financed from funds presently available to the Applicant. Applicant states the cost of the additional facilities will not produce any change in revenues or require any change in Applicant's plan of operation.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Montana-Dakota Utilities Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of the rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), and shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner's or protestant's alleged right or interest can be determined. Petitions for intervention shall state fully and completely the grounds of the proposed intervention and the contentions of the petitioner in the proceeding so as to advise the parties and the Commission as to the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted, by admitting, denying, or otherwise answering, specifically and in detail, each material allegation of fact or law asserted in the proceeding.

COMMUNITY GAS AND POWER CO. AND AMERICAN GAS AND POWER CO.

ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 23d day of June A. D. 1947.

The Commission, by orders dated April 10, 1946, and January 14, 1947, having approved a plan providing, among other things, for the liquidation of Community Gas and Power Company and the reorganization of American Gas and Power Company; and

The Commission having approved said plan subject, among other things, to the conditions specified in Rule U-24 and to the condition that said orders should not be operative to authorize the consummation of the proposed transactions until an appropriate District Court of the United States, upon application thereto, should have entered an order enforcing said plan; and

The District Court of the United States for the District of Delaware, upon application thereto by the Commission, having entered an order enforcing said plan on April 24, 1947; and

Certain debenture holders having appealed from said order to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and having applied to said Circuit Court for a stay of said order pending final determination of the appeal, which application for stay is now pending before said Circuit Court; and

It appearing that the sixty-day period provided by Rule U-24 expired June 23, 1947, and Community Gas and Power Company and American Gas and Power Company having now requested an extension of time so as to permit consummation of said plan after June 23, 1947; and

The Commission having considered said request and deeming it appropriate that an extension of time to July 31, 1947, be granted;

It is ordered, That the time within which the transactions proposed in said Plan may be consummated be, and it hereby is, extended to July 31, 1947.

By the Commission.

[File No. 70-1520]

KENTUCKY UTILITIES CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION AND PERMITTING APPLICATIONS-DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 25th day of June A. D. 1947.

In the matter of Kentucky Utilities Company, Old Dominion Power Company, The Middle West Corporation, File No. 70-1520.

The Commission, on June 16, 1947, issued its Memorandum Findings and Opinion and Order[1] granting and permitting to become effective, subject to certain conditions, joint applications-declarations, as amended, filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, Kentucky Utilities Company ("Kentucky"), a subsidiary of Middle West, and Old Dominion Power Company, a subsidiary of Kentucky, regarding a proposed recapitalization of Kentucky and Old Dominion Power Company and related transactions. Such transactions included the issue and sale by Kentucky, at competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50, of $24,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, --%, to be dated May 1, 1947 and to mature May 1, 1977, and 130,000 shares of its --% Preferred Stock, cumulative, par value $100 per share, and the purchase by Middle West of shares of the common stock of Kentucky.

A further amendment to said applications-declarations has been filed by Middle West and Kentucky in which it is requested that said order of June 16, 1947 be modified to conform to the requirements of sections 371, 372, 373, and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. Such amendment states that Middle West proposes to invest the proceeds heretofore received by it from the sale of securities of Michigan Gas and Electric Company in the common stock of Kentucky.[2]

With respect to the sale of preferred stock by Kentucky at competitive bidding, such stock was to be sold subject to an offer by Kentucky to its preferred stockholders to exchange shares of --% Preferred Stock for shares of preferred stocks presently held, and the invitation to bid required, among other things, that each bid specify the aggregate amount of compensation to be paid the bidder for his efforts in soliciting exchanges pursuant to the exchange offer, and for the purchase of shares of the --% Preferred Stock not required under the exchange program.

The terms of the order of June 16, 1947 provided that the proposed issue and sale of bonds and preferred stocks by Kentucky shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, and that jurisdiction be reserved for such purpose.

Kentucky has now filed an amendment which states that, in accordance with the permission granted by said order of June 16, 1947, it offered said bonds for sale pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 and has received bids as follows:

Bidders	Coupon rate	Price to Kentucky (percent of principal amount)	Annual cost to Kentucky
	Pct.
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc....	3	101.369	2.939
Union Securities Corp. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane.....	3	100.99	2.95
The First Boston Corp.....	3	100.77	2.961
Lehman Bros. and Lazard Freres & Co.....	3	100.417	2.979

[1] Plus accrued interest from May 1, 1947.

Such amendment further states that Kentucky has accepted the bid of Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., as set out above, and that said bonds will be initially offered for sale to the public at a price of 101.985% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest, resulting in an underwriting spread equal to 0.776% of the principal amount of said bonds; and that Kentucky has postponed the date for the presentation and opening of bids for the preferred stock to July 14, 1947.

The Commission has examined said amendments, has considered the record relevant thereto, and finds that there is no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the acceptance by Kentucky of the bid of Halsey, Stuart & Co. Inc., that the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the sale at competitive bidding of preferred stock by Kentucky should be continued, and that jurisdiction should be reserved with respect to the requested modification of the Commission's order of June 16, 1947 to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

It is therefore ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to matters to be determined by competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, in connection with the offering for sale by Kentucky Utilities Company of said $24,000,000 principal amount of bonds, be, and hereby is, released and that said applications-declarations, as amended, be, and hereby are, granted and permitted to become effective, subject, however, to the other terms and conditions prescribed in said order of June 16, 1947.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved with respect to the request of The Middle West Corporation and Kentucky Utilities Company for modification of this Commission's order of June 16, 1947 to conform to the requirements of sections 371, 372, 373 and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, is amended.

By the Commission.

MICHIGAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND MIDDLE WEST CORP.

ORDER MODIFYING PREVIOUS ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 25th day of June A. D. 1947.

The Commission, on July 29, 1946, issued its findings and opinion and order[1] granting and permitting to become effective a joint application-declaration, as amended, filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Michigan Gas and Electric Company. The transactions approved by such order of July 29, 1946 included the investment by Middle West of the net proceeds resulting from the sale by it of certain securities of Michigan Gas and Electric Company as a contribution to the capital or paid-in surplus of Central Illinois Public Service Company ("Cips"), a subsidiary of Middle West.

Middle West has now filed a supplemental application which states that said proceeds were not invested in Cips for the reason that said proceeds were not received by Middle West until after Middle West had made a substantial contribution to the capital of Cips[2] and requests that said Order be modified so as to strike from the last paragraph thereof the reference to the investment of said proceeds in Cips.

The Commission has examined such Supplemental Application and has considered the record relevant thereto and deems it appropriate to modify said Order as requested by Middle West.

It is therefore ordered, That the last paragraph of this Commission's order of July 29, 1946 entered in the above matter be, and it hereby is, modified to read as follows:

It is further ordered and recited, That the sale and transfer by The Middle West Corporation of 57,226 shares of the par value of $10 each ($572,260 in aggregate par amount) of Common Stock of Michigan Gas and Electric Company and the redemption by Michigan Gas and Electric Company of 4,878 shares without par value of its $6 Non Par Prior Lien Stock held by The Middle West Corporation are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of The Middle West Corporation and are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

(a) "Act" means "An act to prevent the destruction or dumping, without good and sufficient cause therefor, of farm produce received in interstate commerce by commission merchants and others, and to require them truly and correctly to account for all farm produce received by them," approved March 3, 1927 (44 Stat. 1355; 7 U. S. C. 491–497).

(b) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association or corporation.

(c) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture or any person to whom authority has heretofore lawfully been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter lawfully be delegated, to act in his stead.

(d) "Administration" means the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, or any officer or employee of the Administration to whom authority has heretofore lawfully been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter lawfully be delegated, to act in his stead.

(f) "Produce" means all fresh fruits and fresh vegetables generally considered by the trade as perishable fruits and vegetables, melons, dairy or poultry products, or any perishable farm products of any kind or character.

(g) "Truly and correctly to account" means, unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, that the consignee of produce shall, within ten days after the final sale is made of any produce received for sale on consignment in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia, render to the consignor thereof a true and correct itemized statement of the gross sales as well as all selling charges and all other charges or expenses paid and a statement of the net proceeds or deficit, and make full payment to the consignor of the net proceeds so received together with a full explanation of the disposition of any and all produce not sold.

(h) "Good and sufficient cause" means, with respect to destroyed, abandoned, discarded, or dumped produce, that the produce so dealt with had no commercial value, or that some other legal justification for so dealing with such produce existed, such as an order of condemnation by a health officer or definite authority from the shipper.

(i) "Commercial value" means any value that the produce may have for any purpose that can be ascertained in the exercise of due diligence by the consignee without unreasonable expense or loss of time.

ADMINISTRATION

§ 48.3 Administrator. The Administrator shall perform, for and under the supervision of the Secretary, such duties as the Secretary may require in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the act and the regulations in this part.

VIOLATIONS

§ 48.4 Destroying or dumping. Any person, receiving produce in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia for or on behalf of another, who, without good and sufficient cause, shall destroy or abandon, discard as refuse, or dump any produce, directly or indirectly or through collusion with any person, shall be considered to have violated the act.

§ 48.5 False report or statement. Any person, receiving produce in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia for or on behalf of another, shall be considered to have violated the act if, knowingly and with intent to defraud, he makes any false report or statement to the person from whom such produce was received concerning the handling, condition, quality, quantity, sale, or disposition thereof.

§ 48.6 Failure to account. Any person, receiving produce in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia for or on behalf of another, shall be considered to have violated the act, if, knowingly and with intent to defraud, he fails truly and correctly to account to the person from whom such produce was received.

CERTIFICATES OF INSPECTION

§ 48.7 Inspection and certification. The classes of persons described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section are hereby designated to make inspections regarding the quality and condition of produce received in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia, and to issue certificates setting forth the quality and condition of such produce which is to be destroyed, abandoned, discarded as refuse, or dumped. Any person shipping, receiving, or financially interested in such produce may make application for such inspection to the designated classes of persons.

(a) Any person authorized by the United States Department of Agriculture to inspect fruits and vegetables under any law (including, but not being limited to, the provisions of the so-called Farm Products Inspection law, contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 22, 1946), the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, and any amendment thereto, and the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (46 Stat. 531, as amended, 7 U. S. C. 499a et seq.)), providing for the market inspection of farm products;

(b) Any health officer or food inspector of any State, county, parish, city, or municipality or of the District of Columbia; or

(c) When, and only when, no inspector or health officer, designated in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, is available, the inspection and certification provided in this section may be made by any two persons having no financial interest in the produce involved or in the business of any person financially interested therein, and who are unrelated by blood or marriage to any such financially interested person, and who, at the time of the inspection and certification, and for a period of at least one year immediately prior thereto, have been engaged in the handling of the same general kind or class of produce with respect to which the inspection and certification are to be made. Any certificate issued by any persons designated in this paragraph must include a statement that each of them possesses the requisite qualifications.

§ 48.8 Certificates; issuance; contents. Each certificate issued under the act and pursuant to the regulations in this part must identify the particular lot of produce inspected; name the commodity; give the date upon which the inspection was made; state the quantity of the produce, the name and address of the agent handling the same and the fee, if any, charged therefor; and shall certify as to the quality and condition of such produce, and that it was without commercial value at the time of inspection.

§ 48.9 Application for inspection and certification; how made; contents. Application for inspection may be filed with the person or persons authorized to make such inspection or with anyone employed in such person's office and may be made in writing or by telegraph, or orally or by telephone. If made orally, the person or persons requested to make the inspection may require that it be confirmed in writing by the applicant. The application must show the name and address of the shipper, the name and address of the applicant, and the location and description of the produce, with marks, brands, or other specific identification if practicable.

§ 48.10 Copy of certificate to the Administrator. Any person issuing a certificate under the regulations in this part must mail promptly a copy of the certificate to the Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

COMPLAINTS

§ 48.11 Filing of complaints. Any person having reason to believe that the act or the regulations in this part have been violated should submit promptly all available facts with respect thereto to the Administrator for investigation and appropriate action.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1947. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

PART 308—ALLOTMENTS OF PAY

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amend Part 308, Chapter III, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

1. In § 308.3 (a) delete the period at the end of subparagraph (4) and substitute a comma and the following clause:

§ 308.3 Eligible allottees and authorized purposes. (a) * * *

(4) * * *, or to a branch office designated by the home office.

2. Rescind §§ 308.6 to 308.8, inclusive, and substitute the following:

(b) Class D and N allotments. Class D and N allotments are processed by the Insurance and Deposits Division, Army Finance Center, OCF, Building 205, St. Louis 20, Missouri.

§ 308.7 Payment to allottees in foreign countries. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, payment of class E allotments will be made to allottees residing in foreign countries as follows:

(1) By check mailed from the Class E Allotment Division, Army Finance Center, OCF, to those countries where payment in United States currency is not blocked.

(2) In local currency by appropriate disbursing officers (or by military attaché where there is no disbursing officer) in the theater or country or residence of the allottee, where payment in United States currency is blocked by Treasury Department regulations. In this instance disbursing officers will receive from the Chief of Finance, properly certified vouchers on which payment will be made, together with appropriate instructions.

(3) In Military payment certificates by appropriate disbursing officers to dependents acquired through marriage to Germans for the support of such dependents.

(b) Military personnel on duty in Germany or Japan are not authorized to make class E allotments to their dependents when such dependents have departed from the United States to join such personnel at their oversea stations. Allotments will be discontinued during the month in which notification is received by such personnel that their dependents have actually departed.

§ 308.8 Commencing date; Class E allotments. Ordinarily, class E allotments will be made effective the first of the month following that in which the authorization form is executed and payment will be made accordingly, provided the authorization form is received by the Class E Allotment Division not later than the 10th day of the month in which allotment is to become effective. Exceptions will be made for class E allotments covering monetary allowances in lieu of quarters and those covering commercial insurance premiums where because of circumstances beyond the control of the allotter an earlier effective date may be necessary. Class E allotments covering monetary allowances in lieu of quarters may be made effective the first of the month in which authorization form is executed but no earlier. Allotment checks are mailed so as to reach the allottee by the 15th of the month following the month in which allotment became effective; for example, an allotment effective February 1 will be paid by a check dated March 1 which will be mailed to reach the allottee not later than March 15. A class E allotment will not be made effective with the month in which an officer or enlisted person enters on duty except when an enlisted person is commissioned, or appointed a warrant officer, or when a warrant officer is commissioned.

3. In § 308.10 wherever the words "allotment office" appear substitute the words "allotment division" in lieu thereof; in paragraph (b) of § 308.10 amend the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 308.10 Effect of certain changes in status on class E, D, and N allotments. * * *

(b) Death of allottee. Upon receipt of information of the death of any person to whom an allotment is payable, the allotment division will discontinue the allotment and report the death to the allotter through his commanding officer giving the date of discontinuance. * * *

4. In § 308.11 wherever the words "allotment office" appear substitute the words "allotment division" in lieu thereof; in paragraph (b) of § 308.11 amend the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 308.11 Missing, missing in action, beleaguered, beseiged, interned in a neutral country, or captured by enemy. * * *

(b) Accounts. The pay and allowance accounts of persons absent in a missing status are maintained by the Finance Officer, U. S. Army, Army Finance Center, OCF, Building 205, St. Louis 20, Missouri. * * *

5. Revoke § 308.20.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

Subchapter C—The Foreign Service

[Foreign Service Reg. S-36]

PART 102—PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), and pursuant to sections 302, 421 and 422 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1001, 1004), § 102.101 of the Foreign Service Regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 102.101 Salaries of officers temporarily in charge—(a) Salaries of chargés d'affaires ad interim. A Foreign Service officer authorized to act as chargé d'affaires ad interim at the post to which he is assigned, shall, if he acts in such capacity for a period in excess of ten days, receive compensation, in addition to his basic salary as Foreign Service officer, as follows:

(1) For the first three months he shall act in such capacity he shall receive one half the difference between his basic salary and the per annum salary provided for the chief of mission at that post. Payment of this additional compensation shall be made for the period beginning the first day the officer is in charge.

(2) For the next three months he shall act in such capacity he shall receive three fourths of the difference between his basic salary and the per annum salary provided for the chief of mission at that post.

(3) Should an assignment to act temporarily in charge extend beyond six months, the officer shall continue to receive compensation as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and may apply for, and the Director General of the Foreign Service may in his discretion approve, the payment of the full difference in salaries effective as stated in the authorization.

(Sec. 421, Foreign Service Act of 1946)

(b) Salaries of officers in charge of consulates and consulates general. A Foreign Service officer, or a consul or vice consul who is not a Foreign Service officer, who is temporarily in charge of a consulate general or a consulate during the absence or incapacity of the principal officer shall, if he acts in such capacity for a period in excess of ten days, receive compensation in addition to his basic salary, as follows:

(1) For the first three months he shall act in such capacity he shall receive one half the difference between his basic salary and the basic salary received by the last principal officer actually in charge of the post. Payment of this additional compensation shall be made for the period beginning the first day the officer is in charge.

(2) For the next three months he shall act in such capacity he shall receive three fourths of the difference between his basic salary and the basic salary received by the last principal officer actually in charge of the post.

(3) Should an assignment to act temporarily in charge extend beyond six months, the officer shall continue to receive compensation as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and may apply for, and the Director General of the Foreign Service may in his discretion approve, the payment of the full difference in salaries effective as stated in the authorization.

(Sec. 422, Foreign Service Act of 1946.)

(c) The additional compensation paid to a diplomatic or consular officer acting temporarily in charge shall be known as chargé pay.

(d) Chargé pay shall accrue only on the basis of full days and is not subject to retirement deductions.

Section 102.103 is hereby superseded.

This regulation shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

For the Secretary of State.

JOHN E. PEURIFOY,
Assistant Secretary.

Amending Part 402, Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 402.14-3 is amended by substituting the first paragraph thereof with a new first paragraph.

§ 402.14-3 Obtaining tax information: tax searches. Information regarding the payment of taxes, assessments, or other governmental levies or charges, as may be necessary to maintain approved records and to protect the Corporation from loss, shall be obtained annually, unless otherwise directed by the General Manager, by search of the public record, information received from Tax Collectors, examination of tax receipts, or other evidence of payment furnished by home owners or other persons paying such items, or by such other method as the General Manager may determine. Generally, tax searches shall be limited to properties of home owners not having Tax and Insurance Accounts and whose loan accounts have been reduced less than 50%, but shall be extended to include properties of any home owners when, in the opinion of the Regional Manager with the advice of the Regional Counsel, it is considered necessary or prudent to do so.

PURPOSE

§ 812.1 Construction for recreational and amusement purposes—(a) What this section provides. The Housing and Rent Act of 1947 authorizes the Housing Expediter, if he determines that there is a shortage of building materials or is likely to be such a shortage, to require a permit in order to construct buildings or facilities to be used for recreational or amusement purposes.

There is a shortage of building materials which are critically needed for the construction of housing and for other purposes. In order to conserve such materials, this section forbids the beginning or carrying on of construction work of any kind on buildings and other structures to be used for recreational or amusement purposes, unless a construction permit is obtained. (However, certain small jobs and other work are exempt from this requirement, as explained in paragraphs (i) through (m) of this section.) Paragraphs (q) through (s) of this section explain the conditions upon which applications for construction permits may be approved. The provisions of this section apply whether the materials needed for the proposed work are already on hand or not.

This section of the Code of Federal Regulations, § 812.1, is called the "Construction Limitation Regulation." It is issued pursuant to the authority of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

NOTE: When the term "this section" is used in this Construction Limitation Regulation, it means this entire regulation and not just a part of it. The regulation is divided into paragraphs marked with small letters; these are divided into subparagraphs marked with numbers.

PROHIBITIONS

(b) Prohibitions on construction. This section establishes the following prohibitions on construction work:

(1) Beginning construction. No person shall begin to construct, to repair, to make additions or alterations to, to improve, or to convert from one purpose to another, any structure, public or private, to be used for recreational or amusement purposes, unless (i) he was granted authorization for the work under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, or (ii) he is issued a construction permit for the work under this section. (Paragraphs (i) through (m) of this section provide certain exemptions from this requirement.)

To "begin" work on a structure means to incorporate in a structure on the site materials which are to be an integral part of the structure in question. Materials are incorporated in a structure when they are placed in the position in which they are to remain as a part of the structure. Materials are considered to be an integral part of a structure if they are physically attached to the structure and will be permanently located within the boundary lines of its walls.

(2) Carrying on construction. No person shall carry on any construction, repair, additions, alterations, improvement, or conversion in connection with any structure, public or private, to be used for recreational or amusement purposes, unless (i) the work was begun (as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) prior to the time this section became effective on June 30, 1947, and was exempt from Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, or (ii) he was granted authorization for the work under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, or (iii) he has been issued a construction permit for the work under this section. (See paragraphs (i) through (m) of this section for exemptions from this requirement.)

(c) Persons to whom applicable. The prohibitions of paragraph (b) of this section apply to a person who does his own construction work, as well as to a person who gets a contractor to do the work. The prohibitions also apply to contractors, subcontractors, architects, and engineers who are either working on a job, or getting others to work on it or supply materials for it.

(d) Prohibition on deliveries. No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver, or cause to be delivered materials which he knows or has reason to believe will be used in work prohibited by this section.

This prohibition does not impose on a fabricator or supplier any duty to investigate whether a proposed construction job is exempt from this section, whether a permit has been issued for it, or whether it will be begun or carried on in violation of this section. Mere knowledge that the kind of work involved is a kind which would ordinarily require a construction permit under this section does not constitute reason to believe that the work will be begun or carried on in violation of this section, and, in the absence of some other reason to believe the contrary, the supplier may rely on the builder to get a permit if one is required. A supplier need not get from his customer a certificate to the effect that the customer is not violating and will not violate this section, or a certificate to the effect that the job for which the materials will be used is exempt under this section or is covered by a construction permit issued under this section.

CONSTRUCTION COVERED

(e) Structures covered. This section, the Construction Limitation Regulation, covers certain kinds of work on structures to be used for recreational or amusement purposes. The term "structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes" includes two classes of items: buildings, and structures other than buildings. These two classes are described below:

(1) Buildings. The term "structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes" includes any building or part of a building to be used, or designed to be used, for or in connection with any of the following purposes:

Amusement arcade.
Amusement park.
Assembly hall used primarily for recreation or amusement (commercially or municipally operated).
Athletic field house (commercially or municipally operated).
Bar serving alcoholic beverages.
Baseball park.
Bathhouse for swimming.
Billiard or pool parlor.
Boat or canoe club.
Bowling alley.
Cabana.
Canteen.
Carnival.
Cocktail lounge.
Community recreation building.
Country club.
Dance hall.
Dude ranch used primarily for recreation or amusement.
Exposition or exhibition (unless exempt under paragraph (m) (2) of this section).
Fair (except a State or county fair).
Gambling establishment.
Golf club or golf course.
Golf driving range.
Gymnasium (commercially or municipally operated).
Night club.
Race track, any kind.
Recreational club, any kind.
Riding academy.
Rodeo.
Seasonal camp used primarily for recreation or amusement.
Shooting gallery.
Skating rink.
Slot machine establishment.
Stadium, indoor (commercially or municipally operated).
Swimming pool, indoor (private, or commercially or municipally operated). (Outdoor swimming pools are covered by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.)
Tavern serving alcoholic beverages.
Theatre, any kind (commercially or municipally operated).
Any other recreational, amusement, or entertainment purpose, whether public or private.

If only a part of a building is to be used for or in connection with the above purposes, this section applies to that particular part of the building only.

(2) Structures other than buildings. The term "structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes" also includes the following structures:

Amphitheaters (commercially or municipally operated).
Amusement devices such as roller coasters or similar devices of a kind used in amusement parks.
Arenas (commercially or municipally operated).
Band stands.
Bleachers and similar seating arrangements (commercially or municipally operated).
Boardwalks used primarily for recreation or amusement.
Grandstands (commercially or municipally operated).
Music shells.
Piers used primarily for recreation or amusement (commercially operated).
Stadiums (commercially or municipally operated).
Swimming pools, outdoor (private, or commercially or municipally operated).
Walls or fences built principally of wood, used in connection with any other item in this list or any building listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(f) Structures not covered. This paragraph explains what kinds of structures are not covered by this Construction Limitation Regulation:

(1) Structures not used for recreation or amusement. If no part of a building is to be used for or in connection with any recreational, amusement, or entertainment purpose, the building is not covered by this section. If a structure other than a building is not listed in paragraph (e) (2) of this section, it is not covered by this section.

(2) Recreation room in private dwelling. This section does not cover a private "recreation room" in a house, or in an individual dwelling unit of an apartment building or other residential structure.

(g) Work covered. This paragraph explains what kinds of work are covered by this Construction Limitation Regulation, when done in connection with a structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes:

(1) General. This section covers construction, repairs, additions, alterations, improvements, and conversions. These terms include any kind of work on a structure which involves putting up or putting together building materials, supplies, or equipment of any kind. This definition determines whether a particular kind of work is covered by this section, except that the rules set out in paragraphs (g) (2) through (g) (5) and paragraph (h) of this section control in the special cases described in those paragraphs.

(2) Nailed, screwed, bolted, connected, installed on base, or cemented. This section covers the installation or relocation of the following items if they are (i) attached to a building or other structure by nails, screws, or bolts, (ii) connected with the plumbing or other piping system of the structure, (iii) connected to the lighting system of the structure (except by connection to an existing outlet without installing new wires or a new outlet), (iv) installed on a base or foundation built for the particular item in question, or (v) cemented to the structure:

Air conditioning equipment (except self-contained individual units with no duct systems).
Bars.
Bowling alleys.
Furnaces and furnace burner or boiler burner units.
Heating equipment.
Kitchen cabinets.
Lighting equipment.
Marquees.
Panelling.
Plumbing equipment.
Ventilating equipment.
(None of the above items include any item specifically listed in paragraph (h) (3) of this section.)

(3) Attached as part of structure. This section covers the installation or relocation of the following items if they are attached to a building or other structure in such a manner that they cannot be removed without demolition of the item or substantial injury to the structure:

Bins.
Bookcases.
Booths.
Counters.
Partitions.
Refrigerators.
Showcases, including refrigerated showcases.
Signs, electric and other.
Soda fountains.
Storage racks.
Water coolers.

NOTE: If the items listed in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph are not attached to a building or other structure in the manner described in the respective subparagraph, their installation or relocation is not covered by this section.

(4) Construction for temporary purpose. This section covers the erection of a structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes, even though it is erected only for a single occasion or event and taken down afterwards. (This does not apply to the erection of a previously used structure which is rented for the single occasion or event.) For example, this section covers the construction of bleachers for a prize fight, a circus, or a football season.

However, as provided in paragraph (j) (4) (ii) of this section, the cost or value of previously used materials may be excluded when calculating the cost of such a job if the materials were severed from the same structure or another structure owned by the builder, and if they are to be used without change of ownership. The cost of labor working on such materials may also be excluded. Thus, a circus, for example, is not required to obtain a permit in order to put up bleachers which it has previously used and which it owns.

(5) Alterations in connection with installation of machinery. This section covers alterations to a building or other structure covered by the section, even though the alterations are made in connection with an installation or relocation of machinery and equipment which is itself exempt under paragraph (h) (3) of this section.

For example, if a foundation is built inside a building to receive the equipment, or if new walls are installed to separate a machine from the rest of the building, these alterations are covered by this section. This is so even though the installation of the machinery or equipment is exempt.

The installation of an elevator (exempt under paragraph (h) (3) of this section) provides a second example. In such a job, the following work is covered by this section: preparing the shaft, strengthening the building to support the elevator, and constructing a penthouse on the roof of the building or a room in the basement to enclose the motors. However, the installation of the following items, is exempt: the elevator car, the guide rails between which the car runs, the sheaves, the motors, the cables, and the doors or frames to the elevator shaft.

(h) Work not covered. This paragraph explains what kinds of work are not covered by this section, even though done in connection with a structure to be used for recreational or amusement purposes:

(1) Certain work on existing structures. This section does not cover the following kinds of work, when done on existing buildings or other structures:

Greasing, overhauling or repairing existing equipment, or installing repair or replacement parts in existing equipment. This includes the replacement of parts which are no longer serviceable, but does not include the replacement of the entire piece of equipment.
Sanding floors and sand blasting buildings.
Painting or papering an existing structure or applying waterproofing to an existing structure by painting or spraying where no work covered by this section is done in connection with the painting, papering or waterproofing. This exception does not apply to new parts of a structure which has been altered.
Pointing bricks, sparkling plaster and caulking windows.
Installing loose fill, blanket, or batt insulation in existing buildings or installing insulation on existing equipment or piping.
Laying asphalt or other floor tile or linoleum or installing cork block insulation, in existing buildings (whether or not cemented to the building).

These kinds of work are exempt from this section only if done on existing buildings or other structures. If they are done in connection with the original construction of a building or other structure, or in order to complete a building or other structure immediately after its original construction, they are covered by this section.

(2) Preliminary and outside work. This section does not cover the following kinds of work:

Site preparation, such as excavating, grading, filling with dirt, gravel or crushed stone, and landscaping.
Constructing or erecting forms for concrete.
Erecting construction fences, work sheds and construction shanties.
Laying sidewalks, driveways (public or private), roads or streets.
Laying pipes, conduits and wires outside the boundary lines of the walls of the structure.
Installing any item of equipment outside of and not attached to a building or other structure, even though a foundation is built for it and even though the equipment is connected with a building or other structure by pipes or pipe lines, wires or the like.
Building retaining walls not physically incorporated within the structure.
Building bridges, breakwaters, bulkheads, piers or docks (except commercial amusement piers).
Driving sheet piling to prevent cave-ins.
Demolition of buildings.
Tearing out partitions or walls in a building which is being altered.

(3) Installation of certain equipment. This section does not cover the installation of relocation of the following items:

Air conditioning equipment comprised of self-contained individual units with no duct systems.
Automatic fire protection sprinkler systems.
Conversion oil or gas burners installed in or attached to a furnace or boiler already in use in the building.
Cooling towers.
Escalators, elevators and dumb waiters.
Lighting equipment for flood lighting baseball parks or other outdoor operations.
Projection and sound equipment.
Radio and television towers and other transmitting and receiving equipment.
Stokers installed in connection with heating equipment already installed in a building.
Storm windows, storm doors, screens, awnings and venetian blinds.
Stoves.
Theatre seats.
Any item listed in paragraph (g) (2) of this section, if not installed so as to be covered by that paragraph.
Any machinery or equipment installed to provide a special service in a structure and not installed merely to operate the structure, including any item listed in paragraph (g) (3) of this section if not installed so as to be covered by that paragraph.
Any kind of equipment or furniture not attached to a building or other structure.

EXEMPTIONS

(i) Small jobs. This paragraph provides exemptions for small jobs as follows:

(1) Amount of exemptions. It is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do any separate construction, repair, addition, alteration, improvement, or conversion job on any structure covered by this section if the cost of the job does not exceed $2,500.

However, this exemption does not apply to any job consisting of conversion to recreational, amusement, or entertainment purposes of any part or all of a structure last used for residential purposes. In such a case, the small job exemption is $200.

(2) Separate jobs. No job which would ordinarily be done as a single piece of work may be subdivided for the purpose of coming within the exemption given under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. A related series of operations in a structure which are performed at or about the same time, or as part of a single plan or program, always constitute a single job.

When a building or part of a building is being converted from one purpose to another, all work incidental to and done in connection with the conversion must be considered as one job. In the same way, if a building is being renovated, improved or modernized over an extended period, all work done in connection with the modernization must be considered as one job, even though separate contracts are let for different parts of the work.

(3) Separate structures. Work done on two or more separate structures is not considered one job, even if done as a part of a single plan. In this case, the rules of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are applied to each structure separately. For example, if two or more related structures are to be built and the cost of each does not exceed the small job exemption, each of these structures may be built without getting a construction permit.

(4) How to figure cost. For the purpose of determining whether a particular job is exempt from this section under the small job exemption, the "cost" of a job means the cost of the entire construction job as estimated at the time of beginning construction. The following rules govern the calculation of cost of a job:

(i) Items to be included. The cost of a job includes the following:

The cost or value of materials and equipment incorporated in the structure, whether or not obtained without paying for them, except the items listed in (ii) below.
The cost of paid labor engaged in the construction work, regardless of who pays for it, excluding, however, the cost of paid labor exempt under (ii) below. If it is impracticable to allocate the labor specifically to exempt or non-exempt items, the cost of all paid labor may be divided between the work on the two different classes of items in proportion to the value of the two classes of items.
The amount paid for contractors' fees.

(ii) Items not to be included. The cost of a job does not include the following:

The cost or value of materials, equipment, and labor used in work exempt under paragraph (h) of this section.
The cost or value of previously used materials and equipment, when these have been severed from the same structure or another structure owned by the builder (the owner or occupant of the building) and are to be used without change of ownership; and the cost of labor engaged in installing these items.
The cost or value of materials which were produced on the property of the owner or actual or proposed occupant of the structure, except where he is in the business of producing these materials for sale; and the cost of labor engaged in installing these items. This exemption does not apply to materials or products assembled by the builder from new or used materials not themselves exempt.

The value of unpaid labor.
The cost or value of the land and existing structures.
The amount paid for architects' and engineers' fees.

(j) Disaster. This paragraph provides the following exemptions for work made necessary by disasters:

(1) General. It is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do the minimum work necessary to prevent more damage to a building or other structure (or its contents) covered by this section which has been damaged by flood, fire, tornado, or similar disaster. This does not include the restoration of the structure to its former condition.

(2) Special cases. Until further notice, it is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do a restoration job on any building or other structure covered by this section in the (i) Woodward, Oklahoma area, (ii) Texas City, Texas area, or (iii) Rutland County, Vermont area, if the restoration is made necessary by damage caused by the disasters which occurred in Woodward on April 9, 1947, which commenced in Texas City on April 16, 1947, and which occurred in Rutland County on June 2 and 3, 1947. In each case the exemption is limited to the restoration of structures to substantially the same size and condition as on the day immediately preceding the disaster. (This continues the exemptions originally provided by Directions 4, 5, and 6 to Veterans' Housing Program Order 1.)

(k) Military construction. It is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do any work by or for the account of the U. S. Army or Navy.

(l) Veterans Administration construction. It is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do any work on construction projects of the Veterans Administration, including projects being built by the Corps of Engineers for the Veterans Administration. Also, it is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do any remodeling job on a building or any part of a building which has been leased to the Veterans Administration, or to Public Buildings Administration for occupancy or use by the Veterans Administration.

(m) State and county fairs and nonprofit expositions. It is not necessary to get a construction permit under this section to do any work on buildings or other structures for use in connection with:

(1) a State or county fair; or

(2) an agricultural, livestock or industrial exposition or exhibition, the net proceeds from which are used exclusively for improvement, maintenance and operation of such exposition or exhibition.

However, this exemption does not apply to commercially operated fairs other than State or county fairs, nor to expositions or exhibitions which do not come under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

APPLICATIONS FOR CONSTRUCTION PERMITS

(n) Filing of applications. Applications for construction permits under this section should be made on Form OHE 14–171. This form was formerly used to apply for authorization under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1. Any statement in Form OHE 14–171 which is inconsistent with this section, the Construction Limitation Regulation, is no longer applicable. Copies of Form OHE 14–171 may be obtained at the Area Rent Offices of the Office of the Housing Expediter. Until approximately July 31, 1947, they may also be obtained at the OHE District Construction Offices.

Applications should be prepared in accordance with paragraphs (o) and (p) of this section, and addressed to the Housing Expediter, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Non-residential Construction Branch.

(o) Calculating cost for purpose of application. Form OHE 14–171 requires the applicant to state, in Item 5, the estimated cost of the proposed job for which he is requesting a construction permit. For this purpose, the cost of a job should be calculated by the same method as provided in paragraph (i) (4) for the purpose of the small job exemption.

Item 5 on the application form is broken down into two parts: (1) cost of the structure less cost of fixtures, and (2) cost of fixtures. For this purpose, "fixtures" means the items listed in paragraphs (g) (2) and (3) of this section if installed so as to be covered by those paragraphs.

(p) Responsibility for statements in application. In reviewing an application for a construction permit to determine whether it should be approved, the Office of the Housing Expediter relies upon the statements and representations made in the application, and in supplementary documents filed with the application. Severe criminal penalties may be imposed for making willfully false statements or representations in connection with these applications and documents.

This imposes upon persons making statements and representations in connection with applications great responsibility for the correctness of these statements and representations. In addition, the granting of the construction permit imposes upon the builder and others concerned with the project the responsibility of carrying out the provisions of the permit and the representations made. Therefore, it is important that each of the statements and representations involved should be made by a person familiar with the facts and responsible for their correctness and truthfulness.

Applicants should observe the following rules in this regard:

(1) Statements concerning construction. The application should be made and signed by the person who is to be responsible for the construction. Normally, this is the individual who (or a responsible officer of the corporation which) owns or is to own the building or other structure involved. However, tenants, contractors, and architects may be in a position to assume responsibility for the performance of the construction in accordance with the permit, and if they do sign the application they will be held responsible.

(2) Statements as to need and use. On the other hand, contractors and architects are ordinarily not in a position to accept responsibility for the correctness of statements and representations as to the need for the building and the use to which it will be put. If the person who signs the application is not personally familiar with the need for the proposed work, and therefore is not in a position to assume responsibility for statements and representations with respect to the need for the building and the purpose to which it is to be put, these statements and representations should be made in a letter attached to the application and signed by (i) the prospective occupant of the building, or (ii) a responsible officer of the corporation which is to occupy it, or (iii) any other person who is in a position to accept the responsibility for these statements.

STANDARDS FOR APPROVAL

(q) Essentiality. An application for a construction permit may be approved on the ground that it is essential to construct the proposed project at the present time. In general, a proposed project will be considered essential if it falls into one of the categories listed in this paragraph. The applicant must show clearly that the proposed construction is necessary to accomplish the purpose involved.

(1) Community facilities. Applications for a permit for the construction of essential community facilities covered by this section may be approved if it is clearly shown that the lack of such facilities constitutes a severe and unreasonable hardship on the community or area to be served. In general, applications for additional community facilities will not be approved under this subparagraph unless there has recently been such a substantial growth in population that the existing facilities are clearly inadequate.

(2) Repairs and maintenance. Applications for a permit to make repairs and to do maintenance work covered by this section may be approved if denial would make it impossible to continue use of a building or other structure, or if serious injury to a building or other structure would result. Permits will be granted only for the minimum work necessary to keep the building or other structure in sound working condition. Alterations, expansions and modernizations will not be approved under this subparagraph.

(r) Hardship. An application for a construction permit for work necessary to alleviate or forestall hardship may be approved if denial would work a severe and unusual hardship. The hardship must be exceedingly severe, such as threatened bankruptcy or substantial impairment of means of livelihood.

For example, an applicant who has lost or is about to lose his place of business as a result of eviction, condemnation or disaster may be issued a construction permit to replace the facilities, if it is impracticable for him to repair or restore the old facilities or to buy or rent any other place to conduct his business. However, applications will not generally be approved on the basis of loss of former facilities if the loss occurred more than six months before the filing of the applications. The authorization will generally be limited to approximately the same amount of space which has been or will be lost. Evidence of practical impossibility of continuing in the premises must be shown in the case of eviction or condemnation.

Applications which involve the conversion of residential space to recreational or amusement purposes will rarely be approved on the ground of hardship.

(s) Impact on housing and other construction. There is a shortage of building materials for housing and other purposes. It is the purpose of this section to conserve such materials. Each different construction job will have a different impact, measured in terms of the scarce materials used, on housing and other construction. This impact is considered by the Office of the Housing Expediter, when passing upon applications for construction permits, in the following way:

(1) No impact. An application for a construction permit will be approved if the proposed work will require no scarce building materials, such as cast iron pressure pipe and fittings, cast iron soil pipe, electrical service equipment and wiring devices, galvanized sheet steel, gypsum board and lath, hardwood flooring, millwork, nails, plywood (construction grades), steel and wrought iron pipe, and water closet bowls and tanks.

(2) Negligible impact. An application for a construction permit may be approved if (i) the proposed work very nearly qualifies under paragraph (q) or (r) of this section, and (ii) the proposed work will require only negligible quantities of scarce building materials, such as those listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. To assist in the processing of his application, the applicant may submit the approximate quantities and sizes of such materials which he estimates he will use in his proposed construction job.

(3) Materials on hand. The mere fact that an applicant already has materials on hand will not generally be considered to mean that their use will constitute only a negligible impact, or no impact, on housing and other construction.

(4) Related work. In measuring the impact of a project on housing and other construction, consideration will be given to the scarce building materials to be used in work related to the proposed project (such as temporary construction buildings, fences, and the like), as well as materials to be used in the project itself.

(5) Elimination of housing. An application for a construction permit will generally not be approved under this paragraph (s) if the proposed project would result in elimination of residential accommodations, such as the conversion of apartments to a night club or other recreational club.

RESTRICTIONS ON AUTHORIZED CONSTRUCTION

(t) Restrictions imposed by CLR permit or VHP–1 authorization. A person who has been issued a construction permit under this section, or an authorization under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, to do work covered by this section must observe all the restrictions imposed on him by the permit or the authorization. In doing the work authorized by the permit or authorization, he must not do any work of the kinds covered by this section unless it is specifically covered by the permit or authorization. He may not, in connection with a job which has been specifically authorized, do additional work under the small job exemption given by paragraph (i) of this section.

(u) Permits and authorizations not transferable. Construction permits are issued in reliance on representations made by the applicant. This was also true of authorizations issued under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1. For this reason, no person to whom a construction permit has been issued under this section shall transfer the permit, and no person to whom an authorization has been issued under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 shall transfer the authorization. Any such transfer attempted is void.

If for any reason a builder wishes to abandon a project and another builder wishes to continue it, the new builder should apply to the Housing Expediter attaching to his application a letter from the former builder joining in the request for the issuance of a new permit.

MISCELLANEOUS

(v) Violations. It shall be unlawful for any person to do any act prohibited by this section. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this section and any person who makes any false statement or who wilfully conceals a material fact in connection with any statements made under this section, shall upon conviction thereof be subject to fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person or any other person who violates any provision of this section may be subject to such administrative and civil enforcement action as authorized by law.

(w) Communications. All communications concerning this section should be addressed to the Housing Expediter, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: CLR.

(x) Reports. All persons affected by this section shall file such reports as may be requested by the Housing Expediter, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. The reporting requirements of this section have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with that Act.

(y) Geographical applicability. This section applies to the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia.

(z) Effective date. This section shall become effective on June 30, 1947, simultaneously with the revocation of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1.

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION FOR NEW YORK CITY DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

§ 825.2 Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for New York City Defense-Rental Area. The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for New York City Defense-Rental Area, issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, 80th Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other circumstances.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the defense-rental area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area rent office" means the office of the Rent Director in the defense-rental area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Controlled housing accommodations" means any housing accommodation in any defense-rental area which is not specifically exempted from control or decontrolled under this regulation.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodation, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy, on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purpose of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins; supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments; and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes not serving transient guests exclusively.

"Maximum rent date" means March 1, 1943, the maximum rent date for the New York City Defense-Rental Area as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular housing accommodation in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, or under section 4 (c) of this regulation, whichever is applicable.

"Effective date of regulation" means November 1, 1943, the effective date of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for the New York City Defense-Rental Area. The term "Rent Regulation for Housing," as hereinafter used, means the Rent Regulation for Housing for the New York City Defense-Rental Area.

(a) Housing and defense-rental area to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all housing accommodations in the New York City Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the City of New York (including the boroughs of Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and Richmond) and the counties of Nassau and Suffolk in the State of New York, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The New York City Defense-Rental Area is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area."

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Accommodations subject to the rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments. Rooms or other housing accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments.

(4) Structures subject to underlying leases. (i) Entire structures or premises wherein more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee or other tenant of such entire structure or premises.

(ii) Entire structures or premises wherein 25 or less rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee, or other tenant of such entire structures or premises: Provided, That all of the housing accommodations in such structures or premises are exempt under the provisions of this act, or section 1 (b) of the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments.

(iii) This regulation does apply to an underlying lease of any entire structure or premises which was entered into after the maximum rent date and prior to the effective date of the regulation while such lease remains in force with no power in the tenant to cancel or otherwise terminate the lease, unless all of the housing accommodations in such structure are exempt under this section or section 1(b) of the rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments.

(5) Rented to National Housing Agency. Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(6) Resort housing; summer resort housing. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to October 1, 1945, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943, and ending on February 29, 1944.

This exemption shall be effective only from July 1, 1947, to September 30, 1947, inclusive.

(See rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for similar exemptions from June 1 to June 30, 1947.)

(7) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts and tourist homes. (i) Housing accommodations in any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel (see definition of "hotels" in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) housing accommodations in motor courts; and (iii) housing accommodations in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively: Provided, however, That all such housing accommodations referred to in the paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after such date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provision of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(8) Accommodations first offered for rent. (i) Housing accommodations, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; (ii) Housing accommodations which at no time during the period February 1, 1945 to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant) as housing accommodations: Provided, however, That all housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph (8) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landloard files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixtures or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the word "conversion" means (1) a change in a structure from a nonhousing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(9) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation, Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.—(a) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this regulation of any housing accommodations within the defense-rental area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Lease with option to buy. Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to November 1, 1943, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation may be authorized to receive payment made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Expediter if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain, and the tenant shall be authorized to offer, payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after November 1, 1943. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive, or the tenant to offer, payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Expediter as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after November 1, 1943, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive, nor shall the tenant offer, payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

(c) Security deposits.—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand, receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations within the defense-rental area except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit," in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) or (b) of the rent regulation for housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a) or (b), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent established under said section 4 (a) or (b).

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (c) or (d) of the rent regulation for housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (c) or (d), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter entered. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (e) of the rent regulation for housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (e), no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(5) Maximum rent established under section 4 (f) of the rent regulation for housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (f), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(6) Maximum rent established under section 4 (g) or (h) of the rent regulation for housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (g) or (h), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations were or are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(7) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars, to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

(8) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may demand, receive and retain as a security deposit, the rent for the last rental period of the term, not exceeding one month, where a newly constructed housing accommodation is or was rented and occupied for the first time after March 25, 1947, fully furnished, under a written lease.

SEC. 3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishing and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b) every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same living space as provided June 30, 1947, or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or those he provided on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date of first renting on or after July 1, 1947.

SEC. 4. (a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rent for any housing accommodation under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5, shall be the maximum rent which was in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rent established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled housing accommodations and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such housing accommodations shall be, as of the date such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any housing accommodations only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the defense-rental area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D–92, Registration of Lease, in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the housing accommodations the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) First rent after June 30, 1947. For controlled housing accommodations first rented on or after July 1, 1947, the maximum rent shall be the first rent for such accommodations. Within 30 days after so renting, the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5(c)(1) and 5(c)(6).

If the landlord fails to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after the date of the first renting shall be received, subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under section 5 (c) (1) or 5 (c) (6). Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under section 5 (c) may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under section 5 (c) is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(d) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. Where housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such housing accommodations cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in case where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the rent regulations issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, an increase or decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (12), (a) (13), (a) (14), (a) (15), (c) (6), (c) (8) and (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraphs (a) (6) and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force on the date determining the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under sections 5 (a) (3) and 5(c)(3) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction, appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since March 1, 1943.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (14), and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on September 30, 1943.

In cases under paragraph (c) (8) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the average rent during the period of occupancy of the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount necessary to relieve the substantial hardship which shall be the lesser of the following two amounts: the decrease in net income (before interest) or the increase in property taxes or operating costs: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

In cases under paragraph (a) (15) of this section, the adjustment shall be the amount of the rent increase granted by the appropriate agency of the United States.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rent. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Major capital improvement after effective date. There has been on or after the effective date of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement, as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement, and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Expediter finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That no adjustment under this subparagraph increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date; or the housing accommodations were not rented on the maximum rent date, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other time of year by reason of seasonal demand, or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Substantial increase in occupancy. (i) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of subtenants or other persons occupying the accommodations or a part thereof under a rental agreement with the tenant.

(ii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of occupants, in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(iii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants.

(9) On the date determining the maximum rent the housing accommodations were temporarily exempt from real estate taxes, the landlord was passing the benefit of this tax exemption on to the tenant and as a result the rent on that date was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(10) Priority rating granted on September 1941 application form of Office of Production Management. The maximum rent for the housing accommodations was originally established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the application for priority rating for the construction of the housing accommodations was filed on the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941, the landlord did not make, prior to the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and the maximum rent for the accommodations is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, giving due consideration to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

This paragraph (a)(10) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

(11) Peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in payroll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a)(12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: And provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(vi) "Prior representative period" means any period of two consecutive years prior to the "current year" but not beginning before January 1, 1939, which the Expediter finds to be representative of the property's normal operation: Provided, however, That where a representative period of two consecutive years is not available the Expediter in his discretion may for the purposes of this section accept a representative period of not less than one year.

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

(14) Changes from year-round to seasonal renting. The accommodations are located in a resort community, are primarily adapted to occupancy on a seasonal basis, are vacant and the establishment of seasonal variations in the rent would not, in the opinion of the area rent director, be inconsistent with the purposes of the act.

(15) The maximum rent was established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and prior to final completion of all units included in a single priority application, but subsequent to the first renting of said accommodations, the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent was approved by such agency.

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and space. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rents generally prevailing. The maximum rent for housing accommodations established under paragraphs (c) or (e) of section 4 of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or under paragraph (c) or (d) of section 4 of this regulation is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

Where the maximum rent for said housing accommodations was originally established under paragraphs (c), (d) or (e) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the landlord failed to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of said Rent Regulation for Housing on or before June 30, 1947, and fails to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of this regulation within the time specified in section 7 or where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (c) of this regulation and the landlord fails to file a registration statement in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of this regulation, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after July 1, 1947, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under this section. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order, unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file the proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under this section may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under this section is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order determining the maximum rent or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant or peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal, or other special relationship between the landlord and tenant, or by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement: Provided, That this subparagraph shall not apply to cases covered by paragraph (c) (8) of this section.

(6) Seasonal rent. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(7) Substantial decrease in occupancy. There has been a substantial decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants since an order under paragraph (a) (8) of this section or section 5 (a) (8) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(8) Rent concession. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement for a period of occupancy of one or more years, which provided for a rent concession during such period of occupancy in the form of either a rent-free period or an abatement of rent.

(9) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section or section 5 (a) (12) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations, which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947, or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact, or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Sale of underlying lease or other rental agreement. Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant the tenant may petition the Expediter for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Expediter may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion of the act or this regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) Adjustments in case of options to buy. No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Expediter may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on the maximum rent date.

(h) Where the maximum rent for any housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such accommodations may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rents to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Expediter as he may, from time to time, require.

SEC. 7. Registration—(a) Registration statement. Every landlord of controlled housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. For housing accommodations rented prior to June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. For housing accommodations first rented after June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 30, 1947, or within 30 days after first renting, whichever is later. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Expediter shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Expediter and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the area rent office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

Where, since the filing of the registration statement for any controlled housing accommodations, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity within 15 days after the change, or July 1, 1947, whichever is later. If the new landlord indicates on the notice of change in identity that he has not obtained the landlord's copy of the original registration statement, the Expediter shall cause to be prepared and delivered to him a true copy of said original, which may be used to satisfy all requirements of this paragraph (a).

Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration as the landlord at the address given thereon, or, where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1 constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, on its sale by the owning agency, and within thirty days after the sale of such accommodations the new landlord shall file a registration statement as provided in subsection (a) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, subsection (c) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(c) Exceptions from registration requirements—(1) Housing owned and constructed by governmental agencies. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations whose maximum rent was originally determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the defense-rental area and containing such other information as the Expediter shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

(2) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchased money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting housing accommodations unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendments of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All orders issued pursuant to section 2 (c), 2 (d) (3) and 2 (d) (7) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for the New York City Defense-Rental Area shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

RENT REGULATION FOR CONTROLLED ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS

§ 825.5 Rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments. Rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, 80th Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration and records.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Housing Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the defense-rental area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area rent office" means the Office of the Rent Director in the defense-rental area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Room" means a room or group of rooms, not constituting an apartment, rented or offered for rent as a housing accommodations unit in a rooming house, hotel, or other establishment. The term includes ground rented as trailer space.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating, and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of a room.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any room, or any agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any room.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of a room or for the transfer of a lease of such room.

"Term of occupancy" means occupancy on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins, supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments, and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Apartment" means a room or rooms providing facilities commonly regarded in the community as necessary for a self-contained dwelling unit, and of a class of accommodations customarily rented without variations in rent dependent on terms of occupancy and number of occupants: Provided, however, That a self-contained dwelling unit containing a kitchen and bath shall be deemed an apartment.

"Other establishments" means multiple unit establishments, other than hotels or rooming houses, containing more than two rooms (see definition of room) rented or offered for rent on a short time basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy.

"Maximum rent date" means the date established as the maximum rent date in any particular defense-rental area under the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder and set forth in Schedule A, and there designated "maximum rent date."

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular room in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder.

"The 30-day period determining the maximum rent" means the period provided in the "Hotel Regulation" for determining, under section 4 (a) or (b) of that regulation, the maximum rent for any room.

"Effective date of regulation" means the effective date of the "Hotel Regulation", for each defense-rental area, or portion thereof, as indicated in Schedule A, except where the context indicates clearly to the contrary.

"Hotel Regulation" means the Rent Regulation for Transient Hotels, Residential Hotels, Rooming Houses, and Motor Courts in effect on June 30, 1947, issued under authority of and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(a) Rooms in rooming houses, hotels, and other establishments and Defense-Rental Areas to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all rooms in hotels, rooming houses, and other establishments and to all accommodations brought under this regulation by consent of the Area Rent Director pursuant to section 1 (e), and to all accommodations brought under the "Hotel Regulation" by consent of the Area Rent Director pursuant to section 1 (e) of that regulation, within each of the Defense-Rental Areas and each of the portions of a defense-rental area (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area"), which are listed in Schedule A of this regulation, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

In Schedule A of this regulation, "the maximum rent date" and "the effective date of regulation" as established under the rent regulations issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is given for each defense-rental area listed. More than one effective date is given for different portions of a defense-rental area where the same effective date is not applicable to the entire defense-rental area.

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Charitable or educational institutions. Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes.

(4) Entire structures. Entire structures or premises, as distinguished from the rooms within such entire structures or premises.

(5) Non-profit clubs. Rooms in a bona fide club certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if on written request of the landlord, he finds that the club (i) is a non-profit organization and is recognized as such by written statement of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, (ii) rents rooms only to members, bona fide guests of members, and members of bona fide clubs with which the club has reciprocal arrangements for the exchange of privileges, and (iii) is otherwise operated as a bona fide club.

(6) College fraternity or sorority houses. Rooms in a bona fide college fraternity or sorority house certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if, on written request of the landlord, he finds that the fraternity or sorority is a bona fide organization operated for the benefit of students and not for profit as a commercial or business enterprise. This exemption shall not apply when the rooms are rented to persons who are not members of the fraternity or sorority.

(7) Resort housing—(i) Summer resort housing. Rooms located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to October 1, 1945, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943, and ending on February 29, 1944.

This exemption shall be effective only from July 1, 1947, to September 30, 1947, inclusive, and shall not apply to the rooms in the Los Angeles Defense-Rental Area and in the Santa Cruz Defense-Rental Area.

(See Hotel Regulation issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for similar exemptions from June 1 to June 30, 1947.)

(ii) Winter resort housing. Rooms located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to the effective date of the "Hotel Regulation" in the area, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on June 1, 1945, and ending on September 30, 1946: Provided, however, That the Area Rent Director may by order extend the above exemption to rooms otherwise qualified which were rented or offered for rent for a period of not in excess of two weeks during the above period.

This exemption shall be effective only from October 1, 1947, to February 29, 1948.

(8) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts, tourist homes and other establishments. (i) These housing accommodations, in any establishment which is commonly known as a "hotel" (See definition of "hotel" in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) Rooms in any motor court; (iii) Rooms in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively; (iv) Rooms in other multiple-unit establishments (see definition "other establishments" in section 1) which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service;

Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(9) Newly constructed rooms or converted rooms. (i) Rooms, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; or (ii) rooms which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented either as individual rooms or as part of a larger housing accommodation (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant): Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph (9) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later; and Provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the proisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the word "conversion" means (1) a change from non-housing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(10) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation: Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

(e) Election by landlords to bring housing under this regulation. Where a building or establishment contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations whose maximum rents are determined under the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, the landlord may with the consent of the Expediter, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file the registration statements required by section 7 for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Expediter to consent to such election.

If the Expediter finds that the provisions of this regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices of such building or establishment than the provisions of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, he shall consent to the landlord's election by order. Accommodations so brought under this regulation shall be considered "rooms" for the purposes of the regulation.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Expediter, revoke his election made under this section 1 (e) or under section 1 (e) of the "Hotel Regulation," and thereby bring under the control of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation all housing accommodations previously brought under this regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Expediter to consent to such revocation. The Expediter may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Expediter finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition—(a) Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand, or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after July 1, 1947, of any room subject to this regulation, within the defense-rental area, higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Terms of occupancy—(1) Tenant not required to change term of occupancy. No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy.

(2) Term of occupancy during June 1942. Where, during June 1942, a room was rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for that term of occupancy except that he is not required to rent for that term more than the greatest number of rooms which were rented for the term at any one time during June 1942. However, if during the year ending on June 30, 1942, a landlord had regular and definite seasonal practices with reference to the renting of rooms on a weekly or monthly basis, he may request the Expediter to approve such practices. When approval is given the landlord shall offer rooms for rent for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy pursuant to the practices so approved. The Expediter may withdraw approval at any time if he finds that the landlord has failed to conform to such practices, or if he finds that the effects of the approval are inconsistent with the Act or this regulation or are likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(3) Request by tenant to change term of occupancy. Any tenant on a daily or weekly term of occupancy shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to a weekly or monthly term unless the landlord is then renting for such term a number of rooms equal to the number which he is required to rent for that term under subparagraph (2). If the room occupied by such tenant was not rented or offered for rent for such term during June 1942, the landlord may transfer the tenant to a room, as similar as possible, which was so rented or offered for rent.

(4) Defense-Rental Areas with maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942—(i) Maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, but prior to July 1, 1943. In defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, but prior to July 1, 1943, in section 2 (b) (2), the words "June 1943" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942", and the words "June 30, 1943" shall be substituted for the words "June 30, 1942"; in section 2 (b) (3) the words "June 1943" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942."

(ii) Maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later. In defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later, in section 2 (b) (2) the words "the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942" and the words "the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 30, 1942"; in section 2 (b) (3) the words "the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942."

(5) If the landlord's duty under subparagraph (2), with reference to a room is in dispute, or in doubt, or not known, the Expediter, at any time on his own initiative may issue an order determining the necessary facts and establishing such duty; or, if the Expediter is unable to ascertain the necessary facts, he may issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (6).

(6) Where subparagraph (2) does not require the offering of a room on a weekly or monthly basis, or where the Expediter is unable to ascertain the facts necessary to establish the landlord's duty under that paragraph, he may at any time on his own initiative issue an order requiring the room to be offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, or both. The Expediter may issue such orders if he finds that, during a reasonable period prior to the time the proceeding hereunder is commenced, the room has been rented under circumstances which make appropriate the application of weekly or monthly rents. In determining whether the landlord shall be required to offer the room on a weekly basis, or on a monthly basis, or both, the Expediter will consider the practices which prevailed in the defense-rental area for similar accommodations during a reasonable period prior to the effective date of regulation.

Upon issuance of such an order, the room shall be offered for rent on a weekly or monthly basis, or both, as the order may require, for each number of occupants for which it is offered by the landlord for any other term of occupancy. A tenant of the room on a daily or weekly basis shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to any term of occupancy which the landlord is required to offer pursuant to the order.

(c) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of any room subject to this regulation within the defense-rental area, except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit", in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the name terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulation"—(i) Renting prior to "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (b) or (c) by a renting prior to the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter issued with reference to such security deposit. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(ii) Renting on or after "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulation" by a renting on or after the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (d) or (f) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under section 4 (d) or (f), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) as provided in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

SEC. 3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same living space as provided June 30, 1947, or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the Hotel Regulation or those he provided with the room on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation; and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a rooming house and for controlled rooms in hotels and other establishments (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be:

(a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rents for any room under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be the maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rents established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled room and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such room shall be, as of the date which such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any room only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office fkor the defense-rental area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D–92—Registration of Lease—in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to notification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the room the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other serves, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) Maximum rents established on or after July 1, 1947. For a room subject to this regulation first rented or offered for rent on or after July 1, 1947, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it is first offered for rent; if such room is thereafter offered for rent for other terms or numbers of occupants, the rents for which it is first offered for such other term and numbers of occupants. The landlord shall file a registration statement within ten days after any maximum rent is established under this section as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(d) First rents for terms and number of occupants not covered by (a). For a room having a maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraph (a) of this section, the first rent for the room on or after July 1, 1947, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same establishment.

(e) Meals with room. For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two.

In defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date of March 1, 1942, or earlier, no landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942. In defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, no landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on the maximum rent date.

(f) Where rooms on June 30, 1947, are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such rooms cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation", or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

(g) Rent fixed by order of Expediter. For a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established under any other provision of this regulation, the rent fixed by order of the Expediter as provided in this paragraph (g).

The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on petition of the landlord may enter an order fixing the maximum rent and specifying the minimum services for a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established prior to issuance of the order under any other provision of this regulation. Such maximum rent shall be fixed on the basis of the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(h) Decontrolled maximum daily rents for controlled rooms. Controlled rooms in establishments classified as hotels or tourist homes under section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation" permitted under and pursuant to section 4 (k) of said regulation to be rented on June 30, 1947, for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by said Regulation, by reason of the landlord of such establishment having complied with the requirements of said section 4 (k) prior to June 30, 1947, including the proper filing of Form DH–DC, may continue to be rented for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the "Hotel Regulation."

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date or during the thirty-day period establishing the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (9), (a) (10), (c) (4), and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraph (a) (6) of this section the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, or the date establishing the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under sections 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (3) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (10) and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (9) of this section.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rents. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the ground that:

(1) Major capital improvement since maximum rent period. There has been, since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room, under either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room under either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation, or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The maximum rent for the room was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially lower than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Peculiar circumstances. The maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(9) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in pay roll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (9) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: And provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(10) Change from year-round to seasonal renting. The accommodations are located in a resort community, are primarily adapted to occupancy on a seasonal basis, and the establishment of seasonal variations in the rent would not in the opinion of the area rent director, be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act.

(b) Decrease in space, minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum: within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rent generally prevailing. The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order establishing its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order establishing the maximum rent or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially higher than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(5) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 6 (a) (9). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of the "Hotel Regulation" or under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, since the order, issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947, or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact, or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the ground set out in paragraph (a) of this section, or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(f) Government housing. Where the maximum rent for any room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such room may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rent to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Expediter as he may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Registration and records.—(a) Registration statements.—(1) Registration. Every landlord of a room, subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Expediter shall require, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation," for rooms rented on or before June 30, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. Any maximum rent established after the "effective date of regulation" under paragraphs (b) or (c) of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation" which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported on or before July 10, 1947, either by amending a registration statement previously filed, or by filing a new registration statement. Any maximum rent established on or after July 1, 1947, which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported within ten days after such rent is established either by amending a registration statement previously filed or by filing a new registration statement.

(2) Notice of change in identity of landlord. Where, since the filing of a registration statement, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity, within fifteen days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later.

(3) Notice to landlord. Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as landlord at the address given thereon, or where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1, constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

(4) Registration where maximum rent formerly determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation" on its sale by the owning agency, and on or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after the sale of such accommodations, whichever is the later, the new landlord shall file registration statements as provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, the provision in the second paragraph of (b) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Posting maximum rents. On or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after a maximum rent was established under paragraph (b) or (c) of section 4, whichever is the later, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord within ten days after the effective date of the order shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms whose maximum rents were established under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Records—(1) Existing records. Every landlord of a room subject to this regulation rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, all his existing records showing or relating to (i) the rent for each term and number of occupants for such room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room, (ii) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under section 4 (c) of the "Hotel Regulation", (iii) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during June 1942, in defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date of March 1, 1942, or earlier, (iv) rooms rented or offered for rent on a weekly or monthly basis during June 1943, in defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, but prior to July 1, 1943, (v) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date, in defense-rental areas with a maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later.

(2) Record keeping. Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent, shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasng or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting rooms unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages as provided for by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports, and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All certificates and orders issued pursuant to sections 1 (b) (5), 1 (b) (6), 2 (b) (2), 2 (c) (3), and 2 (c) (5) of the "Hotel Regulation" which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

RENT REGULATION FOR CONTROLLED ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS IN NEW YORK CITY DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

§ 825.6 Rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments for New York City defense-rental area. Rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments for the New York City defense-rental area issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, 80th Congress, is as follows:

Sec
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration and records.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this section. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Housing Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the defense-rental area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area Rent Office" means the Office of the Rent Director in the defense-rental area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Room" means a room or group of rooms, not constituting an apartment, rented or offered for rent as a housing accommodations unit in a rooming house, hotel, or other establishment. The term includes ground rented as trailer space.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating, and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of a room.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any room, or any agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any room.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of a room or for the transfer of a lease of such room.

"Term of occupancy" means occupancy on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy services: Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins, supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments, and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Apartment" means a room or rooms providing facilities commonly regarded in the community as necessary for a self-contained dwelling unit, and of a class of accommodations customarily rented without variations in rent dependent on terms of occupancy and number of occupants: Provided, however, That a self-contained dwelling unit containing a kitchen and bath shall be deemed an apartment.

"Other establishments" means multiple unit establishments, other than hotels or rooming houses, containing more than two rooms (see definition of room) rented or offered for rent on a short time basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy.

"Maximum rent date" means March 1, 1943, the date established as the maximum rent date in the New York City defense-rental area under the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular room in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder.

"The 30-day period determining the maximum rent" means the period provided in the "Hotel Regulation" for determining, under section 4 (a) or (b) of that regulation, the maximum rent for any room.

"Effective date of regulation" means November 1, 1943, the effective date of the "Hotel Regulation", for the New York City defense-rental area, except where the context indicates clearly to the contrary.

"Hotel Regulation" means the Rent Regulation for Transient Hotels, Residential Hotels, Rooming Houses, and Motor Courts for the New York City defense-rental area in effect on June 30, 1947, issued under authority of and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(a) Rooms in rooming houses, hotels, and other establishments and defense-rental area to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all rooms in hotels, rooming houses, and other establishments and to all accommodations brought under this regulation by consent of the Area Rent Director pursuant to section 1 (e), and to all accommodations brought under the "Hotel Regulation" by consent of the Area Rent Director pursuant to section 1 (e) of that regulation, within the New York City defense-rental area, consisting of the City of New York (including the Boroughs of Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and Richmond) and the Counties of Nassau and Suffolk in the State of New York, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The New York City defense-rental area is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area."

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the duelling space is a part.

(3) Charitable or educational institutions. Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes.

(4) Entire structures. Entire structures or premises, as distinguished from the rooms within such entire structures or premises.

(5) Non-profit clubs. Rooms in a bona fide club certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if on written request of the landlord, he finds that the club (i) is a non-profit organization and is recognized as such by written statement of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, (ii) rents rooms only to members, bona fide guests of members, and members of bona fide clubs with which the club has reciprocal arrangements for the exchange of privileges, and (iii) is otherwise operated as a bona fide club.

(6) College fraternity or sorority houses. Rooms in a bona fide college fraternity or sorority house certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if, on written request of the landlord, he finds that the fraternity or sorority, is a bona fide organization operated for the benefit of students and not for profit as a commercial or business enterprise. This exemption shall not apply when the rooms are rented to persons who are not members of the fraternity or sorority.

(7) Summer resort housing. Rooms located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to October 1, 1945, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943, and ending on February 29, 1944.

This exemption shall be effective only from July 1, 1947, to September 30, 1947, inclusive.

(8) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts, tourist homes, and other establishments. (i) Those housing accommodations, in any establishment which is commonly known as a "hotel" (See definition of "hotel" in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures and bellboy service; (ii) Rooms in any motor court; (iii) Rooms in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively; (iv) Rooms in other multiple-unit establishments (See definition "other establishments" in section 1) which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy services: Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(9) Newly constructed rooms or converted rooms. (i) Rooms, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; or (ii) rooms which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented either as individual rooms or as part of a larger housing accommodation (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant): Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph (9) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the word "conversion" means (1) a change from non-housing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(10) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation: Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

(e) Election by landlords to bring housing under this regulation. Where a building or establishment contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations whose maximum rents are determined under the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, the landlord may with the consent of the Expediter, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file the registration statements required by section 7 for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Expediter to consent to such election.

If the Expediter finds that the provisions of this regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices of such building or establishment than the provisions of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, he shall consent to the landlord's election by order. Accommodations so brought under this regulation shall be considered "rooms" for the purposes of the regulation.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Expediter, revoke his election made under this section 1 (e) or under section 1 (e) of the "Hotel Regulation", and thereby bring under the control of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation all housing accommodations previously brought under this regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Expediter to consent to such revocation. The Expediter may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Expediter finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition — (a) Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand, or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after July 1, 1947 of any room subject to this regulation, with the defense-rental area, higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Terms of occupancy—(1) Tenant not required to change term of occupancy. No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy.

(2) Term of occupancy during June 1943. Where, during June 1943, a room was rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for that term of occupancy except that he is not required to rent for that term more than the greatest number of rooms which were rented for the term at any one time during June 1943. However, if during the year ending on June 30, 1943, a landlord had regular and definite seasonal practices with reference to the renting of rooms on a weekly or monthly basis, he may request the Expediter to approve such practices. When approval is given the landlord shall offer rooms for rent for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy pursuant to the practices so approved. The Expediter may withdraw approval at any time if he finds that the landlord has failed to conform to such practices, or if he finds that the effects of the approval are inconsistent with the act or this regulation or are likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(3) Request by tenant to change term of occupancy. Any tenant on a daily or weekly term of occupancy shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to a weekly or monthly term unless the landlord is then renting for such term a number of rooms equal to the number which he is required to rent for that term under subparagraph (2). If the room occupied by such tenant was not rented or offered for rent for such term during June 1943, the landlord may transfer the tenant to a room, as similar as possible, which was so rented or offered for rent.

(4) If the landlord's duty under subparagraph (2), with reference to a room is in dispute, or in doubt, or not known, the Expediter, at any time on his own initiative may issue an order determining the necessary facts and establishing such duty; or, if the Expediter is unable to ascertain the necessary facts, he may issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (5).

(5) Where subparagraph (2) does not require the offering of a room on a weekly or monthly basis, or where the Expediter is unable to ascertain the facts necessary to establish the landlord's duty under that paragraph, he may at any time on his own initiative issue an order requiring the room to be offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, or both. The Expediter may issue such orders if he finds that, during a reasonable period prior to the time the proceeding hereunder is commenced, the room has been rented under circumstances which make appropriate the application of weekly or monthly rents. In determining whether the landlord shall be required to offer the room on a weekly basis, or on a monthly basis, or both, the Expediter will consider the practices which prevailed in the defense-rental area for similar accommodations during a reasonable period prior to the effective date of regulation.

Upon issuance of such an order, the room shall be offered for rent on a weekly or monthly basis, or both, as the order may require, for each number of occupants for which it is offered by the landlord for any other term of occupancy. A tenant of the room on a daily or weekly basis shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to any term of occupancy which the landlord is required to offer pursuant to the order.

(c) Security deposits — (1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of any room subject to this regulation within the defense-rental area, except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit," in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulations"—(i) Renting prior to "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (b) or (c) by a renting prior to the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter issued with reference to such security deposit. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(ii) Renting on or after "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulation" by a renting on or after the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (d) or (f) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (d) or (f), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) as provided in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

SEC. 3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same living space as provided June 30, 1947, or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the "Hotel Regulation" or those he provided with the room on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation; and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a rooming house and for controlled rooms in hotels and other establishments (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be:

(a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rents for any rooms under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be the maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rents established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled room and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such room shall be, as of the date which such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any room only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the Defense-Rental Area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D–92—Registration of Lease—in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the room the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) Maximum rents established on or after July 1, 1947. For a room subject to this regulation first rented or offered for rent on or after July 1, 1947, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it is first offered for rent; If such room is thereafter offered for rent for other terms or numbers of occupants, the rents for which it is first offered for such other term and numbers of occupants. The landlord shall file a registration statement within ten days after any maximum rent is established under this section as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(d) First rents for terms and number of occupants not covered by (a). For a room having a maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraph (a) of this section, the first rent for the room on or after July 1, 1947, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same establishment.

(e) Meals with room. For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on the maximum rent date.

(f) Where rooms on June 30, 1947, are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such rooms cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation", or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

(g) Rent fixed by order of Expediter. For a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established under any other provision of this regulation, the rent fixed by order of the Expediter as provided in this paragraph (g).

The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on petition of the landlord may enter an order fixing the maximum rent and specifying the minimum services for a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established prior to issuance of the order under any other provision of this regulation. Such maximum rent shall be fixed on the basis of the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(h) Decontrolled maximum daily rents for controlled rooms. Controlled rooms in establishments classified as hotels or tourist homes under section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation" permitted under and pursuant to section 4 (h) of said regulation to be rented on June 30, 1947, for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by said regulation, by reason of the landlord of such establishment having complied with the requirements of said section 4 (h) prior to June 30, 1947, including the proper filing of Form DH–DC, may continue to be rented for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the "Hotel Regulation."

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date or during the thirty-day period establishing the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (9), (a) (10), (c) (4), (c) (5), and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraph (a) (6) of this section the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, or the date establishing the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under sections 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (3) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (10) and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (5) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the average rent during the period of occupancy of the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

In cases under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (9) of this section.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rents. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the ground that:

(1) Major capital improvement since maximum rent period. There has been, since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room, under either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment.

There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room under either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation, or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relations between landlord and tenant. The maximum rent for the room was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially lower than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Peculiar circumstances. The maximum rent was materially effected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(9) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantal and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in pay roll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (9) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: And provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(10) Change from year-round to seasonal renting. The accommodations are located in a resort community, are primarily adapted to occupancy on a seasonal basis, and the establishment of seasonal variations in the rent would not, in the opinion of the area rent director, be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act.

(b) Decrease in space, minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rent generally prevailing. The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order establishing its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order establishing the maximum rent or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially higher than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(5) Rent concession. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement for a period of occupancy of one or more years, which provided for a rent concession during such period of occupancy in the form of either a rent-free period or an abatement of rent.

(6) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (9). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of the "Hotel Regulation" or under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947, or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact, or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(f) Government housing. Where the maximum rent for any room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such room may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rent to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Expediter as he may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Registration and records—(a) Registration statements—(1) Registration. Every landlord of a room, subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Expediter shall require, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation." For rooms rented on or before June 30, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. Any maximum rent established after the "effective date of regulation" under paragraphs (b) or (c) of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation" which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported on or before July 10, 1947, either by amending a registration statement previously filed, or by filing a new registration statement. Any maximum rent established on or after July 1, 1947, which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported within ten days after such rent is established either by amending a registration statement previously filed or by filing a new registration statement.

(2) Notice of change in identity of landlord. Where, since the filing of a registration statement, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity, within fifteen days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later.

(3) Notice to landlord. Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as landlord at the address given thereon, or where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1, constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

(4) Registration where maximum rent formerly determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation" on its sale by the owning agency; and on or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after the sale of such accommodations, whichever is the later, the new landlord shall file registration statements as provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, the provision in the second paragraph of (b) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Posting maximum rents. On or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after a maximum rent was established under paragraph (b) or (c) of section 4, whichever is the later, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord within ten days after the effective date of the order shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms whose maximum rents were established under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Records—(1) Existing records. Every landlord of a room subject to this regulation rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, all his existing records showing or relating to (i) the rent for each term and number of occupants for such room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room, (ii) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under section 4 (c) of the "Hotel Regulation", (iii) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during June 1943.

(2) Record keeping. Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent, shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting rooms unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject of civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's positions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All certificates and orders issued pursuant to sections 1 (b) (5), 1 (b) (6), 2 (b) (2), 2 (c) (3) and 2 (c) (5) of the "Hotel Regulation" which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments for the New York City defense-rental area shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

CONTROLLED ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS IN MIAMI DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

§ 825.7 Rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments in the Miami Defense-Rental Area. Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments in the Miami Defense-Rental Area issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, 80th Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration and Records.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Housing Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area Rent Office" means the Office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Room" means a room or group of rooms, not constituting an apartment, rented or offered for rent as a housing accommodations unit in a rooming house, hotel, or other establishment. The term includes ground rented as trailer space.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating, and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of a room.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any room, or any agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any room.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of a room or for the transfer of a lease of such room.

"Term of occupancy" means occupancy on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages, or cabins, supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments, and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Apartment" means a room or rooms providing facilities commonly regarded in the community as necessary for a self-contained dwelling unit, and of a class of accommodations customarily rented without variations in rent dependent on terms of occupancy and number of occupants: Provided, however, That a self-contained dwelling unit containing a kitchen and bath shall be deemed an apartment.

"Other establishments" means multiple unit establishments, other than hotels or rooming houses, containing more than two rooms (see definition of room) rented or offered for rent on a short time basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy.

"Maximum rent date" means September 1, 1943, the date established as the maximum rent date in the Miami Defense-Rental Area under the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular room in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder.

"The 30-day period determining the maximum rent" means the period provided in the "Hotel Regulation" for determining, under section 4 (a) or (b) of that regulation, the maximum rent for any room.

"Effective date of regulation" means October 15, 1943, the effective date of the "Hotel Regulation," for the Miami Defense-Rental Area, except where the context indicates clearly to the contrary.

"Hotel Regulation" means the Rent Regulation for Transient Hotels, Residential Hotels, Rooming Houses, and Motor Courts for the Miami Defense-Rental Area in effect on June 30, 1947, issued under authority of and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(a) Rooms in rooming houses, hotels, and other establishments and Defense-Rental Area to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all rooms in hotels, rooming houses, and other establishments in the Miami Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the County of Dade and the City of Hollywood and the Town of Hallandale in the County of Broward in the State of Florida, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The Miami Defense-Rental Area is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area."

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Charitable or educational institutions. Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes.

(4) Entire structures. Entire structures or premises, as distinguished from the rooms within such entire structures or premises.

(5) Non-profit clubs. Rooms in a bona fide club certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if, on written request of the landlord, he finds that the club (i) is a non-profit organization and is recognized as such by written statement of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, (ii) rents rooms only to members, bona fide guests of members, and members of bona file clubs with which the club has reciprocal arrangements for the exchange of privileges, and (iii) is otherwise operated as a bona fide club.

(6) College fraternity or sorority houses. Rooms in a bona fide college fraternity or sorority house certified by the Expediter as exempt. The Expediter shall so certify if, on written request of the landlord, he finds that the fraternity or sorority is a bona fide organization operated for the benefit of students and not for profit as a commercial or business enterprise. This exemption shall not apply when the rooms are rented to persons who are not members of the fraternity or sorority.

(7) Winter resort housing. Rooms located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonable basis prior to October 15, 1943, the effective date of the "Hotel Regulation" which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on June 1, 1946, and ending on September 30, 1946: Provided, however, That the Area Rent Director may by order extend the above exemption to rooms otherwise qualified which were rented or offered for rent for a period of not in excess of two weeks during the above period.

This exemption shall be effective only from October 1, 1947, to February 29, 1948.

(8) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts, tourist homes and other establishments. (i) Those housing accommodations, in any establishment which is commonly known as a "hotel" (see definition of "hotel" in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) Rooms in any motor court; (iii) Rooms in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively; (iv) Rooms in other multiple-unit establishments (see definition "other establishments" in section 1) which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(9) Newly constructed rooms or converted rooms. (i) Rooms, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; or (ii) rooms which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented either as individual rooms or as part of a larger housing accommodation (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant): Provided, however, That all such rooms referred to in this paragraph (9) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later; and Provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (9), the word "conversion" means (1) a change from non-housing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(10) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation: Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition—(a) Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand, or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after July 1, 1947, of any room subject to this regulation, within the defense-rental area, higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Terms of occupancy. (1) Tenant not required to change term of occupancy. No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy.

(2) Term of occupancy during September 1943. Where, during September 1943, a room was rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for that term of occupancy except that he is not required to rent for that term more than the greatest number of rooms which were rented for the term at any one time during September 1943. However, if during the year ending on September 30, 1943, a landlord had regular and definite seasonal practices with reference to the renting of rooms on a weekly or monthly basis, he may request the Expediter to approve such practices. When approval is given the landlord shall offer rooms for rent for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy pursuant to the practices so approved. The Expediter may withdraw approval at any time if he finds that the landlord has failed to conform to such practices, or if he finds that the effects of the approval are inconsistent with the act or this regulation or are likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(3) Request by tenant to change term of occupancy. Any tenant on a daily or weekly term of occupancy shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to a weekly or monthly term unless the landlord is then renting for such term a number of rooms equal to the number which he is required to rent for that term under subparagraph (2). If the room occupied by such tenant was not rented or offered for rent for such term during September 1943, the landlord may transfer the tenant to a room, as similar as possible, which was so rented or offered for rent.

(4) If the landlord's duty under subparagraph (2), with reference to a room is in dispute, or in doubt, or not known, the Expediter, at any time on his own initiative may issue an order determining the necessary facts and establishing such duty; or, if the Expediter is unable to ascertain the necessary facts, he may issue an order pursuant to subparagraph (5).

(5) Where subparagraph (2) does not require the offering of a room on a weekly or monthly basis, or where the Expediter is unable to ascertain the facts necessary to establish the landlord's duty under that paragraph, he may at any time on his own initiative issue an order requiring the room to be offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, or both. The Expediter may issue such orders if he finds that, during a reasonable period prior to the time the proceeding hereunder is commenced, the room has been rented under circumstances which make appropriate the application of weekly or monthly rents. In determining whether the landlord shall be required to offer the room on a weekly basis, or on a monthly basis, or both, the Expediter will consider the practices which prevailed in the defense-rental area for similar accommodations during a reasonable period prior to the effective date of regulation.

Upon issuance of such an order, the room shall be offered for rent on a weekly or monthly basis, or both, as the order may require, for each number of occupants for which it is offered by the landlord for any other term of occupancy. A tenant of the room on a daily or weekly basis shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to any term of occupancy which the landlord is required to offer pursuant to the order.

(c) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of any room subject to this regulation within the defense-rental area, except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit", in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulation"—(i) Renting prior to "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (b) or (c) by a renting prior to the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter issued with reference to such security deposit. Where such lease or other rental agreements provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(ii) Renting on or after "effective date of regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under section 4 (b) or (c) of the "Hotel Regulation" by a renting on or after the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (d) or (f) of the "Hotel Regulation." Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (d) or (f), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) as provided in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

SEC. 3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same living space as provided June 30, 1947, or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the "Hotel Regulation" or those he provided with the room on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation; and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date establishing the maximum rent under this regulation.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a rooming house and for controlled rooms in hotels and other establishments (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be:

(a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rents for any rooms under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be the maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rents established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled room and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such room shall be, as of the date which such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 per cent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any room only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the defense-rental area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D–92, Registration of Lease, in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the room the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) Maximum rents established on or after July 1, 1947. For a room subject to this regulation first rented or offered for rent on or after July 1, 1947, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it is first offered for rent; if such room is thereafter offered for rent for other terms or numbers of occupants, the rents for which it is first offered for such other term and numbers of occupants. The landlord shall file a registration statement within ten days after any maximum rent is established under this section as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(d) First rents for terms and number of occupants not covered by (a). For a room having a maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraph (a) of this section, the first rent for the room on or after July 1, 1947, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same establishment.

(e) Meals with room. For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge thereafter, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on the maximum rent date.

(f) Where rooms on June 30, 1947, are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such rooms cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation", or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

(g) Rent fixed by order of Expediter. For a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established under any other provision of this regulation, the rent fixed by order of the Expediter as provided in this paragraph (g).

The Expediter at any time on his own initiative or on petition of the landlord may enter an order fixing the maximum rent and specifying the minimum services for a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established prior to issuance of the order under any other provision of this regulation. Such maximum rent shall be fixed on the basis of the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(h) Decontrolled maximum daily rents for controlled rooms. Controlled rooms in establishments classified as hotels or tourist homes under section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation" permitted under and pursuant to section 4 (h) of said regulation to be rented on June 30, 1947, for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by said regulation, by reason of the landlord of such establishment having complied with the requirements of said section 4 (h) prior to June 30, 1947, including the proper filing of Form DH–DC, may continue to be rented for daily terms of occupancy free of the limitations imposed by this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the "Hotel Regulation."

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date or during the thirty-day period establishing the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (9), (c) (4), and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraph (a) (6) of this section the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, or the date establishing the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under section 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (3) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (9) of this section.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rents. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the ground that:

(1) Major capital improvement minus maximum rent period. There has been, since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room, under either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in space services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the period determining the maximum rent for the room under the "Hotel Regulation" or the date or order determining the maximum rent for the room either the "Hotel Regulation" or this regulation, or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The maximum rent for the room was materially affected by the blood, personnel or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maxium rent date a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially lower than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Peculiar circumstances. The maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(9) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in payroll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (9) the terms:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: Provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in pay roll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(b) Decrease in space, minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as requred under section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered therein. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rent generally prevailing. The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order establishing its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order establishing the maximum rent or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Seasonal demand. The maximum rent for the room is substantially higher than the rent at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(5) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (9). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of the "Hotel Regulation" or under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947, or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact, or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(f) Government housing. Where the maximum rent for any room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such room may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rent to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Expediter as he may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Registration and records—(a) Registration statements—(1) Registration. Every landlord of a room, subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Expediter shall require, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the "Hotel Regulation." For rooms rented on or before June 30, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. Any maximum rent established after the "effective date of regulation" under paragraphs (b) or (c) of section 4 of the "Hotel Regulation" which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported on or before July 10, 1947, either by amending a registration statement previously filed, or by filing a new registration statement. Any maximum rent established on or after July 1, 1947, which has not been reported on the first registration statement shall be reported within ten days after such rent is established either by amending a registration statement previously filed or by filing a new registration statement.

(2) Notice of change in identity of landlord. Where, since the filing of a registration statement, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity, within fifteen days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later.

(3) Notice to landlord. Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as landlord at the address given thereon, or where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Precedural Regulation 1, constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

(4) Registration where maximum rent formerly determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation" on its sale by the owning agency; and on or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after the sale of such accommodations, whichever is the later, the new landlord shall file registration statements as provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, the provision in the second paragraph (b) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Posting maximum rents. On or before July 10, 1947, or within ten days after a maximum rent was established under paragraph (b) or (c) of section 4, whichever is the later, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord within ten days after the effective date of the order shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms whose maximum rents were established under section 4 (d) of the "Hotel Regulation." The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Records—(1) Existing records. Every landlord of a room subject to this regulation rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, all his existing records showing or relating to (i) the rent for each term and number of occupants for such room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room, (ii) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under section 4 (c) of the "Hotel Regulation", (iii) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during September 1943.

(2) Record keeping. Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms subject to this regulation, rented or offered for rent, shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Expediter, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting rooms unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages as provided for by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All certificates and orders issued pursuant to sections 1 (b) (5), 1 (b) (6), 2 (b) (2), 2 (c) (3), and 2 (c) (5) of the "Hotel Regulation" which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments in the Miami Defense-Rental Area shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

OFFICE OF THE HOUSING EXPEDITER,

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION

§ 825.10 Controlled Housing Rent Regulation. The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation, issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, 80th Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the defense-rental area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area rent office" means the office of the Rent Director in the defense-rental area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Controlled housing accommodations" means any housing accommodation in any defense-rental area which is not specifically exempted from control or decontrolled under this regulation.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, and removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins; supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments; and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes not serving transient guests exclusively.

"Maximum rent date" means the maximum rent date applicable in any particular defense-rental area as established under the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, as set forth in Schedule A.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular housing accommodation in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, or under section 4 (c) of this regulation, whichever is applicable.

"Effective date of regulation" means the effective date of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for each defense-rental area, or portion thereof, as indicated in Schedule A, except where the context indicates clearly to the contrary.

(a) Housing and defense-rental areas to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all housing accommodations within each of the defense-rental areas and each of the portions of a defense-rental area (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area") which are listed in Schedule A of this regulation, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

In Schedule A, "the maximum rent date" and "the effective date of regulation", as established under the rent regulations, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is given for each defense-rental area listed. More than one effective date is given for different portions of a defense-rental area where the same effective date is not applicable to the entire defense-rental area.

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments. Rooms or other housing accommodations subject to the rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments.

(4) Structures subject to underlying leases. (i) Entire structures or premises wherein more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee or other tenant of such entire structure or premises.

(ii) Entire structures or premises wherein 25 or less rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee, or other tenant of such entire structures or premises: Provided, That all of the housing accommodations in such structures or premises are exempt under the provisions of this act, or section 1 (b) of the rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments.

(iii) This regulation does apply to an underlying lease of any entire structure or premises which was entered into after the maximum rent date and prior to the effective date of the regulation while such lease remains in force with no power in the tenant to cancel or otherwise terminate the lease, unless all of the housing accommodations in such structure are exempt under this section or section 1 (b) of the rent regulation for controlled rooms in rooming houses and other establishments.

(5) Rented to National Housing Agency. Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however,

That this regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(6) Resort housing—(i) Summer resort housing. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to October 1, 1945, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943, and ending on February 29, 1944.

This exemption shall be effective only from July 1, 1947 to September 30, 1947, inclusive, and shall not apply to housing accommodations in the Los Angeles Defense-Rental Area and in the Santa Cruz Defense-Rental Area.

(See Rent Regulations for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for similar exemptions from June 1 to June 30, 1947).

(ii) Winter resort housing. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to the effective date of the regulation in the area, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on June 1, 1946, and ending on September 30, 1946: Provided, however, That the Area Rent Director may by order extend the above exemption to housing accommodations otherwise qualified which were rented or offered for rent for a period of not in excess of two weeks during the above period.

This exemption shall be effective only from October 1, 1947 to February 29, 1948.

(7) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts and tourist homes. (i) Housing accommodations in any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel (See definition of hotel in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) housing accommodations in motor courts; and (iii) housing accommodations in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively: Provided, however, That all such housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after such date of first renting, whichever is the later: and Provided, further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(8) Accommodations first offered for rent. (i) Housing accommodations, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; (ii) Housing accommodations which at no time during the period February 1, 1945 to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant) as housing accommodations: Provided, however, That all housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph (8) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: and Provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the word "conversion" means (1) a change in a structure from a non-housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(9) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation: Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents—(a) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this regulation of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Lease with option to buy. Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of regulation (or prior to October 20, 1942, where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date) and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation may be authorized to receive payment made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Expediter if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain and the tenant shall be authorized to offer payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive or the tenant to offer payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Expediter as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of regulation (or on or after October 20, 1942, where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive nor shall the tenant offer payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payment on or for the option to buy.

(c) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand, receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit", in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) or (b) of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a) or (b), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent established under said section 4 (a) or (b).

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (c) or (d) of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodation is or initially was established under said section 4 (c) or (d), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter entered. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (e) or (f) of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (e) or (j), no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(5) Maximum rent established under section 4 (f) of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (f), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(6) Maximum rent established under section 4 (g) or (h) of the rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (g) or (h), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations were or are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(7) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars, to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

(8) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may demand, receive and retain as a security deposit, the rent for the last rental period of the term, not exceeding one month, where a newly constructed housing accommodation is or was rented and occupied for the first time after March 25, 1947, fully furnished, under a written lease.

SEC. 3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same living space as provided June 30, 1947 or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947 and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the Rent regulation for housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or those he provided on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date of first renting on or after July 1, 1947.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents—(a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rent for any housing accommodation under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5) shall be the maximum rent which was in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rent established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled housing accommodations and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such housing accommodations shall be, as of the date such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any housing accommodations only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the Defense-Rental Area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D–92—Registration of Lease—in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the housing accommodations the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) First rent after June 30, 1947. For controlled housing accommodations first rented on or after July 1, 1947, the maximum rent shall be the first rent for such accommodations. Within 30 days after so renting, the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in sections 5 (c) (1) and 5 (c) (6).

If the landlord fails to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after the date of the first renting shall be received, subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under sections 5 (c) (1) or 5 (c) (6). Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under section 5 (c) may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under section 5 (c) is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(d) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. Where housing accommodations on June 30, 1947 are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such housing accommodations cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the rent regulations issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, an increase or decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (12), (a) (13), (a) (14), (a) (15), (c) (6) and (c) (8) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraphs (a) (6) and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force on the date determining the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under sections 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (3) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction, appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (14) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount necessary to relieve the substantial hardship which shall be the lesser of the following two amounts: the decrease in net income (before interest) or the increase in property taxes or operating costs: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (8) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

In cases under paragraph (a) (15) of this section, the adjustment shall be the amount of the rent increase granted by the appropriate agency of the United States.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rent. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Major capital improvement after effective date. There has been on or after the effective date of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement, and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement, as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement, and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Expediter finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That no adjustment under this subparagraph increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date; or the housing accommodations were not rented on the maximum rent date, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand, or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Substantial increase in occupancy. (i) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of subtenants or other persons occupying the accommodations or a part thereof under a rental agreement with the tenant.

(ii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of occupants, in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(iii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants.

(9) On the date determining the maximum rent the housing accommodations were temporarily exempt from real estate taxes, the landlord was passing the benefit of this tax exemption on to the tenant and as a result the rent on that date was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(10) Priority rating granted on September 1941 application form of Office of Production Management. The maximum rent for the housing accommodations was originally established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the application for priority rating for the construction of the housing accommodations was filed on the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941, the landlord did not make, prior to the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and the maximum rent for the accommodation is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, giving due consideration to general increases in cost of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

This paragraph (a) (10) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

(11) Peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in payroll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(vi) "Prior representative period" means any period of two consecutive years prior to the "current year" but not beginning before January 1, 1939, which the Expediter finds to be representative of the property's normal operation: Provided, however, That where a representative period of two consecutive years is not available the Expediter in his discretion may for the purposes of this section accept a representative period of not less than one year.

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

(14) Changes from year round to seasonal renting. The accommodations are located in a resort community, are primarily adapted to occupancy on a seasonal basis, are vacant and the establishment of seasonal variations in the rent would not, in the opinion of the area rent director, be inconsistent with the purposes of the act.

(15) The maximum rent was established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and prior to final completion of all units included in a single priority application, but subsequent to the first renting of said accommodations, the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent was approved by such agency.

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and space. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under Section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rents generally prevailing. The maximum rent for housing accommodations established under paragraphs (c), (e) or (j) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or under paragraph (c) or (d) of section

4 of this regulation is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

Where the maximum rent for said housing accommodations was originally established under paragraphs (c), (d), (e), or (j) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the landlord failed to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of said Rent Regulation for Housing on or before June 30, 1947, and fails to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation within the time specified in section 7 or where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (c) of this regulation and the landlord fails to file a registration statement in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of this regulation, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after July 1, 1947, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under this section. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order, unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file the proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under this section may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under this section is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order of determining its maximum rent.

(3) Decreases in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order determining the maximum rent or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant or peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal, or other special relationship between the landlord and tenant, or by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) Seasonal rent. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(7) Substantial decrease in occupancy. There has been a substantial decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants since an order under paragraph (a) (8) of this section or section 5 (a) (8) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(8) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under Section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section or 5 (a) (12) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947 or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Sale of underlying lease or other rental agreement. Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Expediter for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Expediter may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion of the act or this regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) Adjustments in case of options to buy. No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Expediter may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on the maximum rent date.

(h) Where the maximum rent for any housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such accommodations may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rent to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Housing Expediter as he may, from time to time, require.

SEC. 7. Registration—(a) Registration statement. Every landlord of controlled housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. For housing accommodations rented prior to June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. For housing accommodations first rented after June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 30, 1947, or within 30 days after first renting, whichever is later. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Expediter shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Expediter and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the area rent office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

Where, since the filing of the registration statement for any controlled housing accommodations, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity within 15 days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is later. If the new landlord indicates on the notice of change in identity that he has not obtained the landlord's copy of the original registration statement, the Expediter shall cause to be prepared and delivered to him a true copy of said original, which may be used to satisfy all requirements of this paragraph (a).

Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as the landlord at the address given thereon, or, where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1 constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodation whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, on its sale by the owning agency, and within thirty days after the sale of such accommodations the new landlord shall file a registration statement as provided in subsection (a) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, paragraph (c) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(c) Exceptions from registration requirements—(1) Housing owned and constructed by governmental agencies. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations whose maximum rent was originally determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the defense-rental area and containing such other information as the Expediter shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

(2) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(d) Housing in Puerto Rico Defense-Rental Area. The provisions of this section 7 (d) shall be substituted for the provisions of section 7 (a) for housing accommodations in the Puerto Rico defense-rental area.

Every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in the area rent office a form provided by the area rent office for this purpose, unless a form was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 (d) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. For housing accommodations rented prior to June 1, 1947, such form shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. For housing accommodations first rented after June 1, 1947, such form shall be filed on or before July 30, 1947, or within 30 days after first renting, whichever is later. The form shall identify each dwelling unit and shall specify the maximum rent provided by this regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Expediter shall require.

(1) Notice of maximum rent. The landlord shall prepare the form known as "Notice of Maximum Rent", if the maximum rent for the dwelling unit was originally determined under paragraph (a) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The landlord shall prepare the notice in duplicate and shall send one copy to the tenant and one copy to the area rent office.

(2) Registration statement. The landlord shall prepare the form known as "Registration Statement" if the maximum rent for the dwelling unit originally was, or is, determined otherwise than indicated in subparagraph (1) above. The landlord shall prepare the registration statement in triplicate and shall send the three copies to the area rent office. The Expediter shall retain one copy on file and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord.

(3) Where, since the filing of the notice of maximum rent or the registration statement for any controlled housing accommodations, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity, within fifteen days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is later. If the new landlord indicates on the notice of change in identity that he has not obtained the landlord's copy of the original registration statement, the Expediter shall cause to be prepared and delivered to him, a true copy of said original, which may be used to satisfy all the requirements of this paragraph.

Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement or on the notice of maximum rent as the landlord at the address given thereon, or, where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1, constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting housing accommodations unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All orders issued pursuant to section 2 (c), 2 (d) (3) and 2 (d) (7) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

PART 851—ORGANIZATION, DESCRIPTION, INCLUDING DELEGATIONS OF FINAL AUTHORITY

OFFICIAL SIGNATURE FOR OFFICE OF HOUSING EXPEDITER

§ 851.23 Official signature for Office of Housing Expediter. (a) The Housing Expediter may take in his own name any action in performance of the functions vested in him under the Housing and Rent Act of 1947 and any other statute or executive order.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, all actions taken or heretofore taken in performance of the functions vested in the Housing Expediter under the Housing and Rent Act of 1947 and any other statute or executive order (but not including delegations of authority) are or shall be taken and issued in the name of the Office of the Housing Expediter, countersigned or attested by the Authorizing Officer in substantially the following form:

Office of the Housing Expediter,
By ----------
Authorizing Officer.

This shall be the official signature of the Office of the Housing Expediter.

Unless authorized by the Housing Expediter to take official action in his own name, every officer and employee of the Office of the Housing Expediter shall be governed by the provisions of this section in taking action requiring the official signature of the Office of the Housing Expediter.

(b) Appointment of Authorizing Officer. James V. Sarcone is hereby appointed Authorizing Officer for the Office of the Housing Expediter. The Authorizing Officer will be governed by instructions of the Housing Expediter or his duly authorized representative in countersigning, attesting, or issuing any action of the Office of the Housing Expediter.

(c) Effective date. This section shall become effective July 1, 1947.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XXII—Retraining and Reemployment Administration

[Order 12]

RECISION OF RRA ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS, AND DISSOLUTION OF INTERAGENCY COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED BY SUCH ORDERS

1. The following RRA orders are rescinded and the Interagency Committee established thereby is dissolved effective June 30, 1947:

RRA order No.	Subject	Date	F. R. citation
9	Interagency Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.	7/3/46	11 F. R. 7426
9a	Amendment No. 1	3/26/47	12 F. R. 2128

2. Rescission of the above cited orders, and dissolution of the Interagency Committee established by such orders are directed in liquidation of the Retraining and Reemployment Administration pursuant to section 603 of the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act (50 U. S. C. A. App. 1651, note) and are not intended to preclude or hinder voluntary cooperative activities of Federal agencies directed toward the objectives of the Interagency Committee in accordance with other laws.

TITLE 34—NAVY

Chapter I—Department of the Navy

PART 27—PROCEDURES OF THE NAVAL ESTABLISHMENT

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

Renumber § 27.5 (a) (1) of the regulations relating to the procedures of the Naval Establishment (11 F. R. 177A-184) to § 27.5 (a) (1) (i) and add a new subdivision as follows:

§ 27.5 Disposition of property. * * *
(a) Disposition under the Surplus Property Act. * * *
(1) Waste scrap and salvage. (i) * * *

(ii) Under the provisions of Public Law 520, 79th Congress, 2d Session, and War Assets Administration Regulation No. 17, as amended, the Navy Department may be from time to time directed to sell certain surplus strategic and critical materials, in lieu of reporting such materials for disposition by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. For example, the Navy Department has been directed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to sell the following types of strategic materials when available to any one location within the continental limits of the United States, at any given time in excess of 50,000 pounds: cartridge brass ingots, slabs, discs, bars, partly or completely manufactured ammunition cases (new or demilitarized), fired cases or remelt ingot, guilding metal mill forms or remelt ingot.

In making such sales, Navy Department selling activities are required by Amendment No. 2, War Assets Administration Regulation No. 17 to be guided by recommendations of the Office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce, as to eligible bidders and quantities. Persons, firms or corporations wishing to purchase strategic materials offered for sale by the Navy Department, should make application in writing for recommendation as to eligibility to bid directly to the office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C. In general recommendations will be made to sell only to brass mills, wire mills, smelters and refiners, in quantities sufficient to satisfy an immediate 30 day operating period.

(Sec. 3, 12, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 238, 244)

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

ORDER EXTENDING EXEMPTION FROM EXISTING RULES

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission at its offices in Washington, D. C., on June 20, 1947;

The Commission having before it a proposal to extend to September 30, 1947, the action of the Commission of March 27, 1947 waiving the requirements of § 3.661 (a) of the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission until June 30, 1947; and

It appearing, that because of construction and operating difficulties the deferment of the effect of § 3.661 (a), which requires television licensees to broadcast a minimum of 2 hours of broadcast service in any given broadcast day and not less than 28 hours of broadcast service per week, should be continued until September 30, 1947; and

It further appearing, that since the proposed extension constitutes an exemption from existing Commission rules and that it is necessary that it become effective immediately upon the expiration on June 30, 1947, of a similar exemption, compliance with the public notice and procedure requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is hereby found to be impracticable;

It is hereby ordered, That § 3.661 (a) of the Commission's rules and regulations be amended effective immediately, so that the footnote at the end of § 3.661 (a) will read as follows:

"The requirements of § 3.661 (a) are waived until September 30, 1947."

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of amendments of §§ 5.29, 10.82, 11.42, 16.23, and 17.123, and the revocation of §§ 10.83 and 11.43, in order to provide a unified method of identification of portable and mobile units operated, respectively, in the Experimental, Emergency, Miscellaneous, Railroad, and Utility Radio Services; and

It appearing, that on March 11, 1947, general notice of proposed rule making with respect thereto was published in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that suggestions and comments pertaining to the proposed rule changes were filed with, and carefully considered by, the Commission, and the substance thereof adopted; and

It further appearing, that public interest, convenience, and necessity will be served by adoption of the proposed rule changes as hereafter set forth;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That, effective September 1, 1947, §§ 10.83 and 11.43 of the Commission's rules and regulations be revoked and that §§ 5.29, 10.82, 11.42, 16.23, and 17.123 of the Commission's rules and regulations be amended to read as follows:

Display of station license and transmitter identification cards.

(a) The current authorization for each mobile or portable station shall be retained as a permanent part of the station record. An executed Transmitter Identification Card (FCC Form No. 452-C, Revised) shall be affixed to each mobile and each portable transmitter or associated control equipment. When the transmitter is not in view of and readily accessible to the operator, it is preferred that the identification card be affixed to the control equipment at the transmitter operating position. The following information shall be entered on the card by the permittee or licensee:

(1) Name of the permittee or licensee.
(2) Station call signal assigned by the Commission.
(3) Exact location or locations of the transmitter records.
(4) Frequency or frequencies on which the transmitter to which attached is adjusted to operate, and
(5) Signature of the permittee or licensee, or a responsible official thereof.

(b) The current authorization for each land or fixed station shall be displayed at the principal control position of that station. At all other control points listed on the station authorization, a photocopy of the authorization shall be displayed. In addition, an executed Transmitter Identification Card (FCC Form No. 452-C, Revised) shall be affixed to each transmitter or associated equipment operated at a fixed location, when the transmitter is not in view of, and readily accessible to the operator at the principal control position.

PART 11—MISCELLANEOUS RADIO SERVICES

FREQUENCIES

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

It appearing, that pursuant to proceedings in Docket No. 6651, a final decision was rendered by the Commission on May 25, 1945, which allocated a stated number of channels in the frequency spectrum from 25,000 to 30,000,000 kilocycles to the various non-government radio services and provided that further reports allocating specific frequencies in the various frequency bands would be made at a later date; and

It appearing, that on July 12, 1946, the Commission issued its proposal for the final allocation of specific frequencies in the band 152–162 Mc; on October 21, 1946, the Commission issued its proposal for the final allocation of specific frequencies in the band 30–40 Mc; that copies of these proposals were served upon all interested parties; written comments, briefs, and recommendations regarding the proposed allocations in each of these frequency bands were filed by interested parties; and oral argument with respect to the Commission's proposed allocations in each of these bands was held February 3, 1947; that the Commission considered, carefully, all of the suggestions, comments, and recommendations submitted by interested parties; that some of the recommendations were adopted and others were rejected; and that on March 20, 1947, final reports were issued by the Commission allocating specific frequencies in the bands 30–40 Mc and 152–162 Mc to the various non-government services; and

It appearing, that on July 19, 1946, the Commission issued its final decision, without a prior proposed report, allocating frequencies in the bands 42–44 Mc and 72–76 Mc to the various non-government radio services, a proposed report regarding these allocations having been omitted for the reason that the final allocations of frequencies in each of these bands were made in conformity with the recommendations of the Radio Technical Planning Board which represented the interested parties in the proceedings in Docket No. 6651;

It further appearing, that a portion of the frequency allocations made in the Commission's final decisions covering allocation of frequencies in the bands 30–40 Mc, 42–44 Mc, 72–76 Mc, and 152–162 Mc, is at variance with existing provisions of §§ 11.83, 11.103, 11.113, and 11.122 of the Commission's rules and regulations governing Miscellaneous Radio Services, which sections enumerate the specific frequencies available for assignment, respectively, to Geological, Relay Press, Motion Picture, and Provisional radio stations; wherefore, it is necessary that the aforesaid §§ 11.83, 11.103, 11.113, and 11.122 be amended to conform with the final frequency allocations made in the Commission's reports of July 19, 1946, and March 20, 1947;

It is ordered, That, effective August 1, 1947, §§ 11.83, 11.103, 11.113, and 11.122 of the rules and regulations governing Miscellaneous Radio Services be and they are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 11.83 Frequencies. (a) The center frequency of each specific channel allocated for shared use by Geological stations is listed below. These channels are available for type A–0, A–1, A–2, A–3, and Special emission. Frequencies marked with an asterisk (*) will not ordinarily be assigned, pending development of equipment capable of satisfactory adjacent channel operation.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 51]

STANDARDS FOR FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES AND OTHER PRODUCTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given under the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 270) and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 1082), that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance of further amendments, as hereinafter proposed, to the United States Standards for citrus fruits (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendments are as follows:

1. Delete paragraphs (b) (7) and (8) from § 51.191 Citrus fruits (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 51.191 Citrus fruits. • • •

(b) Grades. • • •

(7) U. S. No. 2. U. S. No. 2 grade shall consist of citrus fruits of similar varietal characteristics, which are mature, fairly firm, not more than slightly misshapen or slightly rough, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks, and are free from serious damage caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, black or unsightly discoloration, buckskin, creasing, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, split or rough or protruding navels, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, undeveloped or sunken segments, disease, insects, mechanical, or other means. As applied to oranges, each fruit shall, in addition, meet the following requirements for color:

(i) Oranges of the early and midseason varieties shall be reasonably well colored.

(ii) Oranges of the Valencia and other late varieties shall show yellow or orange color predominating over the green color on at least one-third of the fruit surface, in the aggregate, which is not discolored.

(iii) Not more than two-thirds of the surface, in the aggregate, may be affected with discoloration.

(8) U. S. Combination Grade. (i) Any lot of citrus fruits, except oranges, may be designated "U. S. Combination" when not less than 40 percent, by count, of the fruits in each container meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade and the remainder U. S. No. 2 grade.

(ii) As applied to oranges, not less than 50 percent, by count, of the fruits in each container shall meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade, and each of the remainder of the oranges, in addition to meeting all other requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade, shall be well formed, shall have not more than one-half of the surface, in the aggregate, affected with discoloration, and shall meet the following requirements for color:

(a) Oranges of the early and midseason varieties shall be fairly well colored.

(b) Oranges of the Valencia and other late varieties shall be reasonably well colored.

2. Add the words "for grapefruit and oranges except the Temple variety" to the heading of paragraph (d) § 51.191 Citrus fruits (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1).

3. Delete paragraphs (e) (13) and (14) from § 51.191 Citrus fruits (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1) and substitute therefor the following:

(e) Definition of terms. • • •

(13) "Slightly misshapen" means that the fruit is not of the shape characteristic of the variety but is not materially elongated or pointed, or otherwise deformed.

(14) "Slightly rough texture" means that the skin is not of smooth texture but is not materially ridged, grooved, or wrinkled.

4. Add the following subparagraph (19) at the end of paragraph (e) of § 51.191 Citrus fruits (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1):

(19) "Reasonably well colored" means that the yellow or orange color predominates over the green color on at least two-thirds of the fruit surface, in the aggregate, which is not discolored.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947.

[Docket No. 8337]

ORGANIZATION AND PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE; RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES; STANDARDS OF GOOD ENGINEERING PRACTICE CONCERNING STANDARD AND FM BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of proposed new and revised application forms in the broadcast services and amendment of Parts 1 and 3 of the Rules and Regulations and the Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard and FM Broadcast Stations.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The attached proposed revised forms[1] are intended to cover (except in the International Facsimile, or Experimental Broadcast Services) applications for the following authorizations:

Construction permit for a new broadcast station.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

Construction permit to replace an expired construction permit.

Modification of an existing broadcast station authorization.

Station license.

Renewal of station license.

Authorization for station in the auxiliary broadcast services.

Assignment of station license or construction permit.

Transfer of control.

3. Numbers and titles of the proposed forms are as follows:

FCC Form 301, Application for authority to Construct a New Broadcast Station or Make Changes in an Existing Broadcast Station.

FCC Form 302, Application for New Broadcast Station License.

FCC Form 303, Application for Renewal of Broadcast Station License.

FCC Form 313, Application for Authorization in the Auxiliary Broadcast Services.

FCC Form 314, Application for Consent to Assignment of Radio Broadcast Station Construction Permit or License.

FCC Form 315, Application for Consent to Transfer of Control of Corporation Holding Radio Broadcast Station Construction Permit or License.

FCC Form 321, Application for Construction Permit to Replace Expired Permit.

4. It is proposed that the forms in current use bearing the above numbers be made obsolete, that the existing forms bearing the numbers FCC 309, 310, 311, and 312 be used only in connection with applications in the International Facsimile, and Experimental Broadcast Services, and that the following numbered forms be made obsolete for all purposes; 303A, 303B, 304, 305, 306, 316, 319, 320, 322, 327, 330, 333, 335.

5. It is proposed that Part 1 of the rules and regulations be amended as follows:

In § 1.311 delete present language and substitute the following:

§ 1.311 Application forms for construction permit or modification thereof; broadcast services. Application forms for authority to construct a new station or make changes in an existing station; broadcast services. Applications for new facilities or modification of existing facilities in the broadcast services including AM (standard), FM (frequency modulation), non-commercial educational, commercial television, commercial facsimile, international, experimental (experimental television, experimental facsimile and developmental), and auxiliary (remote pickup and studio transmitter) shall be made on the following forms:

(a) FCC Form 301, "Application for Authority to Construct a New Broadcast Station or Make Changes in an Existing Broadcast Station."

(b) FCC Form 309, "Applications for International, Facsimile, or Experimental Broadcast Station Construction Permit or Modification Thereof." To be submitted with FCC Form 318 for experimental television applications.

(c) FCC Form 313, "Application for Authorization in the Auxiliary Broadcast Services."

(d) FCC Form 318, "Supplemental application for experimental television broadcast station construction permit, license or modification thereof."

(e) FCC Form 340, "Application for New Noncommercial Educational Broadcast Station Construction Permit.

In § 1.314 change heading to read "Application for extension of construction permit or for construction permit to replace expired construction permit, (broadcast); application for extension of construction permit (nonbroadcast)," and add a new paragraph as follows:

(c) In the broadcast services, when it is desired to replace an expired construction permit, application shall be made on FCC Form 321, "Application for Construction Permit to Replace Expired Permit."

In § 1.317 change paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) The following application forms shall be used:

(1) FCC Form 302, "Application for New Broadcast Station License."

(2) FCC Form 310, "Application for International, Facsimile, or Experimental Broadcast Station License."

(3) FCC Form 313, "Application for Authorization in the Auxiliary Broadcast Services."

(4) FCC Form 403, "Application for Radio Station License or Modification Thereof (other than broadcasting, amateur, ship, and aircraft)."

In § 1.318 (b) (1), delete the word "standard".

In § 1.319 delete present language in paragraph (b) (1) and substitute the following:

Delete present § 1.319 (b) (2) entirely.

Delete present language in § 1.319 (b) (3) and substitute the following:

(3) FCC Form 312, "Application for Modification of International, Facsimile, or Experimental Broadcast Station License."

Delete present § 1.319 (b) (4) entirely.

Renumber remaining subparagraphs of § 1.319 (b) in accordance with deletions.

In § 1.320 (c) (1), delete the word "standard".

Delete present § 1.320 (b) (2) entirely.

Delete present § 1.320 (b) (3) entirely.

Delete present language in § 1.320 (b) (4) and substitute the following:

(4) FCC Form 311, "Application for Renewal of International, Facsimile, or Experimental Broadcast Station License"—To be used for all applications for renewal of licenses of international, facsimile, noncommercial educational, and experimental broadcast stations.

Delete present language in § 1.320 (b) (5) and substitute the following:

(5) FCC Form No. 313, "Application for Authorization in the Auxiliary Broadcast Services"—to be used for all applications for renewal of regular licenses of auxiliary (remote pickup and ST) radio broadcasting stations.

Renumber remaining subparagraphs of § 1.320 (b) in accordance with deletions.

In § 1.321 delete present paragraph (f) (3) entirely and renumber remaining subparagraphs in accordance with deletion.

In § 1.328 delete present language and substitute the following:

§ 1.328 Application to determine operating power by direct measurement of antenna power. Application to determine operating power by direct measurement of antenna power—Application to determine operating power of broadcast stations by direct measurement of antenna power shall be made on FCC Form 302, "Application for New Broadcast Station License."

§ Delete § 1.345 entirely.

6. It is proposed that Part 3 of the rules and regulations be amended as follows:

In § 3.211 delete present language in the last sentence and substitute the following: "If the application is for a construction permit or for modification of an existing authorization, FCC Form 301 shall be filed; if for a license, FCC Form 302 shall be filed; if for a renewal of license, FCC 303 shall be filed."

In § 3.215 add a new paragraph (c) to read:

(c) If a construction permit has been allowed to expire for any reason, application may be made for a new permit on FCC Form 321, "Application for Construction Permit to Replace Expired Permit."

In § 3.220 delete reference to form number in paragraph (a) and substitute the following: "(FCC Form 303)."

In § 3.611 delete present language in the last sentence and substitute the following: "If the application is for a new station or for modification of an existing authorization, FCC Form 301 shall be filed; if for a license, Form 302 shall be filed; if for a renewal of license, FCC Form 303 shall be filed."

In § 3.615 add a new paragraph (c) to read:

(c) If a construction permit has been allowed to expire for any reason, application may be made for a new permit on FCC Form 321, "Application for Construction Permit to Replace Expired Permit."

In § 3.620 delete reference to form number in paragraph (a) and substitute the following: "(FCC Form 303)".

7. It is proposed that the Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations be amended as follows:

C. THOMAS PATTEN AND PITTSBURG BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR HEARING

In re applications of C. Thomas Patten, Oakland, California, Docket No. 7766, File No. BP-4876; Pittsburg Broadcasting Company, Pittsburg, California, Docket No. 7956, File No. BP-5356; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the above applications of C. Thomas Patten for construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on the frequency 1010 kc, 1 kw, daytime only, at Oakland, California and of Pittsburg Broadcasting Company for construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on the frequency 990 kc, 1 kw, unlimited time, at Pittsburg, California, together with petitions filed by C. Thomas Patten on April 7, 1947 and Pittsburg Broadcasting Company on April 8, 1947; each petition requesting severance of petitioner's application from the above consolidated proceeding and grant of said application forthwith; and

Whereas, a hearing has been held and the record closed in the above consolidated proceeding; and

It appearing, that from the evidence adduced at the hearing no electrical interference exists between the above-entitled applications; and

It further appearing, that on the basis of the testimonial record compiled in the above proceeding and the petitions here under consideration, there is not sufficient evidence before the Commission upon which it could presently determine that the respective applicants are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate the proposed stations, and that, therefore, further hearings are necessary in order that all pertinent facts relating thereto may be before the Commission;

It is ordered, That the said petitions, insofar as each requests severance of petitioner's application from the above consolidated proceeding be, and they are hereby, granted; that said applications be, and they are hereby, severed from said proceeding; and that the said petitions, insofar as they request immediate grants of the respective application, be, and they are hereby, denied;

It is further ordered, That the record in Docket No. 7766, C. Thomas Patten, and the record in Docket No. 7956, Pittsburg Broadcasting Company, be, and they are hereby, reopened, and that each of the above applications be, and it is hereby, designated for further separate hearing, at times and places to be set by subsequent order of the Commission.

WCJU, COLUMBIA, MISS.

NOTICE CONCERNING THE PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on June 19, 1947, there was filed with it an application (BAL-616) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license of WCJU, Columbia, Mississippi, from C. J. Wright, B. M. Wright & C. J. Wright, Jr., d/b as Forrest Broadcasting Company to Lester Williams, Columbia, Miss. The proposal to assign the license arises out of a contract of May 15, 1947, pursuant to which assignor, Forrest Broadcasting Company agrees to sell and the assignee, Lester Williams agrees to buy all the assets and properties of WCJU for a total consideration of $22,500 (which sum has been placed in escrow with the Columbia Bank, Columbia, Mississippi) plus all accounts receivable and cash or money on deposit at the time of approval of instant transfer. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

On July 25, 1946 the Commission adopted § 1.388 (known as § 1.321 effective September 11, 1946) which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application. Pursuant thereto the Commission was advised by applicant on June 19, 1947, that starting on June 19, 1947, notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Columbian Progress and the Columbia Sunday Mirror newspapers of general circulation at Columbia, Mississippi, in conformity with the above rule.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said rule, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from June 19, 1947, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-803]

HOPE NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Upon consideration of the application filed May 15, 1947, in Docket No. G-803 by Hope Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation with its principal place of business at Clarksburg, West Virginia, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate certain natural gas pipe-line facilities described in the application, which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. The notice of Application was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 4, 1947 (12 F. R. 3636).

It appearing to the Commission that:

This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of Rule 32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), Applicant having requested that it application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 4, 1947 (12 F. R. 3636);

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), a hearing be held on July 17, 1947, at 9:30 a. m. (e. d. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters of fact and law asserted in the application filed in this proceeding; Provided, however, That if no request to be heard, or protest or petition to intervene, raising in the judgment of the Commission an issue of substance, has been filed or allowed, the Commission may, after such hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding by order upon consideration of the application and the evidence filed therewith and incorporated in the record of the hearing, together with such additional evidence as may be available or as the Commission may require to be filed and incorporated in the record for its consideration.

(B) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by Rules 8 and 37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946).

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 59-15]

NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND CO. AND NEW ENGLAND PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

ORDER APPROVING PLAN SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 27th day of June A. D. 1947.

New England Public Service Company ("NEPSCO"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Northern New England Company ("Northern"), also a registered holding company, having filed an application, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of an amended plan ("plan") providing for the retirement of all NEPSCO's outstanding Prior Lien Preferred Stock by payment in cash at the call price or through a voluntary exchange offer whereunder the holders of Prior Lien Preferred Stock would have the option to take common stock of NEPSCO's subsidiary, Public Service Company of New Hampshire ("New Hampshire"), at the initial public offering price per share to be established at competitive bidding, subject to the right of NEPSCO to reduce pro rata elections to receive stock insofar as necessary to exhaust $16,500,000 of eash now in the company's treasury; and the plan further providing for the following three alternatives which NEPSCO might elect on five days' written notice to the Commission of the action it proposed to take, and if the Commission within five days after receiving such notice should notify NEPSCO that it objected thereto, NEPSCO would not proceed unless and until the Commission should, with or without a hearing, have approved such election; (1) Alternative 1 permitting NEPSCO to abandon the sale of the New Hampshire stock at competitive bidding and to fix the price at which it may be optionally taken by the holders of Prior Lien Preferred Stock in lieu of cash; (2) Alternative 2 permitting NEPSCO to abandon entirely the exchange offer of New Hampshire and to borrow from banks the balance of cash needed to retire the Prior Lien Preferred Stock; and (3) Alternative 3 providing that the payment to the holders of Prior Lien Preferred Stock in excess of $100 per share and an amount equal to accrued dividends may be postponed until the amount, if any, of such excess be finally determined; pending such determination, the right, if any, of prior lien holders to such excess payment would be represented by a certificate of contingent interest calling for payment of such amount (not exceeding $20 per share for the $7 Series and $10 per share for the $6 Series), and such compensation for delay in such payment as may be finally determined; and the depositing with a bank or trust company ("Plan Trustee") of $4,000,000 in cash under an Escrow Deposit Agreement providing that on or before a date fixed or approved by a final order, the Plan Trustee shall distribute to the holders of said certificates, against the surrender thereof, the amounts payable by said order; under Alternative 3, the payment of $100 per share and an amount equal to accrued dividends would be in cash with the election to take stock, as provided in the plan or in Alternative 1, or solely in cash if Alternative 2 is adopted; and

Said plan having been filed for the stated purpose of complying with the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and in partial compliance with the Commission's order dated May 2, 1941 requiring the recapitalization or liquidation of NEPSCO; and

The Commission having issued its notice of filing and notice of and order for hearing on said plan, copies having been mailed to all of the stockholders of NEPSCO of record and to all the shareholders of Northern of record, notice having been given to all interested persons, public hearings having been held, at which hearings security holders of NEPSCO and Northern and other interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be heard with respect to all matters pertaining to said proceedings, briefs having been filed and oral argument having been heard, and the Commission having considered the record and having this date issued its Findings and Opinion in respect to such proceedings; and

The Commission having found that the plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby on condition that it is amended within five days from the date of our order herein (or such longer period as may be hereafter allowed for good cause) to provide for the payment to the holders of the Prior Lien Preferred Stock of $100 per share and an amount equal to accrued dividends on account of their claims and the issuance to such holders of Certificates of Contingent Interest evidencing their right to receive any additional payment (not exceeding $20 for the $7 Series and $10 for the $6 Series) and such compensation for delay in payment as shall be finally determined and providing for the adoption of provisions similar to those embodied in Alternative 3, including the escrowing of $4,000,000 in cash; and

NEPSCO having requested that the Commission's order herein contain appropriate recitals conforming to the requirements of section 1808 (f) and Supplement R of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and NEPSCO having further requested the Commission upon its approval of the plan, to apply to an appropriate court, as provided in section 11 (e) of the act, to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan; and NEPSCO having further requested that the Commission's order become effective immediately upon its issuance;

It is ordered, That said plan be and hereby is approved, subject, however, to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 and to the further condition that NEPSCO shall, within five days from the date hereof (or such longer period as may be hereafter allowed for good cause shown), file with this Commission a further amendment to said plan providing for the payment to the holders of the Prior Lien Preferred Stock of $100 per share and an amount equal to accrued dividends on account of their claims and the issuance to such holders of Certificates of Contingent Interest evidencing their right to receive any additional amount (not exceeding $20 for the $7 Series and $10 for the $6 Series) and such compensation for delay in payment as shall be finally determined and providing for the adoption of provisions similar to those embodied in Alternative 3, including the escrowing of $4,000,000 in cash.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved:

1. To take such further action as the Commission shall deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate the requirements of section 11 (b) of the act; and

2. To entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental orders, findings, and to take such further action as the Commission may deem appropriate in connection with the plan, as modified, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof, and to take such further action as it may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act; and jurisdiction is specifically reserved to consider and determine the following matters:

(a) The reasonableness and appropriate allocation of all fees and expenses and other remuneration incurred or to be incurred in connection with the plan and the transactions incident thereto;

(b) The accounting entries to be made in connection with the carrying out of the provisions of the plan;

(c) The reasonableness of the price to be paid for the New Hampshire common stock; the terms of the offering thereof, the underwriters' spread and the fees and expenses in connection therewith;

(d) To pass upon what further amounts, if any, on the basis of the record herein without further proceedings, the holders of the $7 and $6 Prior Lien Preferred Stock are entitled to receive, including the fair and equitable disposition of the cash to be escrowed under the amendment adopting substantially the terms of Alternative 3 of the plan; and

(e) To pass upon the selection of Alternatives 1 and 2, and the specific steps proposed to be taken in implementing such alternatives, in the event NEPSCO adopts one or both of such alternatives in the amounts specified in subparagraph I, above, in exchange for shares of Prior Lien Preferred Stock.

V. The use by NEPSCO, prior to the use of any other money, of the entire proceeds, amounting to $16,500,000, from the sale of the stock and securities of non-utility and industrial subsidiary companies specified and recited in the Order of the Commission dated October 11, 1945 (File No. 59-15) to cancel and retire the Prior Lien Preferred Stock.

VI. The acquisition by NEPSCO, for cancellation and retirement of all shares of its Prior Lien Preferred Stock, such cancellation and retirement to be effective upon the consummation of the plan as modified by our requirement previously described, and the delivery to the Plan Trustee, upon appropriate instructions, (1) of the cash specified in subparagraph I, above, or (2) of the cash and Common Stock of New Hampshire specified in subparagraph III, above, plus, in either case, the Certificates of Contingent Interest.

VII. The sale, transfer and delivery by NEPSCO of such shares of Common Stock of New Hampshire as shall not be taken by the holders of Prior Lien Preferred Stock under the option referred to in subparagraph III, above, and the use of said proceeds in the cancellation and retirement of Prior Lien Preferred Stock.

It is further ordered and recited, That the Commission reserves jurisdiction to determine, by subsequent order or orders herein, upon application by NEPSCO, the expenditure, distribution or investment (except temporary investment in securities of the United States of America) that shall be made, within twenty-four (24) months of the sale of shares of Common Stock of New Hampshire, of the proceeds thereof in excess of the amount required in the cancellation and retirement of Prior Lien Preferred Stock; and also reserves jurisdiction to make, by subsequent order or orders herein, upon application by NEPSCO, such other and further determinations and specifications as may be found to be necessary or appropriate to the simplification of the holding company system, of which NEPSCO is a member, and necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, all in accordance with the meaning and requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including section 1808 (f) and Supplement R thereof.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be effective immediately upon its issuance, but it shall not be operative to authorize the consummation of any of the transactions proposed in the plan as modified by our requirement herein until an appropriate United States District Court shall, upon an application thereto, enter an order enforcing the plan.

By the Commission.

THE MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC RAILWAY & TRANSPORT CO. AND WISCONSIN ELECTRIC POWER CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of June 1947.

The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company ("Transport") and its parent, Wisconsin Electric Power Company ("Electric"), a subsidiary holding company of The North American Company, a registered holding company, having filed a joint application and declaration pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and the general Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the following transactions:

Transport proposes to redeem prior to January 1, 1948, at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest, the balance, aggregating $4,000,000 in principal amount, of its First Mortgage 4% Bonds, held by Electric. Such redemption is contingent upon and will be made simultaneously with the receipt of the proceeds from the proposed sale by Transport of substantially all of its operating properties, consisting principally of its Milwaukee Metropolitan System, its bus lines operated in the City of Milwaukee and known as Wisconsin Motor Bus Lines, its local suburban railway service and certain properties incidental to such operations.

The proposed sale of such transportation properties is to be made pursuant to the terms and conditions of a competitive bidding procedure adopted by the company, under the terms of which procedure sealed written proposals for the purchase of such properties are to be submitted to the company not later than 12:00 noon, central standard time, July 21, 1947, at Room 444, Public Service Building, 231 West Michigan Street, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin.

Electric seeks authorization to surrender the bonds to Transport upon the basis above described.

The joint application-declaration having been filed on the 2nd day of June, 1947 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act and the Commission not having received a request within the period specified in said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and the Commission finding that the requirements of sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) and Rules U-42 and 43 are satisfied and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective.

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act that the said application-declaration be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That nothing in this order shall be construed to relieve the applicants-declarants from compliance with Rule U-44 (c) under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to the proposed sale, by filing an appropriate notice of intention to sell pursuant to that rule at such time as a definitive contract of sale shall have been entered into.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN WATER WORKS AND ELECTRIC CO., INC.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of June A. D. 1947.

American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated ("American"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration, with an amendment thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the following transactions:

American proposes to make a capital contribution of $335,000 in cash to its subsidiary, Huntington Water Corporation ("Huntington"). This capital contribution is to be added by American to its investment in the common stock of Huntington (10,000 shares, no par value, the total issue outstanding), and is to be credited by Huntington to its capital surplus. It is represented that Huntington will use this cash, together with other funds, to carry out a proposed construction program, estimated to be in the amount of $645,000 for the year 1947, made necessary by increased demand for water service. It is stated that no expenses are to be incurred in connection with the proposed transaction.

Notice of this filing was duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission has not received a request for a hearing with respect thereto, within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and has not ordered a hearing thereon.

The Commission finding with respect to this declaration that there is no basis for any adverse findings under the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration be permitted to become effective, and further deeming it appropriate to grant the request of declarant that this order be effective upon issuance;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that this declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH WEST CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of June A. D. 1947.

In the matter of Central and South West Corporation, Central Power and Light Company and Southwestern Gas and Electric Company.

Notice is hereby given that Central and South West Corporation ("Central"), a registered holding company, Central Power and Light Company ("Power and Light"), and Southwestern Gas and Electric Company ("Southwestern"), public utility subsidiaries of Central, have filed applications-declarations (or both) with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6, 7, 9, 10 and 12 (c) of the act and Rules U-42, U-43, and U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the said applications-declarations (or both) on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Central has requested an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 with respect to the execution of a loan agreement with the First National Bank of Chicago and John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company in connection with a loan of $4,300,000. Such loan will be evidenced by twenty-four unsecured serial notes ("notes") in the principal amount of $125,000 each, except for note numbered 24 which is in the principal amount of $1,425,000. The notes will mature on January 1 and July 1 of each year commencing January 1, 1948 through July 1, 1959, inclusive. The notes numbered 1 through 6, 7 through 12, and 13 through 24 will bear interest at the rate of 2% per annum, 2¼% per annum, and 3% per annum, respectively, and will be dated as of the date of issue. Central will apply the proceeds of the loan, together with treasury funds, as follows:

(1) The prepayment and retirement of two secured notes of Central, each in the principal amount of $174,000, maturing on January 31, 1948, and January 31, 1949. These notes are held by The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West").

(2) The purchase of 299,996 shares of common stock, par value $10, of Power and Light for $2,999,960.

(3) The purchase of 65,500 shares of common stock, no par value, of Southwestern for $1,000,000.

Power and Light proposes to increase the stated value of its common stock capital from $7,721,039 to $7,721,040 by transferring the sum of $1 from earned surplus account to common stock capital account, and to amend its Articles of Incorporation to increase and change its authorized common stock from 250,000 shares, no par value, to 1,072,100 shares having a par value of $10 each, to change the 202,180 shares of presently outstanding common stock (all owned by Central) into 772,104 shares having a par value of $10 each and to issue and sell to Central 299,996 shares, par value $10 each, at the par value thereof.

Southwestern proposes to issue and sell to Central 65,500 shares of common stock, no par value, for $1,000,000 in cash.

Applicants-declarants stated that it is desired to consummate the proposed transactions in order to furnish Power and Light and Southwestern with additional cash to finance in part their present construction programs, and that the prepayment and retirement of Central's secured note payable to Middle West is proposed in order to facilitate the arrangement of the most favorable terms for the proposed bank loan by Central.

Applicants-declarants further stated Southwestern will apply to the Arkansas Public Service Commission for authority to issue its common stock, and that no other State commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a public hearing be held with respect to said applications-declarations, and that said applications-declarations shall not be granted nor permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing, under the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, be held at 10:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., on July 9, 1947, in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on that date by the hearing room clerk in Room 318.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Public Utilities Division of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the applications-declarations, and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration by the Commission without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions for further examination:

(1) Whether the proposed issue and sale of unsecured notes in the aggregate principal amount of $4,300,000 by Central is reasonably adapted to the earning power and the security structure of Central and whether such issue and sale is necessary and appropriate to the economical and efficient operation of the business or businesses in which Central is engaged;

(2) Whether the proposed issue and sale of unsecured notes in the aggregate principal amount of $4,300,000 by Central should be exempted from the requirements of Rule U-50;

(3) Whether the terms and conditions of the proposed issue and sale of unsecured notes in the aggregate principal amount of $4,300,000 by Central are detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers;

(4) Whether the proposed issue and sale of common stock by Southwestern and by Power and Light is for the purpose of financing the business of each company as a public utility company;

(5) Whether the proposed acquisition of the shares of common stock of Power and Light and Southwestern by Central satisfy the standards of section 10 of the act.

(6) Whether the accounting treatment of the proposed transactions is proper and in conformity with sound accounting principles;

(7) Whether the fees, commissions or other remunerations to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions are reasonable.

(8) What terms and conditions, if any, with respect to the proposed transactions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

It is further ordered, That at said hearing evidence shall be adduced with respect to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before July 8, 1947, his request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice, stating the nature of his interest, which of the foregoing matters and questions, he desires to controvert and what additional matters and questions, if any, he deems raised by said applications or declarations (or both).

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to the Central and South West Corporation, Central Power and Light Company, Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, the Arkansas Public Service Commission, and the Secretary of the State of Texas, and that notice of said hearing shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 26th day of June A. D. 1947.

Notice is hereby given that Florida Power & Light Company ("Florida"), an electric utility subsidiary of American Power & Light Company ("American"), a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company, has filed an application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act and rules U-42 and U-50 of the rules promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Florida proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50: (a) $10,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, --% series, due 1977, to be issued under and secured by the company's presently existing Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated as of January 1, 1944, supplemented by an indenture to be dated as of July 1, 1947; (b) $10,000,000 principal amount --% sinking fund debentures due 1972; and (c) 150,000 shares of --% cumulative preferred stock of the par value of $100 per share. The interest rates on the bonds and debentures and the dividend rate on the preferred stock will be determined by competitive bidding.

Florida proposes to use the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, debentures and preferred stock as follows: (a) to redeem and retire its outstanding 4⅛% sinking fund debentures, due 1979, in the principal amount of $14,200,000 at the redemption price of 104⅝% of said principal amount plus accrued interest; (b) to repay the presently outstanding 2⅜% and 2¾% serial notes in the aggregate amount of $3,500,000; (c) to pay off the presently outstanding note due to American in the principal amount of $500,000; (d) to construct new facilities and to extend and improve present facilities.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application-declaration and that said application-declaration should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission,

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application-declaration pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission be held on July 8, 1947 at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., at the offices of the Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of this Commission on or before July 7, 1947, a written request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at such hearing. The officer or officers so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Public Utilities Division, having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application-declaration, and that upon the basis thereof the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the bonds, debentures and preferred stock proposed to be issued by Florida are reasonably adapted to the security structure of Florida and to its earning power and whether the financing by the issue and sale of such bonds, debentures and preferred stock is necessary or appropriate to the economic and efficient operation of the business in which Florida is engaged,

(2) Whether the fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the proposed issue and sale of the above securities are reasonable,

(3) Whether the proposed accounting treatment with respect to the transactions is appropriate and in confofmity with sound accounting principles,

(4) Whether in the event that the application-declaration shall be granted and permitted to become effective, it is necessary or appropriate to impose any terms or conditions to assure compliance with the standards of the act or in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

It is ordered, That particular attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing matters and questions:

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve a copy of this order by registered mail on the declarant herein and that notice of said hearing shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

ARKANSAS POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of June A. D. 1947.

Notice is hereby given that Arkansas Power & Light Company, ("Arkansas"), an utility subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Applicant has designated sections 6 (b) and 7 of the act and Rule U-50 as applicable to the proposed transactions:

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than July 9, 1947 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t. request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. At any time after July 9, 1947 said application as filed or as amended may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file with this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

Arkansas proposes to issue and sell pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $11,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds __% Series, due 1977, to be issued under and secured by the company's presently existing Mortgage and Deed and Trust dated as of October 1, 1944, as supplemented by a First Supplemental Indenture to be dated as of July 1, 1947. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be applied as follows: (a) $4,000,000 will be retained by the Trustees pending withdrawal by Arkansas under the terms of the Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated October 1, 1944, as supplemented, on the basis of property additions; (b) $1,750,000 will be used to repay Arkansas' outstanding short term note of like principal amount; and (c) the balance will be added to Arkansas' general cash funds to be used for construction of new facilities, extension and improvement of present facilities, and other corporate purposes.

The application states that in the event an order shall be entered approving the proposed transactions this Commission may make such reservation of jurisdiction as it deems appropriate with respect to the results of competitive bidding and the reasonableness of legal fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions.

The proposed transactions have been approved by the Public Service Commission of the State of Arkansas, the State in which Arkansas was organized and is doing business.

Applicants request that the Commission's order herein be issued as promptly as may be practicable and become effective forthwith upon the issuance thereof.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 12 NUMBER 131

Washington, Friday, July 4, 1947

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2736

JOHN PAUL JONES BICENTENNIAL DAY, 1947

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the sixth of July nineteen hundred and forty-seven is the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Paul Jones at Arbigland in the parish of Kirkbean, Kirkcudbright, Scotland; and

WHEREAS John Paul Jones drew his sword in the struggle of the American colonies for freedom and the rights of man; and

WHEREAS, on February the fourteenth in the year seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, in the United States Frigate Ranger, John Paul Jones received from Admiral La Motte Piquet, commander of the French squadron of Louis XVI, the first salute to the Stars and Stripes from a foreign power; and

WHEREAS John Paul Jones was the first American Naval officer to be awarded a gold medal by the Continental Congress for fearlessness and perseverance in the face of overwhelming odds and, in the words of the Congress, "for the zeal, prudence, and intrepidity, with which he hath supported the honor of the American Flag"; and

WHEREAS he gave our Navy its earliest traditions of heroism and victory which have fostered the high morale and initiative demonstrated throughout our history by the men of our fighting forces:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and designate the sixth day of July nineteen hundred and forty-seven as John Paul Jones Bicentennial Day, and I direct the appropriate officials of the Federal Government to have the flag of the United States displayed from public buildings on that day. I also request State and local officials, civic organizations, and interested individuals to observe the day with ceremonies which will reflect honor upon the career of this Naval hero and strengthen the pride of the American people in their Navy and its glorious achievements.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this second day of July in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-[SEAL] seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-first.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

G. C. MARSHALL,
Secretary of State.

(Sec. 2, 22 Stat. 403, 50 Stat. 533; 5 U. S. C. 631, 633)

Effective as to notices issued to employees on and after August 4, 1947, § 20.3 is amended to read in part as follows:

§ 20.3 Retention preference; classification. For the purposes of determining relative retention preference for reductions in force, employees shall be classified according to tenure of employment in competitive retention groups and subgroups as follows:

Group A: All employees currently serving under absolute or probational civil service appointments or who were appointed, reappointed, transferred, or promoted from absolute or probational civil service appointments to war service indefinite or trial period appointments without a break in service of 30 days or more. With respect to positions excepted from the Civil Service Act and rules, this includes all status and non-status employees currently serving in excepted positions under appointments without time limitation, or all employees who transferred from absolute or probational appointments in the competitive service to war service indefinite or trial period excepted appointments.

* * * * * *

Group B: All employees serving in positions in the competitive service without competitive status or serving under appointments limited to the duration of the present war or for the duration of the war and not to exceed six months thereafter, or otherwise limited in time to a period in excess of one year, except those specifically covered in Groups A and C.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Lemon Reg. 228, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 53 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which the regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Paragraph (b) of § 953.335 Lemon Regulation 228 (12 F. R. 4198) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1947, is hereby fixed at 750 carloads, or an equivalent quantity.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 227 (12 F. R. 4016) and made a part hereof by this reference. The Lemon Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said marketing agreement and order, shall calculate the quantity of lemons which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such word in the said marketing agreement and order.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1947.

[Lemon Reg. 229]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENT

§ 953.336 Lemon Regulation 229—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 53 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 13, 1947, is hereby fixed at 675 carloads, or an equivalent quantity.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference. The Lemon Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said marketing agreement and order, shall calculate the quantity of lemons which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1947.

[SEAL] S. R. SMITH,
Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

PART 962—FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN GEORGIA

REGULATION BY SIZE

§ 962.303 Peach Order 3—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 62 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 962.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in the State of Georgia, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Industry Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of peaches, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 7, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 1, 1947, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any peaches of the Alton, Bush, Carman, Delicious, Dixie Gem, Dixie Gold, Early Belle, Early Carman, Early Hiley, Fair Beauty, Fisher, Flaming Gold, Georgia Belle, Georgia Gem, Golden Hale Haven, Hale Gold, Hansford's Beauty, Henrietta, Jasper Rose, Lucile, Mack's Pride, Marigold, Mikado, Orr's Pride, Pearson Hiley, Red Bird, Red Elberta, Red Gem, Regular Hiley, Raritan Rose, Rochester, Rosalind, U. S. Nos. 10, 11, and 13, Vedette, Yellow Cling, or Yellow Hiley varieties which are of a size smaller than $1^{3}/_{4}$ inches in diameter (as "diameter" is defined in the United States Standards for Peaches, 12 F. R. 3798), except that not more than ten (10) percent, by count, of such peaches contained in any bulk lot or in any lot of packages may be of a size smaller than $1^{3}/_{4}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid, but not more than fifteen (15) percent, by count, of such peaches contained in any individual package in any lot may be of a size smaller than $1^{3}/_{4}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid; or

(ii) Any peaches of any variety, other than the varieties specified in paragraph (b) (1) (i) of this section, which are of a size smaller than $1^{5}/_{8}$ inches in diameter (as "diameter" is defined in the United States Standards for Peaches, 12 F. R. 3798), except that not more than ten (10) percent, by count, of such peaches contained in any bulk lot or in any lot of packages may be of a size smaller than $1^{5}/_{8}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid, but not more than fifteen (15) percent, by count, of such peaches contained in any individual package in any lot may be of a size smaller than $1^{5}/_{8}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid.

(2) When used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," and "peaches" shall have the same meaning as when used in the aforesaid marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATIONS OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.331 Orange Regulation 185—Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66 (7 CFR, Cum, Supp., 966.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 13, 1947, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1, unlimited movement; (b) Prorate District No. 2, 1200 carloads; and (c) Prorate District No. 3, unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate Districts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, no movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference. The Orange Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said order, shall calculate the quantity of oranges which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said order; and "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in § 966.107 of the rules and regulations (11 F. R. 10258) issued pursuant to said order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

PART 200—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURES

DESCRIPTION OF FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

The following paragraphs are added to § 200.7 (a):

§ 200.7 Description of forms and instructions. (a) * * *

(91) Form G-467, Parent's Certificate of Dependency and Support. This is the form on which a parent who is applicant for benefits as a dependent parent of a deceased employee must furnish information with regard to his support by, and dependence on, the employee.

(92) Form SI-3, Claim for Sickness Benefits. This is the form to be used for making claim for sickness benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act and is to be forwarded to the Board office indicated on the form.

(93) Form SI-10, Statement of Authority to Act for Employee. This is a form to be used by a person in furnishing information concerning his authority when applying for sickness benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act on behalf of an employee who is unable to sign documents and transact business in connection with obtaining such benefits.

(94) Form SI-101, Application for Maternity Benefits. This is the form to be used by a female employee in applying for a claim form on which to claim maternity benefits. The form provides for a statement by the employee of prior employment and of the birth or expected birth of a child; and also for a waiver of any existing "doctor-patient privilege" with respect to the maternity sickness for which the claim is made. This form is to be mailed, together with completed Form SI-104, Statement of Maternity Sickness to the Railroad Retirement Board, 844 Rush Street, Chicago 11, Illinois.

(95) Form SI-103, Claim for Maternity Benefits. This is the form to be used in making claim for maternity benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act.

(96) Form SI-104, Statement of Maternity Sickness. This is the form to be executed by a doctor of medicine in connection with an application for maternity benefits, and is to be furnished to the Board, upon execution, together with completed Form SI-101, Application for Maternity Benefits.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 141—TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY FOR ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

PENICILLIN WITH VASOCONSTRICTOR

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong.; 21 U. S. C. Sup. 357) § 141.14 of the tests and methods of assay of antibiotic drugs (12 F. R. 2215) is amended to read:

§ 141.14 Penicillin with vasoconstrictor. Proceed as directed in §§ 141.1, 141.2, 141.3, 141.4, and 141.5.

This order, which provides for the use of crystalline penicillin in penicillin with vasoconstrictor shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of penicillin with vasoconstrictor using crystalline penicillin.

(Sec. 507, 52 Stat. 1040, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong.; 21 U. S. C., Sup. 357)

Dated: June 30, 1947.

PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF PENICILLIN OR STREPTOMYCIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong.; 21 U. S. C., Sup. 357) the regulations for the certification of penicillin-containing drugs and streptomycin-containing drugs (12 F. R. 2231), as amended, are hereby further amended as indicated below:

1. Section 146.24 (d) (3), seventh line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

2. Section 146.25 (d) (3) (ii), fifth line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

3. Section 146.26 (d) (3) (ii), fourth line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

4. Section 146.27 (d) (3) (ii), fifth line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

5. Section 146.30 (d) (3) (ii), fifth line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

6. Section 146.31 (d) (3) (ii), third line, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

7. Section 146.32 (a) first sentence is amended by inserting the words "or crystalline penicillin" between the words "calcium penicillin" and "and" in line three.

8. Section 146.32 (c) (1), line three, is amended by deleting the word "calcium".

9. Section 146.32 (c) (1) (iii) is amended to read: "The statement 'Expiration date _____', the blank being filled in with the date which is 18 months or if it is crystalline penicillin 36 months, after the month during which the batch was certified."

10. Section 146.32 (c) (2) (iii) is amended to read: "If it is not crystalline penicillin the statement 'Store in refrigerator not above 15° C. (59° F.)', or 'Store below 15° C. (59° F.)';"

11. Section 146.32 (d) (2) (i) is amended to read: "The penicillin; potency, sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, moisture, pH, clarity, crystallinity and heat stability if it is crystalline penicillin, and the penicillin G content if it is crystalline penicillin G.

12. Section 146.32 (d) (3) (i) is amended to read: "The penicillin; one package for each 5,000 packages in the batch, but in no case less than 20 packages if it is calcium penicillin, or 40 packages if it is crystalline penicillin, and not more than 100 packages, collected by taking single packages at such intervals throughout the entire time of packaging the batch that the quantities packaged during the intervals are approximately equal.

13. Section 146.33 (d) (3) (ii), line three, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

14. Section 146.34 (d) (3) (ii), line five, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

15. Section 146.35 (d) (3) (ii), line four, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

16. Section 146.36 (d) (3) (ii), line five, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

17. Section 146.38 (d) (3) (ii), line three, is amended by deleting the figure "40" and substituting "60" therefor.

This order, which provides for the use of crystalline penicillin in penicillin with vasoconstrictor and for increasing the size of sample from bulk batches of penicillin from 40 milligrams to 60 milligrams, shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of penicillin with vasoconstrictor using crystalline penicillin and increasing the size of the samples of penicillin from 40 to 60 milligrams.

§ 501.1 Citation. The sections in this part may be cited and referred to as "Regulations of the Federal Housing Commissioner Governing Property Improvement Loans effective July 1, 1947."

§ 501.2 Definitions. As used in the regulations in this part the term:

(a) "Act" means the National Housing Act, as amended.

(b) "Administration" means the Federal Housing Administration.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Federal Housing Commissioner or his duly authorized representative.

(d) "Contract of Insurance" includes all of the provisions of the regulations in this part and of the applicable provisions of the act.

(e) "Insured" means a financial institution holding a contract of insurance under Title I of the Act.

(f) "Loan" means an advance of funds or credit or the purchase of an obligation evidenced by a note.

(g) "Note" includes a note, bond, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness.

(h) "Payment" includes a deposit to an account or fund which represents the full or partial repayment of a loan.

(i) "Borrower" means one who applies for and receives a loan in reliance upon the provisions of the act and whose interest in the property to be improved is (1) a fee title, or (2) a life estate, or (3) an equitable interest under an instrument of trust or contract, or (4) a lease having a fixed term, expiring not less than six calendar months after the maturity of the loan.

(j) "Class 1 (a) Loan" means a loan, other than a loan defined in paragraph (k) of this section as a "Class 1 (b) Loan", which is for the purpose of financing the repair, alteration, or improvement of an existing structure or of the real property in connection therewith, exclusive of the building of new structures. The term "existing structure" means a completed building that has or had a distinctive functional use.

(k) "Class 1 (b) Loan" means a loan which is (1) made for the purpose of financing the alteration, repair, improvement, or conversion of an existing structure located in an area or locality in which the President shall find that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends, which would impede national war activities and (2) is made for the purpose of providing additional living accommodations to which the borrower shall establish in a manner and upon forms prescribed by the Commissioner that occupancy priority will be for veterans of World War II.

(l) "Class 2 (a) Loan" means a loan which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a new structure which is to be used exclusively for other than residential or agricultural purposes.

(m) "Class 2 (b) Loan" means a loan which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a new structure for use in whole or in part for agricultural purposes, exclusive of residential purposes.

(n) "Class 1 Loan" includes both "Class 1 (a)" and "Class 1 (b)" loans as defined in paragraphs (j) and (k) of this section.

(o) "Class 2 Loan" includes both "Class 2 (a)" and "Class 2 (b)" loans as defined in paragraphs (l) and (m) of this section.

§ 501.3 Eligible notes. (a) Validity. The note shall bear the genuine signature of the borrower as maker, shall be valid and enforceable against the borrower or borrowers as defined in § 501.2 (i), and shall be complete and regular on its face. The signatures of all parties to the note must be genuine. If the note is executed for and on behalf of a corporation or in a representative capacity, the note must create a binding obligation of the principal.

(b) Acceleration clause. The note shall contain a provision for acceleration of maturity, either automatic or at the option of the holder, in the event of default in the payment of any installment upon the due date thereof.

(c) Payments. The note shall be payable in equal monthly, semi-monthly, or weekly installments. The final installment may be more or less than the other installments provided that it is not less than one-half or more than one and one-half times the preceding installment. A note may not provide for a first payment less than six day nor more than two calendar months from the date of the note. However, if fifty-one per cent or more of the income of the borrower is derived directly from the sale of agricultural crops, commodities, or livestock produced by him, a note may be made payable in installments corresponding to income periods shown on the Credit Application. In such cases, the first payment must be made within twelve months of the date of the note and at least one payment shall be made in each twelve months thereafter. Provided, That no two payments shall be more than twelve months apart, and the proportion of total principal to be paid in later years shall not exceed the proportion of total principal payable in earlier years. In lieu of an installment note payable in equal periodic installments a loan may be evidenced by a series of notes provided each is of an equal amount as provided in this section and that each note indicates on its face that it is one of a series signed by the same borrower.

(d) Maturity—(1) Minimum. The note shall not have a final maturity of less than six calendar months from the date of the note.

(2) Maximum. The maximum permissible maturity of a note evidencing:

(i) A Class 1 (a) or a Class 2 (a) loan is three years and thirty-two days from the date of the note.

(ii) A Class 1 (b) loan is seven years and thirty-two days from the date of the note.

(iii) A Class 2 (b) loan is seven years and thirty-two days from the date of the note, except that if a Class 2 (b) loan is secured by a first mortgage, first deed of trust, or other security instrument constituting a first lien upon the improved property, the loan may have a final maturity not in excess of fifteen years and thirty-two days from the date of the note.

(iv) A combination of any of the above classes of loans shall be no greater than the maximum maturity governing that component part of the loan having the shortest maturity if made alone.

(e) Late charges. The note may provide for a late charge, not to exceed 5 cents for each $1.00 of each installment more than fifteen days in arrears. No late charge on a past due installment may be accrued in excess of $5.00. In lieu of late charges, notes may provide for interest on past due installments at a rate not in excess of the contract rate in the jurisdiction in which the note is drawn. The borrower must be billed for the penalties collected as such, and evidence of such billing must be in the file if claim is made under the Contract of Insurance.

§ 501.4 Maximum amount of loans—(a) Class 1 (a) Loan. A Class 1 (a) loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges to the borrower, in excess of $2,500.

(b) Class 1 (b) Loan. A Class 1 (b) loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges to the borrower, in excess of $5,000.

(c) Class 2 Loan. A Class 2 loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges to the borrower, in excess of $3,000.

§ 501.5 Financing charges—(a) Maximum charge. The maximum permissible financing charges, exclusive of fees and charges as provided by paragraph (b) of this section, which may be paid by the borrower for interest, discount and fees of all kinds in connection with the transaction, shall be computed as follows:

(1) Class 1 loans having a principal amount not in excess of $2,500 shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $4.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note.

(2) Class 1 loans having a principal amount in excess of $2,500 shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $4.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note.

(3) Class 2 loans shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $5.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note, except that Class 2 (b) loans having a maturity in excess of seven years and thirty-two days shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $3.50 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note. Such charges correctly based on tables of calculations issued by the Federal Housing Commissioner are deemed to comply with this section.

An increase in the ratio of the charge to the average amount outstanding on the debt over the maximum provided in this section, which increase results from the first payment falling due less than thirty days after the date of the note as provided in § 501.3 (c), shall not be deemed to be in conflict with this section.

(b) Permissible additional charges. If the insured takes security in the nature of a real estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or other security device for the purpose of securing the payment of eligible loans, the insured may collect from the borrower, in addition to the maximum permissible financing charge as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, the following expenses actually incurred by the insured in connection with the transaction. Recording or filing fees, documentary stamp taxes, title examination charges and hazard insurance premiums: Provided, That such costs or expenses are not paid from the proceeds of the loan or included in the face amount of the note. Such costs or expenses shall not be included by the insured as a portion of a claim under the Contract of Insurance and if such costs or expenses are assessed against the borrower, proper evidence thereof should be in the file.

(c) Partial disbursement of proceeds. If the insured in purchasing a note takes the maximum charge permitted by this section, but employs a "holdback" and does not advance the entire proceeds of the note to the seller, it shall calculate its financing charge on the amount advanced and credit to the account of the seller the difference between the financing charge calculated on the face amount of the note and the financing charge calculated on the amount advanced.

(d) Prepayment rebate. If a note is paid in full prior to maturity, the insured shall make a rebate at a rate not less than 6% per annum of the amounts so paid in advance of their due dates, if the maximum permissible financing charge in connection with the transaction is in an amount equivalent to $5.00 discount as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. If a lesser charge has been taken, the rebate shall be at not less than a proportional rate.

§ 501.6 Credits and collections—(a) Credit application. Prior to making a loan the insured shall obtain a dated Credit Application executed by the borrower on a form approved by the Commissioner. A separate Credit Application is required for each loan made or note purchased.

(b) Credit investigation. The Credit Application, supplemented by such other information as the insured deems necessary, must, in the judgment of the insured, clearly show the borrower to be solvent, with reasonable ability to pay the obligation and in other respects a reasonable credit risk. If, after the loan is made, an insured who acted in good faith discovers any material misstatements or misuse of the proceeds of the loan by the borrower, dealer, or others, the eligibility of the note for insurance will not be affected. However, the insured shall promptly report such discovery to the Commissioner.

(c) Outstanding FHA and direct federal obligations. The proceeds of a loan shall not be disbursed if the insured has knowledge that the borrower is past due more than fifteen days as to either principal or interest with respect to an obligation owing to, or insured by, any department or agency of the Federal Government: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall prevent the making of a loan otherwise eligible, even though the borrower is in default under such an obligation by reason of his military service and the approval of the Commissioner is obtained.

(d) Past due Title I Notes at time of purchase. A note shall not be purchased when any installment thereon is part due more than fifteen days at the date of purchase except purchases of notes under the provisions of § 501.12.

(e) Prior approval by Commissioner. Any loan in excess of $2,500, exclusive of financing charges, or any loan which increases the principal amount outstanding as to all Class 1 or Class 2 loans to any individual borrower to an amount in excess of $2,500, exclusive of financing charges, will be accepted for insurance only upon prior approval of the Commissioner.

(f) Security. The taking of security to secure the payment of a loan is left to the discretion of the insured unless specifically required by the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section or of § 501.3 (d) (2) (iii). An insured may permit the substitution or subordination of security provided it can be shown when claim is made that at the time of such action the original security value was not impaired or reduced as a result of such action. Upon presentation of the facts the prior approval of the Commissioner may be obtained by the insured to any proposed substitution or subordination of security.

(g) Collections. The insured is required to service loans in accordance with acceptable practices of prudent lending institutions. In the event of default, the insured should have adequate facilities for contacting the borrower and otherwise exercise diligence in collecting the amount due. The insured is responsible to the Commissioner for proper collection efforts even though actual collection may be performed by an agent.

§ 501.7 Eligible expenditures—(a) Property location. The property to be improved shall be located within the United States, its Territories, or Possessions.

(b) Use of proceeds. The proceeds of a loan shall be used only to finance alterations, repairs, and improvements upon real property or in connection with existing structures, commenced in reliance upon the credit facilities afforded by Title I of the act.

(c) Reliance on credit application. An insured acting in good faith may, in the absence of information to the contrary, rely upon all statements of fact made by the borrower, which are called for by the borrower's Credit Application, in determining the eligibility of the improvements to the property.

(d) Technical services and direct costs. The proceeds of a loan may be used to pay the cost of architectural and engineering services, and fees paid for obtaining building permits that are directly connected with the eligible alterations, repairs, or improvements financed in accordance with the regulations in this part.

(e) Supplementing an uninsured obligation. The proceeds of a loan shall not be used to supplement another obligation of the borrower not reported for insurance, the payment of which is to be secured by a prior lien created in connection with the proposed alteration, repairs, or improvements.

§ 501.8 Disbursement of loan proceeds—(a) Disbursement. Before disbursing the proceeds of a loan to one other than a borrower or a borrower and another jointly, the insured shall:

(1) Dealer approval. Have approved the dealer after such investigation as the insured considers necessary to establish to its satisfaction that the dealer is reliable, financially responsible and qualified to perform satisfactorily the work to be financed and to extend proper service to the customer. This approval, signed and dated, together with the supporting information, shall be in the insured's file. For the purpose of this section the term "dealer" means the one who executes the dealer's completion certificate.

(2) Completion certificates. Obtain a completion certificate signed by the borrower and a completion certificate signed by the dealer on forms approved by the Commissioner. If there are two or more eligible borrowers involved in the transaction, only one signature is required on the borrower's certificate.

(3) Authorization to pay loan proceeds. Obtain written authorization from the borrower, if the insured is the payee of the note and the proceeds are to be disbursed to one other than the borrower.

(b) Precautionary measures. If the insured has not approved the dealer, as provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section or has reason to withdraw such approval, the proceeds of a loan shall not be disbursed until:

(1) The insured has verified all statements contained on the borrower's credit application.

(2) The borrower has signed the borrower's completion certificate in the presence of the insured.

(3) The insured has inspected the work performed in every instance when the amount involved is $500 or more, and in at least one out of every three transactions when the amounts involved are less than $500.

(4) The insured has signed a statement to the effect that the above requirements were complied with prior to releasing the proceeds of any such loans, such statement must accompany each loan report.

§ 501.9 Refinancing—(a) General requirements. New obligations to liquidate loans previously reported for insurance pursuant to Title I of the act after July 1, 1947, which may or may not include an additional amount advanced will be covered by insurance, provided they meet the requirements of all applicable regulations and the special provisions of this section.

(b) Maximum maturity. (1) A Class 1 (a) loan or a Class 2 (a) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of three years and thirty-two days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed five years from the date of the original note.

(2) A Class 1 (b) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of seven years and thirty-two days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed ten years from the date of the original note.

(3) A Class 2 (b) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of seven years and thirty-two days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed ten years from the date of the original note, except that if a Class 2 (b) loan is secured by a first mortgage, first deed of trust, or other security instrument, constituting a first lien upon the improved property, the new note may have a final maturity not in excess of fifteen years and thirty-two days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed twenty-five years from the date of the original note.

(4) When a Class 1 loan or a Class 2 loan is made or refinanced and consolidated with another Class 1 loan or Class 2 loan, the new note evidencing the consolidated obligation shall not be for a longer term than that which the component loan having the shortest permissible maturity could have if made or refinanced alone.

(c) Rebate. The full unearned charge on the original note shall be refunded to the borrower. If no additional advance is made a handling charge not in excess of $2.00 may be assessed the borrower.

(d) Special cases. The Commissioner may upon presentation of the facts approve the refinancing or refinancing and consolidation of any loan or loans upon such terms and conditions as he may determine within the limits provided by the act.

(e) Deferred payments. An agreement to defer payments on a note previously reported for insurance under the regulations in this part without rewriting the note is not considered refinancing. Such agreement will not affect the insurance coverage on the loan: Provided, That:

(1) Such agreement is evidenced in writing;

(2) Payments shall not be deferred for more than five months from the due date of the last fully-paid installment;

(3) Such agreement shall not extend the final maturity of the obligation beyond the maturity date of the obligation as provided by its original terms;

(4) The insured may assess the borrower for the cost of such deferment if such charge is not in excess of an equivalent amount of late charges as provided in § 501.3 (e).

§ 501.10 Report of loans. Loans shall be reported on the prescribed form to the Federal Housing Administration at Washington, D. C., within thirty-one days from the date of the note or date upon which it was purchased. Any loan refinanced as provided in § 501.9 shall likewise be reported on the prescribed form within thirty-one days from date of refinancing. In any case, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, accept a late report.

§ 501.11 Claims—(a) Claim application. Claim for reimbursement for loss on an eligible loan shall be made on a form provided by the Commissioner, and executed by a duly qualified officer of the insured. The claim shall be accompanied by the insured's complete credit and collection file pertaining to the transaction.

(b) Claim after default. Claim may be made after default (earliest installment for which full payment has not been received) provided demand has been made upon the debtor for the full unpaid balance of the note.

(c) Maximum claim period. For the purpose of this section, any payment received on an account, including payments on a judgment predicated thereon, shall be applied to the earliest unpaid installment, and in the case of:

(1) Yearly installment notes, whenever an installment is twelve months in default, claim must be made within thirty-one days thereafter;

(2) All other installment notes, whenever an installment is six months in default, claim shall be made within thirty-one days thereafter.

(d) Extension of maximum claim period. Upon presentation to the Commissioner of the facts of a particular case within the allowable claim period prescribed in this section, he may, in his discretion, extend the time within which claim must be made: Provided, That in computing the claim no interest will be allowed for the period of such extension.

(e) Claim amount. An insured will be reimbursed for its loss on loans made in accordance with the regulations in this part up to the amount of its reserve as established by § 501.12 as follows:

(1) Net unpaid amount of the loan actually made or the actual purchase price of the note, whichever is the lesser;

(2) Uncollected earned interest to date of default and interest at the rate of 4% per annum from the date of default to the date of the application for reimbursement of loss sustained, but in no event shall the total interest allowed exceed the maximum permissible financing charge on the principal amount outstanding to the date of application for reimbursement.

(3) Uncollected court cost, including fees paid for issuing, serving, and filing summons;

(4) Attorney's fees actually paid not exceeding:

(i) 15% of the amount collected by the attorney on the defaulted note provided the insured does not waive its claim against the borrower for such fees; and

(ii) $25.00 or 15% of the balance due on the note, whichever is the lesser, if a judgment is secured by suit.

(f) Assignment of documents. The note and any security held or judgment taken must be assigned in its entirety and if any claim has been filed in bankruptcy, insolvency, or probate proceedings, such claim shall likewise be assigned to the United States of America.

(g) Form of assignment. The following form of assignment properly dated shall be used in assigning a note, judgment, real estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or any other security device in event of claim.

All right, title, and interest of the undersigned is hereby assigned (without warranty, except that the note qualifies for insurance) to the United States of America.

(Financial Institution)

By _____

Date _____ Title _____

Provided, That if this form is not valid or generally acceptable in the jurisdiction involved, a form which is valid and generally acceptable shall be used.

(h) Election of action. Where a real-estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or any other security device has been used to secure the payment of a loan made under the provisions of Title I of the act, the insured may not both proceed against such security and also make claim under its contract of insurance, but shall elect which method it desires to pursue.

§ 501.12 Insurance reserve—(a) Legal limit. Subject to the limitation on the total liability which may be outstanding at any time as stipulated in section 2 of Title I of the act, the Commissioner, in accordance with § 501.11, will reimburse any insured for losses sustained by it up to a total aggregate amount equal to 10% of the total amount advanced on all eligible loans made by it on and after July 1, 1947, and prior to July 1, 1949, and reported for insurance during the time its contract of insurance is in force.

(b) General insurance reserve. There shall be established for each insured a general insurance reserve equal to 10% of the aggregate amount advanced on all loans originated by it on and after July 1, 1947, and prior to July 1, 1949 pursuant to the provisions of both Part 501 and Part 502.

(c) Transfer of loans reported for insurance. The insured shall not assign or otherwise transfer any loan reported for insurance to a transferee not holding a contract of insurance under Title I of the National Housing Act, provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the pledging of such loans as collateral security under a trust agreement, or otherwise, in connection with a bona fide loan transaction.

(d) Transfer of insurance reserve. Insurance reserve of more than $5,000 shall not be transferred to or from the reserve account of any insured during any fiscal year (July 1 through June 30) without the prior approval of the Commissioner. Except in cases involving the transfer of loans sold with recourse or under a guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, the reports required by § 501.10 shall be submitted, indicating the intent of the parties with respect to the transfer of the insurance reserve and unless the approval of the Commissioner is obtained, the insurance reserve shall be transferred as follows:

(1) In cases involving the transfer of notes purchased without recourse, guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, provided no installment payment is past due more than one calendar month at the time of purchase, the insurance reserve shall be transferred to the general insurance reserve of the purchasing institution on the basis of 10% of the actual purchase price or net unpaid original advance, whichever is the lesser.

(2) In cases involving the transfer of notes sold with recourse or under a guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, no insurance reserve will be transferred and no reports will be required.

(e) FHA recovery shall not affect reserve. Amounts which may be salvaged by the Commissioner with respect to a loan in connection with which an insured has been reimbursed under its contract of insurance shall not be added to the insurance reserve remaining to the credit of such insured.

§ 501.13 Insurance charge—(a) Rate. The insured shall pay to the Commissioner an insurance charge equal to three-fourths (¾) of one per centum per annum of the net proceeds of any eligible loan reported and acknowledged for insurance: Provided, That in the case of a Class 1 (b) loan in excess of $2,500, exclusive of financing charges, and in the case of a Class 2 (b) loan having a maturity in excess of seven years, such insurance charge shall be one-half (½) of one per centum per annum. In computing the insurance charge, no charge shall be made for the fractional period of a month of 15 days or less, and a charge for a full month shall be made for the fractional period of a month of more than 15 days.

(b) When payable. Such insurance charge for the entire term of the loan shall be paid within twenty-five days after the date the Commissioner acknowledges receipt to the insured institution of the report of loan: Provided, That on loans having a maturity in excess of three years and thirty-two days, such charge may be paid in installments, the first of which shall be equal to the charge for three years and be paid within said twenty-five days, and the second and succeeding installments, each equal to the charge for one year, shall be paid on the first and each succeeding anniversary of the first day of the month following the date of the note.

(c) Notes transferred. Any adjustments of the insurance charge already paid on any obligation transferred between insureds shall be made by the insureds, except that any unpaid installments of the insurance charge shall be paid by the purchasing insured.

(d) Refund or abatement. There shall be no refund or abatement of any portion or installment of the insurance charge except:

(1) The charge on a refinanced note may be credited with the unearned portion of the charge on the original note;

(2) Insurance charges falling due after claim is filed or the note is prepaid in full;

(3) The charge paid on a loan or portion thereof found to be ineligible.

(e) When not chargeable to borrower. The insurance charge paid by the insured shall not be charged to the borrower if such charge would cause the total payments made by the borrower to exceed the maximum permissible amount which may be charged to the borrower for interest, discount, and all other charges in connection with the transaction.

§ 501.14 Administrative reports and examination. The Commissioner, or his authorized representative, may at any time call upon an insured for such reports as he may deem to be necessary in connection with the regulations in this part, or may inspect the books or accounts of the insured as they pertain to the loans reported for insurance.

§ 501.15 Amendments. The regulations in this part may be amended by the Commissioner at any time, but such amendment shall not adversely affect the insurance privileges of an insured with respect to any loan previously made.

§ 501.16 Effective date. The regulations in this part are effective as to all loans made on or after July 1, 1947, pursuant to the provisions of Title I of the National Housing Act, as amended, and shall have the same force and effect as if included in and made a part of each Contract of Insurance.

Issued at Washington, D. C., June 27, 1947.

RAYMOND M. FOLEY,
Federal Housing Commissioner.

PART 825—RENT REGULATION UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION FOR MIAMI DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

§ 825.3 Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for Miami Defense-Rental Area. The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for Miami Defense-Rental Area, issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law Eightieth Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.
3. Minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area Rent Office" means the office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Controlled housing accommodations" means any housing accommodation in the Defense-Rental Area which is not specifically exempted from control or decontrolled under this regulation.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, and removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That if 75 percent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947 the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins; supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishment; and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes not serving transient guests exclusively.

"Maximum rent date" means September 1, 1943, the maximum rent date for the Miami County Defense-Rental Area as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular housing accommodation in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, or under section 4 (c) of this regulation, whichever is applicable.

"Effective date of regulation" means November 1, 1943, the effective date of all provisions of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, except as to section 7 of that regulation which became effective October 1, 1943 in the County of Dade and October 15, 1943 in the City of Hollywood and the Town of Hallandale in the County of Broward, in the State of Florida.

The term "Rent Regulation for Housing" as herein used, means the Rent Regulation for Housing for the Miami Defense-Rental Area.

(a) Housing and defense-rental area to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all housing accommodations in the Miami Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the County of Dade and the City of Hollywood and the Town of Hallandale in the County of Broward in the State of Florida, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The Miami Defense-Rental Area is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area."

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments. Rooms or other housing accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments.

(4) Structures subject to underlying leases. (i) Entire structures or premises wherein more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee, or other tenant of such entire structure or premises.

(ii) Entire structures or premises wherein 25 or less rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee, or other tenant of such entire structures or premises; Provided, That all of the housing accommodations in such structures or premises are exempt under the provisions of this section or section 1 (b) of the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments.

(iii) This regulation does not apply to an underlying lease of any entire structure or premises which was entered into after the maximum rent date and prior to the effective date of the regulation while such lease remains in force with no power in the tenant to cancel or otherwise terminate the lease, unless all of the housing accommodations in such structure are exempt under this section or section 1 (b) of the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments.

(5) Rented to National Housing Agency. Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(6) Winter resort housing. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to November 1, 1943, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on June 1, 1946, and ending on September 30, 1946: Provided, however, That the area rent director may by order extend the above exemption to housing accommodations otherwise qualified which were rented or offered for rent for a period of not in excess of two weeks during the above period.

This exemption shall be effective only from October 1, 1947, to February 29, 1948, inclusive.

(7) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts, and tourist homes. (i) Housing accommodations in any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel (see definition of "hotel" in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) housing accommodations in motor courts; and (iii) housing accommodations in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively: Provided, however, That all such housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after such date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(8) Accommodations first offered for rent. (i) Housing accommodations, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; (ii) housing accommodations which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant) as housing accommodations: Provided, however, That all housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph (8) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the word "conversion" means (1) a change in a structure from a non-housing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(9) Maximum rents established under section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation; Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(10) Housing accommodations located in a resort community which, during at least six months of the year ending May 31, 1947, were either rented to tourist tenants or not rented, or both, and which were rented to a tourist tenant or not rented on May 31, 1947. This exemption shall apply to such accommodations only while rented to tourist tenants. For the purpose of this section, the term "tourist tenant" shall mean a tenant having his domicile outside of the resort community who is, or was, temporarily residing within such community; Provided, however, That the term shall not include a tenant who has continuously resided in the resort community for a period of more than nine months immediately prior to May 31, 1947, or more than nine months immediately prior to the date of renting the accommodations, whichever is the later.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents—(a) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this regulation of any housing accommodations within the defense-rental area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Lease with option to buy. Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of regulation and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation may be authorized to receive payment made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Expediter if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain and the tenant shall be authorized to offer payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive or the tenant to offer payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Expediter as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of regulation, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive nor shall the tenant offer payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

(c) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand, receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations within the defense-rental area except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit", in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent established under said section 4 (a).

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (b) or (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (b) or (f), no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (c) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (c), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Maximum rent established under section 4 (d) or (e) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (d) or (e), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations were or are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(6) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars, to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

(7) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may demand, receive and retain as a security deposit, the rent for the last rental period of the term, not exceeding one month, where a newly constructed housing accommodation is, or was, rented and occupied for the first time after March 25, 1947, fully furnished, under a written lease.

SEC. 3. Minimum space services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b) every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same living space as provided June 30, 1947 or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947 and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or those he provided on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date of first renting on or after July 1, 1947.

SEC. 4. (a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rent for any housing accommodation under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in section 5), shall be the maximum rent which was in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rent established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled housing accommodations and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such housing accommodations shall be, as of the date such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any housing accommodations only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the defense-rental area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D-92—Registration of Lease—in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the housing accommodations the same living space and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) First rent after June 30, 1947. For controlled housing accommodations first rented on or after July 1, 1947, the maximum rent shall be the first rent for such accommodations or one-twelfth of the total rent for the year ending on August 31, 1943, whichever is the higher. Within 30 days after so renting, the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c) (1).

If the landlord fails to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after the date of the first renting shall be received, subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under section 5 (c) (1). Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in falling to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under section 5 (c) may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under section 5 (c) is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(d) Housing subject to schedule of War or Navy Department. Where housing accommodations on June 30, 1947 are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such housing accommodations cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation, or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the rent regulations issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (2), (a) (4), (a) (5), (a) (7), (a) (8), (a) (9), (a) (11), (c) (1), (c) (3), and (c) (5), the adjustment of the maximum rent shall be on the basis of the maximum rent which the Expediter finds is generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (1), (a) (3), (a) (6), (c) (2), (c) (4) and (c) (6), the adjustment of the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been, on September 1, 1943, or during the year ending on August 31, 1943, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of the change upon which the adjustment is based: Provided, That in cases under sections 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (4) involving an increase or decrease in living space, the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases under paragraph (b), the adjustment of the maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the corresponding month of the year ending on August 31, 1943.

In cases involving construction, appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since September 1, 1943.

In cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants, or a deterioration, no adjustment shall be ordered to the extent that a rent used in establishing the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In cases under paragraph (a) (10) the maximum rent shall be adjusted to an amount to be ascertained by adding to the total rent for the year ending on August 31, 1943, an amount equal to the rent for the housing accommodations during the month or months of that year most nearly comparable to the month or months during which the accommodations were not rented, and dividing by twelve.

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount necessary to relieve the substantial hardship which shall be the lesser of the following two amounts: the decrease in net income (before interest) or the increase in property taxes or operating costs: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (7) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

In cases under paragraph (a) (14) of this section, the adjustment shall be the amount of the rent increase granted by the appropriate agency of the United States.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rent. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Major capital improvement after September 1, 1943. There has been, since September 1, 1943, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(2) Major capital improvement or change to furnished prior to September 1, 1943. There was during the year ending on August 31, 1943, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, or a change from unfurnished to fully furnished, and as a result the maximum rent for the housing accommodations is substantially lower than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

(3) Substantial increase in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been, since September 1, 1943, a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Expediter finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part of (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent during some portion of the year ending on August 31, 1943, or on the date subsequent thereto determining the maximum rent, was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, and as a result the maximum rent for the housing accommodations is substantially lower than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations: Provided, That no adjustment under this paragraph (a) (4) increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) Written lease for term commencing on or prior to September 1, 1941. There was in force on September 1, 1943, or during some portion of the year ending on August 31, 1943, a written lease for a term commencing on or prior to September 1, 1941, and as a result the maximum rent for the housing accommodations is lower than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

(6) Substantial increase in occupancy. (i) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of subtenants or other persons occupying the accommodations or a part thereof under a rental agreement with the tenant.

(ii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of occupants, in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(iii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants.

(7) On the date determining the maximum rent the housing accommodations were temporarily exempt from real estate taxes, the landlord was passing the benefit of this tax exemption on to the tenant and as a result the rent on that date was subsantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(8) Not rented during twelve weeks of year ending August 31, 1943. The housing accommodations were not rented during at least twelve weeks of the year ending on August 31, 1943, and the maximum rent established under section 4 for such accommodations is substantially lower than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

(9) Priority rating granted on September 1941 application form of Office of Production Management. The maximum rent for the housing accommodations was, originally established under section 4 (c) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the application for priority rating for the construction of the housing accommodations was filed on the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941, the landlord did not make, prior to the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and the maximum rent for the accommodations is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, giving due consideration to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

This paragraph (a) (9) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

(10) Not rented for one or two full months during the year ending on August 31, 1943. The housing accommodations were not rented for one or two full months but less than twelve weeks during the year ending on August 31, 1943 and the maximum rent established under section 4 for such accommodations is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations. The term "full month" means a period of consecutive days constituting a month.

(11) Peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in payroll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: And provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(vi) "Prior representative period" means any period of two consecutive years prior to the "current year" but not beginning before January 1, 1939, which the Expediter finds to be representative of the property's normal operation: Provided, however, That where a representative period of two consecutive years is not available the Expediter in his discretion may for the purposes of this section accept a representative period of not less than one year.

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

(14) The maximum rent was established under section 4 (c) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and prior to final completion of all units included in a single priority application, but subsequent to the first renting of said accommodations the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent was approved by such agency.

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and space. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under Section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (4).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rents generally prevailing. The maximum rent for housing accommodations established under paragraphs (b) or (f) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or under paragraph (c) or (d) of section 4 of this regulation is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

Where the maximum rent for said housing accommodations was originally established under paragraphs (b), (d) or (f) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the landlord failed to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of said Rent Regulation for Housing on or before June 30, 1947, and fails to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation within the time specified in section 7 or where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (c) of this regulation and the landlord fails to file a registration statement in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of this regulation, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after July 1, 1947, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under this section. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order, unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file the proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under this section may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under this section is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since September 1, 1943.

(3) Substantial deterioration or change to unfurnished prior to September 1, 1943. There was a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations or a change from fully furnished to unfurnished during the year ending on August 31, 1943, and as a result the maximum rent for such accommodations is substantially higher than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

(4) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since September 1, 1943, or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(5) Special relationship between landlord and tenant or peculiar circumstances. The rent during some portion of the year ending on August 31, 1943, or on the date subsequent thereto determining the maximum rent, was materially affected by the blood, personal, or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by peculiar circumstances, and as a result the maximum rent for the housing accommodations is substantially higher than the maximum rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations.

(6) Substantial decrease in occupancy. There has been a substantial decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants since an order under paragraph (a) (6) of this section or section 5 (a) (6), of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(7) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section or section 5 (a) (12) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947 or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact, or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Sale of underlying lease or other rental agreement. Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other person occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant the tenant may petition the Expediter for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Expediter may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion of the act or this regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section or a proceedings is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) Adjustments in case of options to buy. No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are subject to the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Expediter may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds is generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on the maximum rent date.

(h) Election by landlord of seasonal maximum rents—(1) Landlord's election. Where the total rent for housing accommodations for the eight months September 1942 through December 1942 and May 1943 through August 1943 was less than one-half of the total rent for the four months January 1943 through April 1943, the landlord may elect to have seasonal maximum rents applicable to the accommodations. A landlord so elects when he files a registration statement as provided in section 7 and expresses such election on the registration statement. After the landlord has elected seasonal maximum rents, the maximum rents provided by this paragraph shall apply to the housing accommodations until, on petition of the landlord, the Expediter consents to the landlord's request to revoke the election. Upon the granting of such request the maximum rents provided by section 4 shall apply to the accommodations.

(2) Maximum rents for particular months. Upon the landlord's election as provided in subparagraph (1), the maximum rent for the housing accommodations for a particular month, beginning with the first rental period after the landlord's election, shall be the rent for the accommodations for the corresponding month of the year ending on August 31, 1943: Provided, however, That, where the accommodations were not rented or were rented for less than 21 days during such corresponding month of the year ending on August 31, 1943, the maximum rent for the particular month shall be the rent on September 1, 1943, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, the first rent after that date.

(3) Adjustments of maximum rents. If the maximum rent for a particular month is established under subparagraph (2) by either the rent on September 1, 1943 or the first rent after that date, and is lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations for the corresponding month of the year ending on August 31, 1943, the Expediter on petition of the landlord, may order an increase in the maximum rent. If such maximum rent is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations for the corresponding month of the year ending August 31, 1943, the Expediter on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the maximum rent.

(4) Reporting first rent. Where the housing accommodations were not rented on September 1, 1943 and the maximum rent for a particular month is established under subparagraph (2) by the first rent after that date, the landlord, if he has previously filed a registration statement for the accommodations, shall report the first rent after September 1, 1943, within 30 days after the accommodations are first rented after that date, on the form provided therefor. If the landlord has not previously filed a registration statement for the accommodations, he shall file such registration statement within 30 days after first renting, as provided in section 7. If the landlord fails to file the report or registration statement within the time specified, the rent received from the time of first renting on November 1, 1943, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amounts in excess of the maximum rents which may later be fixed by an order under subparagraph (3) decreasing maximum rents. In such case, the order under subparagraph (3) shall be effective to decrease the maximum rents from the time of such first renting or November 1, 1943, whichever is the later.

(i) Where the maximum rent for any housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such accommodations may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rents to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Expediter as he may, from time to time, require.

SEC. 7. Registration—(a) Registration statement. Every landlord of controlled housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. For housing accommodations rented prior to June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. For housing accommodations first rented after June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 30, 1947 or within 30 days after first renting, whichever is later. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Expediter shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Expediter and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the area rent office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

Where, since the filing of the registration statement for any controlled housing accommodations, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity within 15 days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is later. If the new landlord indicates on the notice of change in identity that he has not obtained the landlord's copy of the original registration statement, the Expediter shall cause to be prepared and delivered to him a true copy of said original, which may be used to satisfy all requirements of this paragraph (a).

Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as the landlord at the address given thereon, or when a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1 constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (d) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, on its sale by the owning agency, and within thirty days after the sale of such accommodations the new landlord shall file a registration statement as provided in subsection (a) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a state of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, subsection (c) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(c) Exemptions from registration requirements—(1) Housing owned and constructed by governmental agencies. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations whose maximum rent was originally determined under section 4 (d) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the defense-rental [illegible]a and containing such other information as the Expediter shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

(2) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchased money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting housing accommodations unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All orders issued pursuant to section 2 (c), 2 (d) (5) and 2 (d) (6) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for the Miami Defense-Rental Area shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION FOR ATLANTIC COUNTY DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA

§ 825.4 Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area. The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area, issued pursuant to the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, Public Law 129, Eightieth Congress, is as follows:

Sec.
1. Definitions and scope of this regulation.
2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.
3. Minimum space services, furniture, furnishings and equipment.
4. Maximum rents.
5. Adjustments and other determinations.
6. Inspection.
7. Registration.
8. Evasion.
9. Enforcement.
10. Procedure.
11. Requests for amendment.
12. Adoption of orders.

SECTION 1. Definitions and scope of this regulation. "Act" means the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Expediter" means the Housing Expediter or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Expediter may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the act.

"Rent Director" means the person designated by the Expediter as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Expediter.

"Area rent office" means the office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

"Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

"Housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

"Controlled housing accommodations" means any housing accommodation in the Defense-Rental Area which is not specifically exempted from control or decontrolled under this regulation.

"Services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, and removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

"Landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

"Tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

"Rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

"Hotel" means any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel in the community in which it is located and which provides customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service: Provided, however, That if 75 per cent or more of the units in the establishment are self-contained dwelling units including a bathroom and kitchen and were rented on other than a daily term of occupancy on June 30, 1947, the establishment shall not be considered a hotel for the purposes of this regulation and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

"Motor court" means an establishment renting rooms, cottages or cabins; supplying parking or storage facilities for motor vehicles in connection with such renting and other services and facilities customarily supplied by such establishments; and commonly known as a motor, auto or tourist court in the community.

"Tourist home" means a rooming house which caters primarily to transient guests and is known as a tourist home in the community.

"Rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel or motor court in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short term basis of daily, weekly or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, trailers not a part of a motor court, residence clubs and all other establishments of a similar nature, including tourist homes not serving transient guests exclusively.

"Maximum rent date" means September 1, 1943, the maximum rent date for the Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

"Date determining maximum rent" means the date as of which a maximum rent was determined for any particular housing accommodation in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, or under section 4 (c) of this regulation, whichever is applicable.

"Effective date of regulation" means June 1, 1944. The term Rent Regulation for Housing, as hereinafter used, means the Rent Regulation for Housing in Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(a) Housing and defense-rental area to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all housing accommodations in the Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the County of Atlantic, New Jersey, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area."

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part or all of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments. Rooms or other housing accommodations subject to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments.

(4) Structures subject to underlying leases. (i) Entire structures or premises wherein more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee or other tenant of such entire structure or premises.

(ii) Entire structures or premises wherein 25 or less rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee, or other tenant of such entire structures or premises, Provided, That all of the housing accommodations in such structures or premises are exempt under the provisions of this section, or section 1 (b) of the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments.

(iii) This regulation does apply to an underlying lease of any entire structure or premises which was entered into after the maximum rent date and prior to the effective date of the regulation while such lease remains in force with no power in the tenant to cancel or otherwise terminate the lease, unless all of the housing accommodations in such structure are exempt under this section or section 1 (b) of the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and other Establishments.

(5) Rented to National Housing Agency. Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(6) Resort housing; summer resort housing. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis prior to October 1, 1945, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943, and ending on February 29, 1944.

This exemption shall be effective only from July 1, 1947, to September 30, 1947, inclusive.

(See Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for similar exemption from June 1 to June 30, 1947.)

(7) Accommodations in hotels, motor courts, and tourist homes. (i) Housing accommodations in any establishment which is commonly known as a hotel (see definition of hotel in section 1) in the community in which it is located, which are occupied by persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service; (ii) housing accommodations in motor courts; and (iii) housing accommodations in any tourist home serving transient guests, exclusively: Provided, however, That all such housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office an application for decontrol of such accommodations on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after such date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said application for decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said application.

(8) Accommodations first offered for rent. (i) Housing accommodations, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947, or which are additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after February 1, 1947, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under Public Law 388, Seventy-ninth Congress, approved May 22, 1946, shall remain in full force and effect; (ii) housing accommodations which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, were rented (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant) as housing accommodations: Provided, however, That all housing accommodations referred to in this paragraph (8) shall be subject to this regulation unless the landlord files in the area rent office a report of decontrol on a form provided by the Expediter within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting, whichever is the later: And provided further, That if a landlord fails to file said report of decontrol within the applicable specified period, such housing accommodations shall be and remain subject to the provisions of this regulation until the date on which he files said report.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the construction of housing accommodations is considered completed on the date the last material, fixture or equipment is incorporated into the structure provided the dwelling is suitable for occupancy at that time.

For the purposes of this paragraph (8) the word "conversion" means (1) a change in a structure from a non-housing to a housing use or (2) a structural change in a residential unit or units involving substantial alterations or remodeling and resulting in the creation of additional housing accommodations.

(9) Maximum rents established under Section 4 (b). Housing accommodations for which the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation, Provided, however, That such housing accommodations shall be subject to this regulation until January 1, 1948.

(10) Subletting. The subletting or other subrenting of housing accommodations for a term beginning on or after June 1, 1947 and ending on or before September 30, 1947 by a tenant who remained in occupancy and used the accommodations as his home from January 1, 1947, to the date of subletting or other subrenting.

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents.—(a) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall offer, demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this regulation of any housing accommodations within the defense-rental area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. A reduction in the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required under section 3 of this regulation shall constitute an acceptance of rent higher than the maximum rent. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Lease with option to buy. Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of regulation and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation may be authorized to receive payment made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Expediter if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain, and the tenant shall be authorized to offer payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive, or the tenant to offer payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Expediter as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of regulation, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive, nor shall the tenant offer payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

(c) Security deposits.—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand, receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations within the defense-rental area except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit", in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month but shall not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) or (b) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (a) or (b), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent established under said section 4 (a) or (b).

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (c) or (d) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (c) br (d), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter entered. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (e) or (i) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (e) or (i), no security deposit shall be demanded or received.

(5) Maximum rent established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (f), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(6) Maximum rent established under section 4 (g) or (h) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is or initially was established under said section 4 (g) or (h), no security deposit shall be demanded or received, except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations were or are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(7) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Expediter may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars, to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

(8) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may demand, receive and retain as a security deposit, the rent for the last rental period of the term, not exceeding one month, where a newly constructed housing accommodation is or was rented and occupied for the first time after March 25, 1947, fully furnished, under a written lease.

SEC. 3. Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b) every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same living space as provided June 30, 1947, or on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, in accordance with the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or those he provided on the date he first rented on or after July 1, 1947, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those he was required to provide on June 30, 1947, or actually provided on the date of first renting on or after July 1, 1947.

SEC. 4. (a) Maximum rents in effect on June 30, 1947. The maximum rent for any housing accommodation under this regulation (unless and until changed by the Expediter as provided in Section 5), shall be the maximum rent which was in effect on June 30, 1947, as established under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the applicable rent regulation issued thereunder, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Maximum rent established under a lease. In any case in which a tenant and landlord, on or before December 31, 1947, voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any controlled housing accommodations and such lease takes effect after July 1, 1947, and expires on or after December 31, 1948, the maximum rent for such housing accommodations shall be, as of the date such lease takes effect, the rent provided by the lease if it does not represent an increase of more than 15 percent over the maximum rent otherwise applicable. Such lease shall increase the maximum rent otherwise applicable for any housing accommodations only if a true copy thereof signed by both the landlord and tenant is filed with the area rent office for the Defense-Rental Area in which the accommodations are located within fifteen days after the date the lease is executed. Every landlord shall file with a true copy of such lease Form D-92—Registration of Lease—in triplicate. A maximum rent established under this paragraph shall not be subject to additional increase by execution of a subsequent lease. No maximum rent established under this paragraph shall be subject to modification by any order of the Expediter.

A lease shall be effective under this paragraph to increase the maximum rent only if it provides with the housing accommodations the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as required by this regulation prior to the effective date of the lease, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment, not substantially less than required prior to the effective date of the lease. The landlord shall continue to provide such space and services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment at all times after the effective date of such lease.

(c) First rent after June 30, 1947. For controlled housing accommodations first rented on or after July 1, 1947, the maximum rent shall be the first rent for such accommodations. Within 30 days after so renting, the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. The Expediter may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c) (1) and 5 (c) (6).

If the landlord fails to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after the date of the first renting shall be received, subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under section 5 (c) (1) and 5 (c) (6). Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file a proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under section 5 (c) may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under section 5 (c) is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(d) Housing subject to schedule of War or Navy Department. Where housing accommodations on June 30, 1947 are rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War and Navy Departments, and on or after July 1, 1947, the rents on such housing accommodations cease to be governed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments, the maximum rents shall be those which would have been applicable under the appropriate subsection of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or shall be established under section 4 (c) of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Expediter may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required, except in cases where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (b) of this regulation, or where an order increasing or decreasing the maximum rent on the same facts and grounds was entered under the rent regulations issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, an increase or decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (12), (a) (13), (a) (14), (a) (15), (c) (6) and (c) (8) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraphs (a) (6) and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment may be on the basis of the rental agreement in force on the date determining the maximum rent: Provided, further, That in cases under section 5 (a) (3) and 5 (c) (3) involving an increase or decrease in living space the adjustment shall be either the amount the Expediter finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change or on the basis of the rent which the Expediter finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, whichever is higher.

In cases involving construction, appropriate allowance shall be made for general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since 1939, except that in the case of construction initiated prior to November 23, 1945, such allowance shall reflect general increases in costs of construction in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (a) (7), (a) (14), and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount necessary to relieve the substantial hardship which shall be the lesser of the following two amounts: the decrease in net income (before interest) or the increase in property taxes or operating costs: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (8) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Expediter finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

In cases under paragraph (a) (15) of this section, the adjustment shall be the amount of the rent increase granted by the appropriate agency of the United States.

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rent. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Major capital improvement after effective date. There has been on or after the effective date of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement, as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement, and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

(3) Substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Expediter finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part of (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That no adjustment under this subparagraph increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date; or the housing accommodations were not rented on the maximum rent date, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other time of year by reason of seasonal demand, or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rent for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Substantial increase in occupancy. (i) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of subtenants or other persons occupying the accommodations or a part thereof under a rental agreement with the tenant.

(ii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent a substantial increase in the number of occupants, in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(iii) There has been, since the date determining the maximum rent an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants.

(9) On the date determining the maximum rent the housing accommodations were temporarily exempt from real estate taxes, the landlord was passing the benefit of this tax exemption on to the tenant and as a result the rent on that date was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(10) Priority rating granted on September 1941 application form of Office of Production Management. The maximum rent for the housing accommodations was originally established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the application for priority rating for the construction of the housing accommodations was filed on the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941, the landlord did not make, prior to the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and the maximum rent for the accommodations is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, giving due consideration to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

This paragraph (a) (10) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

(11) Peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

In proper cases increases in payroll and property taxes in effect on the date of the filing of the petition may be considered by the Expediter in determining whether substantial hardship exists.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means (a) the most recent full calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord, or (b) any twelve-month period ending not more than 90 days prior to the filing of the petition: Provided, however, That the current year in all cases shall begin on or after the maximum rent date: And provided, further, That if allowance is requested for increases in payroll or property taxes not fully reflected in the "current year" as defined above, at least one calendar month must have passed between the end of the current year and the beginning of the month in which the petition is filed.

(vi) "Prior representative period" means any period of two consecutive years prior to the "current year" but not beginning before January 1, 1939, which the Expediter finds to be representative of the property's normal operation: Provided, however, That where a representative period of two consecutive years is not available the Expediter in his discretion may for the purposes of this section accept a representative period of not less than one year.

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

(14) Changes from year-round to seasonal renting. The accommodations are located in a resort community, are primarily adapted to occupancy on a seasonal basis, are vacant and the establishment of seasonal variations in the rent would not, in the opinion of the area rent director, be inconsistent with the purposes of the act.

(15) The maximum rent was established under section 4 (f) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and prior to final completion of all units included in a single priority application, but subsequent to the first renting of said accommodations, the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent was approved by such agency.

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and space. (1) The landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, equipment and living space as required under section 3, unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon. When the accommodations become vacant, the landlord may on renting to a new tenant decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space below the minimum: within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report with the area rent director showing such decrease.

(2) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph (b) may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph (b) may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3).

If the landlord fails to file the report required by this paragraph (b) within the time specified, or decreases the services, furnitdre, furnishings, equipment or living space without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or July 1, 1947, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, equipment or living space. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of issuance of the order unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to comply with this paragraph (b), the order may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Expediter at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rents generally prevailing. The maximum rent for housing accommodations established under paragraphs (c), (e), or (i) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or under paragraph (c) or (d) of section 4 of this regulation is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

Where the maximum rent for said housing accommodations was originally established under paragraphs (c), (d), (e), or (i) of section 4 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the landlord failed to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of said Rent Regulation for Housing on or before June 30, 1947, and fails to file a proper registration statement in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation within the time specified in section 7 or where the maximum rent is established under section 4 (c) of this regulation and the landlord fails to file a registration statement in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of this regulation, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after July 1, 1947, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under this section. Such amount shall be refunded to the tenant within 30 days after the date of the issuance of the order, unless the refund is stayed in accordance with the provisions of Rent Procedural Regulation 1. If the Expediter finds that the landlord was not at fault in failing to file the proper registration statement within the time specified, the order under this section may relieve the landlord of the duty to refund. The landlord shall have the duty to refund only if the order under this section is issued in a proceeding commenced by the Expediter within 3 months after the date of filing of such registration statement.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order determining the maximum rent, or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant or peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal, or other special relationship between the landlord and tenant, or by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) Seasonal rent. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Expediter's order may if he deems advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(7) Substantial decrease in occupancy. There has been a substantial decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants since an order under paragraph (a) (8) of this section, or section 5 (a) (8) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(8) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section or section 5 (a) (12) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, since the order issued under either of said paragraphs.

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, or the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required to be provided with the accommodations is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Expediter at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact, or determining the services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment required to be provided with the accommodations which order shall be effective to establish the maximum rent from July 1, 1947 or the date of first renting after July 1, 1947, whichever is applicable. If the Expediter is unable to ascertain such fact or facts, he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date and, where appropriate, may determine the services, furniture, furnishings and equipment included in such rent.

(e) Sale of underlying lease or other rental agreement. Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant the tenant may petition the Expediter for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Expediter may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section or a proceeding is initiated by the Expediter under paragraph (d), the Expediter may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) Adjustments in case of options to buy. No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Expediter may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Expediter finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on the maximum rent date.

(h) Where the maximum rent for any housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State, or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, is below the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, the owner of such accommodations may with the consent of the Expediter increase the maximum rents to such generally prevailing rent by re-registering such accommodations at such generally prevailing rent.

For the purpose of this section, any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States.

SEC. 6. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Expediter as he may, from time to time, require.

SEC. 7. Registration—(a) Registration statement. Every landlord of controlled housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor, to be known as a registration statement, unless a registration statement was heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. For housing accommodations rented prior to June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 10, 1947. For housing accommodations first rented after June 1, 1947, such registration statement shall be filed on or before July 30, 1947, or within 30 days after first renting, whichever is later. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Expediter shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Expediter and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Expediter, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the area rent office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

Where, since the filing of the registration statement for any controlled housing accommodations, there has been a change in the identity of the landlord, by transfer of title or otherwise, the new landlord shall file a notice of such change on a form provided for that purpose, to be known as a notice of change in identity within 15 days after the change or July 1, 1947, whichever is later. If the new landlord indicates on the notice of change of identity that he has not obtained the landlord's copy of the original registration statement, the Expediter shall cause to be prepared and delivered to him a true copy of the original, which may be used to satisfy all requirements of this paragraph (a).

Any notice, order or other process or paper directed to the person named on the registration statement as the landlord at the address given thereon, or, where a notice of change in identity has been filed, to the person named as landlord and at the address given in the most recent such notice, shall, under the circumstances, prescribed in Rent Procedural Regulation 1 constitute notice to the person who is then the landlord.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any housing accommodations whose maximum rent was determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, on its sale by the owning agency, and within thirty days after the sale of such accommodations the new landlord shall file a registration statement as provided in subsection (a) of this section: Provided, however, That if the housing accommodations are sold to the United States or a state of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing, paragraph (c) of this section shall continue to be applicable.

(b) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(c) Exceptions from registration requirements—(1) Housing owned and constructed by governmental agencies. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations whose maximum rent was originally determined under section 4 (g) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the defense-rental area and containing such other information as the Expediter shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

(2) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

SEC. 8. Evasion—(a) General. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchased money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing, or by tying agreement, or otherwise.

(b) Purchase of property as condition of renting. Specifically, but without limitation on the foregoing, no person shall require a tenant or prospective tenant to purchase or agree to purchase furniture or any other property as a condition of renting housing accommodations unless the prior written consent of the Expediter is obtained.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided by the act.

SEC. 10. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the area rent office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 11. Requests for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file requests therefor in accordance with Rent Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 12. Adoption of orders. All orders issued pursuant to section 2 (c), 2 (d) (3) and 2 (d) (7) of the Rent Regulation for Housing, issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, which were in effect on June 30, 1947, shall be deemed to continue in effect under this regulation unless and until revoked or modified by the Expediter.

Effective date. This Controlled Housing Rent Regulation for the Atlantic County Defense-Rental Area shall become effective July 1, 1947.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947, effective July 1, 1947.

OFFICE OF THE HOUSING EXPEDITER,

AUTHORITY: §§ 503.1 to 503.40, inclusive, issued under sec. 9, 60 Stat. 959, 25 U. S. C. 70.

§ 503.1 Petitioners. (a) Claims within the jurisdiction of the Indian Claims Commission of the United States (60 Stat. 959; 25 U. S. C. 70), hereafter referred to in this part as the Commission, may be presented by any Indian tribe, band or other identifiable group of Indians.

(b) Claims by Indian tribes, bands or groups which have tribal organizations recognized by the Secretary of the Interior as having authority to represent such tribe, band or group shall be filed and presented by the duly appointed or elected officers of such organization, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Where by virtue of fraud, collusion or laches on the part of a recognized tribal organization a claim has not been presented (or has not been included as part of a presented claim), any member of such tribe, band or group may file claim on behalf of all the other members of such tribe, band or group upon complying with the provisions of § 503.8 (a).

(d) Claims on behalf of any unorganized tribe, band or other identifiable group may be filed by any member of such tribe, band or identifiable group as the representative of all its members.

§ 503.2 Commencement of action. (a) A claim shall be commenced by the filing of a petition with the Commission.

(b) Twenty printed copies of each petition shall be filed. The Commission on motion accompanying a typewritten petition assigning good and sufficient cause, may waive or postpone printing of the petition. When printing of the petition is waived 8 legible typewritten copies thereof shall be filed.

§ 503.3 Service of petition. Service shall be made upon the United States as follows:

By sending 15 copies of the printed petition or 4 copies of the typed petition by registered mail (return receipt requested) to the Attorney General of the United States at Washington, D. C. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. The return receipt shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Commission to be filed in the case.

Said copies of the petition may be delivered to the Attorney General at Washington, D. C., and obtaining his written receipt therefor, and in such cases service shall be complete upon the date they are received by him. Such receipt shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Commission to be filed in the case.

§ 503.4 Service and filing of other papers—(a) Service—(1) When required. Every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original petition, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar papers shall be served upon each of the parties affected thereby, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear, except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief shall be served in the manner provided for service in § 503.3.

(2) How made. Whenever under the rules in this part service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney of record (hereinafter provided for in this paragraph) unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the Commission. Service upon the attorney of record or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his address registered with the Clerk as required by § 503.35. Delivery of a copy within the provisions of this section means: Handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

(b) Proof of service—(1) File before taking action. Proof of service of papers required or permitted to be served, other than those for which a method of proof is prescribed by the Federal rules of civil procedure, shall be filed before action is to be taken thereon.

(2) Form of. The proof shall show the time and manner of service, and may be by written acknowledgment of service, by affidavit of the person making service, by certificate of a member of the bar of this Commission, or by other proof satisfactory to the Commission.

(3) Failure to make. Failure to make proof of service will not affect the validity thereof. The Commission may at any time allow the proof to be amended or supplied, unless to do so would result in material prejudice to a party.

(c) Filing. All papers after the petition required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the Commission either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(d) Filing with the Commission defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the Commission as required by the rules in this part shall be made by filing them with the Clerk of the Commission, except that a Commissioner or Examiner when a claim is being heard by him may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the Clerk.

§ 503.5 Time—(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the rules in this part by order of Commission, Commissioner or Examiner or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day upon which the Commission is open for business. Legal holidays in the District of Columbia are as follows:

1st day of January, New Year's Day;
Day of the inauguration of the President in every fourth year, January 20;
22d day of February, Washington's Birthday;
30th day of May, Decoration Day;
4th day of July, Independence Day;
First Monday in September, Labor's Holiday;
11th day of November, Armistice Day;
Any day appointed or recommended by the President of the United States as a day of public fasting or thanksgiving (Thanksgiving, generally the last Thursday in November);
25th day of December, Christmas Day.
(Code of Law for the District of Columbia, sec. 1389, 31 Stat. 1405.)

When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Enlargement. When by the rules in this part or by a notice given thereunder or by order of the Commission an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Commission, or a Commissioner or Examiner in a case being heard by him, or by stipulation of the parties, for cause shown may at any time in its or his discretion (1) with or without motion or notice if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

(c) For motions; affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by the rules in this part or by order of the Commission. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the Commission permits them to be served at some other time.

(d) Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

§ 503.6 Pleadings allowed, form of motions—(a) Pleadings. There shall be a petition and an answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the Commission may order a reply to an answer.

(b) Motions and other papers. (1) An application to the Commission for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by the rules in this part.

(c) Demurrers, pleas, etc. Demurrers, pleas, and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

§ 503.7 General rules of pleading—(a) Pleading to be concise and direct; consistency. (1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently, would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has, regardless of consistency and regardless of the nature of the grounds on which they are based. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in § 503.10 (b).

(b) Statement of petition. A petition shall state with particularity. (1) Any action on the claim previously taken by Congress or by any department of the Government or in any judicial proceeding and whether the claim or any part thereof is included in any suit pending in the Court of Claims or in the Supreme Court of the United States or whether the same has been filed in the Court of Claims under any legislation in effect on the date of the approval of the Indian Claims Commission Act.

(2) If the claim or defense is founded upon an act of Congress or upon the regulation of an executive department or independent establishment, the act and the section thereof on which the pleader relies shall be specified and the particular regulation of the department of independent establishment stated, and a copy of such regulation attached to the petition.

(3) If the claim or defense is founded on a contract or treaty with the United States or an Executive order of the President, the substance of the same shall be set forth in the petition; if in writing, the original or a copy thereof shall be annexed thereto. All parts immaterial to the claim or defense or to the relief sought may be omitted.

(c) Construction of pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

§ 503.8 Capacity. (a) Petitions filed by any tribal organization recognized by the Secretary of the Interior as having authority to represent a tribe, band or group need not aver the capacity of such organization to sue except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Commission. When the United States desires to raise an issue as to the capacity of such a recognized tribal organization to sue, it shall do so by specific negative averments, which shall include supporting particulars.

(b) If a petition is filed by one or more members of a tribe, band or other identifiable group having a tribal organization which is recognized by the Secretary of the Interior because the tribal organization has failed or refused to take any action authorized by the act, the petition shall be verified and shall aver that the petitioner is a member of the tribe, band or group. The petitioner shall also set forth with particularity the efforts of the petitioner to secure from the duly constituted and recognized officers of said tribal organization such action as he desires and the reasons for his failure to obtain such action (such as fraud, collusion or laches) or the reasons for not making such effort.

(c) Petitions filed by one or more members on behalf of an unorganized tribe, band or other identifiable group shall be verified and shall aver (1) that the petition or petitioners are members of the tribe, band or group (2) a description of the unorganized tribe, band or group of sufficient comprehension to identify the tribe, band or group on whose behalf the petition is filed.

§ 503.9 Form of pleadings—(a) Caption; names of parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the Commission, and the title of the action, and a designation as in § 503.6 (a). A petition filed on behalf of a tribal organization under the provisions of § 503.1 (b) shall be commenced in the name of such tribe, band or group. A petition filed on behalf of an organized tribe, band or group under the provisions of § 503.1 (c), or an unorganized group under § 503.1 (d), shall be in the name of the member or members filing the same on the relation of the tribe, band or group. In the petition the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it shall be unnecessary to name more than one of the petitioners.

(b) Paragraphs; separate statements. All averments of claims or defenses shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as possible to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

(c) Adoption by reference; exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

§ 503.10 Signing of pleadings—(a) Petitioner. Every pleading of a party other than the United States represented by an attorney shall be signed by the attorney of record, designated under § 503.35 in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign its pleading and state its address.

(b) Effect of. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleadings; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay.

§ 503.11 Defenses and objections—(a) When presented. The United States shall serve its answer to the petition except a demand for a counterclaim or set-off, within 60 days after service on the Attorney General as provided in this part. The service of any motion permitted under this section alters this period of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Commission: (1) If the Commission denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 30 days after notice of the Commission's action or before the expiration of 60 days from the service of the petition, whichever is latest; (2) if the Commission grants a motion for a more definite statement the responsive pleading shall be served within 60 days after the service of the more definite statement.

(b) How presented. Every defense to a claim for relief in any pleading, except a counterclaim or set-off by the United States, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) insufficiency of service, (4) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, it may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered

(4) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the Commission, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion.

(c) Motion for judgment on the pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Commission, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of, and all parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present all material pertinent to such a motion.

(d) Preliminary hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated as subparagraphs (1) through (4) in paragraph (b) of this section, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in paragraph (c) of this section shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Commission orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial. Any pleading which includes any of the defenses enumerated in paragraph (b) of this section shall be accompanied by the statement of points and authorities required by § 503.22 (a) (1).

(e) Motion for more definite statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, it may move for a more definite statement before interposing its responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Commission is not obeyed within 10 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Commission may fix, the Commission may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(f) Motion to strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon it or upon the Commission's own initiative at any time, the Commission may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of motions. A party who makes a motion under this section may join with it the other motions provided for in this section and then available to it. If a party makes a motion under this section and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to it which this section permits to be raised by motion, it shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section.

(h) Waiver of defenses. The United States waives all defenses and objections which it does not present either by motion as hereinbefore provided in this section or, if it has made no motion, in its answer or reply, except (1) that the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and the objection of failure to state a defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleading or at the trial on the merits, and except (2) that, whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the Commission lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Commission shall dismiss the action. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall be disposed of as provided in § 503.13 (b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received.

(i) Default by United States. Unless the Attorney General shall within 60 days after the service of the petition serve a defensive pleading upon the petitioner, if the time is not extended by order of the Commission, or consent of the parties, the Commission may, on motion of the petitioner and after notice to the Attorney General, have the Clerk note on the docket that no answer has been filed and the Commission shall hear the petitioner's evidence and such facts as the Investigation Division of the Commission may assemble, before making its final determination.

§ 503.12 Counterclaim, cross-claim and set-off—(a) Set-offs. If, after a preliminary hearing under § 503.22 (f) it is determined that the United States is liable to the petitioner in any amount, the United States shall, within 60 days after the entry of the final order determining that right, unless extended by the Commission, amend its answer by setting forth the amount of any off-sets, counter-claims or any other demands against the petitioner authorized by the Act.

(b) Omitted counterclaim or set-off. When the United States fails to set up a counterclaim or set-off, through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, it may by leave of the Commission set up the counterclaim or set-off by amendment.

(c) Answer to counterclaim or set-off. Within 40 days after the filing of a set-off or counterclaim or other demand by the defendant, the petitioner or his attorney shall serve a reply thereto.

§ 503.13 Amended and supplemental pleadings—(a) Amendments. (1) A party may amend its pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been set for hearing, it may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend its pleading only by leave of the Commission or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time allowed for responding to an original pleading, unless the Commission otherwise orders.

(2) Printed or by interlineation. Amended petitions shall be printed and the same number filed as in the case of original petitions, unless printing is waived by the Commission. Where the amendments are slight and can be understood without a reprint of the entire petition they may either be interlined in the existing petition or printed pasters may be attached to the original petition.

Where a petition is amended in accordance with that portion of this section which permits interlineations or printed pasters to be attached to the original petition, the Clerk shall endorse on its face the fact that it is an amended petition and also the date of the amendment or amendments and such amended petition shall be verified when required by § 503.8.

(b) Amendments to conform to the evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure to so amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence not within the issues made by the pleadings is offered at a hearing held by a Commissioner or an Examiner, upon objection such evidence shall be rejected; whereupon the party may make an offer of proof. Upon motion to amend the pleading the Commission shall after notice to the adverse party allow the pleading to be amended to conform to the offered evidence and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the claim or defense will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Commission that the amendment of the pleading and the admission of such evidence would prejudice it in maintaining its claim or defense. The Commission may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation back of amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading.

§ 503.14 Depositions pending action—(a) When depositions may be taken. Any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination or written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery or for use as evidence in the action or for both purposes. After service of the petition the deposition may be taken without leave of the Commission, except that leave, granted with or without notice, must be obtained if notice of the taking is served by the petitioner within 20 days after service of the petition. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in § 503.24 (a) (1). Depositions shall be taken only in accordance with the rules in this part.

(b) Scope of examination. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, the deponent may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts. It is not ground for objection that the testimony will be inadmissible at the trial if the testimony sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) Examination and cross-examination. Examination and cross-examination of deponents may proceed as permitted at the hearings under the provisions of § 503.23.

(d) Use of depositions. At a hearing before the Commission, a Commissioner or Examiner or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice thereof, in accordance with any one of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(2) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the Commission, Commissioner or Examiner finds: (i), that the witness is dead; or (ii) that the witness is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (iii), that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity or imprisonment; or (iv), that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (v), upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open hearing, to allow the deposition to be used.

(3) If only a part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

(e) Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of § 503.19 (c), objection may be made at the hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(f) Effect of taking or using depositions. A party shall not be deemed to make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition. At the hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

§ 503.15 Depositions to perpetuate testimony. Depositions taken under the provisions of section 13 (a) of the act creating the Commission shall be taken pursuant to the notices hereinafter provided for, which shall be given to the Attorney General of the United States, and if a petition has been filed, to the attorney of record for the petitioner, of which the aged or invalid Indians whose depositions are to be taken are members, provided that the Commission may, if it deems it necessary, authorize the taking of such depositions on shorter notice than that hereinafter provided for. Depositions of such aged or invalid Indians may be used in any case in which the same may be material.

§ 503.16 Persons before whom depositions may be taken—(a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the Commission. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony.

(b) Disqualification for interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is directly or indirectly interested in the outcome of the claim.

§ 503.17 Depositions upon oral examination—(a) Notice of examination; time and place. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the Commission may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Witnesses by other party. When depositions are taken on notice, as provided in this part, if both parties are present or represented at the time and place specified in the notice, either party may, after the examination of the witnesses summoned under the notice, be entitled to summon and examine other witnesses; but in such case one day's notice shall be given to the adverse party or its attorney there present, unless such notice is waived.

(c) Record of examinations; oath; objections. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Interpreter. If a witness is in need of an interpreter the interpreter shall be sworn to well and truly translate all questions asked and answers given.

(e) Submission to witness; changes; signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness. If the witness refuses to sign the deposition, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress under § 503.19 (d) the Commission holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) Certification and filing by officer; copies; notice of filing. (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope indorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the Commission or send it by registered mail to the Clerk thereof for filing.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

§ 503.18 Depositions of witnesses upon written interrogatories—(a) Serving interrogatories; notice. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon written interrogatories shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating the name and address of the person who is to answer them and the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. Within 10 days thereafter, a party so served may serve cross-interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. Within 5 days thereafter, the latter may serve redirect interrogatories upon a party who has served cross-interrogatories. Within 3 days after being served with redirect interrogatories, a party may serve recross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition.

(b) Officer to take responses and prepare record. A copy of the notice and copies of all interrogatories served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by § 503.17 (c), (d) and (e) to take the testimony of the witness in response to the interrogatories and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the interrogatories received by him.

(c) Notice of filing. When the deposition is filed, the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

§ 503.19 Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions—(a) As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(b) As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(c) As to taking of deposition. (1) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(2) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(3) Objections to the form of written interrogatories submitted under § 503.18 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other interrogatories and within 3 days after service of the last interrogatories authorized. Answers to interrogatories to which objection is made shall be deferred until the objections are determined.

(d) As to completion and return of deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under §§ 503.17 and 503.18 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

§ 503.20 Calls on departments or agencies of the Government. (a) A call will be made on any department or agency of the Government on motion of any party upon the approval of the Commission.

(b) The motion shall show with particularity what is sought to be proved by the papers or information desired, and how or in what respect they are relevant and material to the issues of the case.

(c) Motions for calls upon any department or agency of the Government shall be filed in the Clerk's office. If no objection is filed with the Clerk within 10 days after the motion has been served on the Attorney General, the motion will be presented to and acted upon by the Chief Commissioner or a Commissioner acting in his stead, as in the case of other motions.

(d) The Attorney General may offer in evidence duly certified information and papers from any department or agency of the Government without calling for the same under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

(e) All information and papers furnished by any department or agency of the Government in response to a call or offered in evidence by the Attorney General shall be subject to objection by either party; but as to duly certified copies furnished on call or offered by the Attorney General, neither party will be required to produce the originals of such papers or prove their execution.

§ 503.21 Documentary evidence. (a) At any hearing held under the rules in this part, any official letter, paper, document, map or record in the possession of any officer or department or court of the United States, or committee of Congress (or a certified copy thereof), may be used in evidence insofar as the same is relevant or material.

(b) Original depositions or original transcripts of other testimony of record (or certified copies of either) in any suit or proceeding in any court of the United States to which an Indian or Indian tribe or group was a party may be used in evidence insofar as relevant and material.

(c) Objections to the competency, relevancy and materiality of any evidence hereunder shall be made at the time it is offered in evidence.

§ 503.22 Hearings—(a) Motions. (1) With each motion there shall be filed and served a separate paper stating the specific points of law and authorities to support the motion. Such statement shall be additional to a statement of grounds in the motion itself, and shall be entered on the docket but shall not be a part of the record. A statement of opposing points and authorities shall be similarly filed, noted and served within 10 days or such further time as the Commission may grant or the parties agree upon. If not filed within the prescribed time, the Commission may treat the motion as conceded. If so filed, the motion shall be treated as submitted unless the Commission directs or either party requests an oral hearing.

(2) Nonappearance of parties. If at the time set for hearing there be no appearance for the moving party, the Commission may treat the motion as submitted or waived, or continue or strike it from the motion calendar. If there be no appearance for the opposing side, it may be treated as submitted or conceded.

(b) Assignment of case. When a claim is at issue, the same shall be assigned for hearing by the Commission. Any claim may be retained for hearing by the Commission or assigned for hearing to a Commissioner or an Examiner. When retained by the Commission to determine the facts, the rules applicable to hearings by a Commissioner or an Examiner shall be applicable.

(c) Authority of Commissioner or Examiner. When a claim has been assigned to a Commissioner or to an Examiner for hearing, such Commissioner or Examiner shall act in the name of the Commission and all lawful and proper orders made and directions given by such Commissioner or Examiner shall have the same force and effect as though made by the Commission; but any party feeling himself aggrieved at any order made or direction given may have such order or direction reviewed by the Commission by motion to review filed within a reasonable time thereafter, or by objections to the findings of fact filed by said Commissioner or Examiner.

(d) The Commission, the Commissioner or the Examiner shall rule on the competency, materiality and relevancy of all evidence offered.

(e) Pre-trial procedure; formulating issues. In any proceeding the Commission may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it or a Commissioner designated for that purpose for a conference to consider:

(1) The simplification of the issues;

(2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

(3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;

(4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;

(5) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

If the proceeding has been assigned to a Commissioner or Examiner he shall be present. The Commissioner shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice.

(f) On merits. (1) In every case, unless otherwise ordered, the hearing before the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner in the first instance shall be limited to the issue of fact and law relating to the right of the plaintiff to recover.

(2) The burden of going forward with its proof shall be on the petitioner and the defendant shall not be required to produce any evidence until the petitioner has closed its proof. When hearings are being held in any place other than the District of Columbia, the defendant, may, if it so desires, take the testimony of any witness available at the time and place. If the hearing at any other place than the District of Columbia is on the part of the defendant, the petitioner may, at the same time and place, produce evidence in rebuttal of any evidence theretofore or then being produced.

(3) When the Commissioner or the Examiner has reason to believe that there are other material witnesses and evidence which have not been procured by either party, he may, after reasonable notice to the parties, summon and examine such witnesses and procure such evidence and consider the same in connection with the proof submitted by the parties. When the Commissioner or the Examiner has reason to believe that the case is being unnecessarily delayed by the failure of either or both parties to produce witnesses, he may fix a reasonable time in which said party delaying the same must close the testimony.

(g) Swearing witnesses. Witnesses shall be sworn or affirmed by the Commissioner or Examiner. When testimony is taken orally before a Commissioner or Examiner at a hearing, it shall not be necessary for the witness to sign the same.

(h) Date and place. When a claim has been assigned for hearing, the Commission, the Commissioner or the Examiner shall notify the interested parties to produce before it or him witnesses or evidence within such reasonable time and at such place as it or he may designate.

(i) Reporter. At all hearings, whether before the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner, the testimony shall be taken by a disinterested reporter named by the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner, as the case may be, who shall take the testimony and transcribe the same. The reporter shall be sworn by a member of the Commission or an Examiner to well and truly take down and transcribe the questions propounded to and the answers given by the witnesses, and to do all other things required of him by the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner. A reporter who is in the regular employ of the Commission shall take the oath required by section 4 of the act creating the Commission and the oath prescribed in this paragraph and need not thereafter take the latter oath, but reporters selected for a particular case must be sworn as herein provided in this paragraph.

§ 503.23 Evidence—(a) Form and admissibility. In all hearings, the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by the rules in this part. All evidence shall be admitted which is admissible under the statutes of the United States or under the rules of evidence heretofore applied in the courts of the United States on the hearing of suits in equity, or under the rules of evidence at common law. In any case, the statute or rule which favors the reception of the evidence governs and the evidence shall be presented according to the most convenient method prescribed in any of the statutes or rules to which reference is made in this part. The competency of a witness to testify shall be determined in like manner.

(b) Record of excluded evidence. If an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness, except that upon request the evidence shall be reported in full, unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the evidence of the witness is privileged.

(c) Affirmation in lieu of oath. Whenever under the rules in this part an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(d) Rulings; exceptions unnecessary. The Commission or person presiding at any hearing shall rule on the competency, relevancy and materiality of all evidence offered. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders are unnecessary.

(e) When at any hearing documentary evidence is offered and objection is made thereto the Commission, Commissioner or Examiner conducting the hearing, shall rule upon the same and, if the ruling is adverse to the party offering said evidence, the document may be marked for identification and added to the record.

§ 503.24 Subpoena—(a) For attendance of witnesses; form; issuance; fees. (1) Every subpoena shall be issued in the name of the Commission and shall be signed by the Clerk under the seal of the Commission. Every subpoena shall state the title of the claim and the number and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The Clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence, signed and sealed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

(2) The fees and mileage of witnesses shall be such as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by statute, for like service in the District Courts of the United States, and shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear.

(b) For production of documentary evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the Commission, upon motion made promptly and, in any event, at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive, or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(c) Service. (1) A subpoena may be served by any person who is not less than 18 years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to him the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the United States, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

(2) The fees and mileage shall be the same as allowed by law for service of subpoenas issued by United States District Courts, which shall be paid by the party requesting the service.

(d) Return. The person serving the process shall make proof of service thereon to the Commission promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person other than a United States Marshal or his deputy, he shall make affidavit thereof. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

§ 503.25 Proposed findings of fact. Upon the closing of proof by the parties in any case, the petitioner shall, unless otherwise directed by the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner, have 30 days from the filing of the transcript within which to file proposed findings of fact and the defendant shall have 30 days after the service of petitioner's proposed findings of fact to file its objections to petitioner's proposed findings of fact and its own proposed findings of fact, and the petitioner shall have 20 days after the service of defendant's proposed findings of fact within which to file its objections thereto, but such requested findings of fact or objections to proposed findings need not be printed. The time designated in this section may be extended by the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner hearing the claim. Such proposed findings shall, upon the filing of the report, be filed with the original record in the case for consideration of the Commission in connection with any exceptions by either party and may be referred to by either party in support of any exceptions to the findings of fact.

§ 503.26 Report. When a case has been referred to a Commissioner or Examiner and proof has been closed by both parties, the Commissioner or Examiner shall proceed to ascertain the facts, including ultimate facts, considered by him to be established by the evidence, and make a report of his findings to the Commission within a reasonable time.

§ 503.27 Exceptions to findings of fact. The petitioner may have 40 days from the date of the filing of the report to file printed exceptions thereto, unless the time is extended. The defendant shall have 40 days after the filing of petitioner's exceptions within which to file its exceptions thereto, unless the time is extended. Each exception, at the end thereof, shall have appropriate references to the parts of the record relied upon for its support.

§ 503.28 Briefs—(a) Petitioner. (1) The petitioner shall within 40 days from the filing of such report file in the Clerk's office 25 printed copies of its request for findings of fact and brief and serve 10 copies on the Attorney General.

(2) The petitioner's brief shall begin with a clear statement of the case and may include in the statement references to parts of the record. It shall present and discuss in its original brief all propositions upon which it relies for a recovery.

(b) Defendant. (1) Within 40 days from the filing of petitioner's brief as above, the defendant shall file in the Clerk's office 25 printed copies of its brief and serve 10 copies on the attorney of record for other parties.

§ 503.29 Reply brief. (a) Petitioner may file a printed reply brief within 20 days after the filing of defendant's brief, unless the time is extended by order of the Commission, and no brief shall be received after the prescribed time except upon order of the Commission for cause shown; nor shall any briefs other than those described in §§ 503.28 and 503.29 be received at any time except upon such order.

(b) Statements of fact or propositions of law presented in defendant's brief as matters of defense, and not properly within the scope of Petitioner's original brief, may be discussed by petitioner in a reply brief, but matters within the proper scope of petitioner's original brief shall not again be discussed in a reply brief.

(c) After a cause has been submitted, any stipulation or additional authorities which counsel desires to call to the attention of the Commission shall by leave of the Commission be submitted by appropriate supplemental memorandum of at least 8 copies filed with the Clerk of the Commission, and not by letter. The Clerk shall serve a copy upon opposing counsel.

Supplemental or reply briefs shall be permitted only in accordance with the rules in this part.

§ 503.30 Trial calendar. (a) The Commission shall dispose of (1) all motions or other pleadings containing the defenses enumerated in § 503.11 (b) and all other motions or requests for action by the Commission, (2) all exceptions to the report of a Commissioner or Examiner, (3) all motions for rehearing and amendments of findings.

(b) Said matters when ordered by the Commission shall be placed on a trial calendar by the Clerk and a copy of said trial calendar mailed to the attorneys of record interested therein in sufficient time to permit the attorneys of record to appear before the Commission on the date and place appointed for the hearing.

(c) All matters shall be calendared for hearing as follows:

(1) Motions and pleadings containing the defenses enumerated in § 503.11 (b) when the opposing points and authorities have been filed as required by § 503.22 (a) (1).

(2) All other motions or requests for action by the Commission upon the filing of a responsive pleading as provided for in this part.

(3) All exceptions to the report of a Commissioner or Examiner when the briefs have been filed as provided in §§ 503.28 and 503.29.

(4) Motions for rehearing and amendments of findings when the briefs have been filed as provided in § 503.39.

(d) Non-appearance of parties. If at the time set for hearing there be no appearance for the moving party, the Commission may treat the motion as submitted or waived, or, for good cause shown, continue or strike it from the motion calendar. If there be no appearance for the opposing side, it may be treated as conceded.

§ 503.31 Evidence in other cases—(a) Documents. Any information or papers duly certified from any department or agency of the Government and filed in any case may, by leave of the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner in a case being heard by him, on motion made therefor, be used and applied in any other pending cause to which the same may be applicable or pertinent.

(b) Depositions. The deposition of a witness, subjected to cross-examination, on file in a case may be used by leave of the Commission in another case, notice of the purpose to use it being given the adverse party; or if the Commission desires the benefit of evidence appearing in another case it may, by appropriate order and upon reasonable notice to the parties and an opportunity to them to be heard, consider the same.

§ 503.32 Stipulations. All stipulations shall be signed on behalf of the petitioner by the attorney of record, and on behalf of the United States by the Attorney General or Assistant Attorney General, unless made at a hearing or other proceeding before the Commission, a Commissioner or an Examiner by the attorney representing the United States and recorded by the reporter.

§ 503.33 Motions for rehearing and for amendment of findings. (a) Whenever either party desires to question the correctness or the sufficiency of the Commission's conclusions on its findings of fact or to amend the same, the complaining party shall file a motion which shall be known as a motion for a rehearing. All grounds relied upon for any or all of said objections shall be included in one motion. After the Commission has announced its decision upon such motion no other motion for a rehearing shall be filed by the same party unless by leave of the Commission. Motions for a rehearing shall be filed within 30 days from the time the final determination of the Commission is filed with the clerk.

(b) A motion for rehearing shall be founded upon one or more of the following grounds: First, error of fact; second, error of law; and, third, newly discovered evidence.

(1) A motion founded upon an error of fact shall specify with minuteness the fact or facts which are regarded as erroneously found or erroneously omitted to be found by the Commission, with full references to the evidence which is relied upon to support the motion.

(2) A motion founded upon error of law shall specify with like minuteness the points upon which the Commission is supposed to have erred, with references to the authorities relied upon to support the motion.

(3) A motion by either plaintiff or defendant upon the ground of newly discovered evidence shall not be entertained unless it appears therein that the newly discovered evidence came to the knowledge of such party, its attorneys of record, or counsel, after the hearing and before the motion was made; that it was not for want of due diligence that it did not sooner come to its knowledge; that it is so material that it would probably produce a different determination if the rehearing were granted; and that it is not cumulative.

Such motion shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the party or the attorney of record, setting forth:

(i) The facts in detail which the party expects to be able to prove, and whether the same are to be proved by witnesses or by documentary evidence.

(ii) The name, occupation, and residence of each and every witness whom it is proposed to call to prove said facts.

(iii) That the said facts were unknown to either the party or the attorney of record, and, if other counsel was employed at the hearing, were unknown to such counsel until after the close of the hearing.

(iv) The reason why the party, the attorney of record, or counsel, could not have discovered said evidence before the hearing by the exercise of due diligence.

(c) A motion for a rehearing shall also be accompanied by the brief of the moving party, a copy of which shall be served upon the opposing party, who may file its brief in response thereto within 15 days, unless the time is extended by the Commission.

(d) All motions for rehearing or for amendment of findings, and briefs thereon, and briefs in reply to such motions, exceeding ten typewritten pages in length, shall be printed before presentation for filing in the Clerk's office, unless by order of the Commission first obtained the time for printing is extended.

§ 503.34 Claims filed by attorney. Claims may be filed on behalf of a claimant by an attorney or firm of attorneys retained for that purpose under the provisions of section 15 of the act creating the Commission. Where a claimant has retained more than one attorney or more than one firm of attorneys, only one of said attorneys shall be designated individually as the attorney of record. All pleadings, notices or other papers required by these rules or by orders of the Commission to be served upon a claimant, shall be sent to such attorney of record at the address designated by him, and service upon him shall be deemed to be service upon the claimant.

§ 503.35 Attorneys to register. An attorney of record, on appearing in a case, shall register with the Clerk of the Commission his name and post office address or the designation as such and his post office address may be shown at the end of the petition.

§ 503.36 Attorney's death or incapacitation. If the attorney of record dies or is incapacitated, a suggestion of his death or incapacity shall be made and a motion to substitute any other attorney shall be made by plaintiff or an attorney authorized by it.

§ 503.37 Attorney's qualification. Any person of good moral character who has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States or in any other Federal court, or in the highest court of any State or Territory, and is in good standing therein, may practice as an attorney before the Commission.

§ 503.38 Disbarment and suspension. Where it is shown to the Commission that any member of the bar representing a party before the Commission has been disbarred or suspended from practice in the Supreme Court of the United States or in any other Federal court, or in any court of record of any State or Territory, he shall be forthwith suspended from practice before this Commission; and unless, upon notice mailed to him at the address shown in the Clerk's records and to the clerk of any of the courts mentioned in which he shall have been disbarred, or suspended, he shows good cause to the contrary within 30 days, he shall be barred from appearing before the Commission as attorney for any claimant.

§ 503.39 Clerk, docket and journal. (a) The administrative officer of the Commission, unless one is otherwise designated, shall be the clerk who shall receive and file all pleadings, reports, orders, briefs, documents and other papers, and shall keep all records connected with all claims filed with the Commission. He shall also perform such other duties as the Commission may from time to time prescribe.

(b) The Clerk shall, after filing, promptly mail or deliver to the party not filing the same, the required number of copies of all pleadings, motions, briefs, notices, or other papers, not required to be served by a party, and shall note on the docket the date the same were so mailed or delivered.

(c) The Clerk shall be custodian of the seal of the Commission and shall affix the same to all papers, subpoenas, or instruments that he is now or may hereafter be required to sign or certify in his official capacity. He shall authenticate all papers where an authentication is required, under his hand and the seal of the Commission.

(d) It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep an appearance docket in which there shall be separately entered the title of each claim, the names of the attorneys filing the same and the designated attorney of record; and there shall be entered thereon, on the date received, each pleading, motion, demurrer, brief, and other paper filed in a cause. Following each entry showing the filing of a paper required to be recorded in the Journal of the Commission, there shall be shown the volume number of the Journal, and the page thereof in which the paper is recorded.

(e) The Clerk shall keep a Journal in which shall be recorded in each cause all orders made by the Commission or a Commissioner, the final determination of each claim, including the way each Commissioner voted thereon, and the instrument or instruments by which employees of the Commission are designated by the Chief Commissioner for the purpose of administering oaths and examining witnesses. The Journal shall be approved by the Commission, or any two members thereof.

§ 503.40 Seal. The Commission shall have an official seal, around the border of which shall be the name: "Indian Claims Commission", and in the center shall be the words: "Official Seal".

EDGAR E. WITT,
Chief Commissioner.
WILLIAM M. HOLT,
Associate Commissioner.
LOUIS J. O'MARR,

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5567]

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DEC. 31, 1941

TAXABILITY OF INCOME OF CERTAIN TRUSTS

On January 28, 1947 notice of proposed rule making regarding the taxability of the income of certain trusts was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 560). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the proposal, the following amendments to Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) are hereby adopted. These amendments are designed to set forth the application in certain cases of the principles enunciated in Helvering v. Clifford, 309 U. S. 331, and related cases.

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.22 (a)-21, Trust income taxable to the grantor as substantial owner thereof, added by Treasury Decision 5488, approved December 29, 1945, is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the last sentence of paragraph (a) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Such factors are set forth in general in paragraph (b) and in detail in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), below."

(B) By striking out the words "subsection (a)", "subsection (c)", "subsection (d)" and "subsection (e)" wherever they appear in paragraph (b) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "paragraph (a)", "paragraph (c)", "paragraph (d)" and "paragraph (e)".

(C) By striking out of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (c) of such section the words: "or spouse living with the grantor", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "or spouse (living with the grantor, and not having a substantial adverse interest in the corpus or income of the trust),".

(D) By striking out the second undesignated paragraph of paragraph (c) of such section beginning: "Where the grantor's reversionary interest is to take effect in possession or enjoyment" to and including subdivision (ii) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Where the grantor's reversionary interest is to take effect in possession or enjoyment by reason of some event other than the expiration of a specific term of years, the trust income is nevertheless attributable to him if such event is the practical equivalent o the expiration of a period less than 10 or 15 years, as the case may be. For example, a grantor is taxable on the income of a trust if the corpus is to return to him or his estate on the graduation from college or prior death of his son, who is 18 years of age at the date of the transfer in trust. Trust income is, however, not attributable to the grantor where such reversionary interest is to take effect in possession or enjoyment at the death of the person or persons to whom the income is payable.

(E) By striking out the words "exceptions (1) to (5)" in the first parenthetical clause in the first undesignated paragraph of paragraph (d) and inserting in lieu thereof "subparagraphs (1) to (4)".

(F) By striking out the second sentence of the first undesignated paragraph of paragraph (d) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The grantor is not taxable, however, if the power, whether exercisable with respect to corpus or income, may only affect the beneficial enjoyment of the income for a period commencing 10 years from the date of the transfer (or 15 years where any power of administration specified in paragraph (c) is exercisable solely by the grantor, or spouse living with the grantor and not having a substantial adverse interest, or both, whether or not as trustee)."

(G) By striking out the last sentence of the first undesignated paragraph of paragraph (d) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Where the income affected by the power is for a period beginning by reason of some event other than the expiration of a specific term of years, the grantor will be taxable if such event is the practical equivalent of the expiration of a period less than 10 or 15 years, as the case may be, in accordance with the criteria stated in paragraph (c)."

(H) By striking out the clause constituting the beginning of the second undesignated paragraph of paragraph (d) reading as follows: "This paragraph shall not apply to any one or more of the following excepted powers:" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any one or more of the following powers:"

(I) By striking out all of paragraph (d) following subparagraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(3) If (i) the power is exercisable by a trustee or trustees, none of whom is the grantor, spouse living with the grantor, or a related or subordinate trustee of the type and under all the conditions referred to in subparagraph (4) (ii), and (ii) the exercise of the power is not subject to the approval or consent of any person other than such trustee or trustees, this subparagraph shall not apply to a power:

(a) To distribute, apportion, or accumulate income to or for a beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to, for, or within a class of beneficiaries,

(b) To pay out corpus to or for a beneficiary or beneficiaries or to or for a class of beneficiaries (whether or not income beneficiaries).

The powers herein described include all the powers described in subparagraph (4), since the latter powers are more limited than those herein described.

(4) If the power:

(i) Is exercisable by the grantor or spouse living with the grantor, or both, whether or not as trustee, or

(ii) Is exercisable (a) solely by a trustee or trustees who include the father, mother, issue, brother, sister, or employee of the grantor, or a subordinate employee of a corporation in which the grantor is an executive or in which the stockholdings of the grantor and the trust are significant from the viewpoint of voting control, and (b) in a manner which may affect the interests of beneficiaries which include the spouse or any child of the grantor (see subparagraph (3) for a power exercisable by a related or subordinate trustee of the class hereinabove described where the exercise of the power does not affect the interest of the spouse or a child of the grantor or where the power is exercisable only with the concurrence of an unrelated and nonsubordinate trustee), or

(iii) Is exercisable by any person or persons other than as trustee, or

(iv) Is exercisable by any trustee or trustees, and the exercise of the power is subject to the approval or consent of any person or persons (other than such trustee or trustees), or of the grantor or spouse living with the grantor, or both, in the capacity of trustee, this paragraph shall not apply.

(aa) To a power to pay out corpus to or for a beneficiary or beneficiaries or to or for a class of beneficiaries (whether or not income beneficiaries): Provided, That the power is limited by a reasonably definite external standard. Such standard must be set forth in the trust instrument and must consist of needs and circumstances of the beneficiaries;

(bb) If the power is not limited by a reasonably definite external standard, to a power to pay out corpus to or for any current income beneficiary: Provided, That any such payment of corpus must be chargeable against the proportionate share of corpus held in trust for the payment of income to such beneficiary as if such corpus constitutes a separate trust;

(cc) To a power to distribute or apply income to or for any current income beneficiary or to accumulate such income for him: Provided, That any accumulated income must ultimately be payable to the beneficiary from whom distribution or application is withheld, to his estate, or to his appointees (or persons named as alternate takers in default of appointment): Provided, That such beneficiary possesses a power of appointment which does not exclude from the class of possible appointees any person other than the beneficiary, his estate, his creditors or the creditors of his estate; or, if payable upon the termination of the trust or in conjunction with a distribution of corpus which distribution is augmented by such accumulated income, is ultimately payable to the current income beneficiaries in shares which have been irrevocably specified in the trust instrument. Accumulated income shall be considered so payable although it is provided that if any beneficiary does not survive a date of distribution which may reasonably be expected to occur within the beneficiary's lifetime, the share of such deceased beneficiary is to be paid to such persons as the beneficiary may appoint, or is to be paid to one or more designated alternate takers (other than the grantor or the grantor's estate) if the share of such alternate taker or the shares of such alternate takers have been irrevocably specified in the trust instrument;

(dd) To a power, exercisable only during (1) the existence of a legal disability of any current income beneficiary, or (2) the period in which any income beneficiary shall be under the age of twenty-one years, to distribute or apply income to or for such beneficiary or to accumulate and add such income to corpus;

(ee) In a case falling under subdivision (ii) hereof, to a power to distribute, apportion, or accumulate income to or for a beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to, for, or within a class of beneficiaries, whether or not the conditions in subdivision (cc) or (dd) are satisfied; Provided, That such power is limited by a reasonably definite external standard. For the requirements of such standard, see subdivision (aa) hereof.

A power does not fall within the powers described in subparagraphs (3) and (4) if the trustee is enabled to add to the class of beneficiaries designated to receive the income or corpus, except insofar as provision may be made for afterborn or after-adopted children. A mere power to allocate receipts as between corpus and income, even though expressed in broad language, is not deemed a power over beneficial enjoyment with respect to income or corpus.

(J) By striking out paragraph (e) of such section in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(e) Administrative control. Income of a trust, whatever its duration, is taxable to the grantor where, under the terms of the trust or the circumstances attendant on its operation, administrative control is exercisable primarily for the benefit of the grantor rather than the beneficiaries of the trust. Administrative control is exercisable primarily for the benefit of the grantor where:

(1) A power exercisable by the grantor, or any person not having a substantial adverse interest in its exercise, or both, whether or not in the capacity of trustee, enables the grantor or any person to purchase, exchange or otherwise deal with or dispose of the corpus or the income therefrom for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; or

(2) A power exercisable by the grantor, or any person not having a substantial adverse interest in its exercise, or both, whether or not in the capacity of trustee, enables the grantor to borrow the corpus or income, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest in any case, or without adequate security except where a trustee (other than the grantor or spouse living with the grantor) is authorized under a general lending power to make loans without security to the grantor and other persons and corporations upon the same terms and conditions; or

(3) The grantor has directly or indirectly borrowed the corpus or income and has not completely repaid the loan, including any interest, before the beginning of the taxable year; or

(4) Any one of the following powers of administration over the trust corpus or income is exercisable in a nonfiduciary capacity by the grantor, or any person not having a substantial adverse interest in its exercise, or both: a power to vote or direct the voting of stock or other securities, a power to control the investment of the trust funds either by directing investments or reinvestments or by vetoing proposed investments or reinvestments, and a power to reacquire the trust corpus by substituting other property of an equivalent value.

If a power is exercisable by a person as trustee, it is presumed that the power is exercisable in a fiduciary capacity primarily in the interests of the beneficiaries. Such presumption may be rebutted only by a clear and convincing proof that the power is not exercisable primarily in the interests of the beneficiaries. If a power is not exercisable by a person as trustee, the determination of whether such power is exercisable in a fiduciary or a nonfiduciary capacity depends on all the terms of the trust and the circumstances surrounding its creation and administration. For example, where the trust corpus consists of diversified stocks or securities or corporations the stock of which is not closely held and in which the holdings of the trust, either by themselves or in conjunction with the holdings of the grantor, are of no significance from the viewpoint of voting control, a power with respect to such stocks or securities held by a person who is not a trustee will be regarded as exercisable in a fiduciary capacity primarily in the interests of the beneficiaries. Where the trust corpus consists of stock or securities of a closely-held corporation, such a power may or may not, depending upon all the facts, be considered exercisable in a fiduciary capacity.

The mere fact that a power exercisable by the trustee is described in broad language does not indicate that the trustee is authorized to purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the trust property or income for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, or is authorized to lend the trust property or income to the grantor without adequate interest. On the other hand, such authority may be indicated by the actual administration of the trust.

PAR. 2. Section 29.22 (a)-21 as amended shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

(53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62)

This Treasury decision shall be effective on the 31st day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

POLICY REGARDING EXTENT OF APPLICATION OF TREASURY DECISION 5567, RELATING TO TAXABILITY OF INCOME OF CERTAIN TRUSTS

1. Section 29.22 (a)-21, dealing with the taxation of trust income to the grantor within the principles of Helvering v. Clifford, 309 U. S. 331, was added to Regulations 111 by Treasury Decision 5488 (11 F. R. 65), approved December 29, 1945. Section 29.22 (a)-21 was amended by Treasury Decision 5567, approved June 30, 1947.[1] Such section, as amended, is applicable only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945. However, it will be the policy of the Bureau, where no inconsistent claims prejudicial to the Government are asserted by trustees or beneficiaries, not to assert liability of the grantor for any prior taxable year under the general provisions of section 22 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code if the trust income would not be taxable to the grantor under the regulations as amended.

2. IT-Mimeograph, Coll. No. 6071, R. A. No. 1544 (11 F. R. 12044), approved October 10, 1946, provided that where the grantor's control over a trust created prior to January 1, 1946 was terminated at any time during the calendar year 1946, with the result that the trust income on the last day of such calendar year was no longer taxable to the grantor under the provisions of § 29.22 (a)-21 of Regulations 111, it would be the policy of the Bureau not to assert liability of the grantor under such provisions for any part of the calendar year 1946. In view of the amendments made by Treasury Decision 5567 grantors who have not heretofore terminated their substantial ownership of the trust income under IT-Mimeograph 6071 may now desire to terminate such controls over the trusts as subject them to tax under the provisions of § 29.22 (a)-21 as amended by Treasury Decision 5567.

It will, therefore, be the policy of the Bureau where the grantor's control over a trust created prior to January 1, 1946 is terminated at any time prior to January 1, 1948 with the result that the trust income on the last day of the calendar year 1947 is no longer taxable to the grantor under the provisions of § 29.22 (a)-21 as amended by Treasury Decision 5567 not to assert liability of the grantor under these regulations for any part of the calendar years 1946 and 1947. The Bureau may, however, assert liability of the grantor in such a case under section 22 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code without reference to § 29.22 (a)-21 for any part of the calendar year 1946 or the calendar year 1947 preceding the termination of the grantor's control over the trust. The complete repayment by the grantor prior to January 1, 1948 of a loan of trust corpus or income made to him directly or indirectly prior to January 1, 1946, shall be considered, for the purposes of the applicability of this mimeograph, a termination (with respect to such loan) of the controls defined in paragraph (e) (3) of § 29.22 (a)-21, as amended.

Correspondence in regard to this mimeograph should refer to Coll. No. 6156, R. A. No. 1595, and the symbols IT:EIM.

This mimeograph is published without prior general notice of its proposed issuance, inasmuch as taxpayers, in order to secure the benefits provided herein, must act prior to January 1, 1948, and notice and public rule making procedure in connection herewith would result in delay, which is hereby found to be contrary to the public interest. See section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946.

This mimeograph, being within the parenthetical exception to section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, shall be effective upon its filing for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Commissioner.

PART 316—MANUFACTURERS' EXCISE TAXES

PART 320—RETAILERS' EXCISE TAXES

EXEMPTION FROM MANUFACTURERS AND RETAILERS EXCISE TAXES

JUNE 30, 1947.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 307 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, Seventy-eighth Cong.), as amended by section 303 of the Revenue Act of 1945 (Pub. Law 214, Seventy-ninth Cong.), exemption is hereby authorized from the taxes imposed by Chapters 19 and 29 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C. Chapters 19 and 29), with respect to articles sold on or after June 1, 1944, to any corporation created by act of Congress to act in matters of relief under the treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864 (American Red Cross), for its exclusive use, at a price not including such taxes.

This order shall become effective July 3, 1947.

Issued this 30th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Rationale Accompanying Amendment No. 1 to General Ration Order 19

Provision is made in General Ration Order 19 for the granting of sugar bases to certain new users. Section 4.3 of General Ration Order 19 contains a restriction which quite generally limits the recipients of bases under this order to the manufacture of products in consumer size containers. This restriction was imposed when the sugar supply situation required more stringent controls and in order to insure that bases provided new users under General Ration Order 19 would be used chiefly to provide consumers with sugar-containing products and to prevent a diversion of such products to industrial and institutional users.

Owing to the improved sugar supply situation, which is now reflected in the liberalization of the rationing program, and the recent removal of rationing controls on consumers and institutional users, the consumer size limitation is no longer deemed necessary. Removal of the consumer size limitation will also permit greater freedom and flexibility in the marketing of products by new industrial users who obtain sugar bases under the provisions of General Ration Order 19.

In view of the removal of rationing controls on institutional users, the amendment to General Ration Order 19 also provides for the revocation of section 4.4, which sets forth the type of refreshment service and maximum monthly institutional user refreshment bases authorized institutional users under that order.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 21—INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE

SERVICE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES; MAIL SERVICE TO YUGOSLAVIA

The regulations under the country "Yugoslavia" (39 CFR, Part 21, Subpart B—Service to Foreign Countries) are amended to read as follows:

YUGOSLAVIA

Regular mails. See Table No. 1, § 21.116 for classifications, rates, weight limits and dimensions. Small packets accepted.

Indemnity. See § 21.110.

Special delivery. No service.

Air mail service. Postage rate, 15 cents one-half ounce.

Money-order service. (See §§ 17.51 to 17.97.)

Dutiable articles (merchandise) prepaid at letter rate. Accepted. (See § 21.3.)

Observations. Regular mail articles containing merchandise sent for commercial purposes must be accompanied by the original invoice in the same manner as indicated for parcel post under the subheading "Observations."

The Postal Administration of Yugoslavia suggests that specimens, 12 centimeters long and 12 centimeters wide, of the fabrics used in made-up garments accompany each shipment in order that the rate of customs duties applicable to the particular material may be assessed at the time of delivery, otherwise the maximum rate will be imposed in the event that the addressee refuses to permit the customs officials to cut a piece for examination purposes.

The importation and distribution of foreign newspapers and magazines within Yugoslavia is regulated by the law of December 5, 1931, on the basis of which the "Agencija Avala A. D." in Beograd has exclusive permission to import foreign newspapers and magazines.

However, exception is made in the cases of persons taking direct subscriptions to foreign newspapers and magazines, not for the purpose of resale and for scientific and professional magazines considered as such by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, which may be imported by bookstores. Fashion magazines, needlecraft magazines and the like are not considered as professional magazines, and may be imported for resale only through the intermediary of the agency above mentioned.

Customs duties are collected on fashion journals, whether addressed to the Avala Agency and its representatives or to direct subscribers. Therefore, the paper form of customs declarations (form 2976-A) should be completed and enclosed in packages containing such fashion journals when transmitted in the Postal Union (regular) mails.

Gold, silver, and platinum watchcases are to be submitted to analysis and stamping only if they are complete, whether mounted or not. If parcels received from abroad do not contain complete cases, but only detached pieces, such parcels will be delivered to the addressees only after the arrival of the other parts so as to permit of the complete stamping of the cases, after which the analysis and stamping of the metal will be undertaken. If within a reasonable period the other pieces of the watchcases do not arrive, the incomplete parts having already arrived will be returned to the sender.

Prohibitions. Advertisements and articles relating to the "snowball" system of selling.

Various tokens which, by their dimensions and color, resemble money of the State.

Emigration advertisements.

Also all articles prohibited in the parcel-post mails.

Parcel post. (Yugoslavia.)

Dimensions. Greatest combined length and girth, 6 feet. Greatest length, 3½ feet, except that parcels may measure up to 4 feet in length, on condition that parcels over 42 and not over 44 inches in length do not exceed 24 inches in girth, parcels over 44 and not over 46 inches in length do not exceed 20 inches in girth, and parcels over 46 inches and up to 4 feet in length do not exceed 16 inches in girth.

Storage charges. See section 93 relative to storage charges on returned parcels.

Observations. (a) Gift parcels weighing up to 22 pounds are admitted free of duty and without previous permission for importation under the following conditions:

(1) The parcel must be plainly marked by the sender on the address side to indicate that it is intended as a gift.

(2) Permissible contents are as follows:

Nonperishable foodstuffs.

Used clothing and shoes.

New clothing and shoes and materials for making them (free of customs duty only up to 44 pounds per year for each person of the addressee's family).

Tobacco and its preparations up to 40 grams (about 1.4 ounces) per parcel.

Other articles for daily use in small quantities (luxury items are prohibited).

(b) Ordinary (unregistered and uninsured) gift parcels not exceeding $25.00 in value may be sent by parcel post free of postage to prisoners of war held by Yugoslavian forces under the following conditions:

(1) Contents permitted are nonperishable foodstuffs, cigarettes, clothing, soaps and shaving preparations, mailable medicines and similar items of a relief nature. Parcels must not contain any written or printed communications of any kind, except a list of the contents which should be placed inside the parcel.

(2) Maximum weight: 11 pounds. Maximum dimensions: Greatest length, 20 inches. Greatest length and girth combined, 72 inches.

(3) The parcels shall not be sealed, and shall be packed closely, and carefully and securely wrapped in a manner which will facilitate opening for inspection.

(4) Parcels must be addressed to the prisoner of war in care of the Yugoslav Red Cross, which will act as intermediary in the transmittal. The wrappers of the parcels must be endorsed—

POKLON RATNOM ZAROBLJENIKU—OSLOBODJENO POSTARINE
PRISONER OF WAR GIFT PARCEL—POSTAGE FREE

(5) The contents of each parcel shall be listed on a customs declaration (Form 2966) which shall be affixed to the outside of the parcel. No other postal forms are required to accompany the parcels.

(6) No labels will be required for the sending of parcels to Yugoslav-held prisoners of war. However, not more than one parcel per week may be sent by the same sender to the same Yugoslav-held prisoner of war.

(c) It is prohibited to effect the clearance of parcels unless the respective addresses are in a position to produce a permit to import the contents from the commission of the national bank appointed to issue importation permits. That measure, dictated by the state of exchange, affects only merchandise addressed to merchants for commercial purposes. It does not affect private individuals or merchants importing for their personal or domestic use.

Parcels containing merchandise sent for commercial purposes, for which the senders are to receive payment, must be accompanied by the original invoice. Packages not accompanied by the original invoice will be cleared through the customs in Yugoslavia and delivered to the addressees, but the latter will be unable to make payment to the sender for the merchandise involved, since the Yugoslav authorities will grant the means for payment only if packages are accompanied by the original invoice. Senders should endorse the wrappers of such packages to indicate that the original invoice is enclosed.

It should be recommended to senders that, in order to facilitate customs handling, a copy of the ordinary invoice, signed by the senders, be transmitted to the addressees by letter mail, giving notice of the mailing of the parcels. The invoice copy is submitted by the addressees to the customs authorities and serves as a basis for collecting the import duties.

Certificates of origin should be furnished for parcels addressed for delivery in Yugoslavia. However, in lieu thereof, it is permissible for senders to indicate on the customs declarations of their parcels the country of origin of the merchandise contained therein, the said indication taking the place of the certificate of origin so far as the Yugoslav customs authorities are concerned.

Parcels not accompanied by certificates of origin or whose customs declarations do not bear an indication of the country of origin of the merchandise contained in the parcel will be assessed with the duty at the maximum rate.

The Postal Administration of Yugoslavia suggests that specimens, 12 centimeters long and 12 centimeters wide, of the fabrics used in made-up garments accompany each shipment in order that the rate of customs duties applicable to the particular material may be assessed at the time of delivery, otherwise the maximum rate will be imposed in the event that the addressee refuses to permit the customs official to cut a piece for examination purposes.

Gold, silver, and platinum watchcases are to be submitted to analysis and stamping only if they are complete, whether mounted or not. If parcels received from abroad do not contain complete cases, but only detached pieces, such parcels will be delivered to the addressees only after the arrival of the other parts so as to permit of the complete stamping of the cases, after which the analysis and stamping of the metal will be undertaken. If within a reasonable period, the other pieces of the watchcases do not arrive, the incomplete parts having already arrived will be returned to the sender.

Prohibitions. For reasons of public safety: Newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, books, and other prints in general whose circulation is prohibited.

Hunting arms, but not those in use in the Army; empty cartridges and projectiles for those arms; ammunition prepared for unrifled hunting rifles, with smokeless powder, as well as ammunition for all kinds of arms not in use in the Army.

Wireless and telegraph and telephone apparatus.

Lithographic copies of plans, except those on the scale of 1:25,000 and below.

Communistic cards, advertisements, pamphlets, etc.

(The arms, wireless telegraph and telephone apparatus, and lithographic copies of plans mentioned above may be imported by previous authorization from the competent ministry.)

For reasons of sanitary policy: Concentrated acetic acid having a strength of over 15 percent.

Grains and fruits.

Serums and vaccines for veterinary use.

Apparatus for the treatment of flukeworm.

Essences for the manufacture of wines and brandies.

Whistles, spoons, and all articles intended to contain foods, having more than 10 percent of lead, unless the part coming into contact with the mouth is nickel plated.

Musts containing any quantity, no matter how small, of sulphuric acid.

Leaven containing plaster, chalk, saccharine, or other harmful ingredients, as well as leaven not having the normal fermenting power (75–80 percent).

Friedmann vaccines against tuberculosis.

Foodstuffs, in any form, containing more than 0.35 percent of sulphuric acid as a preservative.

(The acetic acid, grains and fruits, serums and vaccines, and apparatus for treating flukeworm mentioned above may be imported by special permission of the competent ministry.)

For the protection of plants and animals: Poisonous herbs for fishing.

The exotic nut "acajou" (cashew nut).

Special authorization is required for the importation of silkworm eggs; grapevines, plants and cuttings, with or without roots; enological preparations and means for combating diseases of grapevines and fruit trees; meats.

Arms, munitions, etc.: All kinds of firearms used in the Army and their detached parts, as well as all kinds of ammunition therefor.

Playing cards made of metal.

Nonexplosive components of artillery fuses.

Foreign military uniforms.

State monopolies, etc.: All articles placed under the regime of the monopoly. Tobacco seed and plants destined for reproduction or transplanting.

Valid dinars. If found in the mails they will be confiscated and deposited in blocked accounts in the National Bank of Yugoslavia, which will credit the confiscated sums to the interested parties only after a certain delay.

For other reasons: Live or dead ruminants, primary substances and waste thereof, fresh or dried; fowl; and everything which may propagate epizootic diseases; forage.

Foreign merchandise in general bearing false marks of native artisans or agriculturists or any marks of native origin.

Forms and extracts therefrom: Church records, animal certificates, deposit books (of the forms used by the State Administrations for financial operations), registers, protocols, copy books, exercise books, notes, drawing books, and printed papers in general use exclusively for the official service of the State, of the post, and of the school.

Samples of medicines, unless addressed to national or provincial hospitals, university clinics, or national medical institutions.

PART 21—INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE

SERVICE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES; GIFT PARCELS TO GERMANY

Paragraph (h) of the regulations under the Country "Germany" (12 F. R. 706), as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

(h) Ordinary (unregistered and uninsured gift parcels will be accepted for mailing when addressed for delivery in all parts of Germany (American, British, French, and Russian Zones, including all sectors of Berlin), except the portions of Germany under Polish control, which are subject to the conditions applicable to Poland. The parcels will be subject to the same conditions as were in effect prior to the suspension of the service and also to the following restrictions:

(1) Only one parcel per week may be sent by or on behalf of the same sender to or for the same addressee.

(2) Contents may include any commodities intended for personal use that are not prohibited in the parcel post mails to foreign countries generally, as shown in section 57 on page 49 of the 1946 Postal Guide, Part II. The following may not be included: Writing or printed matter of any kind, cigarettes or other tobacco products, money or dollar instruments, firearms of any kind, and nonessential luxury items such as jewelry, perfume, cosmetics and the like.

(3) Parcels must not exceed 22 pounds in weight, or measure more than 36 inches in length or 72 inches in length and girth combined.

(4) Parcel post rates are 14 cents per pound or fraction of a pound.

(5) The parcels and relative customs declarations must be conspicuously marked "Gift Parcel" by the senders, who must itemize the contents and value on the customs declarations. Parcels are liable to censorship and customs examination in the zone of destination.

(6) Parcels should bear the name of the addressee, street and house number, town, postal district number (if known), province, and, in addition to the word "Germany", indication of the zone of destination. If known, the name of the sector should be included as part of the address of parcels destined for Berlin. Box numbers may be used as part of the address provided the name of the box holder is shown. Parcels shall not be accepted for mailing when addressed "General Delivery."

(7) Parcels which are undeliverable will not be returned to senders but will be turned over to authorized German relief organizations for distribution to the needy.

The export control regulations of the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C., are applicable to parcels for delivery in Germany.

(R. S. 161, 396, secs. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369)

This amendment shall become effective at once.

PART 21—INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE

SERVICE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES; MAILING OF CIGARETTES AND TOBACCO PRODUCTS TO A. P. O.'S IN FRANCE AND AUSTRIA PROHIBITED

1. The regulations under the Country "Austria" (39 CFR, Part 21), as amended (12 F. R. 1604, 3974) are further amended by the addition of the following:

However, the transmission of cigarettes and tobacco products for delivery in Austria through A. P. O.'s 174, 541, and 777, c/o Postmaster, New York, New York, is prohibited.

Postmasters are, therefore, directed to question the mailers as to the contents of parcels addressed for delivery through the A. P. O.'s above mentioned and shall refuse to accept for mailing any containing cigarettes or other tobacco products.

This does not affect the shipment of such products through the international mails.

2. The regulations under the Country "France" (39 CFR, Part 21) are amended by the addition of the following:

The transmission of cigarettes and tobacco products for delivery in France through A. P. O.'s 58 and 741, c/o Postmaster, New York, New York, is prohibited.

Postmasters are, therefore, directed to question the mailers as to the contents of parcels addressed for delivery through the A. P. O.'s above mentioned and shall refuse to accept for mailing any containing cigarettes or other tobacco products.

This does not affect the shipment of such products through the international mails.

(R. S. 161, 396, sec. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369)

These amendments shall become effective July 1, 1947.

Hong Kong is a British possession and parcels destined for that place should not be dispatched under the conditions applicable to China. (For information regarding Hong Kong, refer to that country.)

Macao is a Portuguese possession and parcels destined for that place should not be dispatched under the conditions applicable to China. (For information regarding Macao, refer to that country.)

Parcels mailed simultaneously by the same sender to the same addressee at one address, although not mailable as a "group shipment", must be marked in the following manner in order that customs officials in China may more readily ascertain the combined value of the parcels contained in a single mailing.

Each parcel in a single mailing must bear a fractional number, the numerator of which indicates the number of the parcel and the denominator the number of parcels comprised in the mailing. For example, if a single mailing were composed of 15 parcels, the parcels would be numbered, 1/15, 2/15, 3/15, etc. A customs declaration must accompany each parcel.

The Chinese postal service will collect a demurrage fee of 5 cents (Chinese currency) on each parcel for each day the parcel is left in the post office after the expiration of 10 days, counting from the delivery to the addressee of notice of arrival.

Liquids, greases, powders, and dyes in powder form, in lead-sealed metal containers, properly boxed and wrapped to afford the utmost protection to the accompanying mail matter, are admissible.

Prohibition

For the Protection of Animals and Plants

Bees and their eggs must be accompanied by a certificate that they are in good health.

Silkworm eggs may be imported only upon presentation of a certificate issued by the merchandise inspection bureau of the Ministry of Industry.

Parasites and predators of injurious insects are admitted.

Virus, bacteria, fungi, and protozoa of contagious diseases, also all insects harmful to agriculture, may be imported only by permit.

Cottonseed may be imported only by permit.

Arms, etc.

All types of arms, munitions, and war materials, including plans for their manufacture, may be imported only with the permission of the government. Sword canes and other articles in which a weapon is concealed. Toy air guns less than 31 inches in length and toy pistols; also ammunition therefor. Handcuffs.

For Other Reasons

Gambling equipment.

Flags, cards, and printed matter implying recognition of the so-called government of "Manchukuo".

Prosperity bonds and similar articles.

Blank copper coins.

Flashlights in the form of pistols.

The following books and periodicals:

"Ways That are Dark," by Ralph Townsend.

"The Chinese Soviets," by Victor A. Yakhontoff.

"China's Red Army Marches," by Agnes Smedley.

"China Today," printed monthly at New York.

"Asia," printed monthly in the United States.

Counterfeit banknotes and plates for printing them.

Apparatus for manufacturing tobacco or cigarettes to be rolled by hand.

Other articles which may be prohibited by the customs authorities.

The Importation of the Following Articles Is Subject to Restrictions

Chinese or Russian banknotes. Salt. Chinese, Russian, or Japanese coins. Coin-making machinery. Copper for use of provincial monetary establishments. Radio apparatus and equipment. Aviation instruments, accessories and materials. Hypodermic syringes of 5 cc. or less, and needles of 0.7 mm. or less in diameter. Banknote paper. Cigarette paper. Adulterated sugar. Revenue stamps.

Many articles of merchandise require a special import permit from the Ts'ai-cheng Pu (Ministry of Finances). The acceptance of parcels containing articles subject to import permit will be considered to be at the risk of the senders insofar as concerns the treatment which may be accorded the parcels upon their receipt in China.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 760]

PART 97—ROUTING

REROUTING OF TRAFFIC

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that floods have washed out the tracks on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company at 43 places between Osceola and Burch, Iowa; that the complete restoration of service on the eleven (11) mile segment of track between Osceola and New Virginia, Iowa will be made shortly but that due to emergency work elsewhere the restoration of the forty-two (42) mile segment of track between New Virginia and Burch, Iowa, will not be completed for some time; the Commission is of opinion that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company is unable to transport the traffic offered it to, from, or between points on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch so as to properly serve the public and that handling, routing, and movement of this carrier's traffic (including trains) over The Great Western Railway Company's track (over a temporary track connecting the former's and latter's tracks) between Afton Junction and Burch, Iowa, will best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. It is ordered, that:

§ 97.760 Rerouting. (a) The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company shall handle, route, and move its traffic; (including trains) originating or terminating at points on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch between Burch and Des Moines, Iowa, inclusive, over The Great Western Railway Company's track (over a temporary track connecting the former's and latter's tracks) between Afton Junction and Burch, Iowa.

(b) Compensation. The handling, routing, and movement of traffic ordered and described in paragraph (a) herein shall be upon such terms as between the carriers as they may agree upon or in the event of their disagreement as the Commission may, after subsequent hearing find to be just and reasonable.

(c) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply to intrastate and foreign traffic as well as interstate traffic.

(d) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as such disregard of routing is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic so forwarded by routes other than those designated by shippers, or by carriers shall be the rates which were applicable at date of shipment over the routes so designated.

(e) Division of rates. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this order, common carriers affected shall proceed, even though no division agreements are in effect, over the routes authorized; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of said carriers to so agree, the divisions shall be hereinafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. If division agreements now exist on the traffic affected, over the routes herein authorized they shall not be changed or affected by this order.

(f) Effective date. The provisions of this order shall become effective at 6:00 p. m., June 27, 1947.

(g) Expiration date. The provisions of this order shall expire at 6:00 p. m., August 31, 1947, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That copies of this order and direction shall be served upon the Iowa State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

HANDLING OF MILK IN GREATER BOSTON, MASS., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area.

A public hearing was held at St. Johnsbury, Vermont, on February 1 and 2, 1946, and continued at Boston, Massachusetts, on February 4–9, February 15–16, and March 11–13, 1946. Action has been completed with respect to all of the issues developed at that hearing except the issue concerning service payments to cooperative associations. A notice of report and opportunity to file exceptions with regard to this issue was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 1169) on February 20, 1947. The revised report on this issue was filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, June 11, 1947, and on June 30, 1947, the Secretary of Agriculture tentatively approved a marketing agreement containing provisions amending the sections of the order relating to service payments to cooperative associations. Sections 904.8 and 904.10 of the marketing agreement and the order amending the order, as amended, annexed hereto and made a part hereof contain provisions identical to the amended cooperative service payment provisions of the aforesaid tentatively approved marketing agreement.

A hearing was held at Burlington, Vermont, on March 14 and 15, 1947, and continued at Boston, Massachusetts, on March 17–19 and 24–26, 1947. Previously a hearing was held at Boston on November 20, 1946, to consider amendments to Order No. 4, which had been proposed by cooperative associations of producers and by the Dairy Branch. Action has been taken with respect to all of the issues except one which were developed at that hearing. The issue upon which action has not been completed deals with contraseasonal changes in the Class I price which might occur as the result of the formula-determined price. A notice of recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to the issues developed at the March 1947 hearing and the open issue of the hearing held November 20, 1946, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 3340) May 24, 1947. Exceptions have been filed to that recommended decision and were considered in arriving at the findings and conclusions contained herein.

Findings and conclusions. The issues which were listed in the notice and which were developed at the hearing in March 1947 are grouped under the following headings. The issue developed at the hearing held November 20, 1946, is included under the issue "Basis for determining Class I prices".

(1) Basis for determining Class I prices.

(2) Minimum floor prices for Class I milk for the latter half of 1947.

(3) A "take-out" and "pay-back" plan of seasonal pricing.

(4) Reported prices to be used as basis for Class II skim value.

(5) Allowance to handlers to cover freight and administration assessment on Class II milk.

(6) Pricing of butterfat made into butter or cheese.

(7) Months in which butter and cheese adjustment should apply.

(8) Pricing of skim milk made into casein and animal feed powder.

(9) Transportation differentials on Class II milk shipped to city plants in fluid form.

(10) Basis of pooling.

(11) Uniform payment of premiums.

(12) Permissive variation in butterfat differential.

(13) Months in which milk subject to the New York order is allocated to Class II.

(14) Modification of emergency milk definition and classification.

(15) Revision of the definition of producer-handler.

(16) Maintenance of records by handlers.

(17) Reports regarding individual producers.

(18) Time limit on reaudits and rebillings.

(19) Time of payment to producers.

(20) Bringing up to date table of transportation differentials and emergency price provision.

(21) General.

The recommended decision contained rulings upon the proposed findings and conclusions submitted by interested parties in this proceeding. Such rulings are confirmed except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions set forth herein.

Exceptions were filed on behalf of New England Milk Producers' Association, Bethel Cooperative Creamery, Grand Isle County Cooperative Creamery, Milton Cooperative Dairy Corporation, Shelburne Cooperative Creamery, United Farmers of New England, David Buttrick Company, H. P. Hood and Sons, Inc., White Brothers Milk Company, and Whiting Milk Company.

No exceptions were filed to the findings and conclusions contained in the aforesaid recommended decision with regard to issues (3), (10), (14), (15), (16), (17), (19), and (20). The findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision on these issues are adopted as the findings and conclusions of this decision. With regard to the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision to which specific exception has been taken, by either producers or handlers, this decision contains a ruling thereon in the discussion of the material issue to which the exception refers.

The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof.

(1) Basis for determining Class I prices. The butter-powder formula for determining the Class I price should be retained in its present form with a provision to prevent contraseasonal changes in the Class I price. In addition, minimum floor prices for the period from July 1947 through December 1947 should be provided.

There is a very serious need for encouraging a shift toward more fall production. During three of the last four years the production of milk in the Boston milk shed has been insufficient in November and December to supply the needs for Class I milk. Production varies seasonally to such an extent that it is nearly twice as great in May and June as in November and December. A price plan to encourage increasing fall production is imperative for the Boston market. Minimum Class I floor prices are required for each month through December 1947 in order to assure a substantial rise in prices from the spring to the fall and thus develop a better seasonal pattern of production.

The uncertainty of economic conditions in the fall and winter requires a safeguard in addition to minimum floor prices for Class I milk. The butter-powder formula should be retained to give producers the benefit of any increase over the floor prices which may be justified by the prices of other dairy products and by the general price level in the fall and winter. The butter-powder formula should be modified to prevent contraseasonal price changes in the months just preceding or during the season of greatest shortage or seasonal flush production. Generally, the Class I price for any of the months of September through December of any year should not be lower than the Class I price in effect for the preceding month and the Class I price for the months of March through June of any year should not be higher than the Class I price in effect for the preceding month. The provision to prevent a contraseasonal price change will avoid nullification of the seasonal price plan by movements of the general price level. It is not considered advisable to provide for complete prevention of downward price movements in the last half of the year or upward price movements in the first half because such a provision would hold back unduly adjustments to the general price level.

Producers contended that the butter-powder formula method of determining the Class I price be deleted entirely from the order and fixed prices substituted for it. Exact prices cannot be determined from this record for nine months to a year in advance. The present trend toward increasing production and decreasing consumption and the general uncertainty as to business conditions this fall and winter precludes a fixed guarantee of exact Class I prices. Producers indicated that they do consider fixed prices as a guarantee and it would be misleading to write into the order fixed prices to be effective beyond the time for which they can be assured. The present butter-powder formula should be retained until some other plan is developed. The formula will establish prices this fall above the floor prices named if conditions warrant higher prices, and will provide a method of pricing after December. If the rise in prices of butter and nonfat dry milk solids which took place in 1946 is repeated in 1947, the formula will establish prices as high as those established in November 1946.

(2) Minimum floor prices for Class I milk for the latter half of 1947. The minimum floor price for Class I milk in the 201–210-mile zone of the Boston milkshed should be $4.77 per hundredweight in July and August, 1947 and $5.21 for each of the months September through December 1947. If the formula produces a price higher than $5.21 in August, September, October, or November, this price should continue to the end of the year. The maximum drop in price from either level between December and January or January and February should be 44 cents.

In 1946 a start was made in New England on a program of encouraging the production of more milk in the fall months. Shifting to fall freshening has involved substantial additional costs of producing milk. These special costs include breeding difficulties and the cost of purchasing additional fall-freshening cows. The current prices and rates paid for feed, labor, and farm machinery are higher than last year. These factors indicate that the program to encourage more fall production may be seriously hampered unless producers are assured of absolute floor prices for the last quarter of 1947 as high as the floor established in 1946.

Absolute floor prices should be established for July and August at 44 cents above the prices established for May and June to assure a seasonal rise this year on July 1. The short season rise in prices which should normally take place on October 1 should be advanced to September 1 this year, in order to encourage feeding during the fall season to get more milk this fall. Adjustment of breeding practices cannot be expected to be far enough advanced this year to result in enough increase in fall milk production and extra feeding and good care of spring-freshened cows will be necessary to increase the supply of milk during October, November, and December this year. The current trend toward greater milk production this year with some indication of smaller Class I sales does not justify absolute floor prices for Class I milk for the last quarter of 1947 higher than the last quarter of 1946.

A seasonal price spread equivalent to about 40 percent of the May–June price is necessary to encourage fall production. Farmers indicated that at present price levels this would require a price in November as near as possible to $1.50 above the blended price for May and June. Such a spread should encourage farmers who have already started the shift toward more fall production to continue and encourage other farmers to follow their example. The minimum floor price for Class I milk of $5.21 in October, November, and December will provide this encouragement. Following a seasonal pattern, the drop from December 1947 to January 1948 should not exceed 44 cents with a floor price of $4.77 for January and any further drop which might be indicated by the formula for February should be limited to not more than 44 cents. The limitation of any price decrease from December to January and January to February will prevent any precipitous price drop immediately following the period for which greater production is to be encouraged. This limitation is not intended to establish the level of prices for 1948. The exact prices would be determined by the present formula provision or on the basis of a hearing nearer the end of this year if a further hearing this year is considered advisable.

(3) A "take-out" and "pay-back" plan of seasonal pricing. The proposal to "take-out" of the Class I price during April, May, and June, 44 cents to be paid back according to the amount collected, in equal amounts during October, November, and December should not be adopted.

The seasonal change in Class I prices will accomplish the adjustment in producer prices which proponents of the "take-out" and "pay-back" plan advocated. Since the change in Class I prices was generally supported and better understood than this proposal, it can be expected to encourage producers more effectively to produce more fall milk.

(4) Reported prices to be used as basis for Class II skim value. No change should be made at this time in the reported prices used as a basis for Class II skim value.

The proponents of a change to another price series did not show that official prices published by the United States Department of Agriculture for nonfat dry milk solids manufactured by the roller process for human food or animal feed products do not reflect changes in the value of skim milk marketed in Class II milk. Class II milk is utilized in products such as cream, ice cream, condensed milk and skim milk products, dried milk and skim milk products, butter and several types of cheeses. The prices reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for nonfat dry milk solids reflect the changes in the value of skim milk for these uses. The problem is not one of matching the published price against prices received for any particular Class II product. The formula is primarily a device for bringing about changes in the price as the general level of skim milk values changes.

The lower prices reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for nonfat dry milk solids have established lower values for skim milk utilized in Class II in recent months. The weaker market for nonfat dry milk solids and sweetened condensed skim milk is reflected in these quotations. There is no evidence in the record that further reductions by changes in the formula are necessary to reflect the current value of Class II skim milk.

(5) Allowance to handlers to cover freight and administration assessment on Class II milk. No change should be made in the allowance to cover freight and administration assessment on Class II milk.

The handling allowance is only one of the many factors which are included in the Class II price formula. With so many factors, it is easy for one or more factors to be out of line in one direction while at the same time other factors are out of line in the opposite direction. One group of factors may underprice skim milk somewhat while other factors may overprice Class II milk at the same time. There is no evidence that the total allowance should be changed or that the increase in freight and administration assessment is not offset by other factors in the Class II price. The proponents of an increase in the allowance described changes in the items of freight and administration cost and relied on the fact that evidence of change in the other factors was not presented to support their claim that the total allowance should reflect the changes in these two items. Evidence on the entire allowance cannot be developed in this piece-meal fashion. One proponent argued in his exceptions that the revision of the allowance would bring about a needed reduction in the total Class II price. Although the hearing notice called particular attention to the necessity for introducing evidence concerning the total level of the Class II price in support of particular adjustments, no case for a definite change in the level of the Class II price was made at the hearing.

(6) Pricing of butterfat made into butter or cheese. The butter and cheese adjustment provisions of the order should be limited to butterfat which is manufactured into salted butter and the named cheeses and which is disposed of as such, and a separate cheese class should not be established.

Plastic cream or cream containing 80 percent butterfat is widely used in ice cream mix and is not eligible for special pricing because the fat in ice cream mix has a value comparable with that of the fat in fluid cream. Sweet butter is interchangeable with plastic cream in making ice cream mix and, therefore, should not be eligible for special pricing. A separate cheese class is not needed to provide an additional outlet for milk and might return to producers less than the butter value of the fat in Class II milk.

Exceptions were filed by a group of operating cooperatives objecting to the language recommended to carry out these findings. It was contended that the language would prevent a cheesemaker from receiving the credit on milk which he made into processed types of cheeses. The subject of pricing milk made into processed cheese was not discussed at the hearing. The language recommended herewith does not revise the order with respect to its application to processed cheese. A hearing on this point would be necessary to permit the credit to apply to products other than those already listed.

(7) Months in which butter and cheese adjustment should apply. The months in which the butter and cheese adjustment should apply should not be changed.

The requirements of the marketing area for fluid cream far exceed cream available from producer milk except in a few of the months of flush production. The fluid cream market is generally available to all handlers. The proposed year-around butter price which would permit certain handlers to churn butter and thus keep New England cream off the Boston market could not be expected to influence in any compensating degree the market price of the large volume of cream sold in Boston from western sources. Although proponents claimed that a butter and cheese class on a year-around basis was necessary to prevent large cream users from boycotting the cream of a particular cooperative, no evidence of such boycotts actually happening was presented.

Temporary oversupplies of cream were described as a normal burden incidental to the handling of milk and cream. The normal operations in handling Class II milk are recognized in the regular Class II formula.

The proposal to permit a handler to claim the butter price in April and July only if the market administrator could not market his cream in fluid channels would involve special machinery for administration and detailed plans for determining whether the cream was of marketable quality and what price should be considered reasonable. Proponents did not show the details of the plan to carry out their proposal.

(8) Pricing of skim milk made into casein and animal feed powder. The special price for skim milk made into casein should be eliminated from the order and there should be no special price provision for skim milk made into animal powder.

Prior to 1942, casein returned a higher skim value than skim milk powder. During the war, casein production was purposely discouraged by a low ceiling price. The casein market has been strong since the end of the war while the powder market is slow and sluggish. A return to the price relationship which existed before the war between the two products may be expected. Although the latest prices reported in the record showed a drop in January and February from the prices prevailing last year, the January and February prices were strong in relation to the market for nonfat dry milk solids.

The casein adjustment, and any separate adjustment for skim milk made into animal feed powder, tends to remove the incentive to vigorous merchandising which will return to producers the regular Class II price for skim milk. The skim formula is already heavily weighted with animal powder in the months of flush production. The pool should not absorb losses on lower value uses of skim milk when alternative outlets for higher value uses are available. Since it is concluded to eliminate the special price for skim milk made into casein, the proposal to change the quotation on which such price is based become a moot issue.

(9) Transportation differentials on Class II milk shipped to city plants in fluid form. Class I transportation differentials on Class II milk shipped to city plants in fluid form should not be allowed.

The differential proposed would have the effect of creating a separate class for skim milk which would return less than the regular Class II price for milk shipped to city plants from certain zones. The alternative outlet for this milk would be in fluid cream and manufactured skim products as regular Class II milk at country plants. Since this alternative outlet exists, the value of Class II milk at country plants should not be lower than the regular Class II value. The proposal would also have increased the cost of Class II milk from certain near-by zones but since the Class II milk price covers milk utilized in a number of different ways, some higher and some lower in value than others, there is no good reason to single out this particular use of milk for a higher price. The proposal to achieve more uniformity with respect to the cost of Class II milk moved as milk to city plants was not accompanied by evidence upon which a new class price based upon the value of milk in this particular use could be established.

Exceptions filed by certain handlers indicated their willingness to have the price for Class II milk received at or moved to city plants increased so that the net effect of this adjustment would result in no reduction in the cost of Class II milk to any handler. The effect of this adjustment would be to increase the cost of Class II milk principally for those handlers who have no country plants. This change was not proposed clearly at the hearing and it cannot be concluded that the record covers fully the subject of pricing milk at city plants.

The proposal as it was supported in the hearing does not achieve complete uniformity since it would apply differently to different types of handlers. The proponents did not offer a revised proposal which would apply uniformly to all city buyers.

(10) Basis of pooling. The proposed revision of the basis of pooling and related proposals made by the market administrator should be adopted. The revised basis of pooling should permit an individual producer to be retained on the pay roll of a pool plant even if his milk is delivered directly to a nonpool plant of the handler, provided the pool receives full Class I credit for the milk of such producer. The proposal to provide that the operation of the three-day provision in paragraph (c) of § 904.8 be measured from the date on which the plant first becomes a pool plant rather than being measured from August 1 should not be adopted except with regard to New York pool plants.

The adoption of the administrator's proposal would reduce or eliminate the possibility of accidental inclusion or exclusion of a plant from the pool, would curb the movement of plants in and out of the pool to the handler's advantage and loss to the pool, and would promote a more efficient physical handling of milk. The proposal sets up sound basic requirements for the inclusion of country plants in the market pool, which will prevent any plant from participation in the pool unless it is actually qualified to supply milk to the marketing area.

Producer milk and all other sources of milk should be clearly defined and the obligations on handlers with respect to all sources of milk should be stated. Administration expense should be shared by handlers who receive milk which is not a part of the normal supply of the market. This outside milk involves additional administrative cost which should be borne by the handlers who receive it, including producer-handlers and buyer-handlers.

In connection with the proposed change in the section regarding expense of administration, the change in the rate of assessment should be made by the Secretary instead of by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary. Payments to the producer settlement fund on outside milk which displaces producer milk in Class I should be made by the handler who receives the milk for disposition in the Boston marketing area. During an emergency period, when supplies of producer milk are not sufficient to meet the needs of the market, the outside milk which is considered emergency milk should not be subject to such payments.

More efficient handling of milk will be provided by allowing an individual producer to be retained on the pay roll of a plant even if his milk is delivered directly to a nonpool plant of the handler, provided the pool receives full Class I credit for the milk of such producer.

The proposal to provide that the operation of the three-day provision in the "Dairy Farmers for Other Markets" paragraph be measured from the date on which the plant first becomes a pool plant rather than being measured from August 1 would apply to plants other than those newly acquired if it were adopted as it was proposed in the notice. If the inclusion were that broad, the provisions to prevent transfers in and out of the pool could be circumvented by this provision. If the proposal were revised to apply only to newly acquired plants, it, too, could provide a vehicle for circumvention if a handler wished to maintain his newly acquired plant as a supply for a Class I outlet in another market outside the pool for several delivery periods. The lapse of time during each calendar month is sufficient for the ordinary acquisition of the plant by passing legal papers and obtaining other evidence of the right to ship milk to the Boston market. In general, under the revised basis of pooling, if a newly acquired plant otherwise qualified makes one shipment of Class I milk to the marketing area in the form of milk during any month, it becomes eligible for pooling for the entire month. However, this is not true in the case of New York pool plants.

In the case of a transfer of a milk plant from the New York pool to the Boston pool, the New York order would require that the plant be pooled for the entire month if it were pooled for any part of the month. The Boston order exempts from pooling any plant which is a New York pool plant. Therefore, the transfer of a plant from New York to Boston would have to be accomplished on the first day of the month to prevent the producers delivering to that plant from being considered "dairy farmers for other markets" during the following April, May, June, and July.

(11) Uniform payment of premiums. The uniform payment of premiums to producers should not be required.

Recurring milk shortages since 1943 have caused an acute increase in the payment of cash premiums and in the building of new plants in the supply area of existing plants as competitive means of securing milk. Hauling subsidies and free use of cans are other forms of premium payments in use in the Boston milkshed. Regulation of cash premiums only would not be an effective solution of the problems involved. The problem will gradually disappear as supplies become more ample. It is possible that the administration of such a provision would discourage the payment of premiums for quality and incentives for seasonal production.

The evidence failed to show that the payment of premiums to producers supplying the Boston market constituted unfair trade practices. The record indicates that handlers paid premiums to secure needed supplies of milk.

(12) Permissive variation in butterfat differential. Handlers should not be allowed to use an adjusted butterfat differential in making payments to producers at any of their plants in any period even if total payments to producers at such a plant during the period were not less than the total payments required by the order.

A permissive variation in the butterfat differential was offered as a device to aid in meeting competition in areas where producers can deliver to handlers subject to the provisions of Order No. 27. If it were adopted, producers delivering milk with a high butterfat content would receive less and producers delivering milk with a low butterfat content to the same plant would receive more than the minimum prices required by the order. The high-test producers would, in effect, be paying part of the handler's cost in meeting local competition for milk. Even though producers agreed to sharing this expense the departure from the principle of uniform payments to all producers could not be countenanced under the requirements of the act.

(13) Months in which milk subject to the New York order is allocated to Class II. The months in which milk subject to the New York order is allocated to Class II should not be changed.

The record does not show the need for a change. In each of the months of April and July since January 1, 1938, Class II milk has exceeded 42 percent of total producer receipts except during 1946 when Class II milk exceeded 30 percent of receipts. In case of an emergency, New York milk would be available under the provision discussed in issue 14, which is recommended for adoption. The pricing of milk under each Federal order requires the appraisal of the local conditions and the relationship of any adjacent Federal order market to the market for which prices are being established. The proposal to extend the months during which New York milk should be allocated entirely to Class II was not in the hearing notice and was not fully developed at the hearing.

(14) Modification of emergency milk definition and classification. The provision for classifying emergency milk should apply only to the period within the month during which the handler brings in some emergency milk, and the wording should be revised to make clear how it is applied. The definitions of emergency period and emergency milk should be revised to delete any reference to the New York milkshed and make any milk outside the regular Boston supply available on an emergency basis.

Since handlers who do not purchase any emergency milk are not limited in the amount of Class II milk they may handle during an emergency period, other handlers who purchase emergency milk only during a part of the period should have the same privilege during the part of the period in which they bring in no emergency milk.

The language of the section which provides for allocating emergency milk to classes should also be worded to make clear that receipts of cream are not used in determining the base or the quantity of Class II milk, and that total receipts of other products are adjusted for inventory variations.

There may be extra milk in the New York milkshed which is not available to Boston handlers because of provisions of health regulations. Boston may need emergency milk even when New York is adequately supplied.

The supply of milk in Boston pool plants should be the basis for determining whether an emergency exists in the Boston market. New York milk should be considered as emergency milk during any emergency which might occur during April, May, June, and July.

(15) Revision of the definition of producer-handler. A producer-handler should be defined as any person who is both a dairy farmer and a handler who receives milk of his own production only from farms within 80 miles of Boston and who receives no milk from other dairy farmers except producer-handlers.

The present definition of producer-handler in the order can work a hardship and is not needed to establish the bona fide nature of a producer-handler's operation. The proposed 80-mile limit is consistent with other provisions of the order which grant special pricing to producers within that area and there have never been producer-handlers under Order No. 4 located beyond 80 miles.

(16) Maintenance of records by handlers. Handlers should be required to maintain detailed and summary records which will show all receipts, movements, and disposition of milk and milk products.

The order does not now specifically require that records be maintained although proper verification of reports is not possible in the absence of adequate records. The requirement that adequate records be maintained should be set forth in the order so that it could be relied on in legal proceedings to compel a handler to maintain records.

(17) Reports regarding individual producers. The section of the order providing for reports regarding individual producers should be clarified and revised to permit handlers to submit such reports only twice a month.

The first subparagraph of paragraph (c) of the reports has been in the order since August 1, 1937, and was intended for use in connection with base ratings. It has never been used and should be deleted.

Filing reports regarding individual producers twice each month will be a convenience to some handlers and will not create any administrative difficulties.

(18) Time limit on reaudits and rebillings. The proposal to provide a time limit with respect to the retention of records and with respect to reaudits and the issuance of revised billings should not be adopted at this time.

The evidence indicated that a limitation of time on the keeping of records involved important collateral issues which were not included in the notice of hearing or fully developed at the hearing. For example, it was pointed out that if there were a time limit on reaudits, it would be necessary to set a companion limit on the time within which handlers would be permitted to file revised reports. Safeguards would have to be provided with respect to records which become involved in audit adjustments, litigation, or where there is fraud or intentional falsification. There is involved also the question of a limitation of time within which the market administrator could enforce a claim against a handler or a handler against the market administrator. The order should not be amended to provide for these matters until a hearing has been held on proposals which contain specific language to cover these collateral issues.

Although certain handlers excepted to the finding that a recommendation on a limitation should be delayed until the above issues could be resolved, they failed to show such a need for the proposed amendment that would justify adoption without further consideration.

(19) Time of payment to producers. An advance payment to producers should not be required if a first and final payment is made on or before the seventeenth day after the end of the delivery period.

A single monthly payment will be advantageous to some handlers in that they can reduce their total pay-roll work. Producers will not be inconvenienced and payment by the seventeenth will not require them to extend handlers any more credit than they do now.

(20) Bringing up to date table of transportation differentials and emergency price provision. The table of plant handling and transportation differentials in the minimum price section should be brought up to date by substituting the table of differentials which has been in use since January 1, 1947, when "New England Joint Tariff M-5" became effective.

The emergency price provision should be revised to delete references to subsidies and maximum uniform prices which were wartime measures and are no longer in effect.

(21) General. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amended order and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amended order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which the hearings have been held; and

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amended order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area" and "Order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area" which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order,[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area

§ 904.0 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 C. F. R., Supps. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearings and the record thereof, it is found that:

(a) The said order as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the first day of August 1947, the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

§ 904.1 Definitions. The following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires.

(a) General. (1) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(2) "Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area", also referred to as the "marketing area", means the territory included within the boundary lines of the following Massachusetts cities and towns:

Arlington.	Newton.
Belmont.	Peabody.
Beverly.	Quincy.
Boston.	Reading.
Braintree.	Revere.
Brookline.	Salem.
Cambridge.	Saugus.
Chelsea.	Somerville.
Dedham.	Stoneham.
Everett.	Swampscott.
Lexington.	Wakefield.
Lynn.	Waltham.
Malden.	Watertown.
Marblehead.	Wellesley.
Medford.	Weymouth.
Melrose.	Winchester.
Milton.	Winthrop.
Nahant.	Woburn.
Needham.

(3) "Month" means a calendar month.

(4) "Marketing year" means the twelve months' period from August 1 of each year through July 31 of the following year.

(5) "Emergency period" means the period of time for which the market administrator declares that an emergency exists in that the milk supply available to the marketing area from producers is insufficient to meet the demand for Class I milk in the marketing area.

(b) Persons. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

(3) "Market administrator" means the agency which is described in § 904.2.

(4) "Dairy farmer" means any person who delivers milk of his own production to a plant, except a producer-handler in respect to his deliveries in packaged form to another handler.

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

(5) "Segregated dairy farmer" means a dairy farmer whose milk is kept separate from the supply for the marketing area.

(6) "Dairy farmer for other markets" means any dairy farmer, except a segregated dairy farmer, whose milk is received by a handler at a pool plant during April, May, June, or July from a farm from which the handler, an affiliate of the handler, or any person who controls or is controlled by the handler, received nonpool milk on more than 3 days in any one of the preceding months of August through March. The term shall not include a person who was a producer-handler or a person delivering to a New York order pool plant during any of the preceding months of August through March.

(7) "Producer" means any dairy farmer whose milk is delivered from his farm to a pool plant, except a dairy farmer for other markets and a segregated dairy farmer. The term shall also include a dairy farmer who ordinarily delivers to a handler's pool plant, but whose milk is diverted to one of the handler's nonpool plants, if the handler, in filing his monthly report pursuant to § 904.6 (a), reports the milk as receipts from a producer and as Class I milk at such pool plant.

(8) "Handler" means any person who, in a given month, operates a pool plant, or engages in the handling of milk or other fluid milk products which are received at any plants from which fluid milk products are disposed of, directly or indirectly, in the marketing area.

(9) "Pool handler" means any handler who receives milk from producers at a pool plant.

(10) "Buyer-handler" means any handler who operates a bottling or processing plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area, and whose entire supply of fluid milk products is received from other handlers.

(11) "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a handler and a dairy farmer and who receives milk of his own production only from farms located within 80 miles of the State House in Boston, and who receives no milk from other dairy farmers except producer-handlers or segregated dairy farmers.

(12) "Dealer" means any person who engages in the business of distributing fluid milk products, or manufacturing milk products, whether or not he disposes of any fluid milk products in the marketing area.

(13) "Consumer" means any person to whom fluid milk products are disposed of, except a dealer. The term "consumer" includes, but is not limited to, stores, restaurants, hotels, bakeries, hospitals and other institutions, candy manufacturers, soup manufacturers, livestock farmers, and similar persons who are not necessarily the ultimate users. The term also includes any dealer in his capacity as the operator of any of these establishments, and in connection with any other use or disposition of fluid milk products not directly related to his operations as a dealer.

(c) Plants. (1) "Plant" means the land, buildings, surroundings, facilities and equipment, whether owned or operated by one or more persons, constituting a single operating unit or establishment for the receiving, handling, or processing of milk or milk products.

(2) "City plant" means any plant which is located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston.

(3) "Country plant" means any plant which is located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston.

(4) "Receiving plant" means any milk plant currently used for receiving, weighing or measuring, sampling, and cooling milk received there directly from dairy farmers' farms and for washing and sterilizing the milk cans in which such milk is received, and at which are currently maintained weight sheets or other records of dairy farmers' deliveries.

(5) "Pool plant" means any receiving plant which, in a given month, meets the conditions and requirements set forth in § 904.4 for being considered a pool plant in that month.

(6) "Regulated plant" means any pool plant; any of a pool handler's plants which is located in the marketing area and from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area; and any plant operated by a handler in his capacity as a buyer-handler or producer-handler.

(7) "Distributing plant" means any plant from which Class I milk in the form of milk is disposed of to consumers in the marketing area without intermediate movement to another plant.

(8) "New York order pool plant" means any plant designated as a pool plant in accordance with the provisions of Order No. 27, issued by the Secretary, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area.

(d) Milk and milk products. (1) "Milk" means the commodity received from a dairy farmer at a plant as cow's milk. The term also includes milk so received which later has its butterfat content adjusted to at least one-half of 1 percent but less than 16 percent, frozen milk, and reconstituted milk.

(2) "Cream" means that portion of milk, containing not less than 16 percent of butterfat, which rises to the surface of milk on standing, or is separated from it by centrifugal force. The term "cream" also includes sour cream, frozen cream, and milk and cream mixtures containing 16 percent or more of butterfat.

(3) "Skim milk" means that fluid product of milk which remains after the removal of cream, and which contains less than one-half of 1 percent of butterfat.

(4) "Fluid milk products" means milk, flavored milk, cream, skim milk, flavored skim milk, cultured skim milk, and buttermilk, either individually or collectively.

(5) "Pool milk" means milk, including fluid milk products derived therefrom, which a handler has received as milk from producers.

(6) "Outside milk" means:

(i) All milk received from dairy farmers for other markets;

(ii) All nonpool milk, including other fluid milk products derived therefrom except cream, which is received at a regulated plant from any unregulated plant, except receipts from a New York order pool plant and receipts of emergency milk; and

(iii) All Class I milk, after subtracting receipts of Class I milk from regulated plants, which is disposed of to consumers in the marketing area from an unregulated plant without its intermediate movement to another plant.

(7) "Emergency milk" means fluid milk products, other than cream, received at a regulated plant during an emergency period from a plant which was an unregulated plant in the month immediately preceding the month in which the emergency period became effective.

§ 904.2 Market administrator — (a) Selection, removal, and bond. The market administrator shall be selected by the Secretary and shall be subject to removal by him at any time. The market administrator shall, within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary.

(b) Compensation. The market administrator shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation as may be determined by the Secretary.

(c) Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this order:

(1) To administer its terms and provisions;

(2) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions;

(3) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of its terms and provisions; and

(4) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to it.

(d) Duties. The market administrator, in addition to the duties described in the other sections of this order, shall:

(1) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this order;

(2) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary at any and all times;

(3) Furnish such information and such verified reports as the Secretary may request;

(4) Obtain a bond with reasonable security thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(5) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person who, within 15 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to § 904.6, or made payments pursuant to § 904.9;

(6) Give each of the producers delivering to a plant as reported by the handler prompt written notice of their actual or potential loss of producer status, for the first month of the marketing year in which the plant's status has changed or is changing to that of a nonpool plant;

(7) Prepare and disseminate for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, statistics and information concerning the operation of this order;

(8) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to exercise his powers and perform his duties; and

(9) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 904.11,

(i) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of such of his employees as handle funds entrusted to the market administrator,

(ii) His own compensation, and

(iii) All other expenses which will necessarily be incurred by him for the maintenance and functioning of his office and the performance of his duties.

(e) Responsibility. The market administrator, in his capacity as such, shall not be held responsible in any way whatsoever to any handler, or to any other person, for errors in judgment, for mistakes, or for other acts either of commission or omission, except for his own willful misfeasance, malfeasance, or dishonesty.

§ 904.3 Classification of milk and other fluid milk products—(a) Classes of utilization. All milk and milk products received by a handler shall be classified as Class I milk or Class II milk. Subject to the other provisions of this section, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all fluid milk products the utilization of which is not established as Class II milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all fluid milk products the utilization of which is established:

(i) As being sold, distributed, or disposed of other than as or in milk; and other than as or in flavored milk or flavored skim milk, buttermilk, or cultured skim milk, for human consumption; and

(ii) As plant shrinkage, not in excess of 2 percent of the volume handled.

(b) Classification of milk and milk products utilized at regulated plants of pool handlers. All milk and milk products received at a regulated plant of any pool handler shall be classified in accordance with their utilization at such plant, except as provided otherwise in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Classification of fluid milk products, other than cream, moved to other plants. Milk, flavored milk, skim milk, cultured or flavored skim milk, or buttermilk which is moved from the regulated plant of a pool handler to any other plant shall be classified as follows:

(1) If moved to any other regulated plant, it shall be classified in accordance with its utilization at the plant to which it is moved.

(2) If moved to an unregulated plant, it shall be classified as Class I milk up to the total quantity of milk, or the corresponding milk product so moved, which is utilized as Class I milk at the unregulated plant.

(3) If moved to a regulated plant of a nonpool handler or to an unregulated plant, and thence to another such plant, it shall be classified as Class I milk.

(d) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler from producers, the burden rests upon the handler who receives milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

§ 904.4 Determination of pool plant status—(a) Basic requirements for pool plant status. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, each receiving plant shall be a pool plant in the first month in which the handler operates it in conformity with the basic requirements specified in this paragraph, and shall thereafter be a pool plant for the remaining months of the marketing year in which it is operated by the same handler. The basic requirements for acquiring pool plant status shall be as follows:

(1) A majority of the dairy farmers delivering milk to the plant hold certificates of registration issued pursuant to Chapter 94, section 16, of the Massachusetts General Laws.

(2) The handler holds a license which has been issued by the milk inspector of a city or town in the marketing area, pursuant to Chapter 94, section 40, of the Massachusetts General Laws, or a majority of the dairy farmers delivering milk to the plant are approved by such an inspector as sources of supply for milk for sale in his municipality.

(3) Class I milk in the form of milk is disposed of in the marketing area from the plant.

(4) The handler's total Class I milk in the marketing area exceeds 10 percent of his total receipts of fluid milk products other than cream.

(b) Conditions resulting in nonpool plant status. (1) Each plant which has acquired pool plant status but from which no Class I milk in the form of milk is disposed of in the marketing area for two successive months in the marketing year shall be a nonpool plant in the second of the two months and for each consecutive succeeding month of the marketing year during which no such Class I disposition is made.

(2) Each nondistributing plant for which the market administrator has received on or before the 16th day of the preceding month the handler's written request for nonpool plant designation shall be a nonpool plant in each month of the marketing year to which the request applies.

(3) Each city distributing plant operated by a handler who operates no other plant which is a pool plant in the same month shall be a nonpool plant in any month in which the handler's total Class I milk in the marketing area does not exceed 10 percent of his total receipts of fluid milk products other than cream.

(4) Each plant which is operated as the plant of a producer-handler shall be a nonpool plant in any month in which it is so operated.

(5) Each plant which is operated as a New York order pool plant or as a plant from which emergency milk is received shall be a nonpool plant during the month or portion of a month of such operation.

(6) Each of a handler's plants which is a nonpool receiving plant during any of the months of August through March shall be a nonpool plant in any of the months of April through July of the same marketing year in which it is operated by the same handler, an affiliate of the handler, or any person who controls or is controlled by the handler, unless its operation during August through March was in the handler's capacity as a producer-handler or as the operator of a New York order pool plant which had been acquired by him after June 30 of the immediately preceding marketing year.

(c) Disposition of Class I milk in the form of milk in the marketing area. For the purposes of this section, each plant from which milk is moved at some time during the month to another plant from which Class I milk in the form of milk is disposed of in the marketing area shall itself be considered to have made such a disposition, except that no movement of milk to any unregulated nondistributing plant shall be considered a disposition of Class I milk in the form of milk in the marketing area.

(d) Total receipts of fluid milk products other than cream. For the purpose of this section, each handler's total receipts of fluid milk products other than cream, referred to in this paragraph as "total receipts," shall be determined as follows:

(1) For each month of the marketing year until and including the first month in which the handler is a pool handler, his total receipts shall be the receipts at all plants from which Class I milk in the form of milk is disposed of in the marketing area, except his receipts from segregated dairy farmers and his receipts at any plant which fails to meet the applicable standards set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section or which is a nonpool plant pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) For each of the other months of the marketing year, the handler's total receipts shall be the total receipts determined pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph plus the receipts at any other of his plants which is a pool plant in such month.

§ 904.5 Assignment of receipts to Class I milk and Class II milk—(a) General provisions. Except as provided in the other paragraphs of this section, all receipts of fluid milk products, other than receipts from producers, shall be assigned to Class I milk or Class II milk as follows:

(1) Receipts as to which Class II use is established shall be assigned to Class II milk.

(2) All other receipts shall be assigned to Class I milk.

(b) Receipts of cream and other milk products. All receipts of cream, and milk products other than fluid milk products, shall be assigned to Class II milk.

(c) Receipts of skim milk from producer-handlers. Skim milk received from a producer-handler shall be assigned to Class II milk, except that if the specific Class I use of the skim milk is established, it shall be assigned to Class I milk.

(d) Receipts of outside milk. All receipts of outside milk shall be considered as receipts of Class II milk, and shall be assigned to that class without regard to the specific use of such receipts.

(e) Receipts from New York order pool plants. Except as provided in paragraph (f) of this section, receipts of fluid milk products, other than cream, from New York order pool plants shall be assigned to Class I milk or Class II milk as follows:

(1) All receipts during the months of April through July, inclusive, shall be assigned to Class II milk.

(2) Receipts of milk and flavored milk during the months of August through March, inclusive, shall be assigned to Class I milk when classified in Classes I–A, I–B, or I–C under the New York order, except that the quantity as to which specific Class II use is established shall be assigned to Class II milk.

(3) Receipts of skim milk, cultured or flavored skim milk, or buttermilk during the months of August through March, inclusive, shall be assigned to Class II milk, except that if the quantity so received is in excess of the total quantity of the corresponding milk product classified as Class II milk at the plant of receipt, such excess shall be assigned to Class I milk.

(f) Receipts of emergency milk. (1) Emergency milk received by a handler whose total use of Class II milk is in excess of 10 percent of the total volume of fluid milk products, other than cream, handled by him shall be assigned to Class II milk to the extent of such excess. For the purpose of this subparagraph, the handler's total Class II milk and total volume handled shall be the total of the respective quantities from the first day on which emergency milk is received by the handler during the month up to and including the last such day in the month.

(2) If the quantity of emergency milk as to which specific Class II use is established is greater than the quantity assigned to Class II milk pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, such greater quantity shall be assigned to Class II milk in lieu of the quantity determined under that subparagraph.

(3) Receipts of emergency milk not assigned to Class II milk shall be assigned to Class I milk.

§ 904.6 Reports of handlers—(a) Monthly reports of pool handlers. On or before the 8th day after the end of each month each pool handler shall, with respect to the fluid milk products received by the handler during the month, report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts of milk at each pool plant from producers, including the quantity, if any, received from his own production;

(2) The receipts of fluid milk products at each plant from any other handler, assigned to classes pursuant to § 904.5;

(3) The receipts of outside milk at each plant; and

(4) The respective quantities which were sold, distributed, or used, including sales to other handlers and dealers, classified pursuant to § 904.3.

(b) Reports of nonpool handlers. Each nonpool handler shall file with the market administrator reports relating to his receipt and utilization of fluid milk products. The reports shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the market administrator, except that any handler who receives outside milk during any month shall file the report on or before the 8th day after the end of the month.

(c) Reports regarding individual producers. (1) Within 20 days after a producer moves from one farm to another, or starts or resumes deliveries to any of a handler's pool plants, the handler shall file with the market administrator a report stating the producer's name and post office address, the date on which the change took place, and the farm and plant locations involved. The report shall also state, if known, the plant to which the producer has been delivering prior to starting or resuming deliveries.

(2) Within 15 days after the 5th consecutive day on which a producer has failed to deliver to any of a handler's pool plants, the handler shall file with the market administrator a report stating the producer's name and post office address, the date on which the last delivery was made, and the farm and plant locations involved. The report shall also state, if known, the reason for the producer's failure to continue deliveries.

(d) Reports of payments to producers. Each pool handler shall submit to the market administrator, within 10 days after his request made not earlier than 20 days after the end of the month, his producer pay roll for such month, which shall show for each producer:

(1) The daily and total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof; and

(2) The net amount of such handler's payments to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(e) Outside cream purchases. Each handler shall report, as requested by the market administrator, his purchases, if any, of bottling quality cream from nonpool handlers, showing the quantity and the source of each such purchase and the cost thereof at Boston.

(f) Maintenance of records. Each handler shall maintain detailed and summary records showing all receipts, movements, and disposition of milk and milk products during the month.

(g) Verification of reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the market administrator as required by this section or for the purpose of obtaining the information required in any such report where it has been requested and has not been furnished, each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to:

(1) Verify the information contained in reports submitted in accordance with this section;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test milk and milk products; and

(3) Make such examination of records, operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary for the purpose specified in this paragraph.

§ 904.7 Minimum class prices—(a) Class I prices. (1) Each pool handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 904.9 and subject to the differentials set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, for Class I milk delivered by them, not less than the price per hundredweight determined for each month as follows:

(i) Using the period beginning with the 25th of the second preceding month and ending with the 24th of the immediately preceding month, compute the average of the highest prices reported daily by the United States Department of Agriculture for U. S. Grade A (U. S. 92-score) butter at wholesale in the New York market.

(ii) Using the midpoint of any range as one quotation, compute the average of all the hot roller process dry skim milk quotations per pound for "other brands, animal feed, carlots, bags, or barrels", and for "other brands, human consumption, carlots, bags, or barrels", published during the 30 days ending on the 24th day of the immediately preceding month in "The Producers' Price Current"; subtract 4 cents; and multiply the remainder by 1.8.

(iii) Add the values determined pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Subject to subdivisions (v), (vi), and (vii) of this subparagraph, the Class I price per hundredweight shall be as shown in the following table:

CLASS 1 PRICE SCHEDULE

Value computed pursuant to (iii) of this subparagraph (cents)		Class I price (dollars per hundredweight)
At least—	But less than—	April through June	July through March
0	25	1.69	2.13
25	30	1.91	2.35
30	35	2.13	2.57
35	40	2.35	2.79
40	45	2.57	3.01
45	50	2.79	3.23
50	55	3.01	3.45
55	60	3.23	3.67
60	65	3.45	3.89
65	70	3.67	4.11
70	75	3.89	4.33
75	80	4.11	4.55
80	85	4.33	4.77
85	90	4.55	4.99
90	95	4.77	5.21
95	100	4.99	5.43
100	105	5.21	5.65

If the value computed pursuant to subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph is 105 cents or more the price shall be increased at the same rate as would result from further extension of this table.

(v) The Class I price for any of the months of March through June of each year shall not be higher than the Class I price for the immediately preceding month; and the Class I price for any of the months of September through December of each year shall not be lower than the Class I price for the immediately preceding month.

(vi) The Class I price shall not be less than $4.77 per hundredweight for the month of August 1947 and shall not be less than $5.21 per hundredweight for each of the months of September through December 1947.

(vii) The Class I price for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I price minus 44 cents, and the Class I price for February 1948 shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I price minus 44 cents.

(2) For the purpose of this section, each pool handler's Class I milk during the month, after excluding receipts assigned to Class I milk pursuant to § 904.5 shall be allocated to his plants as follows:

(i) His Class I milk first shall be considered to have been the receipts at his city plants of milk from producers' farms, and of outside milk.

(ii) Thereafter, his Class I milk shall be considered to have been the receipts at his country plants of that milk received from producers' farms, and that outside milk, which was shipped as fluid milk products, other than cream, from each of his country plants, in the order of the nearness of the plants to Boston. However, shipments to plants located in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, or New York, with respect to which utilization as Class II milk is established, shall not be allocated to Class I milk.

(b) Class II prices. Each pool handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 904.9 and subject to the differentials set forth in this section, for Class II milk delivered by them, not less than the price per hundredweight calculated by the market administrator for each month by combining in one sum such of the following computations as apply:

(1) Divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream, f. o. b. Boston, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the month during which such milk is delivered, multiply this result by 3.7, and subtract 27 cents.

(2) For any month for which no cream price as described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is reported, multiply the average price reported for such month by the United States Department of Agriculture for U. S. Grade A (U. S. 92-score) butter at wholesale in the Chicago market by 1.4, multiply this result by 3.7, and subtract 27 cents.

(3) Compute any plus amount for skim milk value which results from the following calculation. Using the midpoint in any range as one price, compute the average price per pound of nonfat dry milk solids in carlots for roller process human food products in barrels, and for hot roller process animal feed products in bags, as published during the month by the United States Department of Agriculture for New York City. Multiply each such average price by the applicable percentage indicated for the month in the following table and combine the results; subtract 4 cents; and multiply the remainder by 7.5.

Month	Percent
	Human food products	Animal feed products
January	100	0
February	100	0
March	50	50
April	50	50
May	25	75
June	25	75
July	50	50
August	75	25
September	75	25
October	100	0
November	100	0
December	100	0

(c) Plant handling and transportation differentials. The minimum prices set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be subject to the differentials contained in the following table for the zone applicable to the plant at which the milk is received from producers. For each country plant the zone shall be determined in accordance with the railroad freight mileage distance to Boston from the railroad shipping point for such plant. In case the rail tariff for the transportation of milk in carlots in tank cars, as published in the New England Joint Tariff, M–5, is increased or decreased, the differentials set forth in Column B for zones other than 201–210 miles shall be increased or decreased to the extent of any increase or decrease in the difference between the rail tariff for mileage distances of 201–210 miles inclusive and for the other applicable distances. Such adjustment shall be made to the nearest one-half cent per hundredweight, effective with the first complete month in which such increase or decrease in the rail tariff applies. For the purpose of this paragraph, it shall be considered that the rail tariff on milk received at a city plant is zero.

(1) No differential.

(d) Butter and cheese adjustment. During the months of April, May, June, and July, the value of a pool handler's milk computed pursuant to § 904.8 (a) (2) shall be reduced by an amount determined as follows:

(1) Using the midpoint of any range as one price, compute the average of the daily prices for U. S. Grade A (U. S. 92-score) butter at wholesale in the New York market which are reported during the month by the United States Department of Agriculture, deduct 5 cents, and add 20 percent.

(2) Divide by 3.7 the value determined as applicable to milk delivered to country plants in the 201–250 freight mileage zone pursuant to subparagraph (1) or (2) of paragraph (b) of this section, whichever applies, and subtract therefrom the value determined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The result is the butter and cheese differential.

(3) Determine the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk received from producers, which was processed into salted butter, Cheddar cheese, American Cheddar cheese, Colby cheese, washed curd cheese, or part skim Cheddar cheese at a plant of the first handler of such butterfat or at a plant of a second person to which such butterfat was moved.

(4) Subtract such portion of the quantity determined in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph as was disposed of by the handler or such second person in a form other than salted butter or one of the designated types of cheese.

(5) Multiply the remaining pounds of butterfat determined pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph by the butter and cheese differential determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(e) Use of equivalent prices in formulas. If for any reason a price for any milk product specified by this section or § 904.9 (d) for use in computing class prices and for other purposes is not reported or published in the manner described by this section or § 904.9 (d), the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price which is specified.

(f) Announcement of class prices and differentials. The market administrator shall make public announcements of the class prices and differentials in effect pursuant to this section, as follows:

(1) He shall announce any change in the Class I price on the 25th day of the month preceding the month in which such change is effective.

(2) He shall announce the Class II price and the butter and cheese differential on or before the 5th day after the end of each month.

§ 904.8 Minimum blended prices to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk received from producers. For each month, the market administrator shall compute the value of milk received from producers which is sold, distributed, or used by each pool handler, in the following manner:

(1) Multiply the quantity of milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to § 904.7 (a) and (b); and

(2) Add together the resulting value of each class.

(3) Adjust the value determined in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph as provided in § 904.7 (d).

(b) Computation of the basic blended price. The market administrator shall compute the basic blended price per hundredweight of milk delivered during each month in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for each pool handler from whom the market administrator has received at his office, prior to the 11th day after the end of such month, the report for such month and the payments required pursuant to § 904.9 (b) (2) and (g) for milk received during each month since the effective date of the most recent amendment of this order;

(2) Add the total amount of payments required from handlers pursuant to § 904.9 (g);

(3) Add the amount of unreserved cash on hand at the close of business on the 10th day after the end of the month from payments made to the market administrator by handlers pursuant to § 904.9;

(4) Deduct the amount of the plus differentials, and add the amount of the minus differentials, which are applicable pursuant to § 904.9 (e);

(5) Subtract the total amount of cooperative payments required by § 904.10 (b);

(6) Divide by the total quantity of milk for which a value is determined pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(7) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in connection with the payments set forth in § 904.9. This result shall be known as the basic blended price for milk containing 3.7 percent butterfat.

(c) Announcement of blended prices. On the 12th day after the end of each month the market administrator shall mail to all pool handlers and shall publicly announce:

(1) Such of these computations as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act;

(2) The zone blended prices per hundredweight resulting from adjustment of the basic blended price by the differentials pursuant to § 904.9 (e); and

(3) The names of the pool handlers, designating those whose milk is not included in the computations.

§ 904.9 Payments for milk—(a) Advance payments. On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, each pool handler shall make payment to producers for the approximate value of milk received during the first 15 days of such month. In no event shall such advance payment be at a rate less than the Class II price for such month. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any handler who, on or before the 17th day after the end of the month, makes final payment as required by subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Final payments. On or before the 25th day after the end of each month, each pool handler shall make payment for the total value of milk received during such month as required to be computed pursuant to § 904.8 (a), as follows:

(1) To each producer at not less than the basic blended price per hundredweight, subject to the differentials provided in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, for the quantity of milk delivered by such producer; and

(2) To producers, through the market administrator, by paying to, on or before the 23d day after the end of each month, or receiving from the market administrator, on or before the 25th day after the end of each month, as the case may be, the amount by which the payments required to be made pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are less than or exceed the value of milk as required to be computed for such handler pursuant to § 904.8 (a), as shown in a statement rendered by the market administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of such month.

(c) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 15 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is payable by the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 15 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment to any producer for milk delivered to any handler discloses payment to such producer of an amount less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making final payment for the month in which such error is disclosed.

(d) Butterfat differential. Each pool handler shall, in making the payments to each producer for milk received from him, add for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content above 3.7 percent or deduct for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content below 3.7 percent an amount per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream, f. o. b. Boston, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the period between the 16th day of the preceding month and the 15th day inclusive of the month during which such milk is delivered, subtract 1.5 cents, and divide the result by 10: Provided, That if no such cream price is reported, multiply the average price reported for such period by the United States Department of Agriculture for U. S. Grade A (U. S. 92-score) butter at wholesale in the Chicago market by 1.4, subtract 1.5 cents, and divide the result by 10.

(e) Location differentials. The payments to be made to producers by handlers pursuant to subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section shall be subject to the differentials set forth in Column B of the table in § 904.7 (c), and to further differentials as follows:

(1) With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located more than 40 miles but not more than 80 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 23 cents per hundredweight, unless such addition gives a result greater than the Class I price pursuant to § 904.7 (a) and (c) which is effective at the plant to which such milk is delivered, in which event there shall be added an amount which will give as a result such price.

(2) With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 46 cents per hundredweight, unless such addition gives a result greater than the Class I price pursuant to § 904.7 (a) and (c) which is effective at the plant to which such milk is delivered, in which event there shall be added an amount which will give as a result such price.

(f) Other differentials. In making the payments to producers set forth in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section, pool handlers may make deductions as follows:

(1) With respect to milk delivered by producers to a city plant which is located outside the marketing area and more than 14 miles from the State House in Boston, 10 cents per hundredweight;

(2) With respect to milk delivered by producers to a country plant, at which plant the average daily receipts of milk from producers are:

(i) Less than 17,000 but greater than 8,500 pounds, 4 cents per hundredweight, and

(ii) 8,500 pounds or less, 8 cents per hundredweight.

(g) Payments on outside milk. (1) Within 23 days after the end of each month, each pool handler, buyer-handler, or producer-handler, whose receipts of outside milk are in excess of his total use of Class II milk after deducting receipts of cream, shall make payment on such excess quantity to producers, through the market administrator, at the difference between the price pursuant to § 904.7 (a) and the price pursuant to § 904.7 (b) effective for the location or freight mileage zone of the plant at which the handler received the outside milk.

(2) Within 23 days after the end of each month, each handler who operates an unregulated plant from which outside milk is disposed of to consumers in the marketing area without intermediate movement to another plant shall make payment to producers, through the market administrator, on the quantity so disposed of. The payment shall be at the difference between the price pursuant to § 904.7 (a) and the price pursuant to § 904.7 (b) effective for the location or freight mileage zone of the handler's plant.

(h) Adjustment of overdue accounts. Any balance due pursuant to this section, for any month since August 1, 1937, to or from the market administrator on the 10th day of any month, for which remittance has not been received in, or paid from, his office by the close of business on that day, shall be increased one-half of 1 percent effective the 11th day of such month.

(i) Statements to producers. In making the payments to producers prescribed by subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section, each pool handler shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement, in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show:

(1) The month, and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and average butterfat test of milk delivered by the producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) of this section;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, including any deductions claimed under paragraph (f) of this section and § 904.10, together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(6) The net amount of payment to the producer.

§ 904.10 Payments to cooperative associations[2]—(a) Application and qualification for cooperative payments. Any cooperative association of producers duly organized under the laws of any state may apply to the Secretary for a determination that it is qualified to receive cooperative payments in accordance with the provisions of this section. Upon notice of the filing of such an application, the market administrator shall set aside for each month, from the funds provided by handlers' payments to the market administrator pursuant to § 904.9, such amount as he estimates is ample to make payment to the applicant, and hold it in reserve until the Secretary has ruled upon the application. The applicant association shall be considered to be a qualified association entitled to receive such payments from the date fixed by the Secretary, if he determines that it meets all of the following requirements.

(1) It conforms to the requirements relating to character of organization, voting, dividend payments, and dealing in products of nonmembers, which are set forth in the Capper-Volstead Act and in the state laws under which the association is organized.

(2) It operates as a responsible producer-controlled marketing association exercising full authority in the sale of the milk of its members.

(3) It systematically checks the weights and tests of milk which its members deliver to plants not operated by the association.

(4) It guarantees payment to its members for milk delivered to plants not operated by the association.

(5) It maintains, either individually or together with other qualified associations, a competent staff for dealing with marketing problems and for providing information to its members.

(6) It constantly maintains close working relationships with its members.

(7) It collaborates with similar associations in activities incident to the maintenance and strengthening of collective bargaining by producers and the operation of a plan of uniform pricing of milk to handlers.

(8) It is in compliance with all applicable provisions of this order.

(b) Cooperative payments. On or before the 25th day after the end of each month, each qualified association shall be entitled to receive a cooperative payment from the funds provided by handlers' payments to the market administrator pursuant to § 904.9. The payment shall be made under the conditions and at the rates specified in this paragraph, and shall be subject to verification of the receipts and other items upon which such payment is based.

(1) Each qualified association shall be entitled to payment at the rate of 1 cent per hundredweight on the milk which its producer members deliver to the plant of a handler other than a qualified association; except on milk delivered by a producer who is also a member of another qualified association, and on milk delivered to a handler who fails to make applicable payments pursuant to § 904.9 (b) (2) and § 904.11 within 10 days after the end of the month in which he is required to do so. If the handler is required by paragraph (e) of this section to make deductions from members of the association at a rate lower than 1 cent per hundredweight, the payment pursuant to this subparagraph shall be at such lower rate.

(2) Each qualified association shall be entitled to payment at the rate of 2 cents per hundredweight on milk received from producers at a plant operated by that association.

(c) Reports relating to cooperative payments. Each qualified association shall, upon request by the market administrator, make reports to him with respect to its use of cooperative payments and its performance in meeting the requirements set forth as the basis for such payments, and shall file with him a copy of its balance sheet and operating statement at the close of each fiscal year.

(d) Suspension of cooperative payments. Whenever there is reason to believe that an association is no longer meeting the qualification requirements, the market administrator shall, upon request by the Secretary, suspend cooperative payments to it, and shall give the association written notice of the suspension. Such suspended payments shall be held in reserve until the Secretary has, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, ruled upon the performance of the association.

(e) Deductions from payments to members. (1) Each association which is entitled to receive cooperative payments on milk which its producer members deliver to a handler other than a qualified association may file a claim with the handler for amounts to be deducted from the handler's payments to such members. The claim shall contain a list of the producers, an agreement to indemnify the handler in the making of the deductions, and a certification that the association has an unterminated membership contract with each producer, authorizing the claimed deduction.

(2) In making payments to his producers for milk received during the month, each handler shall make deductions in accordance with the association's claim, and shall pay the amount deducted to the association within 25 days after the end of the month.

§ 904.11 Payments of administration expense. Within 23 days after the end of each month, each handler shall make payment to the market administrator of his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this order. The payment shall be at the rate of 2.5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, and shall apply to all of the handler's receipts of milk from producers and receipts of outside milk during the month.

§ 904.12 Effective time, suspension, or termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions of this order, or any amendment to its provisions, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order or any of its provisions whenever he finds that this order or any of its provisions obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this order, there are any obligations arising under it, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall:

(i) Continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary;

(ii) From time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, and when so directed by the Secretary deliver all funds on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and

(iii) If so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant to this order.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this order the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this order, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 904.13 Agents. The secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

[F. R. Doc. 47-6287; Filed, July 3, 1947; 8:47 a. m.]

[2] Provisions of this section are identical to those contained in the marketing agreement tentatively approved by the Secretary June 30, 1947.

[7 CFR, Part 927]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan area.

A public hearing was held at Utica, New York on March 17–21, 1947, and continued at New York City on March 24 and 25, 1947. Previously a public hearing was held at Albany, New York, on November 20, 1946. Action has been taken with respect to all except one of the issues which were developed at this earlier hearing. The issue upon which action has not been completed deals with contra-seasonal changes in the Class I–A and Class II–A prices which might occur as the result of the formula-determined prices. A notice of recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to the issues developed at the March 1947 hearing and the open issue of the hearing held on November 20, 1946, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 3838) on June 12, 1947. Exceptions have been filed to that recommended decision and were considered in arriving at the findings and conclusions contained herein.

Findings and conclusions. The material issues[1] presented at the March 1947 hearing (plus the issue remaining from the November 1946 hearing) are divided, for purposes of this decision, into three categories: (1) Those issues included in the notice of hearing with respect to which the submission of evidence has been postponed for a later hearing, and therefore concerning which no findings and conclusions are herein set forth, (2) those issues with respect to which findings and conclusions are being deferred pending further study and analysis of the hearing record, and (3) those issues with respect to which findings and conclusions are herein set forth.

The first category of issues consists of the following:

1. Elimination or revision of provisions relating to payments to cooperative associations (H. N. Nos. 46, 47, 48, 49, and 50).

2. Elimination or revision of provisions relating to location differentials (H. N. Nos. 41, 42, and 43).

The second category of issues consists of the following:

1. Revision of the pricing provision for Class I–C milk (H. N. Nos. 29, 30, and 31).

2. Elimination of the "floor provisions" as now contained in the pricing provisions for Class II–B, II–D, and II–E milk (H. N. Nos. 32 and 33).

3. Revision of the pricing provision for Class III milk (H. N. Nos. 35 and 36).

4. Elimination of the "floor provisions" and to make other changes in the pricing provisions for Class IV–A and IV–B milk (H. N. Nos. 6, 37, 38, 39, and 40).

5. A new method of calculating the butterfat differential used in connection with payments to producers (H. N. No. 45).

6. Revision of the pricing provision for Class V–B milk (H. N. No. 58).

7. Revision of provisions for payments for milk or milk products other than from producer sources (H. N. Nos. 52, 53, 54, 55, and 56).

The third category of issues consists of the following:

1. Revision of the method of determining the Class I–A and Class II–A prices:

(a) By preventing contraseasonal Class I–A and Class II–A price changes,

(b) By revision of the present Class I–A price formula,

(c) By replacing the present Class I–A price formula, with specific fixed prices, and

(d) By replacing the present Class I–A price formula with prices calculated on the basis of determinations of the cost of production plus a reasonable profit (H. N. Nos. 3 (of November 1946 hearing), 4, 5, and 19 to 28, inclusive).

2. A requirement that the market administrator publish a bulletin monthly and that it be sent to all producers, and that published information include a report on the activity of check testers (H. N. No. 1).

3. A requirement that on request of any handler an inspection must be made by the market administrator and a determination made by him as to what constitutes a plant, and that the handler be notified of such determination within 30 days of such request (H. N. No. 2).

4. A requirement that the market administrator issue at the request of any handler an interpretative ruling on the classification of milk utilized or moved in the manner described by the handler (H. N. No. 3).

5. Qualification of a plant to be a pool plant even though shipment of milk to the marketing area is prohibited for specified periods by reason of health authority permission for shipping approved skim milk from such plant (H. N. No. 7).

6. Modification of the provisions concerning the suspension of pool plant designations as to the classes of milk which are permitted or required to be included by the market administrator in his determination as to the desirable utilization of milk (H. N. Nos. 8 and 9).

7. The inclusion in the pool during April, May, and June of plants not designated as reserve pool plants (H. N. No. 10).

8. Public announcement each month by the market administrator of any plant included in the pool other than plants designated as reserve pool plants (H. N. No. 11).

9. Removal of the time limitation for establishing the classification of milk held in the form of frozen desserts (H. N. No. 12).

10. Classification as I–C, in any month in which the I–C price is higher than the I–A price, of milk shipped as milk to or through the marketing area but ultimately distributed in an area not regulated by the Secretary (H. N. No. 13).

11. Change procedure for issuance of rules and regulations by deleting reference to the first rules and regulations and by adding a specific requirement that a meeting to consider new rules or amendments be called within 30 days upon request of any handler (H. N. Nos. 14 and 15).

12. Extension of the time, from 48 hours to 7 days, allowed handlers for reporting transfers of cream in storage (H. N. No. 16).

13. Revision or elimination of the temperature requirements for cream held in storage as a basis for establishing its classification in Class II–B (H. N. No. 17).

14. Classification of frozen desserts in Class II–F when moved to a warehouse, as well as to a plant or purchaser as now provided in the Class II–F territory (H. N. No. 18).

15. Revision of the Class II–E price formula by changing the figure of "21.5" as contained therein to "25.5" (H. N. No. 34).

16. Provision for payment by handlers into the producer-settlement fund, and for later disposition, of payments due producers who cannot be located, and of payments concerning which dispute arises as to whether such payments are due producers (H. N. No. 44).

17. Revision in wording storage cream payment provision to more accurately describe the present requirement for payment (H. N. No. 51).

18. Provision for the payment of interest on accounts past due the producer-settlement fund and on monies unlawfully withheld by the market administrator (H. N. No. 57).

19. General.

The recommended decision contained rulings upon the proposed findings and conclusions submitted by interested parties in this proceeding. Such rulings are confirmed except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions set forth herein.

[1] The description of each issue will be followed by the numbers, as shown in the notice of hearing, of the proposals directly associated with that issue, thus: (H. N. No. __). All proposal numbers refer to the hearing notice issued March 7, 1947 unless otherwise indicated.

Exceptions were filed on behalf of the Milk Dealers' Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc.; Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers' Bargaining Agency, Inc.; Eastern Milk Producers' Cooperative Association, Inc.; Mutual Cooperative of Independent Producers, Inc.; Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers of New York State; New York State Association of Refrigerated Warehouses; New England Milk Producers' Association; United Dairy Farmers' Division, District 50, United Mine Workers of America; Mt. Joy Farmers' Cooperative Association; and by Dr. Leland Spencer.

No exceptions were filed to the findings and conclusions contained in the aforesaid recommended decision with regard to issues (third category) 2, 3, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, and 18. The findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision on these issues are set forth herein without substantial change and are, in effect, adopted as the findings and conclusions of this decision. With regard to the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision to which specific exception has been taken, this decision contains a ruling thereon in the discussion of the material issue to which the exception refers.

Exception has been taken to the deferment of findings and conclusions concerning the revision of the pricing provisions for Class I–C milk. Study and analysis of the evidence in the hearing record with respect to this issue have not yet been completed. Findings and conclusions with respect to the issue are, therefore, deferred.

The following findings and conclusions on material issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof. (Findings and conclusions are numbered to correspond to the numbers of the issues above set forth under the third category of issues.)

1. The present method of determining the Class I–A price should be continued by retention of the present butter-powder formula without revision. The formula should be supplemented, however, by adding a provision to prevent contraseasonal price changes, and by providing minimum floor prices of $4.58 per hundredweight for the month of August 1947, and $5.02 per hundredweight for the months of September through December 1947. Provision should also be made for limiting to 44 cents per hundredweight any reduction which might occur from December 1947 to January 1948 or from January to February 1948. No provision to prevent contraseasonal price changes in the Class II–A price should be adopted. The foregoing conforms to the standards set forth in section 8c (18) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

It is essential that the production of pool milk be increased in the fall months in relation to production in the spring months, thus bringing about a seasonal pattern of production which is more nearly in line with market requirements. Significant seasonal variation in the Class I–A price is necessary to encourage such a seasonal pattern of production.

During the years 1940–1946, there was a trend toward wider variation between spring and fall levels of production. Seasonal variation in price tended to grow narrower during the same period. Sales of fluid milk during the years 1940–1946 increased more than production, not only in the New York market, but particularly so in other northeastern markets. Shortages in surrounding areas have resulted in heavy demands for milk from the New York milk shed, thereby accentuating the supply problem during the months of lowest production.

A seasonal increase in the returns to producers during the fall months equivalent to about 30 to 35 percent of such returns during the months of April–June is necessary to encourage less seasonal variation in production. Definite assurance of such a seasonal price relationship in 1947 should be provided by the establishment of a minimum floor price for Class I–A milk of $5.02 per hundredweight for the months of September through December 1947. As further safeguards against factors which might operate to offset the incentive for fall production, a floor price of $4.58 per hundredweight should be established for the month of August 1947, and provision should be made for limiting to 44 cents per hundredweight any reduction in the Class I–A price which might occur from December 1947 to January 1948 or from January to February 1948.

The level of the Class I–A price should, in general, move up and down consistent with changes in the level of prices of manufactured dairy products. Such adjustments in the general level of the Class I–A price should occur in such amounts and at such times as will result in a minimum of interference with necessary seasonal price changes. Accordingly, provision should be made in the order for controlling adjustments in the general level of the Class I–A price to the extent of providing that the Class I–A price for any of the months of September through December of any year should not be lower than in the preceding month, and that the Class I–A price for the months of March through June of any year should not be higher than in the preceding month. The provision to prevent seasonal price changes should be confined to periods of four months in order to result in a minimum of interference with necessary adjustments in the general level of the Class I–A price.

Evidence on the record concerning contraseasonal price changes relates only incidentally to the Class II–A price and fails to indicate that such a provision applied to the Class II–A price would have enough effect on the uniform price to warrant interference with formula changes in the Class II–A price.

Proposals to substitute fixed prices for the present pricing formula were considered at the hearing. Economic conditions during the last half of 1947, or after, cannot be determined on evidence in the record with sufficient accuracy to constitute a sound basis for fixing Class I–A prices for that period at a more exact and inflexible level than will result from the establishment of minimum floor prices as herein provided to assure minimum seasonal increases, and from the continued operation of the present butter-powder pricing formula. Retention of the present butter-powder pricing formula provides a method of establishing Class I–A prices after the period for which minimum floor prices can be established, and for prices for the months of July–December 1947 higher than the minimum floor prices, if justified by economic condition then prevailing.

Evidence on the record for revision of the present butter-powder formula as a method of fixing Class I–A prices relates only to proposed technical changes which could do no more than correct minor weakness of the present formula, rather than to changes in the basic factors necessary to produce a Class I–A price at the proper level and a price which changes at the proper time. The emphasis at the hearing on prices for the immediate future, rather than for the long run, indicates contemplation by handlers and producers of further consideration of the basis for pricing Class I–A milk at another hearing this year. A more complete analysis of the basic factors involved, and of the present formula in its entirety, should be considered at another hearing before making change in the present formula.

The average cost of producing milk was higher in February and March of 1947 than at the same time in 1946. Such cost increased, due principally to the price of feed, between February 15, 1947 and March 15, 1947. The cost of milk production during the last half of 1947 cannot be determined from evidence in the record. The level of production, both in terms of pool milk and production per day per dairy, was higher in the first part of 1947 than at the same time in 1946. Per capita sales of fluid milk in the marketing area were slightly lower in 1946 than in 1945 but still substantially higher than in 1940. Total sales of fluid milk in the marketing area in February 1947 fell below sales in the same month a year earlier for the first time since 1941.

Various proposals were considered at the hearing to establish the Class I–A price solely on the basis of the cost of production, or the cost of production plus a "reasonable" profit. A reasonable profit was not defined. It was proposed that the cost of production be determined from cost data submitted at frequent public hearings, and also that the function of determining the cost of production and of fixing the Class I–A price be delegated to a board of experts. The best available cost of production figures are estimates of the year-around cost. The cost of production varies widely between individual farms, between counties, and between states.

The cost of production is not the only factor affecting the supply of milk for the marketing area. In addition to the necessity for the consideration of other factors affecting supply, the economic conditions affecting the demand for milk in the marketing area are important factors which must also be considered if orderly marketing is to result. Furthermore, the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act requires that due consideration be given to all of the economic conditions affecting both the supply and demand for milk in the marketing area.

Question was raised at the hearing concerning the level of the New York Class I–A price in relation to the Boston Class I price. The Class I–A butterfat differential is different from the butterfat differential in the Boston market. The existence of this difference precludes a complete and precise alignment of New York and Boston prices. Prices precisely the same for milk of one butterfat test would be different for milk of any other test. A different relationship of Class I prices between the two markets would not necessarily result in a constant and continuing alignment of the uniform or blended prices received by producers.

Exception was taken to the conclusion, as set forth in the recommended decision, that the present butter-powder formula should be retained as a method of pricing Class I–A milk. A conclusion to the contrary would necessitate adoption of some substitute method. Adoption of any substitute method considered at the hearing is not justified by evidence in the record. Accordingly, the ruling on the exception is that the butter-powder formula should be retained subject to the supplemental provisions herein set forth.

Exception was taken to the recommended conclusion, and to the recommended effectuating amendment, that provision should be made for limiting to 44 cents per hundredweight any reduction in the Class I–A price which might occur from December 1947 to January 1948 or from January to February 1948. This exception was on the basis that there is no evidence in the record to support a finding as to what the level of the Class I–A price should be in January or February 1948. The provision does not fix the absolute level of the Class I–A price during January and February 1948, but establishes only the lower limit in relation to the December 1947 price, thus providing insurance against a too precipitous and abrupt price decline. Subject only to this limitation, the exact level of the Class I–A price in January and February 1948 would be determined on the basis of the present butter-powder formula. Therefore, the exception is not granted.

Exceptions were taken to the recommended provision to prevent contraseasonal changes in the Class I–A price. Reasons supporting the exceptions were that (1) the recommended provision is wrong in principle and of no significance at this time, (2) the periods of September–December and March–June are too short, and (3) no notice was given in the March 1947 notice of hearing that such a provision would be considered, and no action can be taken on evidence in the November 20, 1946 hearing record since that record allegedly is closed.

The records of both hearings (November 20, 1946 and March 1947) support adoption of a provision to prevent contraseasonal price changes. The findings herein indicate the reasons for making the provision applicable only during the months of September–December and March–June. The March 1947 notice of hearing gave adequate notice for consideration of evidence to prevent contraseasonal changes in the Class I–A price. Numerous references to such a provision are in the record of the March 1947 hearing. Action taken following the November 20, 1946 hearing specifically deferred, in accordance with applicable regulations, conclusions with respect to the question of contraseasonal changes in the Class I–A and Class II–A prices. For these reasons and in accordance with the findings herein set forth, the exceptions are not granted.

Exceptions were taken to the recommended provision to establish floor prices for Class I–A milk of $4.58 for the months of July, August, and September 1947 and $5.02 for the months of October, November, and December 1947. The reasons advanced in support of the exceptions are that (1) such prices are inadequate to cover production costs or to result in a sufficient supply of milk during the last half of 1947, (2) evidence in the record supports higher floor prices during all or a part of the period, and (3) economic conditions prevailing since the hearing and now definitely in prospect merit official notice. Suggested revisions in the recommended decision are that the floor prices should be:

(1) $4.58 for July and $5.02 for August through December;

(2) $5.02 for July through September and $5.46 for October through December; or

(3) $4.58 for July, $5.02 for August and September and $5.46 for October through December.

Further analysis of the record, in connection with the consideration of the exceptions, indicates (1) the necessity of reliance upon feeding practices to a greater extent than on any adjustment thus far made in breeding practices to produce an adequate supply of milk during the fall of 1947, and (2) the definite prospect of the maintenance during 1947 of a relatively high level of feed costs.

Action has heretofore been taken fixing a Class I–A price of $4.58 for July 1947. As to later months, the exceptions are granted to the extent that it is hereby found and concluded that the Class I–A price should be not less than $4.58 for August 1947 and not less than $5.02 for the months of September through December 1947.

Exception was taken to the finding in the recommended decision that the level of the Class I–A price should, in general, move up and down consistent with changes in the level of prices of manufactured dairy products. This exception is not granted. Evidence in the record shows that changes in the level of prices of manufactured dairy products quite accurately reflect changes in the essential economic conditions affecting the supply of and demand for milk for the marketing area, and that such economic conditions are of major importance in establishing the general level of the Class I–A price.

Exception was also taken to the finding in the recommended decision that the cost of production is not the only factor affecting the supply of milk in the marketing area. This exception is not granted. The requirements of other markets for milk from the same general production area is definitely shown to be a factor affecting the supply of milk for the New York metropolitan milk marketing area.

Exception was taken to the findings in the recommended decision concerning the relationship between the New York Class I–A price and the Boston Class I price. The exception is not granted. Argument in support of the exception was to the effect that the existing disparity between the New York and Boston uniform or blended prices is shown by evidence in the record to be caused almost entirely by the fact that the Boston Class I price is 19 cents higher than the New York Class I–A price. It is not conceded that the evidence so indicates.

2. No provision should be included in the order requiring monthly publication by the market administrator of a bulletin or that such bulletin contain reports on the activity of check testers or that it be sent to all producers.

It has not been shown that the function of reaching producers with necessary market information would thereby be materially enhanced. Producers are not now deprived of essential and timely information by reason of publication of the market administrator's bulletin less frequently than monthly. Cooperative associations receiving cooperative payments are relied upon to provide, and to some extent at least do provide, their members with essential market information. The market administrator's bulletin is now sent to all producers who are not members of qualified cooperatives and to others on request. The activities of check testers, or the amount of check testing performed would not be changed by adoption of this proposal. Reports on the activities of check testers are now authorized.

3. The duty of the market administrator relative to the making of inspections and determinations as to what constitutes a plant should be amended by adding a provision requiring prompt determination by the market administrator, upon receipt of request therefor by any handler, and prompt notice to the handler of such determination.

The market administrator's determination of what constitutes a plant is important and handlers are entitled to such determination. The evidence does not show, however, what is involved in making an inspection and a determination nor the probable number of requests. It is entirely possible that 30 days would be an insufficient time in which to make all requested inspections and determinations. Request for reinspection should include a showing of the necessity for inspection by reason of conditions which have changed since a previous determination.

4. The order should not be amended by adding, as a duty of the market administrator, a requirement that he issue at the request of any handler an interpretative ruling on the classification of milk to be utilized or moved in the manner described by the handler. The appropriate solution of the problem here presented is the clarification of the order, or the rules and regulations issued by the market administrator, to the extent necessary to eliminate the need for interpretative rulings.

Administrative difficulty would arise in determining whether milk was utilized or moved precisely as described in the request.

Under the proposal an erroneous prospective ruling would be final if in favor of the petitioning handler. However, the petitioning handler could at will disregard an erroneous unfavorable ruling and establish a correct classification by subsequent appeal. No method was proposed to protect other interested persons against erroneous prospective rulings.

No satisfactory method was proposed which would avoid prospective rulings upon purely hypothetical facts.

No specifications have been proposed for inclusion in a description of a proposed utilization or movement of facts and circumstances which are comparable with the facts and circumstances which the market administrator, pursuant to provisions of the order and the rules and regulations, would be required to consider in determining the final classification of milk.

Exception was taken by the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers' Bargaining Agency, Inc. to the conclusion in the recommended decision that the order should not be amended by adding, as a duty of the market administrator, a requirement that he issue at the request of any handler an interpretative ruling on the classification of milk to be utilized or moved in a manner described by the handler. The findings in the recommended decision, and herein affirmed, on the basis of evidence in the record outweigh the reasons advanced in support of the exception. The exception is not granted.

5. The proposal concerning the qualification of a plant to be a pool plant, even though shipments of milk to the marketing area are prohibited for specified periods by reason of health authority permission for shipping approved skim milk from such plant should be adopted.

A plant given health authority permission for the shipment of approved skim milk is in the same category as a plant which is given permission to receive unapproved milk or skim milk insofar as its qualification to ship milk to the marketing area is concerned. The addition of this proposal more accurately describes the conditions under which it is intended that a plant be considered as being in a position to meet the requirements of a source of milk for the marketing area.

6. No change should be made in the order with respect to the classes of milk which must be included by the market administrator in making his determination of the desirable utilization of milk in connection with the conditions under which pool plant designations may be suspended.

Inclusion of the classes of milk, which the proposal would require to be included in the desirable utilization of milk, is now permitted except for Class II-F.

The prices for Class II-A, II-B and II-F milk, particularly during the months of short production, are lower than the prices for Class I-A and Class I-C milk. The proponents of this proposal are also requesting a further reduction in prices for Class II-B and II-F milk. There are numerous areas outside of the marketing area which depend upon pool milk during the low production period of the year to supplement their regular sources of supply, and in addition, numerous handlers distributing milk in the marketing area also distribute milk in other areas and operate plants approved for the shipment of milk both to the marketing area and to such other areas.

While it has also been the practice of New York City ice cream manufacturers to utilize for ice cream purposes a portion of the current production of pool milk during the low production period of the year, there is available to them butterfat from other sources, among which are butter and storage cream, which are not available as sources of milk for distribution as fluid milk. Whether or not ice cream manufacturers are restricted to plants approved by New York City health authorities as sources of fresh supplies depends upon regulations of such health authorities rather than upon provisions of Order No. 27. It was not shown that the health authorities could not permit the use of fresh supplies from other than normally approved sources if conditions so warrant. The order cannot properly require the market administrator to endeavor to influence the activities or policies of marketing area health authorities.

Ice cream manufacturers are not restricted by Order No. 27 to pool plants as sources of fresh supplies of butterfat and other milk solids. Plants furnishing fresh supplies for ice cream can be withheld or withdrawn from the pool by the handler if he considers it to be in his interest to do so, and irrespective of whether such plants are approved by the health authority.

The present provisions of the order with respect to the desirable utilization of milk may result, by reason of the issuance of a determination of the desirable utilization of milk in which ice cream classes are not specified, in the utilization by a handler in fluid milk classes of milk which would otherwise be utilized in ice cream. Such a determination, however, does not preclude the handler from utilizing milk in ice cream, nor does it follow that a handler's pool plant designation will be automatically suspended or cancelled if milk is so utilized. A determination of the desirable utilization of milk under the present provisions of the order constitutes a standard which, if met by a handler, insures him during most months against suspension of pool plant designations, and during all months against cancellation of pool plant designations.

Evidence in the record does not show that the present provisions of the order have prevented ice cream manufacturers from marketing a satisfactory product and in sufficient volume to meet market requirements for frozen desserts. The authority of the market administrator under the present provisions of the order authorizing the suspension of pool plant designations has not been exercised in an arbitrary manner.

Several exceptions were taken by the Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers of New York State to the findings and conclusion set forth therein concerning issue No. 6. Their exceptions were (1) to the conclusion that "no change should be made in the order with respect to the classes of milk which must be included by the market administrator in making his determination of the desirable utilization of milk in connection with the conditions under which pool plant designations may be suspended." (2) to certain of the findings set forth in the recommended decision and (3) to the failure to make certain additional findings.

The conclusion to which exception was taken is herein affirmed and the exception is not granted. Exception was taken to the finding that "The prices for Class II-A, II-B, and II-F milk, particularly during the months of short production, are lower than the prices for Class I-A and Class I-C milk. The proponents of this proposal are also requesting a further reduction in prices for Classes II-B and II-F." The reason advanced for the exception was that the finding is neither relevant nor material to the issue since the determination of the desirable utilization of milk is a matter completely disassociated from price. The exception is not granted. The provision in question cannot logically be considered to be unrelated to the price of the various classes of milk. Price is an important consideration influencing the decision of a handler as to whether plants operated by him are to be withheld or withdrawn from the pool. The utilization of milk can hardly be considered to be a desirable utilization of milk from the standpoint of producers, if it tends to result in the utilization of milk in low priced classes at a time when higher priced uses are available. If, as alleged, the price of Class I-A milk in relation to the price of Class II-B is not material, a handler can readily effect the desirable utilization of milk as determined, by the utilization of Class I-A milk in the manufacture of ice cream.

Each of the exceptions numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 taken by the Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers of New York State are to the failure to make certain additional findings. After consideration of these exceptions certain new findings are herein set forth. Otherwise, each of these exceptions is denied.

Exceptions 8 and 9 of the Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers of New York State allege error in making certain findings. The findings in the recommended decision to which these two exceptions refer have been revised as set forth herein. Otherwise, the exceptions and the proposed substitute findings are denied.

Exception was also taken to the refusal of the Assistant Administrator to rule that the present § 927.3 (a) (4) (iv) is illegal, and to his failure to find that "The utilization of milk in any class within the marketing area may not lawfully be prohibited or limited with respect to a product in which a health authority of the area requires approved milk." The latter finding is requested for the first time in such exceptions. Section 8c (18) and section 8c (5) (G) of the act are cited in support of such contentions.

These exceptions are overruled and the proposed finding is not made. Section 927.3 (a) (4) (iv) of Order No. 27 was not shown to be illegal. It is neither inconsistent with section 8c (18) of the act, nor does it prohibit or limit the marketing of milk or its products in the marketing area within the meaning of section 8c (5) (G) of the act.

7. The provisions for automatic designation of a pool plant as a pool plant during the months of April, May, and June on the basis of milk sold or distributed in, or shipped to the marketing area from such plant should be clarified to leave no question that the requirement for shipment of 60 percent of the milk received during the preceding period of October, November, and December applies only to a plant at which some milk was in fact received directly from dairy farmers during such preceding period.

The pool status of a plant during April, May, and June is uncertain in the case of a plant not designated as a reserve pool plant and at which no milk was received from dairy farmers during the preceding October, November, and December. The proposed amendment will eliminate that uncertainty, and will not materially impair the effectiveness of the provision nor result in practices contrary to the interests of handlers or producers.

8. There should be included in the order a provision requiring the market administrator to make public each month the location, and the name of the operator, of each plant other than a designated reserve pool plant, for which a report of receipts from dairy farmers was used in the computation of the uniform price for the previous month.

It might be desirable that the market administrator make public at the time of announcement of the uniform price, the location, and name of the operator, of each plant automatically designated, in accordance with § 927.3 (b), as a pool plant for the previous month by reason of shipment of Class I-A milk. However, such information is not at that time available. The market administrator, in releasing such information, would have to rely solely on the unverified report of the handler. Plants automatically designated as pool plants pursuant to § 927.3 (b) can be determined only after verification of the handler's report. Handler's reports for any month cannot be verified by the 14th of the following month. The market administrator, consequently, is in a position to make public at the time of announcing the uniform price only the location, and the name of the operator, of each plant the report for which was used, pursuant to § 927.3 (b), in the computation of the uniform price for the previous month. Such information will probably include most, if not all, of the information requested by the proponents.

9. The proposal to remove the time limitation for establishing the classification of milk held in the form of frozen desserts should not be adopted at this time.

This proposal involves the apparent necessity or desire on the part of ice cream manufacturers to hold frozen desserts in inventory longer than the period permitted for establishing classification. Adoption of this proposal could materially accentuate the problem of accounting for milk. The proponent of this proposal, in its brief filed, recognized administrative difficulties involved, and concluded with the statement: "Therefore, we desire to give further study to the problem, with the view toward overcoming such difficulties through a more complete suggestion at a later date."

10. The order should not be amended to provide that in any month in which the Class I-C price is higher than the Class I-A price, milk shipped to or through the marketing area but ultimately distributed in an area not regulated by the Secretary should be classified as Class I-C rather than as Class I-A. However, the words "which has not passed through the marketing area, but including milk which was received directly from producers at a plant in the marketing area," as they appear in the Class I-C definition, should be deleted.

The proposal was designed to deny handlers a lower price on milk distributed in the Class I-C territory merely by reason of having first transported the milk in bulk through the marketing area. This objective would be more appropriately accomplished by the recommended change in the Class I-C definition.

A change in § 927.4 (a) (3) (i), as proposed, would be inconsistent with § 927.5 (c) (3), the definition of Class I-C milk. Section 927.4 (a) (3) (i) provides that milk shipped in the form of milk to a plant in the marketing area shall be classified as Class I-A, and constitutes a condition to which the Class I-C definition is subject. Deletion from the Class I-C definition of the above quoted words leaves a definition which, together with § 927.4 (a) (3) (i) defines milk ultimately distributed in an area not regulated by an order of the Secretary as Class I-C unless the milk was previously shipped in the form of milk from the plant at which it was received from dairy farmers to a plant in the marketing area.

Exception was taken by the Milk Dealers' Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc., to the proposed amendment No. 6, the definition of Class I-C milk, as set forth in the recommended decision. The basis of the exception was that the proposed amendment does not solve the alleged problem; that is, that milk shipped in the form of milk to a plant in the marketing area and ultimately distributed in the I-C area would still be Class I-A milk, even though the price of Class I-C milk might be higher than the price of Class I-A milk. It is true that the proposed amendment will result in no change with respect to milk shipped in the form of milk to a plant in the marketing area, but it will clarify the order with respect to milk ultimately distributed in the I-C area and which has not previously been shipped in the form of milk to a plant in the marketing area. This record does not justify a more extensive change. The exception, therefore, is not granted.

11. The procedure for issuance by the market administrator of rules and regulations should be amended by deletion of language, now obsolete, relative to issuance of the first rules and regulations, and by including a provision requiring the market administrator, within 30 days after receipt of a written request of any handler for issuance, amendment or repeal of any rule, to either call a meeting for consideration of such request or notify the handler that the request is denied and of the reasons for denial.

Effective administration of the order and proper exercising by the market administrator of his function in the issuance of necessary rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of the classification section of the order requires prompt consideration by the market administrator of evidence of the necessity for the issuance, amendment or repeal of a rule.

Requests of handlers showing evidence of the necessity for issuance, amendment or repeal of any rule have been given prompt consideration. Handlers have not been denied an opportunity to be heard on such requests. Proponents intended to allow the market administrator wide discretion in determining what is a bona fide request. Adoption of the proposal results in expressly setting forth in the order, and in more specific terms, the already existing responsibility of the market administrator in the issuance of the necessary rules and regulations.

12. The time allowed for reporting the transfer of cream from one licensed cold storage warehouse to another should be extended from 48 hours to 7 days.

A period of 7 days in which to report transfers of storage cream is a more reasonable allowance of time than is the period of 48 hours. Handlers experience difficulty giving notice within 48 hours. No necessary purpose is served by a provision requiring notice within a period shorter than 7 days.

13. There should be deleted from the order the requirements as to the temperature below which cream must be held in a licensed cold storage warehouse for purposes of qualifying it for a II-B classification.

Present temperature requirements were originally adopted as a safeguard against misuse of a provision designed to encourage the storage of cream. The order contains other such safeguards. The burden on warehouse operators resulting from the present temperature requirements causes reluctance to accept cream for storage thus creating a potential scarcity of storage space for cream. Storage warehouses equip themselves with recording thermometers only for the purpose of meeting the storage cream requirements of the order. The failure to meet the temperature requirements frequently results from the unavoidable breakdown of recording thermometers and the inability to repair them promptly.

The breakdown of recording thermometers results in failure to meet requirements of the order, even though the cream is actually held at the required temperatures. Cream held in storage for 28 days or longer is not physically suitable for Class II–A purposes unless held during such period in a frozen condition.

Exception was taken by the New York State Association of Refrigerated Warehouses to the proposed elimination from the Class II–B definition of the specific temperature requirements for cream held in storage as a condition for its classification in Class II–B. The reasons advanced in support of the exception were that the elimination of temperature requirements would jeopardize the maintenance of quality in storage cream, and open the door to abuses inconsistent with the objectives of the order. These reasons do not appear, on the basis of the evidence in the hearing record, to be sufficient to outweigh the advantages resulting from the elimination of the specific temperature requirements. The exception is not granted.

14. The proposal to classify frozen desserts as Class II–F on the basis of shipments to a warehouse as well as to a plant or purchaser in the II–F territory should not be adopted.

Adoption of this proposal would extend a privilege to ice cream manufacturers operating in the II–F territory which is not extended to manufacturers of other products or to ice cream manufacturers operating in other territories. To the extent that a warehouse is a point of storage rather than a point of distribution, as in the case of a plant or a purchaser, adoption of this proposal could have the effect of extending the period for establishing classification with respect to frozen desserts in the II–F territory.

Exception was taken by the Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers of New York State to the findings and conclusion No. 14 set forth in the recommended decision with respect to the classification of frozen desserts as Class II–F on the basis of shipments to a warehouse in the II–F territory, and to failure to make a different finding. Further analysis of the evidence in the record incident to the consideration of these exceptions fails to support revision of the recommended findings and conclusion. The exceptions are not granted.

15. The proposal to revise the Class II–E price formula by changing the figure "21.5" to "25.5" should not be adopted.

This proposal was withdrawn during the hearing by its proponent and no evidence was submitted in support of the proposal.

16. A new provision should be included in the order to provide for payment by handlers into the producer-settlement fund, and for later disposition, of payments due producers who cannot be located, and of payments concerning which dispute arises as to whether such payments are actually due producers.

This provision will assist in the administration of the order and more completely effectuate its terms and provisions.

17. The storage cream payment provision should be reworded as set forth in proposal No. 51.

Adoption of this proposal makes no substantive change in the order, but merely clarifies the present provision and more accurately describes the conditions under which storage cream payments are at present authorized.

18. The proposal for payment of interest on accounts past due to the producer-settlement fund and on monies unlawfully withheld by the market administrator should not be adopted at this time.

The absence of such a provision was not shown to have adversely affected the interests of producers or handlers. The record contains insufficient detail with respect to several questions involved, such as, the identity of monies unlawfully withheld by the market administrator and the date on which interest would begin to accrue.

General exception was taken on behalf of United Dairy Farmers' Division, District 50, United Mine Workers of America to the proposed findings as a whole, as set forth in the recommended decision, on the ground that they do not reflect the evidence received at the hearing. This exception was taken with no indication as to specific instances in which the recommended findings do not reflect evidence in the record. The exception is denied.

Exception was taken conditionally by the Milk Dealers' Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc., to the failure of the recommended decision to contain recommended rulings on certain findings and rulings proposed by that association dealing with questions of law and procedure. The exception was on the condition that the sentence, "These requested rulings of law were not shown to be material and necessary to the decision of any issue decided herein and they are accordingly not made herein", means final dismissal of the proposed findings and rulings. Since the above quoted sentence does not mean final dismissal but merely deferment of the requested rulings pending a decision on issues to which such requested rulings are shown to be material and necessary, it is considered that no exception has been taken to the failure to make the requested rulings at this time. A similar exception taken by the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc., likewise is denied for the same reasons.

19. General. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amendments to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amendments to the order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which the hearings have been held; and

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to § 2 and § 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feed, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed amendments to the order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the New York Metropolitan Milk Marketing Area" and "Order Amending the Order, As Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the New York Metropolitan Milk Marketing Area" which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order, Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the New York Metropolitan Milk Marketing Area [1]

§ 927.1 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearings and the record thereof, it is found that:

(a) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk and the minimum prices specified in the order as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Amend § 927.2 (d) (10) to read:

(10) The market administrator, shall from time to time, cause inspections to be made of the buildings, facilities and surroundings of the plant and shall notify handlers of his determination as to what constitutes the plan and its equipment. If any handler makes written request for such determination, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of his determination: Provided, That if the request is for a revised determination or for affirmation of a previous determination, the handler shall set forth in his request the changed conditions which he believes make a new determination necessary. Such determination shall be ruling for all purposes hereunder, and any revision in the determination of which handlers have been notified shall be effective not earlier than the date of notice to handlers of such revised determination.

2. Amend § 927.3 (a) (3) (ii) by adding the words: "or for shipment of approved skim milk from such plant" at the end of the proviso contained therein so that the proviso will read: "Provided, That approval by a health authority of the plant as a source of milk for the marketing area shall constitute sufficient evidence that this requirement is being met even though such approval is restricted to prohibit shipment to the marketing area of milk for specified periods during which permission is given by such health authority for receiving unapproved milk or skim milk at the plant or for shipment of approved skim milk from such plant; and"

3. Amend § 927.3 (b) by changing the first proviso therein to read: "Provided, That for the months of April, May, or June no plant at which milk was received from dairy farmers during the preceding period of October, November, and December shall be a pool plant on this basis, unless at least 60 percent of such milk was classified in Class I–A, and either directly, or through other plants, was sold or distributed in or shipped to the marketing area in the form of milk," and by adding at the end of § 927.3 (b) the following sentence: "At the time of announcing the uniform price for each month, the market administrator shall make public the location, and name of the operator, of any plant for which a report of receipts from dairy farmers was used, pursuant to this paragraph, in the computation of that uniform price."

4. Amend § 927.4 (a) (2) by changing the proviso contained therein to read: "Provided, That the holding of milk in the form of cream in a licensed cold storage warehouse for at least 7 days shall constitute that portion of the handling of such cream required pursuant to § 927.4 (c) (5) that is required to be performed during the month following its receipt from dairy farmers."

5. Amend § 927.4 (b) by deleting the two provisos contained therein and substituting the following:

Provided, That at any time upon a determination by the Secretary that an emergency exists which requires the immediate adoption of rules and regulations, the market administrator may issue, with the approval of the Secretary, temporary rules and regulations without regard to the following procedure:

Provided further, That if any interested person makes written request for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the market administrator shall within 30 days either issue notice of meeting pursuant to (1) of this paragraph or deny such request, and except in affirming a prior denial, or where the denial is self-explanatory, shall state the grounds for such denial.

6. Amend § 927.4 (c) (3) to read:

(3) Class I–C milk shall be all milk which leaves a plant as milk, or cultured or flavored milk drinks containing 3.0 percent butterfat or more, and which is ultimately distributed in an area not regulated by an order of the Secretary.

7. Amend § 927.4 (c) (5) to read as follows:

(5) Class II–B milk shall be all milk, except as set forth in (7), (8), and (9) of this paragraph, the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of plain condensed milk, frozen desserts or homogenized mixtures; or which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream which is subsequently held in a licensed cold storage warehouse for at least 28 days, and which is subject at all times to being inspected by a representative of the market administrator to determine the physical presence of the cream. After the first 7 days such cream may be moved from one licensed cold storage warehouse to another: Provided, That the market administrator receives notice of such removal within 7 days thereafter. Any handler whose report claimed the original classification of milk in this class shall be liable under the provisions of § 927.9 (e) for the difference between the Class II–B and Class II–A prices for the month in which the II–B classification was claimed on any such milk, if the storage of the cream does not comply with all the requirements of this subparagraph.

8. Amend § 927.5 (a) (1) by deleting that portion of such subparagraph preceding the table contained therein and by substituting therefor the following:

(1) Except as provided in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subparagraph, for Class I–A milk the price per hundredweight during each month shall be as set forth in the following table:

and by adding after the table contained therein the following three subdivisions:

(i) The Class I–A price for any of the months of March through June of each year shall not be higher than the Class I–A price for the immediately preceding month, and the Class I–A price for any of the months of September through December of each year shall not be lower than the Class I–A price for the immediately preceding month.

(ii) The Class I–A price shall not be less than $4.58 per hundredweight for the month of August 1947, and shall not be less than $5.02 per hundredweight for each of the months of September through December 1947.

(iii) The Class I–A price for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I–A price minus 44 cents, and the Class I–A price for February 1948 shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I–A price minus 44 cents.

9. Amend § 927.8 (a) by adding at the end thereof the following: "Provided That if a handler claims that he cannot make the required payment because the producer is deceased or cannot be located, or because the cooperative association or its lawful successor or assignee is no longer in existence, such payment shall be made to the producer-settlement fund, and in the event that a lawful claim is later established, the market administrator shall make such payment from the producer-settlement fund. Provided further, That, if not later than the date when such payment is required to be made, legal proceedings have been instituted by the handler for the purpose of administrative or judicial review of the market administrator's finding upon verification as provided above, such payment shall be made to the producer-settlement fund and shall be held in reserve until such time as the above-mentioned proceedings have been completed, or until the handler submits proof to the market administrator that the required payment has been made to the producer or association of producers, in which latter event the payment shall be refunded to the handler."

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

10. Amend § 927.9 (g) by deleting therefrom the words "and was used in Classes II-D, II-E, or II-F during the months of July to March, inclusive, or in Class IV-A during the months of January to March, inclusive." and by substituting therefor the words: "and was assigned, in accordance with the provisions of the rules and regulations issued by the market administrator pursuant to § 927.4 (b), to Classes II-D, II-E, or II-F during the months of July to March, inclusive, or to Class IV-A during the months of January to March, inclusive."

[7 CFR, Part 934]

HANDLING OF MILK IN LOWELL-LAWRENCE, MASS., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS WITH RESPECT TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area.

A hearing was held at Lawrence, Massachusetts, on March 20, 1947. Previously, a hearing was held at Boston on November 20, 1946, to consider amendments to Order No. 34, which had been proposed by cooperative associations of producers and by the Dairy Branch. Action has been taken with respect to all of the issues except one which were developed at that hearing. The issue upon which action has not been completed deals with contraseasonal changes in the Class I price which might occur as a result of the formula-determined price. A notice of recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to the issues developed at the March 1947 hearing and the open issue of the hearing held November 20, 1946, was published in the Federal Register May 30, 1947 (12 F. R. 3535). Exceptions have been filed to that recommended decision and were considered in arriving at the findings and conclusions contained herein.

Findings and conclusions. The issues which were listed in the notice and which were developed at the hearing in March 1947 are grouped under the following headings. The issue developed at the hearing held November 20, 1946, is included under the issue "Determination of Class I prices."

(1) Determination of Class I prices.
(2) Emergency price provision.
(3) Reports regarding individual producers.
(4) Reports of payments to producers.
(5) Maintenance of records by handlers.
(6) Expense of administration.
(7) Relationship between Class II prices in Boston and in Lowell-Lawrence.
(8) General.

Exceptions were filed on behalf of New England Milk Producers' Association and H. P. Hood and Sons, Inc. No exceptions were filed to the findings and conclusions contained in the aforesaid recommended decision with regard to issues (2), (4), (5), (6), and (7). The findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision on these issues are adopted as the findings and conclusions of this decision. With regard to the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision to which specific exception has been taken, this decision contains a ruling thereon in the discussion of the material issue to which the exception refers.

The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof.

(1) Determination of Class I prices. The butter-powder formula for determining the Class I price should be retained in its present form but minimum floor prices for the period from August 1947 through December 1947 should be provided and there should be a provision to prevent contraseasonal changes in the Class I price. The minimum floor price should be $5.23 per hundredweight in August 1947 and $5.67 for each of the months of September through December 1947. If the formula produces a price higher than $5.67 in August, September, October, or November, this price should continue to the end of the year. The maximum drop between December and January and between January and February should be 44 cents. These prices are in conformity with those set forth for the Greater Boston marketing area in a decision of the Secretary of Agriculture issued June 1947.

There is a serious need for encouraging a shift toward more fall production in New England. Minimum Class I floor prices are required for each month through December 1947 in order to assure a substantial rise in prices from the spring to the fall and thus develop a better seasonal pattern of production in this area.

The closeness of the Boston and Lowell-Lawrence marketing areas and the overlapping of milk sheds necessitate a close correlation of price plans and, consequently, of the actual Class I prices. Since it is possible for certain producers under Order No. 34 to shift to Boston city plants if the price there becomes more attractive, the basic Class I price under the Lowell-Lawrence order should reflect the higher differential now applicable at Boston city plants as a result of the increase in freight rates effective January 1, 1947. A handler excepted to the alignment of the Lowell-Lawrence Class I prices with the Class I prices established for Boston city plants, contending that the prices resulting from this alignment were not proposed, discussed, or supported at the hearing. This exception is without merit. The price proposal in the hearing notice was based upon this alignment, and the evidence clearly indicated that the Lowell-Lawrence Class I prices should be identical to the Class I prices at Boston city plants in order to discourage the shifting of producers between these two markets.

In 1946 a start was made in New England on a program of encouraging more milk in the fall months. The current prices and rates paid for feed, labor, and farm machinery are higher than last year. These factors indicate that the program to encourage more fall production may be seriously hampered unless producers are assured of absolute floor prices for the last quarter of 1947 as high as the floor prices established in 1946. Absolute floor prices should be established for July and August at 44 cents above the prices established for May and June to assure a seasonal rise this year on July 1. The short season rise in prices which should normally take place on October 1 should be advanced to September 1 this year in order to encourage feeding during the fall season to get more milk this fall. The current trend toward greater milk production this year with some indication of smaller Class I sales does not justify absolute floor prices for Class I milk for the last quarter of 1947 higher than the last quarter of 1946.

The uncertainty of economic conditions in the fall and winter requires a safeguard in addition to minimum floor prices on Class I milk. The butter-powder formula should be retained to give producers the benefit of any increase over the floor prices which may be justified by the prices of other dairy products and by the general price level in the fall and winter. The butter-powder formula should be modified to prevent contraseasonal price changes in the months just preceding or during the season of greatest shortage or seasonal flush production. Generally, the Class I price for any of the months of September through December of any year should not be lower than the Class I price in effect for the preceding month and the Class I price for the months of March through June of any year should not be higher than the Class I price in effect for the preceding month. The provision to prevent a contraseasonal price change will avoid nullification of the seasonal price plan by movements of the general price level. It is not considered advisable to provide for complete prevention of downward price movements in the last half of the year or upward price movements in the first half because such a provision would hold back unduly adjustments to the general price level.

Producers contended that the butter-powder formula method of determining the Class I price should be deleted entirely from the order and fixed prices substituted for it. Exact prices cannot be determined from this record for nine months to a year in advance. The present trend toward increasing production and decreasing consumption and the general uncertainty as to business conditions this fall and winter preclude a fixed guarantee of exact Class I prices. The present butter-powder formula will establish prices this fall above the floor prices named if conditions warrant higher prices, and will provide a method of pricing after December. If the rise in prices of butter and nonfat dry milk solids which took place in 1946 is repeated in 1947, the formula will establish prices as high as those established in November 1946.

(2) Emergency price provision. The emergency price provision should be revised to delete references to subsidies and maximum uniform prices which were wartime measures and are no longer in effect.

(3) Reports regarding individual producers. Subparagraphs (1), (3), and (4) of paragraph (c) and paragraph (d) of § 934.7 should be deleted. It is recommended that a new § 934.7 (c) be incorporated in the order and that it require submission of individual producer reports within seven days of the events specified.

Section 934.7 (c) (1) was originally put in the order for use in connection with base ratings. It has never been used and should be deleted. Section 934.7 (c) (3) provides for the reporting by handlers of a schedule of transportation rates and paragraph (c) (4) provides for the reporting of any changes in the rates charged to producers for moving their milk from the farm to the handler's plant. Section 934.7 (d) provides for the announcement of these rates and rate changes. The reporting, compilation, and publication of information on these transportation rates constitute a burden upon the market administrator and upon the handlers. The information is not sufficiently illuminating to justify the burden. Each producer is in a position to appraise his own rates and, if dissatisfied, can make changes in his hauling arrangements.

The order does not now provide specifically for the submission by handlers of reports respecting individual producers when they start or resume deliveries, move from one farm to another, or stop deliveries. This information is needed to facilitate the auditing of handlers' reports and is now being submitted but it is desirable that the order specifically require such information, the same as the Boston order does. The market administrator has a butterfat testing program under the Lowell-Lawrence order and needs to know promptly of any new producers who begin deliveries to handlers. On the other hand, requirement of such reports within a very short time might inflict a hardship on handlers, as indicated in the handler's exceptions. Under these circumstances, the requirement that such reports be submitted within seven days of the events specified is reasonable.

(4) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler should be required to submit his producer pay roll to the market administrator within five days after his request, made not earlier than 14 days after the end of the delivery period. For the sake of clarity this requirement should be a separate paragraph designated as § 934.7 (d).

A handler can meet the present requirements of § 934.7 (c) (2) by submitting his producer pay roll by the twenty-fifth of each month. Since under § 934.10 (a) a handler must pay producers by the eighteenth of each month, there is no reason why he should not be able to submit his pay roll at any time after the eighteenth of each month.

(5) Maintenance of records by handlers. Handlers should be required to maintain detailed and summary records which will show all receipts, movements, and disposition of milk and milk products.

The order does not now specifically require that records be maintained although proper verification of reports is not possible in the absence of adequate records. The requirement that adequate records be maintained should be set forth in the order so that it could be relied on in legal proceedings to compel a handler to maintain records.

(6) Expense of administration. The Lowell-Lawrence order should be made to conform with other Federal orders in providing that the Secretary, rather than the market administrator, determine the use of a lower assessment rate than the maximum provided under the order.

Inasmuch as the market administrator clears the use of a lower rate with the Secretary, it is proper that the Secretary's determination be recognized in the order.

Under § 934.12 (a) reference to assessments paid the market administrator by the Massachusetts Milk Control Board should be deleted. No such assessments have been paid for several years and no payments are contemplated.

Announcement of the assessment rate should be required only as the rate is changed. This is the present method and it has proved satisfactory.

In connection with this proposal, § 934.12 (b) should be deleted. This section expresses the right of the market administrator to maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of expense. As this provision is also made in the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act under section 10 (b) (2), it is unnecessary to restate the right in Order No. 34. The market administrator has never maintained a suit in his own name since the order first became effective.

(7) Relationship between Class II prices in Boston and in Lowell-Lawrence. Since no change is being recommended at this time in the regular Class II price under the Boston order, there is no question of making changes in the Class II price for Lowell-Lawrence market to correspond with changes in Boston.

Changes being recommended in the Boston order would require a rephrasing of § 934.8 (c) and § 934.9 (b) (2). These sections provide that the Lowell-Lawrence order shall not apply to milk fully subject to the Boston order. The new wording in these sections would preserve this effect.

(8) General. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which the hearings have been held; and

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feed, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, Marketing Area" and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, Marketing Area" which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order, Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, Marketing Area[1]

§ 934.1 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 C. F. R., Supps. 900.1 et seq.,

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), public hearings were held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearings and the record thereof, it is found that:

(a) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk and the minimum prices specified in the order as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. In § 934.6 (a) (1) delete the words "except that from the effective date hereof through February 1947 the price shall be not less than $5.70 per hundredweight: Provided, That for each delivery period or part thereof prior to February 1, 1947, which falls within any emergency period declared by market administrator of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston marketing area pursuant to § 904.3 (a) (14) of that order, the price shall be not less than $6.09."

2. Delete § 934.6 (a) (1) (iv) and substitute the following:

(iv) Subject to subdivisions (v), (vi), and (vii) of this subparagraph, the Class I price per hundredweight shall be as shown in the following table:

CLASS I PRICE SCHEDULE

Value computed pursuant to (iii) of this subparagraph (cents)		Class I price (dollars per cwt.)
At least—	But less than—	April through June	July through March
0	25	2.15	2.59
25	30	2.37	2.81
30	35	2.59	3.03
35	40	2.81	3.25
40	45	3.03	3.47
45	50	3.25	3.69
50	55	3.47	3.91
55	60	3.69	4.13
60	65	3.91	4.35
65	70	4.13	4.57
70	75	4.35	4.79
75	80	4.57	5.01
80	85	4.79	5.23
85	90	5.01	5.45
90	95	5.23	5.67
95	100	5.45	5.89
100	105	5.67	6.11

If the value computed pursuant to subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph is 105 cents or more the price shall be increased at the same rate as would result from an extension of this table.

3. Add three new subdivisions to § 934.6 (a) (1) as follows:

(v) The Class I price for any of the months of March through June of each year shall not be higher than the Class I price for the immediately preceding month; and the Class I price for any of the months of September through December of each year shall not be lower than the Class I price for the immediately preceding month.

(vi) The Class I price shall not be less than $5.23 per hundredweight for the month of August 1947 and shall not be less than $5.67 per hundredweight for each of the months of September through December 1947.

(vii) The Class I price for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I price minus 44 cents, and the Class I price for February 1948 shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I price minus 44 cents.

4. In § 934.6 add a new paragraph as follows:

(d) Use of equivalent prices in formulas. If for any reason a price for any milk product specified by this order for use in computing class prices and for other purposes is not reported or published in the manner described by the order, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price which is specified.

5. In § 934.7 renumber paragraph (e) as (f), delete paragraphs (c) and (d), and add new paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) to read as follows:

(c) Reports regarding individual producers. (1) Within 7 days after a producer moves from one farm to another, or starts or resumes deliveries to a handler's plant, the handler shall file with the market administrator a report stating the producer's name and post office address, the date on which the change took place, and the farm and plant locations involved. The report shall also state, if known, the plant to which the producer had been delivering immediately prior to starting or resuming deliveries.

(2) Within 7 days after the 5th consecutive day on which a producer has failed to deliver to a handler's plant, the handler shall file with the market administrator a report stating the producer's name and post office address, the date on which the last delivery was made, and the farm and plant locations involved. The report shall also state, if known, the reason for the producer's failure to continue deliveries.

(d) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler shall submit to the market administrator within 5 days after his request, made not earlier than 14 days after the end of the delivery period, his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer:

(1) The daily and total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof, and

(2) The net amount of such handler's payments to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(e) Maintenance of records. Each handler shall maintain detailed and summary records showing all receipts, movements, and disposition of milk and milk products during the month.

6. Revise § 934.8 (c) to read as follows:

(c) Milk subject to the Greater Boston order. The provisions hereof shall not apply, except as provided in § 934.5 and § 934.7, to the handling of milk which is received from a plant which is a regulated plant, as defined in the order of the Secretary regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area, or which is received from a person who is a producer, as defined in that order.

7. Revise § 934.9 (b) (2) to read as follows:

(2) Subtract any amounts which the handler is required to pay on such milk pursuant to those provisions of the order of the Secretary regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area (i) which require a handler under that order who operates an unregulated plant from which outside milk is disposed of to consumers in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area, without intermediate movement to another plant, to make payments to producers as defined in that order, through the administrator of that order, on the quantity so disposed of, and (ii) which require payments for administrative expense under that order; and

8. Delete § 934.12 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 934.12 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler, except as set forth in § 934.8 (a) shall, on or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, pay to the market administrator 4 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, with respect to all milk received by him during such delivery period, from producers from his own production, and with respect to milk or skim milk received from the type of handler described in § 934.8 (f) and moved to the marketing area.

9. Delete § 934.15.

BLACK DIAMOND STEAMSHIP CORP.

REGISTRATION OF HOUSE FLAG AND FUNNEL MARK

JUNE 30, 1947.

House flag and funnel mark of Black Diamond Steamship Corp. registered in accordance with § 3.81 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943.

The Commissioner of Customs, by virtue of the authority vested in him by section 7 of the act of May 28, 1908 (46 U. S. C. 49), as modified by section 102, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946 (11 F. R. 7875), and in accordance with § 3.81 (a) of the Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 3.81 (a)), has registered the house flag and funnel mark of the Black Diamond Steamship Corp. described below:

(a) House flag. The house flag is a square flag having a buff field; the hoist is 4 feet in height; the fly is 6 feet. Superimposed upon the buff field is a black diamond whose points bisect the four sides of the flag.

(b) Funnel mark. The mark is to appear on a buff-colored stack and consists of a black band around the top of the funnel .500 of funnel diameter in width; then .667 of the funnel diameter below that is a second black band .333 of the funnel diameter in width. Between these two bands and on a buff background are two black diamonds (one on each side of the funnel) with two of their points horizontal and with a gap of .046 funnel diameter between the horizontal points of the two diamonds at forward and after centers of the funnel and with a gap of .046 diameter of funnel between the vertical points of the diamond and the upper and lower bands. The sizes of these two diamonds are .954 of the funnel diameter between horizontal points and .575 of the funnel diameter between vertical points.

Colored scale replica drawings of the house flag and of the funnel mark described above are on file with the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

[Dissolution Order 55]

M. A. IRMISCHER, INC.

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 344, dated November 7, 1942 (7 F. R. 11033, December 29, 1942), and Supplemental Vesting Order No. 4284, dated November 6, 1944 (9 F. R. 13536, November 11, 1944), there were vested 89 of the 90 issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of M. A. Irmischer, Inc., a New York corporation; and

Whereas, the remaining 1 share of issued and outstanding capital stock is owned by Karl Vaitl, a citizen of the United States; and

Whereas, by said Vesting Order No. 344 there were also vested all right, title and interest of Max A. Irmischer, Saalfield, Germany, in and to an indebtedness owed him by M. A. Irmischer, Inc., and it has been determined that a certain obligation in the amount of $2,096.36 was thereby vested; and

Whereas, M. A. Irmischer, Inc. is indebted to the Attorney General of the United States, as successor to the Alien Property Custodian, for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation in the amount of $236.40; and

Whereas, M. A. Irmischer, Inc. is insolvent and has been substantially liquidated;

Now, under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Orders 9095, as amended, and 9788, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the claims of all known creditors have been paid, except such claim as the Attorney General of the United States has for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation; and except the claim formerly of Max A. Irmischer, in the amount of $2,096.36 and which was vested as aforesaid; and

2. Having determined that it is in the national interest of the United States that said corporation be dissolved and that its assets be distributed, and a certificate of dissolution having been issued by the Secretary of State of the State of New York; hereby orders that the officers and directors of M. A. Irmischer, Inc. (to wit: M. S. Watts, President and Director, Francis J. Carmody, Secretary and Director, and Robert Kramer, Treasurer and Director, and their successors, or any of them) continue the proceedings for the dissolution of M. A. Irmischer, Inc.; and further orders, that the said officers and directors wind up the affairs of the corporation and distribute the assets thereof coming into their possession as follows:

a. They shall first pay the current expenses and reasonable and necessary charges of winding up the affairs of the said corporation and the dissolution thereof; and

b. They shall then pay all known Federal, state and local taxes and fees owed by or accruing against the said corporation; and

c. They shall then pay over, transfer, assign, and deliver to the Attorney General of the United States all of the funds and property, if any, remaining in their hands after the payments as aforesaid, the same to be applied by him, first, in satisfaction of the vested claim against the corporation in the amount of $2,096.36, as hereinbefore described, and second, in satisfaction of such claim as he may have for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation;

and further orders, that nothing herein set forth shall be construed as prejudicing the right, under the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, of any person who may have a claim against the said corporation to file such claim with the Attorney General of the United States against any funds or property received by the Attorney General of the United States hereunder; Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating additional rights in such person; And provided, further, That any such claim shall be filed with or presented to the Attorney General of the United States within the time and in the form and manner prescribed for such claims by the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and applicable regulations and orders issued pursuant thereto; and further orders, that all actions taken and acts done by the officers and directors of M. A. Irmischer, Inc. pursuant to this order and the directions contained therein shall be deemed to have been taken and done in reliance on and pursuant to paragraph numbered (2) of subdivision (b) of section (5) of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and the acquittance and exculpation provided therein.

Executed at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1947.

NATIONAL SEED CO., INC.

Whereas, by Vesting Order Number 3454, dated April 17, 1944 (9 F. R. 5451, May 23, 1944), there were vested all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of The National Seed Company, Inc., a New York corporation; and

Whereas, by said Vesting Order No. 3454, there was also vested the interest of Algemeene Zaadteelt-en Handelmaatschappij, Roosendaal, Holland, in The National Seed Company, Inc., represented on the books and records of said company as an account payable, and it has been ascertained that a certain claim in favor of Algemeene Zaadteelt-en Handelmaatschappij in the amount of $11,430.62 was thereby vested; and

Whereas, The National Seed Company, Inc., has been substantially liquidated under the supervision of the undersigned.

Now, under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Orders 9095, as amended, and 9788, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the claims of all known creditors have been paid, except such claims, if any, as the Attorney General of the United States may have for money advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation; and except the claim formerly of Algemeene Zaadteelten Handelmaatschappij which has been vested as aforesaid; and

2. Having determined that it is in the national interest of the United States that the said corporation be dissolved, and that its assets be distributed, and a Certificate of Dissolution having been issued by the Secretary of State of the State of New York; hereby orders, that the officers and directors of The National Seed Company, Inc. (to wit, Robert Kramer, President and Director, Francis J. Carmody, Secretary and Director, and Martin S. Watts, Treasurer and Director, and their successors, or any of them), continue the proceedings for the dissolution of The National Seed Company, Inc.; and further orders, that the said officers and directors wind up the affairs of the corporation and distribute the assets thereof coming into their possession as follows:

(a) They shall first pay the current expenses and reasonable and necessary charges of winding up the affairs of said corporation and the dissolution thereof; and

ORANGE PETROLEUM CORP.

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 63, dated July 28, 1942, (7 F. R. 7045, September 5, 1942), and Vesting Order No. 1048, dated March 11, 1943 (8 F. R. 3644, March 24, 1943), there were vested all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Orange Petroleum Corporation, a Delaware corporation; and

Whereas, by said Vesting Order No. 63, there were also vested all right, title, interest and claim of Kawasaki Dockyard Company, Ltd., Kobe, Japan and or its successor, Kawasaki Heavy Industries, Ltd., Osaka, Japan, in and to all indebtedness owing to them or either of them by Orange Petroleum Corporation, and it has been ascertained that certain claims in the total amount of $1,409,072.73 were thereby vested; and

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 77, dated July 30, 1942 (7 F. R. 7048, September 5, 1942), there was vested all property of Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd., Kobe, Japan, as well as of its three American branches, and it has been ascertained that a certain claim against Orange Petroleum Corporation in the amount of $3,000.00 was thereby vested; and

Whereas, Orange Petroleum Corporation has been substantially liquidated;

Now, under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Orders 9095, as amended, and 9788, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the claims of all known creditors have been paid, except such claims, if any, as the Attorney General of the United States may have for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation, and except the claims which have been vested as aforesaid; and

2. Having determined that it is in the national interest of the United States that said corporation be dissolved, and that its assets be distributed, and a Certificate of Dissolution having been issued by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware; hereby orders, that the officers and directors of Orange Petroleum Corporation (to wit, Henry S. Sellin, President and Director, Stanley B. Reid, Vice-President and Director, and Robert Kramer, Secretary, Treasurer and Director, and their successors, or any of them), continue the proceedings for the dissolution of Orange Petroleum Corporation; and further orders, that the said officers and directors wind up the affairs of the corporation and distribute the assets thereof coming into their possession as follows:

(a) They shall first pay the current expenses and reasonable and necessary charges of winding up the affairs of said corporation and the dissolution thereof; and

(b) They shall then pay all known Federal, state and local taxes and fees owed by or accruing against the said corporation; and

(c) They shall then pay over, transfer, assign and deliver to the Attorney General of the United States, all of the funds and property, if any, remaining in their hands after the payments as aforesaid, the same to be applied by him, first, in satisfaction of the vested claims described above, second, in satisfaction of such claims, if any, as he may have for monies advanced or services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation, and third, as a liquidating distribution of assets to the Attorney General of the United States as holder of all the issued and outstanding stock of the corporation;

and further orders, that nothing herein set forth shall be construed as prejudicing the right, under the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, of any person who may have a claim against said corporation to file such claim with the Attorney General of the United States against any funds or property received by the Attorney General of the United States hereunder; Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating additional rights in such person; Provided, further, That any such claim against said corporation shall be filed with or presented to the Attorney General of the United States within the time and in the form and manner prescribed for such claims by the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and applicable regulations and orders issued pursuant thereto; and further orders, that all actions taken and acts done by the said officers and directors of Orange Petroleum Corporation, pursuant to this Order and the directions contained herein shall be deemed to have been taken and done in reliance on and pursuant to paragraph numbered (2) of subdivision (b) of section 5 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and the acquittance and exculpation provided therein.

Executed at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June, 1947.

Bureau of Land Management

[Misc. 1218080]

ARIZONA

PARTIAL REVOCATION OF PUBLIC WATER RESERVE NO. 107

JUNE 25, 1947.

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 10 of the act of December 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 865, 43 U. S. C. 300), and in accordance with 43 CFR § 4.275 (50) (Departmental Order No. 2325 of May 24, 1947, 12 F. R. 3566), it is ordered as follows:

The Departmental order of June 16, 1928 (Interpretation No. 69), construing certain lands as withdrawn by the Executive order of April 17, 1926, creating Public Water Reserve No. 107 under the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847, 43 U. S. C. 141), is hereby revoked as to the lands hereinafter described.

At 10:00 a. m. on August 27, 1947, the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 90 days from August 28, 1947, to November 26, 1947, inclusive, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject to (1) application under the homestead or the desert land laws, or the small tract act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. sec. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous preference-right filings. For a period of 20 days from August 8, 1947, to August 27, 1947, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on August 28, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on November 27, 1947, any of the lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from November 7, 1947, to November 26, 1947, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on November 27, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the District Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254), and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the desert land laws and the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the District Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona.

The lands affected by this order are described as follows:

GILA AND SALT RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 39 N., R. 3 E.,
Sec. 13, W½SW¼;
Sec. 14, SE¼.

The area described aggregates 240 acres.

The lands, which are within Grazing District No. 1, are desert in character and are located on the Kaibito Plateau.

IDAHO

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

JUNE 23, 1947.

Order dated November 29, 1946, and approved March 13, 1947, revoked Departmental order of December 22, 1903, so far as it withdrew in the second form prescribed by section 3 of the Reclamation Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), the lands hereinafter described within the Boise Project, Idaho, and provided that such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said order or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the lands described.

At 10:00 a. m. on August 25, 1947, the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 90 days from August 26, 1947, to November 24, 1947, inclusive, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject to (1) application under the homestead or the desert land laws, or the small tract act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. sec. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous preference-right filings. For a period of 20 days from August 6, 1947, to August 25, 1947, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on August 26, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on November 25, 1947, any of the lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from November 5, 1947, to November 24, 1947, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on November 25, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the District Land Office at Blackfoot, Idaho, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254), and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the desert land laws and the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the District Land Office at Blackfoot, Idaho.

The lands affected by this order are described as follows:

GREATER BOSTON, MASS. MARKETING AREA

ORDER DIRECTING THAT A REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG THE PRODUCERS SUPPLYING MILK; DETERMINATION THAT FEBRUARY 1947 IS A REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD; AND DESIGNATION OF AGENT TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM

Pursuant to section 8c (19) of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers (as defined in the amended order included in the decision with respect to proposed amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area issued simultaneously herewith) who, during the month of February 1947, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area, as defined in the aforesaid amended order, to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of an order which would regulate the handling of milk in the said marketing area in the same manner as provided by the aforesaid amended order.

The month of February 1947 is hereby determined to be a representative period for the conduct of such referendum.

R. D. Alpin is hereby designated agent to conduct such referendum in accordance with the instructions contained in Form Dr-14 and any other supplementary instructions that may be issued by the Director of the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration; and such referendum shall be completed on or before the 7th day after the date this order is issued.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1947.

TRANSPORTATION IN HIGH PRESSURE TANK CARS AND STORAGE OF SPECIFIED MATERIALS; APPROVAL OF HAULAGE REQUEST TR-3 AS AMENDED

The ATTORNEY GENERAL:

I submit herewith Haulage Request TR-3 [1] issued by the Civilian Production Administration on October 24, 1946, as amended by the Department of Commerce on June 18, 1947. Haulage Request TR-3 relates to the transportation in high pressure tank cars and the storage of anhydrous ammonia, liquefied petroleum gas and chlorine.

Pursuant to Executive Order 9841, dated April 23, 1947, I have succeeded to the powers of the Temporary Controls Administrator under section 12 of Public Law 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357). For the purposes of said section 12 I approve the request, as amended; and after consultation with you, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing or the omission to do any act or thing by any person in compliance with Haulage Request TR-3, as amended, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

W. A. HARRIMAN,
Secretary of Commerce.

JUNE 18, 1947.

[Haulage Request TR-3, as Amended June 18, 1947]

TRANSPORTATION IN HIGH PRESSURE TANK CARS AND STORAGE OF SPECIFIED MATERIALS

It is requisite to the prosecution of the war that the maximum amount of certain essential materials be delivered to essential industries with a minimum dislocation of the general economy, with a minimum of delay, and with a minimum of strain upon transportation facilities already severely taxed. This can best be accomplished through voluntary arrangements which permit materials to be consumed as near as may be to their source. Now therefore, it is hereby requested that:

SECTION 1. Purchases, sales, exchanges, and common use of facilities. All persons engaged in producing, supplying or distributing the materials listed on Schedule X hereto annexed (herein referred to as "Schedule X materials") may make such purchases, sales, exchanges or loans of Schedule X materials and arrange for such common use of transportation in high pressure tank cars and storage facilities as may be requisite or necessary in order to attain the most efficient utilization of such facilities. All such purchases, sales, exchanges or loans, and all such arrangements for common use of transportation in high pressure tank cars and storage facilities shall remain subject to review and adjustment by the Department of Commerce to the end (a) that no producer, supplier or distributor of any Schedule X material shall be deprived of an opportunity to share equitably in the available supply of such material and the use of transportation and storage facilities, (b) that no consumer shall be inequitably treated in the distribution of Schedule X materials, by reason of such arrangements, and (c) that such arrangements shall not go beyond the purpose and objective of this request.

SEC. 2. Reports. All persons who effect purchases, sales, exchanges or loans of Schedule X materials or arrangements for common use of transportation in high pressure tank cars and storage facilities pursuant to section 1 hereof, shall inform the Office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce by letter giving the following information:

1. Names and addresses of parties, including names and addresses of persons to whom inquiries concerning the report should be directed.
2. Effective date and duration of arrangement.
3. Kind and quantity of material involved.
4. Location of points of origin and destination of Schedule X materials to be shipped or location of storage facilities to be jointly used.
5. A statement that to the best of the informant's knowledge and belief, no supplier, distributor or producer of the material involved in the arrangement is or will be deprived by the arrangement of an opportunity to share equitably in the available supply and use of transportation and storage facilities.
6. A statement that to the best of the informant's knowledge and belief, no consumer of the material involved in the arrangement is or will be treated inequitably in the distribution of such material by reason of the arrangement.

A separate letter for each Schedule I material involved shall be filed. Further information may be specifically requested in particular cases.

SEC. 3. Certification of this request. Having consulted with the Attorney General, the Secretary of Commerce has amended Certificate 216, under section 12, Public Law 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), with respect to this Haulage Request TR-3, as amended.

SEC. 4. Communications. All communications concerning this request and all information filed hereunder shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C., Reference TR-3 (Specify Schedule X material).

SEC. 5. Time limit on making arrangements on this request. No arrangements pursuant to this request shall be entered into after September 15, 1947 and this request shall not extend to any purchase, sale, exchange, loan arrangement or act occurring after December 15, 1947 or after the withdrawal of this request if an effective date of withdrawal prior to December 15, 1947 is established.

Issued this 18th day of June 1947.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

WILLARD YORK CO.

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDINGS AND CANCELING REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of June A. D. 1947.

In the matter of Willard Harris York, doing business as Willard York Co., 419 South Texas Bank Building, San Antonio, Texas.

The Commission having instituted proceedings on April 7, 1947 to determine whether it was in the public interest to revoke the broker-dealer registration of Willard Harris York, doing business as Willard York Company, or to permit withdrawal thereof without conditions, and whether to suspend or to expel respondent from membership in the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.;

Hearings having been held and the hearing officer having recommended the revocation of respondent's registration;

The Commission having been advised of respondent's death following the filing of the hearing officer's recommended decision, and deeming it appropriate to dismiss the proceedings and to cancel the registration of Willard York Company;

It is ordered, That the proceedings be and they hereby are dismissed and that the registration of Willard Harris York, doing business as Willard York Company, be, and it hereby is, cancelled.

By the Commission.

VOLUME 12 NUMBER 132
Washington, Tuesday, July 8, 1947

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 24-2]

PART 24—MECHANIC CERTIFICATES

TEMPORARY CERTIFICATES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1947.

The Civil Air Regulations require an airman to have in his possession a certificate issued by the Administrator when performing the duties of an airman. After June 30, 1947, the Civil Aeronautics Administration will issue all regular certificates from the Washington office. Applicants who have completed the prescribed tests will be prevented from exercising the privileges of their certificates during the interval between successful completion of the tests and receipt of regular certificates unless a provision is made for the issuance of temporary certificates.

The purpose of this rule is to provide for the issuance of a valid interim certificate and to conform this rule with other airman certificate rules.

Effective June 27, 1947, Part 24 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended by adding a new § 24.33 to read as follows:

§ 24.33 Temporary certificates. The Administrator or his authorized representative may issue a temporary mechanic certificate for a period of not to exceed 90 days, subject to the terms and conditions specified therein by the Administrator. (52 Stat. 984, 1007; 49 U. S. C. 425, 551)

PART 25—PARACHUTE TECHNICIAN CERTIFICATES

TEMPORARY CERTIFICATES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1947.

The Civil Air Regulations require an airman to have in his possession a certificate issued by the Administrator when he is performing the duties of an airman. After June 30, 1947, the Civil Aeronautics Administration will issue all regular airman certificates from Washington, D. C. Thus, applicants for such certificates will be subjected to undue delay after successful completion of the prescribed tests, unless provision is made for the issuance of certificates valid while the regular certificates are being processed in Washington.

The purpose of this rule is to provide for the issuance of a valid interim certificate and to conform these rules to the other airman certification rules.

Effective June 27, 1947, Part 25 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

1. By amending § 25.70, Duration, to read as follows:

§ 25.70 Duration. A parachute technician certificate shall remain in effect unless it is suspended, or revoked, or until a general termination date for such certificate is fixed by the Board.

2. By adding a new § 25.701 to read as follows:

§ 25.701 Temporary certificates. The Administrator or his authorized representative may issue a temporary parachute technician certificate for a period of not to exceed 90 days, subject to the terms and conditions specified therein by the Administrator. (52 Stat. 984, 1007; 49 U. S. C. 425, 551)

Chapter IV—Home Owners' Loan Corporation

[Bulletin 437]

PART 404—TREASURY, HOME OFFICE

EMPLOYEE DEATH AND OTHER CLAIMS

Section 404.02-6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.02–6 Employee death and other claims. It is the responsibility of the Treasurer to submit to the General Accounting Office for settlement claims properly supported by an administrative report prepared by the Comptroller and concurred in by the Auditor, for proceeds of checks erroneously issued and covered by United States Treasury into "Outstanding Liabilities Account."

Claims for amounts due deceased or incompetent employees or creditors of the Corporation, claims for the proceeds of unpaid checks which have not been covered by the United States Treasury into "Outstanding Liabilities Account", and any other type of claim on behalf of such employees or creditors, shall be disbursed by the Treasurer of the Corporation upon certification by the Authorized Certifying Officer. Such claims shall be supported by an administrative report prepared by the Comptroller and concurred in by the Auditor, and a signed copy of the determination of the General Counsel as to the payee or payees entitled to the proceeds thereof.

PART 406—LEGAL DEPARTMENT

Sections 406.02c, 406.02–1 (b) and 406.02–4d are amended to read as follows:

§ 406.02c Reimbursement. Where the payment of any such fees or expenses is made by a salaried attorney, fee attorney, title company or trustee, an itemized statement covering such disbursements, certified to by any such attorney, title company or trustee, shall, when approved by the General Counsel, be accepted by the Authorized Certifying Officer as sufficient evidence of the disbursement for the purpose of reimbursing the attorney, title company or trustee by whom the moneys were paid or as settlement for funds advanced. Where the payment of any such fees or expenses is made by other than an attorney, title company or trustee, a properly certified voucher, or approval by the General Counsel, supported by receipts for all funds actually expended, shall be accepted by the Authorized Certifying Officer either as sufficient evidence of the disbursement for the purpose of reimbursing the individual payer or as settlement for funds advanced. The statement of the General Counsel as to the reason for the absence of any receipts, exclusive of tax receipts, shall be accepted by the Authorized Certifying Officer in lieu thereof.

§ 406.02–1 Regional Counsel's authority to incur expense. * * * (b) Where schedules of fees or expenses have been approved by the General Counsel and filed with the Authorized Certifying Officer and the Auditor, fees and expenses in excess of those authorized by such schedules shall be paid only when authorized or approved by the General Counsel.

§ 406.02–4d When receipts dispensed with. In cases where receipts are required in acounting for funds expended, the Regional Counsel may qualify any item or class of items of fees or expenses without receipts, either by assigning a reason for their absence on the voucher or by filing with the Authorized Certifying Officer a memorandum stating the reasons why it is not practical or possible to obtain receipts covering items within the particular class. But, in accounting for funds expended, all disbursements made in payment of real estate taxes or assessments must be supported by receipts, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

Chapter VIII—Office of Housing Expediter

[Housing Expediter Priorities Reg. 5 as Amended Feb. 13, 1947, Amdt. 4]

PART 803—PRIORITIES REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946

AUTHORIZATION AND PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR HOUSING

Section 803.5 Housing Expediter Priorities Regulation 5, as amended February 13, 1947, is amended in the following respects:

1. Add the following subparagraph at the end of paragraph (i):

(9) Effect of Housing and Rent Act of 1947. The requirements of this section with respect to the establishment or maintenance of maximum rents do not apply to any housing accommodations the construction of which is completed on or after February 1, 1947 (or to additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after that date), unless such accommodations are being rented to a veteran of World War II or his immediate family who, on June 30, 1947, either:

(i) Occupied such housing accommodations, or

(ii) Had a right to occupy such accommodations at any time on or after July 1, 1947, under any agreement, whether written or oral.

In addition, the requirements of this section with respect to maximum rents shall not apply after June 30, 1947, to any housing accommodations which are not in a defense-rental area under rent control maintained pursuant to Title II of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

2. Add the following subparagraph at the end of paragraph (j):

(6) Effect of Housing and Rent Act of 1947. The veterans' preference requirements of this section shall not apply to any housing accommodations which were completed after June 30, 1947. The veterans' preference requirements applicable to such accommodations are contained in the Veterans' Preference Regulation (12 F. R. 4265). For purposes of this subparagraph, the time at which construction of housing accommodations shall be deemed to be "completed" shall be the date on which the dwelling is first suitable for occupancy and all utility and service connections have been made, except for the installation of such items and the completion of such decoration work as, in accordance with the custom of the community, are left for installation by, or to the choice of, the purchaser or the tenant.

3. This amendment shall become effective on June 30, 1947, simultaneously with the approval by the President of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

PART 803—PRIORITIES REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946

EFFECT OF HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947

Section 803.11 Priorities Regulation 33, as amended February 28, 1947, is amended in the following respects:

1. Add the following subparagraph at the end of paragraph (g):

(9) Effect of Housing and Rent Act of 1947. The requirements of this section with respect to the establishment or maintenance of maximum rents do not apply to any housing accommodations the construction of which is completed on or after February 1, 1947 (or to additional housing accommodations created by conversion on or after that date), unless such accommodations are being rented to a veteran of World War II or his immediate family who, on June 30, 1947, either:

(i) Occupied such housing accommodations, or

(ii) Had a right to occupy such accommodations at any time on or after July 1, 1947, under any agreement, whether written or oral.

In addition, the requirements of this section with respect to maximum rents shall not apply after June 30, 1947, to any housing accommodations which are not in a defense-rental area under rent control maintained pursuant to Title II of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947.

2. Add the following subparagraph at the end of paragraph (h):

(6) Effect of Housing and Rent Act of 1947. The veterans' preference requirements of this section shall not apply to any housing accommodations which were completed after June 30, 1947. The veterans' preference requirements applicable to such accommodations are contained in the Veterans' Preference Regulation (12 F. R. 4265). For purposes of this subparagraph, the time at which construction of housing accommodations shall be deemed to be "completed" shall be the date on which the dwelling is first suitable for occupancy and all utility and service connections have been made, except for the installation of such items and the completion of such decoration work as, in accordance with the custom of the community, are left for installation by, or to the choice of, the purchaser or the tenant.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

[Rev. Gen. RO 5, Revocation]

PART 705—ADMINISTRATION

SUGAR RATIONING FOR INSTITUTIONAL USERS

Subject to section 5.1 of General Ration Order 8, Revised General Ration Order 5 (Sugar Rationing for Institutional Users) and all Sugar Rationing Administration suspension orders to the extent that they relate to sugar rationing for institutional users, are revoked.

This order of revocation shall become effective at 12:01 a. m. June 12, 1947.

Issued this 2d day of July 1947.

[Allocations Reg. 2, Revocation of Direction 3]

PART 945—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE ALLOCATIONS AND EXPORT PRIORITIES SYSTEM

PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR THE CANADIAN HOUSING PROGRAM

Direction 3 to Allocations Regulation 2 is hereby revoked.

Direction 3 was issued for the purpose of assigning priorities assistance to aid the Canadian Veterans' Housing Program by the issuance of RR preference ratings assigned only under the same conditions, and to the same extent that, and only so long as ratings were being assigned by the Housing Expediter for the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program in this country. The Housing Expediter has issued an amendment to Housing Expediter's Regulation 28, under which preference ratings will no longer be issued for the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program. Therefore, no RR ratings will be issued by the Office of Materials Distribution under Direction 3 to Allocations Regulation 2 and the direction is accordingly revoked.

Issued this 7th day of July 1947.

PART 3290—MANILA (ABACA) AND AGAVE FIBERS AND CORDAGE

[Conservation Order M–84, as Amended July 7, 1947]

MANILA (ABACA) AND AGAVE FIBER AND CORDAGE

Findings under sec. 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act. In connection with the issuance of the amendment of Conservation Order M–84, on July 7, 1947, as incorporated in the following order, and the revocation of Direction 1 and Direction 2 to Conservation Order M–84, at the same time, the Office of Materials Distribution, pursuant to sec. 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237), for good cause, finds that compliance with the notice, public rule-making procedures and effective date requirements of the said act is impracticable and unnecessary. The reasons therefor are that (a) processing quotas for binder and baler twine and agave rope would have to be issued immediately, unless those provisions of paragraph (c) providing for such processing quotas were deleted at once, and it is considered appropriate by the Office of Materials Distribution to eliminate such processing quotas for the future; (b) processing quotas under paragraph (c) of the order for Manila (abaca) fiber, and inventory restrictions for such fiber, have already been suspended by Direction 2 to Order M–84, issued May 2, 1947; (c) the amendment of the order has been discussed with members of the Cordage Industry Advisory Committee, including the Binder Twine Subcommittee and their recommendations have been considered; and (d) the time intervening between the date of applicability of said sec. 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, and the date when the said amendment and revocations must become effective, in order to avoid undue delay in the changes thereby made, and to avoid the issuance of the further processing quotas referred to above, is insufficient for such compliance. Therefore, the Office of Materials Distribution hereby takes the action of amending Conservation Order M–84 to read as set forth below and of revoking Direction 1 and Direction 2 to that order, as set forth in the revocation of those directions.

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of manila and agave and products made from them for defense for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3290.221 Conservation Order M–84. (a) Restrictions on sales, deliveries, receipts, and use of certain cordage products.—(1) Rope and twine (except binder and baler twine). No processor or dealer may sell, deliver, or accept delivery of new rope or new twine produced in the United States in whole or in part from Manila or agave, or from yarn made from such fibers, for end uses for which the rope or twine may not be manufactured under this order. However, this rule shall not prohibit the sale, delivery, or acceptance of rope made from agave fiber put into process before January 16, 1947 for any end use, or of those twines listed in Schedule B made from agave fiber put into process before March 25, 1947.

(2) Binder and baler twine. No person may sell or deliver new binder or new baler twine (wherever produced) if he knows or has reason to believe that:

(i) The binder twine will not be used with mechanical harvesting equipment or in the growing, harvesting, or delivering of agricultural crops, or that the binder twine will be converted into rope or any other product; or

(ii) The baler twine will not be used in a self-tying machine for baling hay, straw, or other fodder crops.

(3) No person may use new binder or new baler twine (wherever produced) to manufacture rope for sale.

(b) Purposes for which Manila or agave fiber or yarn may not be used.—(1) Manila. No processor may put into process any spinnable Manila fiber, or yarn made from such fiber (wherever produced) except to make rope for any end use, or twines permitted in Schedule B of this order, or binder and baler twine. Nonspinnable Manila fiber may be used for any purpose.

(2) Agave. No processor may put into process any agave fiber, or yarn made from such fiber (wherever produced), except to make rope for any end use, and binder and baler twine.

Except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by the Office of Materials Distribution, no processor may manufacture any binder or baler twine from agave fiber, unless made in accordance with the following specifications: The binder twine must measure 500 to 650 feet to the pound with a plus or minus tolerance of five per cent; and must contain a luubricant of at least ten per cent of the total weight of the twine, and an insect repellent. The baler twine must measure 200 to 300 feet to the pound with a plus or minus tolerance of five per cent; must contain a lubricant of at least ten per cent of the total weight of the twine, and an insect and rodent repellent.

(c) Quantities of manila and agave fibers which may be used. This order, as amended July 7, 1947, does not limit the quantities of the products permitted under paragraph (b) above, which any processor may produce. All processing quotas and all directions and authorizations for the use of extenders issued under this paragraph (c) are therefore hereby revoked.

(d) Inventory restrictions on Manila and agave cordage products.

(1) [Deleted July 7, 1947.]

(2) [Deleted July 7, 1947.]

(3) [Deleted July 7, 1947.]

(4) Inventories of rope and twines. A person buying new rope or new twines made from Manila or agave fiber, whether for use or resale (including a person buying for export) may not accept delivery of any of such materials if his inventory of that material is, or will be, more than a practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet his own deliveries or to supply his services on the basis of his current or scheduled method and rate of operation.

(5) Restriction on ordering more than needed. A person may not place any order for delivery of any material on earlier dates or in larger amounts than he would be permitted to receive under this order or any other applicable orders or regulations of OMD. Orders aggregating more than he is allowed to receive may not be placed with different suppliers even though he intends to cancel one or more of them before delivery.

(6) Adjusting outstanding orders when requirements change. If because of a change in operations, slowing or stoppage of production, delayed delivery by a supplier, or any other change in requirements, a person who has ordered material for future delivery would, if he accepted delivery on the date specified, exceed the limits prescribed by this order, he must promptly adjust his outstanding orders, and if necessary, postpone or cancel them.

(e) Distribution of binder twine held by Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The Office of Materials Distribution may from time to time specifically direct the time and quantities in which deliveries of binder twine held by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall be made or withheld, and the purposes for which such deliveries may be made.

(f) Allocation of agave fiber held by RFC. (1) The Office of Materials Distribution may from time to time allocate to processors such supplies of agave fiber as are held by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and specifically direct the time, manner, and quantities in which deliveries to processors shall be made or withheld.

(2) It will be the general policy of the Office of Materials Distribution to allocate such fiber with the primary objective of assuring, insofar as possible with the limited quantities of agave fiber available, the production of binder and baler twine in the quantities and by the time required for the agricultural crop seasons, but with due regard to the requirements for rope, as well as the expanding need for baler twine. Within the aggregate amounts of fiber to be allocated for binder and baler twine, and for rope, allocations will in general be made in proportion to the base period operations of individual processors, subject to any exceptional conditions (such as any substantial increase or decrease in facilities) which may justify a different proportion. The allocations made according to base period operations will be without regard to any quantities of Manila (abaca) or agave fiber which processors may obtain from other sources. The base periods to be used are explained below.

(3) The total allocations of agave fiber for use in making binder and baler twine will in general be pro-rated among processors in proportion to their respective production of binder and baler twine during the period August 1, 1946 through July 31, 1947.

(4) The total allocations of agave fiber for use in making rope will in general be pro-rated among processors in proportion to their respective average monthly sales of agave (sisal) cordage during the period January 1, 1939 through December 31, 1941. The aggregate allocations of fiber will be limited, and be determined from the requirements for rope.

(5) In those cases where the allocation to a particular processor would be less than a freight carload, one carload will be considered a minimum quantity and be allocated whenever feasible.

(6) A manufacturer who was not in the hard fiber cordage business during the periods referred to in paragraph (f) (3) or (f) (4) above may apply to the Office of Materials Distribution for an allocation of agave fiber. The application should be filed by letter stating the quantity of fiber desired to be processed for each permitted product, and should include a statement of the facilities available for the manufacture of cordage products permitted under this order, the maximum poundage of fiber which can be processed with his facilities on the basis of a 40-hour week, and the minimum poundage of fiber needed for economical operation during a 3-month period. Applications from new manufacturers will be considered on an equitable basis, in view of the allocations issued to other manufacturers, and other pertinent circumstances.

(7) Since the only fiber to be allocated under this paragraph (f) will be that held by RFC, the amounts allocated will be limited; and such additional amounts of agave fiber (or of manila fiber) as a processor may wish to obtain for making permitted products must be obtained from other sources without allocations.

(8) Agave fiber allocated for use in making binder or baler twine may be used only for that purpose, and fiber allocated for making rope may be used only for making rope, unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Office of Materials Distribution. However, No. 1 agave tow which has been allocated under this order may be used or disposed of for any purpose, unrestricted by this order or by AR–1.

(g) End use information. No person may sell or deliver any product controlled by this order to any person who he knows or has reason to believe will use the product in a manner which this order does not permit. He should satisfy himself as to this in some reasonable manner before delivering. He may, but need not, require a statement in writing showing the specific purpose or use for which the item is ordered.

(h) Restrictions on the use of damaged material. Any processor or dealer who has in his possession damaged or defective manila or agave fiber or cordage, may report by letter the extent of the damage and state to the Office of Materials Distribution the percentage not suitable for the manufacture of products or for use permitted by this order. He may then upon receipt of acknowledgment, without objection from the Office of Materials Distribution, use or dispose of any portion unsuitable for the manufacture of products permitted by this order, free from its restrictions.

(i) Reports. (1) Processors of manila and agave fiber shall report monthly on OMD–2901, sections 1 and 2.

(2) Every person, except the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, who imports or purchases for import any spinnable Manila fiber, or yarn made from Manila fiber, or any spinnable agave fiber, or yarn made from agave fiber, shall report in writing (by letter or other written communication) to the Office of Materials Distribution, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–84, stating the information required by the following instructions:

(i) Send this report to the above address not later than the 10th of each month to cover the preceding month. Keep one copy for your files. Date the report, state calendar month for which filed, name of your company, and its address (street, city, zone, and state).

(ii) As Item No. 1, list Manila (Abaca) Fiber (in bales); as Item No. 2, list Manila Yarn (in thousands of pounds; as Item No. 3, list Agave (Sisal) Fiber (in bales); and as Item No. 4, list Agave (Sisal) yarn (in thousands of pounds).

(iii) For each item, show separately the monthly shipments to you from any foreign countries during the calendar month covered by the report, and your inventory of each item as of the end of the month, for United States consumption. List separately that which is afloat to the United States, and that which is in the United States. For the purpose of this report (although not under paragraph (d) above), inventory includes fiber and yarn afloat, and on hand in the continental United States, where title has not been transferred to some other person (or in the case of an importer who is also a processor, all fiber and yarn afloat, and all within the continental U. S. except that held in this country for his own use). Report in units of bales on fiber, and in thousands of pounds on yarn.

(iv) To avoid partial duplication in reports by processors and importers, if a quantity of fiber in the United States has been sold and the sales invoice for it sent the purchaser during the calendar month, the seller should exclude it from his report, even though physical transfer has not been completed. Similarly, the purchaser should include in his report fiber invoiced to him during the month, even though still in transit to him at the end of the month.

(j) Imports. The provisions of this paragraph (j) replace those in General Imports Order M–63, insofar as that order has applied to materials subject to this paragraph. However, authorizations for the importation of such materials issued under Order M–63 shall continue to have the same force and effect as if issued under this Order M–84.

(1) Definitions. For the purposes of this paragraph (j):

(i) "Fibers subject to import control under this order" means any of the following materials: agave fibers, unmanufactured (except flume tow and bagasse waste), cantala (except maguey), unmanufactured, and sisal and henequen, unmanufactured (except agave tow No. 1 and No. 2 grades, flume tow and bagasse waste).

(ii) "Owner" of any material means any person who has any property interest in such material except a person whose interest is held solely as security for the payment of money.

(iii) "Consignee" means the person to whom a material is consigned at the time of importation.

(iv) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States. It includes shipments into a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments into the continental United States for processing or manufacture in bond for exportation. It does not include shipments in transit in bond through the continental United States without processing or manufacture, to Canada, Mexico or any other foreign country, or shipments through a free port or free zones to a foreign country without processing or manufacture.

(v) Material shall be deemed "in transit" if it is afloat, if an on board ocean bill of lading has actually been issued with respect to it, or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States.

(2) Restrictions on imports.—(i) General restriction. No person, except as authorized in writing by the Office of Materials Distribution shall purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any fibers subject to import control under this order. The foregoing restrictions shall apply to the importation of any fibers subject to import control under this order regardless of the existence of any contract or other arrangement for the importation of such material.

(ii) Authorization by Office of Materials Distribution. Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form OMD–1041 addressed to the Office of Materials Distribution Ref: M–84, Washington 25, D. C. Unless otherwise expressly permitted, such authorization shall apply only to the particular material and shipment mentioned therein and to the persons and their agents concerned with such shipment; it shall not be assignable or transferable either in whole or in part.

(iii) Restrictions on financing of imports. No bank or other person shall participate, by financing or otherwise, in any arrangement which such bank or person knows or has reason to know involves the importation of any fibers subject to import control under this order, unless such bank or person either has received a copy of the authorization issued by the Office of Materials Distribution under the provisions of paragraph (j) (2) (ii) or is satisfied from known facts that the proposed transaction comes within the exceptions set forth in paragraph (j) (2) (iv).

(iv) Exceptions. Unless otherwise directed by the Office of Materials Distribution, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph (j) (2) shall not apply:

(a) To the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, U. S. Commercial Company, Commodity Credit Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for any such department, agency or corporation; or

(b) To any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, or to any material which the owner at the time of importation had purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation; or

(c) To any material consigned or imported as a sample where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $25.00.

(3) Reports.—(i) Reports on customs entry. No fibers subject to import control under this order, including materials imported by or for the account of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, U. S. Commercial Company, Commodity Credit Corporation or any other United States governmental department, agency or corporations, shall be entered through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose, unless the person making the entry shall file with the entry Form OMD–1040 in duplicate. The filing of such form a second time shall not be required upon any subsequent entry of such material through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose; nor shall the filing of such form be required upon the withdrawal of any material from bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs, regardless of the date when such material was first transported into the continental United States. Both copies of such form shall be transmitted by the Collector of Customs to the Office of Materials Distribution, Ref.: M–84, Washington 25, D. C.

(ii) Other reports. All persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to any fibers subject to import control under this order, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise, shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the Office of Materials Distribution.

(k) Definitions. In this order:

(1) "Manila" means fiber which is commonly known in the trade by this term and also known as Abaca or Manila Hemp wherever grown (either stripped or decorticated), but does not mean processor's mill waste or bagasse. "Spinnable Manila" means Manila which is spinnable over machinery but does not mean the fiber grades of O, T, Y, and W or equivalent as established by the Insular Government of the Philippine Islands.

(2) "Agave" means fiber spinnable over machinery of the species agave sisalana, agave fourcroydes, and agave cantala, of all grades and quantities including tow and fiber under 20" in length, commonly known in the trade as sisal, henequen, and cantala, and sometimes preceded by an adjective designating the country or district of origin, but does not include processor's mill waste, bagasse, maguey or agave tow No. 1 and 2 grades.

(3) "Rope" means any rope or cable, treated or untreated, composed of three or more strands each strand composed of two or more yarns, and not less than 10 percent cordage lubricant (excluding tent, awning and lariat rope), but does not include strings and twines of whatever construction which are commonly used for tying, sewing, baling or other commercial packaging use.

(4) "Twine" means any single or plied yarn or roving, including marlin, for use as a tying material, for sewing or for any similar purpose, but does not include any product falling within the definition of "rope" "binder twine" or "baler twine."

(5) "Binder twine" means a single yarn twine usually containing agave, but sometimes containing manila, istle, jute, coir, hemp, cotton or paper, suitable for use in a harvesting machine and of the type customarily heretofore manufactured. It is also known as binding twine.

(6) "Baler twine" means a single yarn usually made of agave fiber and used in a self-tying machine for baling hay, straw or other fodder crops.

(7) "Processor" means any person (other than a United States Government agency) who spins, twists or otherwise uses any fiber or yarn in the manufacture of rope or twine, or who uses manila or agave fiber in the manufacture of any other product.

(l) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order should be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(m) Applicability of regulations. Except as specifically otherwise provided this order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the Office of Materials Distribution as amended from time to time.

(n) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Office of Materials Distribution.

(o) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Office of Materials Distribution, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M–84.

(p) The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 7th day of July 1947.

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 2—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Paragraph (a) of § 2.11 Firearms, etc., is amended to read as follows:

(a) Explosives, traps, seines, nets, and loaded or assembled firearms are prohibited within the parks and monuments, except upon the written permission of the superintendent, or his authorized representative, unless they are adequately sealed, cased, broken down, or otherwise packed in such a way as to prevent their use while in the area: Provided, however, That visitors entering the parks and monuments, or traveling through them to places beyond, shall, at entrance, report all such objects in their possession and, if required to do so in the interest of special park protective measures, surrender them to the first park or monument officer whom they encounter. Such objects as may be surrendered will be returned to the owners upon their departure from the area. The Government, however, assumes no responsibility for the loss of, or damage to, any such objects so surrendered to any park or monument officer, nor are such officers authorized to accept the responsibility or custody of any other property for the convenience of visitors.

2. Paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 2.31 Private operations, are amended to read as follows:

(c) No person, firm, or corporation shall construct, or attempt to construct, a telephone line, telegraph line, power line, or other private or public utility, over, through, or under any parkway lands without a revocable permit from the Director or, when authorized by the Director, the appropriate Regional Director as designated in sections 01.30 and 01.82 of this chapter.

(d) No person, firm, or corporation shall construct, or attempt to construct, a road, trail, path, or other way, over, across, or upon any parkway lands without a revocable permit from the Director or, when authorized by the Director, the appropriate Regional Director as designated in §§ 01.30 and 01.82 of this chapter.

3. Section 20.14 Great Smoky Mountains National Park, is amended as follows:

Subparagraph (1) North Carolina Division of paragraph (a) Fishing; open and closed waters, is amended by placing a period after the words "Raven Fork from mouth to Indian Boundary" and deleting the words "and from Indian Boundary to Three Forks."

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Corr. S. O. 760]

PART 97—ROUTING

REROUTING OF TRAFFIC

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that floods have washed out the tracks on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company at 43 places between Osceola and Burch, Iowa; that the complete restoration of service on the eleven (11) mile segment of track between Osceola and New Virginia, Iowa will be made shortly but that due to emergency work elsewhere the restoration of the forty-two (42) mile segment of track between New Virginia and Burch, Iowa, will not be completed for some time; the Commission is of opinion that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company is unable to transport the traffic offered it to, from or between points on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch so as to properly serve the public and that handling, routing and movement of this carrier's traffic (including trains) over the Chicago Great Western Railway Company's track (over a temporary track connecting the former's and latter's tracks) between Afton Junction and Burch, Iowa, will best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. It is ordered, that:

§ 97.760 Rerouting. (a) The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad

Company shall handle, route and move its traffic (including trains) originating or terminating at points on the Des Moines-Osceola Branch between Burch and Des Moines, Iowa inclusive, over the Chicago Great Western Railway Company's track (over a temporary track connecting the former's and latter's tracks) between Afton Junction and Burch, Iowa.

(b) Compensation. The handling, routing and movement of traffic ordered and described in paragraph (a) of this section shall be upon such terms as between the carriers as they may agree upon or in the event of their disagreement as the Commission may, after subsequent hearing find to be just and reasonable.

(c) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply to intrastate and foreign traffic as well as interstate traffic.

(d) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as such disregard of routing is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic so forwarded by routes other than those designated by shippers, or by carriers shall be the rates which were applicable at date of shipment over the routes so designated.

(e) Division of rates. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this section, common carriers affected shall proceed, even though no division agreements are in effect, over the routes authorized; divisions shall be, during the time this section remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of said carriers to so agree, the divisions shall be hereinafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. If division agreements now exist on the traffic affected, over the routes herein authorized they shall not be changed or affected by this section.

(f) Effective date. The provisions of this section shall become effective at 6:00 p. m., June 27, 1947.

(g) Expiration date. The provisions of this section shall expire at 6:00 p. m., August 31, 1947, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That copies of this order and direction shall be served upon the Iowa State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Part 20]

GLIDER FLIGHT TIME

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

JULY 2, 1947.

The use of airplane tow in the training of glider pilots is becoming more and more extensive. With this type of training it is more equitable to log the time of flight in terms of hours and minutes rather than in terms of number of flights.

The purpose of this section is to provide a more equitable means of logging glider time by providing that an applicant for a glider rating can log glider time either in terms of number of flights or in terms of hours and minutes.

Therefore, the following amendments to Part 20 of the Civil Air Regulations are proposed.

1. By amending § 20.25 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.25 Aeronautical experience.

(b) Glider. Applicant for a glider rating shall have had at least 100 gliding flights or 10 hours of glider flight time, including at least 50 take-offs and landings. As part of the foregoing requirement, at least 25 flights must have included a 360° turn.

2. By amending § 20.35 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.35 Aeronautical experience.

(b) Glider. Applicant shall have had at least 250 gliding flights or 25 hours of glider flight time including at least 125 take-offs and landings. At least 5 flights must have been made within 60 days preceding the date of application. Applicant also shall have had at least one hour of flight instruction in recovery from stalls and spins. An applicant who is the holder of a private or commercial rating for powered aircraft who has had not less than 100 gliding flights or 10 hours of glider flight time including at least 50 take-offs and landings, will be deemed to have met the requirements of this section.

These regulations are proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, the Safety Bureau of the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby gives notice that the Bureau will recommend to the Board that these amendments be adopted with an effective date 30 days after adoption. It is the desire of the Bureau that those interested submit written comments or suggestions regarding the proposed amendment, addressed to the Safety Bureau, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C., for receipt within 30 days from date of this public notice.

(52 Stat. 984, 1007; 49 U. S. C. 425, 551)

ANNA UHL ET AL.

In re: Bank accounts owned by Anna Uhl and others.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That each individual, whose name is set forth in Exhibit A, attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, whose last known address is Germany, is a resident of Germany and a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the property described as follows: That certain debt or other obligation owing to each individual, whose name is set forth in Exhibit A, by The First National Bank of Chicago, Dearborn, Monroe and Clark Streets, Chicago, Illinois, arising out of the savings accounts, described in the manner set forth in Exhibit A, and any and all rights to demand, enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by, the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany); and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the persons referred to in subparagraph 1 hereof are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on May 21, 1947.

For the Attorney General.

[P. & S. Docket No. 435]

MARKET AGENCIES AT UNION STOCK YARDS, DENVER, COLO.

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF TEMPORARY RATES

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), the Judicial Officer issued an order on June 5, 1947, effective July 1, 1947, providing for certain temporary rates and charges for the respondent market agencies for a period ending June 30, 1948.

By a petition filed June 20, 1947, the respondents have requested modification of the current order so as to be authorized to file and establish the following tariff:

DENVER LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE

TARIFF NO. 11

Article 1—Definitions

Cattle are animals of the bovine species weighed in drafts the average weight of the animals in which is over 400 pounds.

Calves are animals of the bovine species weighed in drafts the average weight of the animals in which is 400 pounds or under.

Bulls are animals of the bovine species sold for slaughter or as feeders weighed in drafts the average weight of the animals in which is 800 pounds or over.

Hogs are all swine, irrespective of weight.

Sheep are all animals of the ovine species and, for purposes of assessing charges in this tariff, include goats.

A consignment, for the purpose of assessing selling charges, is all the livestock of one species belonging to one owner and delivered to one market agency to be offered for sale during the trading hours of one day.

A consignment, for the purpose of assessing buying charges, is all the livestock of one species bought at any time but shipped to or delivered to one person on one market day.

A draft is all the animals of one consignment weighed as a single sales classification.

A person is an individual, a partnership, a corporation and/or an association of any such acting as a unit.

NOTE: For the purpose of assessing charges under Section B in this tariff, cattle, calves and bulls are to be considered as belonging to different species.

Article 2—Selling Charges

Rams for breeding purposes	1.00

NOTE: The commission charged for selling the animals arriving in a consignment of one straight car of single ownership shall not exceed what they would have been had the animals arrived in any other manner. On consignment of two or more straight cars of single ownership charges shall be assessed as provided in Section A.

(a) When two or more 36-foot cars are furnished in lieu of longer cars ordered, the basis for such commission charges shall be that provided in Section B not to exceed the charges applicable under Section A, based on the number of cars containing the animals when they arrive at the market.

(b) When a consignment consists of a trailer car in addition to any number of revenue cars the entire consignment shall be assessed on the basis of Section B, not to exceed the rates applicable under Section A to the number of cars in the consignment.

(c) When single-deck cars are furnished in lieu of double-deck car or cars ordered each two single-deck cars shall be considered to be a double-deck car and charges thereon assessed under Section A.

(d) Where not to exceed two animals of different ownership are contained in a single owner consignment, the consignment shall be considered to be a single owner consignment and charges shall be assesed on that basis; in addition thereto the rates under Section B shall be assessed against the other ownership animals.

Section C

The sale of "plants", or livestock which have been previously weighed and on which a commission has been charged for regularly established and registered traders at the Denver Union Stock Yards, will be charged for according to the regular rate of commission.

Article 3—Extra Service Charges

The following Extra Service Charges are applicable to all species:

Section A

When a buyer who has purchased livestock from a commission firm requests any service and/or assistance, and/or elects to have the firm place billing order or orders and service is actually rendered, one-fourth of the regular buying commission shall be charged for such service. This service charge shall not be assessed to purchasers of registered or purebred cattle bought for breeding purposes during the week of the Stock Show, or when regular buying commission is charged.

Section B

For each additional weight draft over 3, on account of sales classification	$0.15
For each additional check, each additional account of sales, each proceeds deposited or bank credit, over 2	$0.05

Article 4—Buying Charges

Section A

The rates for buying livestock of the various species shall be the same as those for selling like species.

Section B

When livestock bought from other firms by the purchaser himself is paid for and/or picked up and/or billed out or any other assistance is rendered in the purchase of the stock, the regular buying commission shall be charged to the buyer.

Section C

No person doing a livestock commission business is to act in the dual capacity of buyer and seller on any shipment of livestock consigned to him, with the exception of fat sheep and fat lambs.

Article 5—Deductions Made by Selling Agencies at Denver for the Account of Others

(a) For the Colorado-Nebraska Lamb Feeders Association, for the Colorado Wool Growers Association and for the Colorado Stockgrowers and Feeders Association, such assessments on livestock consignments of their members may be levied by the respective bodies from time to time, the names of said members to be filed with the respective firms. Such collections, however, to be optional with each of said member shippers.

(b) For the Colorado Board of Live Stock Inspection Commissioners, 5 cents per head on all cattle originating in said state when such inspection fee has not been paid at loading point, for the purpose of providing proper brand inspection on such shipments.

(c) For the National Live Stock and Meat Board, 25 cents per straight cars (single ownership on all consignments) of cattle and hogs, and 75 cents on all consignments of sheep to be sold on this market. Such collection, however, to be optional with shippers. Commensurate charges for all other modes of arrival.

(e) For the building fund of the National Western Stock Show Association, in compliance with its rules and regulations, subscription to the fund shall be made on the basis of a schedule as set forth below:

1. 1½% on all registered cattle sold at auction or at private sale. This will include all Hereford, Shorthorn and Angus breeding cattle entered in competition or exhibited on the hill property or in the yard.

2. $10.00 per carload on feeder or fat cattle sold. This charge will apply on all feeder and fat cattle sold through the show auction, except ordinary commercial cattle not entered in the show.

3. $10.00 per carload on all carloads sheep (110 head) and $5.00 per truckload sheep (25 head) exhibited and sold.

4. $1.00 per head on Junior Show Cattle; 50 cents per head on Junior Sheep and Hogs.

5. The above subscriptions, however, shall be subject to refund within a reasonable time, not more than sixty (60) days, in the event such request is made by the subscriber in writing.

(f) For fire insurance coverage on livestock exhibited at the National Western Stock Show during the week of Stock Show the following charges shall be made and deducted:

	Per head
Breeding cattle and fat steers	$0.50
Nurse Cows	.50
Breeding sheep	.20
Junior Show sheep and hogs	.20

(g) There shall be collected in addition to the regular selling commission on all livestock passing through the sales ring of the Denver Union Stock Yards, an auctioneer fee as hereinafter provided:

During Stock Show Week

Cattle or calves: $1.00 for each individual head.
Cattle or calves: $3.00 for each carload.
Lots of three head or more sold together to be assessed at the carload rate.
Fat wethers and barrows: $0.50 per head
More than six head of either hogs or sheep to be assessed at carload rate of $3.00 provided they are sold as a group.
On all carloads of livestock that are put through the auction sales ring during Stock Show Week, the regular selling commission shall be charged by the market agency when said livestock are offered for sale.
4-H Club Sales and Future Farmers of America Sales at Auction Other Than During Stock Show Week
Cattle or calves: $0.50 for each individual head.
Cattle or calves: $2.50 when sold in groups of five or more.

Authorization of the filing of this tariff would increase the commission charges paid by shippers for selling carloads of cattle, calves, bulls, and sheep by $1.50 per straight car and thus provide additional revenue to the respondents.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to the public and to all interested persons of the filing of such petition for modification of temporary rates and charges.

All interested persons who desire to be heard upon the matter requested in said petition shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Copies hereof shall be served upon the respondents by registered mail or in person.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July 1947.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-1549]

ROCHESTER GAS AND ELECTRIC CORP.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 27th day of June 1947.

Notice is hereby given that Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation ("Rochester"), a subsidiary of General Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an application, as amended, with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). Applicant has designated the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

All interested persons are referred to said application, as amended, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed which is summarized as follows:

Rochester will, from time to time, issue its unsecured notes, each of which will bear interest in an amount not to exceed 2% per annum, will mature not more than nine months after the date of issue thereof, and which (together with all other then outstanding unsecured notes of a maturity of nine months or less) will aggregate in principal amount not more than $8,000,000. Rochester requests that the issuance of such notes be exempted by order of the Commission pursuant to the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act and that such exemption, with request to the initial issuance of such notes, be for a period of two years from the date on which such exemption may be granted. The proceeds from the initial issuance of such notes are to be used for new construction.

Applicant states that no commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application, as amended, and that said application, as amended, shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 6 (b) and 18 of the act, that a hearing be held on said application, as amended, on July 10, 1947, at 10:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before July 9, 1947, a written request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Public Utilities Division of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application, as amended, and that, on the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether or not the requested exemption pursuant to the provisions of the first sentence of section 6 (b) is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

(2) What terms and conditions, if any, with respect to the requested exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, and, in particular, what, if any, terms and conditions are necessary or appropriate to protect the financial integrity of Rochester.

It is further ordered, That at said hearing evidence shall be adduced with respect to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation, the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, and the City of Rochester, New York and that notice of said hearing shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Subchapter K—Federal Seed Act

PART 201—FEDERAL SEED ACT REGULATIONS

KENTUCKY BLUEGRASS SEED; EXEMPTION OF LABELING REQUIREMENTS

It having been found that the time interval between seed harvesting and sowing is not sufficient to assure the completion of a germination test of freshly harvested seed of Kentucky bluegrass, Poa pratensis, now therefore pursuant to the provisions of section 203 (c) of the Federal Seed Act of August 9, 1939 (53 Stat. 1275; 7 U. S. C. 1573 (c)), the following regulation is hereby promulgated:

Exemption from labeling as to germination of Kentucky bluegrass seed. The requirements of paragraph 201 (a) (8) of the Federal Seed Act of August 9, 1939, as to labeling seed for germination when transported or delivered for transportation in interstate commerce for seeding purposes, shall not apply to the 1947 crop of seed of Kentucky bluegrass, Poa pratensis, during the period beginning August 7, 1947, and ending October 15, 1947.

Section 203 (c) of the Federal Seed Act of August 9, 1939, provides that the Secretary of Agriculture may, with or without hearing, amend the regulations issued thereunder to provide exemptions from labeling requirements with respect to germination. Pursuant to this provision, the Secretary in various prior years amended the regulations to provide for a seasonal exemption from such labeling requirements, similar to the one provided for herein, for freshly harvested seed of Kentucky bluegrass, and there were never any objections to such action. The carry-over of this seed from the former crop year is not sufficient to meet the planting requirements therefor and by reason of the imminence of the planting season it is in the public interest that notice of the exemption of such seed from labeling requirements as to germination be published as soon as possible. In view of these facts, and the further fact that such an amendment grants an exemption, it is found that compliance with sections 4 (a) and 4 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest.

Issued this 3d day of July 1947.

PART 230—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS USED IN THE ACT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly sections 2 (11) and 19 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary to carry out the provisions of the act and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, hereby takes the following action:

Section 230.144 (Rule 144) is adopted under the Securities Act of 1933, to read as follows:

§ 230.144 Definition of "has purchased," "sells for," "participates," and "participation" as used in section 2 (11), in relation to certain transactions in the securities of international banking organizations. The terms "has purchased," "sells for," "participates," and "participation," in section 2 (11), shall not be deemed to apply to any action of any person in acquiring or selling securities issued by any international banking organization, Provided, (a) The United States is a member of such organization pursuant to treaty or statute, (b) The officers and directors of such organization are immune from legal process with respect to acts performed by them in their official capacities, (c) The interest of the person acquiring or selling the securities is limited to a Commission or concession not in excess of the usual and customary distributors' or sellers' commission or concession, and (d) Such person makes a bona fide attempt for a reasonable time to distribute such securities, at no more than the public offering price initially specified in the prospectus filed under the act, before any part of the securities purchased by such person from the issuer or sold by such person for the issuer at a commission or concession is retained by such person for his own account or sold or offered to (1) a partner, officer, director or employee of such persons or (2) any other person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such person, or (3) any account in which such person or any person described in clause (1) or (2) has a beneficial interest. (Secs. 2 (11) and 19 (a), 48 Stat. 74, 85; 15 U. S. C. 77b, 77a)

The Commission finds that § 230.144 is an interpretative rule; that the other rules grant exemptions and relieve restrictions; that notice and public procedure pursuant to section 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act are impracticable and unnecessary; and that the rules may be declared effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of that act.

Effective June 25, 1947.

By the Commission.

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

DISCLOSURES CONTRAVENING CODE OF WARTIME PRACTICES

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly section 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of the foregoing act and for the exercise of the functions vested in the Commission thereunder, hereby repeals § 240.0–6 (Rule X-6) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which relates to disclosures contravening the Code of Wartime Practices. The Commission finds that this section no longer serves any useful purpose.

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN SECURITIES OF INTERNATIONAL BANKING ORGANIZATIONS

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly sections 3 (a) (12), 12, 15 (a), 15A (m) and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary for the execution of the functions vested in the Commission and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, hereby takes the following action:

1. Section 240.15a–3 (Rule X-15A–3) is adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, to read as follows:

§ 240.14a–3 Exemption of securities of international banking organizations from section 15 (a). Securities of any international banking organization are hereby exempted from the operation of section 15 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: Provided, (a) The United States is a member of such organization pursuant to treaty or statute, (b) The interest of the broker or dealer purchasing or selling such securities is limited to a commission or concession not in excess of the usual and customary distributors' or sellers' commission or concession, and (c) The broker or dealer purchasing or selling such securities makes a bona fide attempt for a reasonable time to distribute such securities, at no more than the public offering price initially specified in the prospectus filed under the Securities Act of 1933, before any part of the securities purchased by such broker or dealer from the issuer or sold by such broker or dealer for the issuer at a commission or concession is retained by such broker or dealer for his own account or sold or offered to a partner, officer, director or employee of such broker or dealer or to any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such broker or dealer or to any account in which such broker or dealer or any such person has a beneficial interest.

2. Section 240.15am–1 (Rule X-15AM–1) is adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, to read as follows:

§ 240.15am–1 Exemption of securities of international banking organizations from section 15 (a). Securities of any international banking organization are hereby exempted from the operation of section 15A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: Provided, (a) The United States is a member of such organization pursuant to treaty or statute, (b) The interest of the broker or dealer purchasing or selling such securities is limited to a commission or concession not in excess of the usual and customary distributors' or sellers' commission or concession, and (c) The broker or dealer purchasing or selling such securities makes a bona fide attempt for a reasonable time to distribute such securities, at no more than the public offering price initially specified in the prospectus filed under the Securities Act of 1933, before any part of the securities purchased by such broker or dealer from the issuer or sold by such broker or dealer for the issuer at a commission or concession is retained by such broker or dealer for his own account or sold or offered to a partner, officer, director or employee of such broker or dealer or to any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such broker or dealer or to any account in which such broker or dealer or any such person has a beneficial interest.

3. Section 240.12d3–11 (Rule X-12D3–11) is adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, to read as follows:

§ 240.12d3–11 Exemption of unissued securities to be issued by international banking organizations. Securities of any international banking organization are hereby exempted from the operation of the last sentence of section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: Provided, (a) The United States is a member of such organization pursuant to treaty or statute, and (b) Such unissued security is in process of admission to dealing on the exchange on which it is registered for "when-issued dealing."

PART 261—INTERPRETATIVE RELEASES RELATING TO TRUST INDENTURE ACT OF 1939 AND GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS THEREUNDER

SECURITIES OF INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT

§ 261.37 Interpretation with reference to the securities of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced the promulgation of an interpretation under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, with reference to the securities of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. The Bank's request for this action was supported by the National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Problems. The Council was created by the Bretton Woods Agreements Act, pursuant to which the United States became a member of the Bank and the International Monetary Fund. It consists of the Secretary of the Treasury (who is Chairman), the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, the Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Export-Import Bank of Washington. Its statutory purpose is "to coordinate the policies and operations of the representatives of the United States on the Fund and the Bank and of all agencies of the Government which make or participate in making foreign loans or which engage in foreign financial, exchange or monetary transactions."

So far as the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 is concerned, the Commission concurs in the opinion of counsel for the bank that an exemption is available under the statute.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

[Departmental Reg. 108.47]

PART 44—USE OF ORIGINAL RECORDS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), and pursuant to 27 Stat. 395 (20 U. S. C. 91), 22 CFR Part 44, as amended October 17, 1946 (Departmental Regulations 108.21 and 108.28) (11 F. R. 10107 and 12379) is hereby superseded by the following regulations, under a new part heading, as indicated.

Sec.
44.1 Use of records by officials of the United States Government, except officers of the Department of State.
44.2 Use of records by persons who are not officials of the United States Government.
44.3 Liberal interpretation of regulation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 44.1 to 44.3 inclusive issued under R. S. 161, 27 Stat. 395; 5 U. S. C. 22, 20 U. S. C. 91.

§ 44.1 Use of records by officials of the United States Government, except officers of the Department of State. The use of the records of the Department of State by Government officials, exclusive of those processed through liaison channels of the Division of Communications and Records and the Office of Intelligence Collection and Dissemination, will be subject to such conditions as the chiefs of the appropriate policy divisions of the Department, in consulation with the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research, may deem it advisable to prescribe.

§ 44.2 Use of records by persons who are not officials of the United States Government—(a) Unpublished files and records of the Department prior to January 1, 1922. The unpublished files and records of the Department prior to January 1, 1922, are, with certain exceptions, such as records relating to the citizenship of individuals, unsettled claims, and foreign service inspection and personnel records, available for inspection by the general public at the National Archives, subject to its regulations. On January 1, 1948, and each year thereafter until January 1, 1955, this date will be automatically advanced one year. The unpublished files and records of the Department in the period between the open date and January 1, 1933, or such subsequent date as may be fixed by the Department, may be made available for consultation to persons who are not officials of the United States Government, subject to the following conditions:

(1) Files which are in current use in the Department or which cannot be made public without the disclosure of confidences reposed in the Department, or without adversely affecting the public interest, will not be made available to inquirers.

(2) Papers received by the Department from a foreign government which have not been released for publication by that government will not be made available to inquirers without the consent of the government concerned. If there is reason to believe that a foreign government may be willing to permit the use of the papers in question under certain conditions, the permission may, at the discretion of the appropriate officials of the Department, be requested. (If such permission is requested, the expenses of communicating with the foreign government will be met by the person desiring to consult the papers.)

(3) Permission to consult the records of the Department between the open date and January 1, 1933, or such subsequent date as may be fixed by the Department, may be granted, subject to the limitations set forth in the regulations in this part, to such persons as lawyers, publicists, and qualified scholars: Provided, That:

(i) The applicants satisfy the Department that they have an important and definite use for the information desired.

(ii) The applicants confine their requests for material to specific subjects or particular papers. The Department is not in a position to assemble large quantities of papers for persons not officials of the United States Government.

(iii) The applicants agree to utilize records made available to them subject to such conditions as the Department may find it necessary to prescribe.

(4) An application from an alien to consult the records of the Department under the regulations in this part, will be considered only if such an application is accompanied by a letter from the head of the embassy or legation at Washington of the country of which the alien is a citizen, subject, or national. Such a letter will show that the applicant is favorably known to the appropriate embassy or legation, and that the mission is familiar with the applicant's work. The Department, however, reserves the right, without prejudice, to refuse permission to consult its original records to any alien applicant.

(5) All applications to consult the records of the Department between the open date and January 1, 1933, or such subsequent date as may be fixed by the Department, will be referred to the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research. If the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research is of the opinion that the applicant possesses the requisite qualifications as set forth in the regulations in this part, such application will be handled as follows:

(i) Documents or papers previously released or published, and unpublished papers clearly involving no question of policy, intelligence, or security may be made available to qualified applicants by the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research without reference to other officials.

(ii) Material or information bearing a security classification originating with another Government agency will not be made available unless specific approval is obtained from the agency of origin.

(iii) In the case of requests for all other material, information, or documents, the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research will inform the chief of the policy division charged with the consideration of questions in the field which is the object of research or inquiry of the nature and precise limits of the proposed research and the papers involved.

(iv) If the chief of policy division concerned determines that the applicant will be permitted to use all or part of the papers desired, he will inform the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research of the conditions under which the papers may be examined—that is, whether copies may be made of the relevant documents or whether only notes may be taken and whether the copies or notes may be published in whole or in part, or used only for background information; or any other conditions which the chief of policy division may deem it advisable to prescribe. This decision will be final except in cases of unusual importance where the question may be referred to the Under Secretary.

(v) Upon receiving the decision of the chief of the policy division setting forth the conditions deemed advisable and necessary to prescribe, the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research will arrange for the applicant to consult the files subject to the conditions decided upon.

(vi) After the applicant has consulted the papers, he will submit to the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research all notes, copies of documents, and the like, which he has made. These materials will be examined by the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research or submitted to the chief of the policy division, if he so desires.

(vii) After such examination the papers may be transmitted to the applicant by the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research or retained at the discretion of the chief of the division concerned.

(b) Unpublished files or records of the Department of a date later than January 1, 1933, etc. The unpublished files or records of the Department of a date later than January 1, 1933, or such subsequent date as may be fixed by the Department, may not be made available to persons who are not officials of the United States Government except in circumstances which have been determined to be exceptional in accordance with the principles and procedures set forth below:

(1) A determination to permit access to persons other than officials of the United States Government to the unpublished files and records of the Department during the closed period as defined above may be made only on the grounds that the interests of national policy are served thereby.

(2) Such a determination will be made by a Committee on the Use of Departmental Files, consisting of the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research, who shall be Chairman, a representative of the Division of Security and Investigation, and a representative of the offices responsible for the political and or economic policy involved. The Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research shall designate an Executive Secretary to serve the Committee.

(3) All requests by persons outside the United States Government for permission to use Departmental files in the closed period must be made in writing, with full justification, to the Chief of the Division of Historical Policy Research who will refer the request to the Committee for decision and transmit the Department's decision to the applicant.

(4) Should the Committee fail to arrive at a unanimous agreement as to the policy or its application to particular cases, the matter will be referred, fully documented, to the Under Secretary for decision.

§ 44.3 Liberal interpretation of regulation. It is the policy of the Department that its records be made available to persons not officials of the United States Government as liberally as circumstances permit.

Approved: July 1, 1947.

[SEAL] JOHN E. PEURIFOY, Assistant Secretary of State.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 10—STEAM ROADS: UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of May A. D. 1947.

The matter of accounting regulations for steam railroads being under consideration pursuant to the provisions of section 20 (3) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended; and

It appearing, that such regulations, as they were in force June 1, 1938, were published in the First Edition of the Code of Federal Regulations under this chapter and title, and that certain modifications of the regulations appeared in early supplements to that Code; and,

It further appearing, that by order dated May 1, 1943, said accounting regulations with all amendments and modifications to that date were issued in revised form to be known as the "Uniform System of Accounts for Steam Railroads, Issue of 1943," which revised system of accounts and all subsequent amendments thereof were filed with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register but were not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER or in the Code of Federal Regulations; and,

It further appearing, that the accounting regulations so prescribed for steam railroads are substantive rules which are required by section 3 (a) (3) of the Administrative Procedure Act to be currently published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, but no general notice of proposed rule-making as contemplated by section 4 of that act is required because said regulations were prescribed prior to the effective date of such requirement;

Sec.

INVESTMENT IN ROAD AND EQUIPMENT

§ 10.01 General instructions. The carrier's records shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided herein for investment in road and equipment. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detail records to permit ready identification, and the detail records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 10.01–1 Accounts for investment in road and equipment. The accounts prescribed in this classification, except in connection with the acquisition of transportation property as provided in accounts 702½A "Acquisition adjustment," and 702½B, "Donations and grants," are designed to show the investment of the carrier in property devoted to transportation service. The carrier's investment in physical property other than transportation property is provided for in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." "The carrier" mean the accounting carrier, except when otherwise specifically indicated. The carrier's record shall be kept in such form that expenditures for additions and betterments may be reported separately from those for original road, original equipment, and road extensions, and shall show separately the expenditures under each authorized addition and betterment project. (See balance-sheet account 701, "Road and equipment property," and 702, "Improvements on leased property.") When a building or structure is used primarily for transportation purposes it is not contemplated that parts of such buildings or structures rented to others will be carried in account 705; nor is it contemplated that irregular parcels of land acquired in connection with acquisition of right-of-way which have no value as commercial property shall be transferred to account 705, either for the purpose of making right-of-way boundaries run more or less regular or for the purpose of eliminating from account 701 the cost of unoccupied lands between tracks in yards and terminals.

§ 10.01–2 Items to be charged. To these accounts shall be charged the cost of original road, original equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments; also the estimated values at time of acquisition of right of way and other road and equipment property donated to the carrier, except that unless authorized by the Commission no charges shall be made to these accounts after July 1, 1914, for donations received previously to that date. Applications to the Commission for including such items in the road and equipment accounts shall contain full information concerning the source and character of the donations.

(a) When the property change involves: (1) The acquisition of units and minor items of road property (other than land or tracks) such as defined in paragraphs (e) and (c) of § 10.01–7 Road property retired the cost of which is less than $500.00; (2) the betterment of road property (see "Betterments" under paragraph (c) of this section), the betterment cost of which is less than $500.00, the cost of the units and minor items of road property acquired under (1) and betterment costs under (2) shall be charged to operating expenses.

The retirement of units and minor items of road property shall be accounted for in accordance with § 10.01–7 Road property retired.

(b) The carrier shall not parcel expenditures or retirements under a general plan for the purpose of bringing the accounting therefor within this rule, neither shall it combine unrelated items of property for the purpose of excluding the accounting therefor from the rule.

(c) The carrier is permitted to adopt for the purpose of its accounting a limit of less than the aforesaid amounts provided it first files with the Commission the maximum amount which it proposes to adopt and makes no subsequent change in this amount except by authority of the Commission, except that when the carrier adopts a limit of less than $500 in reporting property changes to the Bureau of Valuation for valuation purposes it shall adopt a like minimum for accounting purposes in order to coordinate the original cost with the physical property included in the inventory.

"Construction" includes all processes connected with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments.

"Original road" means the land and road property provided and arranged for in the original plan for the construction of a new road. When the acquisition of any road property under the original plan is deferred, such property when acquired, shall be considered an addition. Original road shall not include road property which, under the original plans for the road, it is proposed to substitute at some time subsequent to the beginning of commercial operations, for the property originally installed and used for transportation operations, such as steel bridges substituted for trestles.

"Original equipment" means equipment provided and arranged for under the original plan for the construction of a new road. When the acquisition of such equipment under the original plan is deferred, such equipment, when acquired, shall be considered as additions.

"Road extensions" means the land and road property provided and arranged for in the original plan for the construction of extensions of existing main lines, additional branch lines, and extensions of existing branch lines. When the acquisition of any road property under the original plan is deferred, such property, when acquired, shall be treated as an addition. Road extensions shall not include road property which, under the original plan for the extensions, it is proposed to substitute, at some time subsequent to the beginning of commercial operations for the property originally installed and used for transportation in connection with the commercial operations, such as steel bridges substituted for trestles.

"Equipment" means the rolling stock, boats, highway vehicles, horses, and harness devoted to transportation service, the cost of which is includible in the equipment accounts.

"Road property" means transportation property other than equipment.

"Additions" are additional facilities, such as additional equipment, tracks (including timber and mine tracks), buildings, bridges, and other structures; additions to such facilities, such as extensions to tracks, buildings, and other structures; additional ties laid in existing tracks; and additional devices applied to facilities, such as air brakes applied to cars not previously thus equipped. When a unit of property is retired from service and replaced with property of like purpose, the newly acquired property shall, for the purpose of this classification, be considered as an addition, and the cost thereof accounted for accordingly. (See § 10.01–7 Road property retired.)

"Betterments" are improvements of parts (minor items) of existing facilities through the substitution of superior parts for inferior parts replaced. The cost chargeable to the accounts of this classification is the excess cost of new parts over the cost at current prices of new parts of the kind replaced.

"Cost" shall be actual money costs to the carrier. Where a portion of the funds expended by or for the carrier has been obtained by grants from governmental agencies, or by donations from individuals or others, the accounting shall be in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section as may be applicable.

(a) Donations from individuals or others. The entire cost of constructing transportation property to which the carrier acquires exclusive title and exclusive right of use shall be included in these accounts without deduction on account of contributions received from others. The money value of donations shall be credited to account 702½B, "Donations and grants."

NOTE. Amounts billed against a lessee company for a proportion of the cost of constructing facilities under a contract which covers the joint use of such facilities but does not transfer title, shall be credited by the owning company to account 508, "Joint facility rent income," and charged by the lessee to account 541, "Joint facility rents." The entire cost of the facilities shall be charged by the owning company to the appropriate accounts of this classification.

(b) Joint projects. Contributions by governmental agencies, or individuals toward construction of projects involving joint use of facilities by the carrier and others after completion of the project shall not be considered donations and only the cost borne by the carrier in connection with the construction of these projects shall be included in these accounts. In accounting for the cost to the carrier of projects involving joint use of facilities by the carrier and others, such costs shall be first applied to the cost of construction of railway facilities includible in accounts other than 2½, "Other right-of-way expenditures," or 39, "Public improvements—Construction," any remaining balance to be included in account 2½, or account 39, as appropriate.

Illustrations of joint projects referred to are:

(1) Jointly owned tracks, interlockers, etc.;

(2) Construction or widening of highways, spillways, drainage canals, farm and other private passes, pipe lines, drains, and other facilities across the carrier's right of way;

(3) Construction of overhead or undergrade crossings;

(4) Installation of warning signals to protect highway traffic.

(c) Public improvement projects other than joint projects. In connection with public improvement projects which do not involve joint use by the carrier and others of the facilities after completion of the projects such as reconstruction and relocation of tracks and appurtenant facilities at the expense of governmental agencies, the ledger value of the property retired shall be credited and the cost of constructing the new property shall be charged to the appropriate accounts of this classification. The sum contributed by the governmental agencies unless contract specifies otherwise shall be applied first to reduce or cancel the amount that otherwise would be charged to operating expenses or depreciation reserve in accounting for the retirements, and the remainder, if any, representing cost of railroad property only, shall be credited to account 702½B, "Donations and grants." The projects here referred to are those such as occur in connection with the carrying out of flood control, reclamation and other public projects where it becomes necessary to abandon a part of the line of road and relocate it.

§ 10.01–3 Basis of charges. The charges to the accounts of this classification shall be based upon the cost of the property acquired. When the consideration given for the purchase or the improvement of property the cost of which is chargeable to the accounts of this classification is other than money, the money value of the consideration at the time of the transaction shall be charged to these accounts, and the actual consideration shall be described in the record in sufficient detail to identify it. The carrier shall be prepared to furnish the Commission, upon demand, the particulars of its determination of the actual cash value of the consideration, if other than money.

§ 10.01–4 Cost of construction. It is intended that the accounts for road property and equipment shall include the cost of construction of such property. The cost of construction shall include the cost of labor, materials and supplies, work-train service, special machine service, transportation, contract work, protection from casualties, injuries and damages, privileges, and other analogous elements in connection with such work. The several items of cost here referred to are defined as follows:

(a) "Cost of labor" includes the amount paid for labor expended by the carrier's own employees, including the cost of labor expended for preliminary work, such as sinking test holes or making soundings for tunnels, grading, buildings, and other structures; and cost of labor expended in laying and taking up tracks for temporary use in construction, except the cost of labor expended on tracks provided for the protection of traffic during the progress of addition and betterment work. Office expenses and traveling and other personal expenses of employees, when borne by the carrier, shall be considered a part of the cost of the labor, as shall also the cost of fidelity bonds and employers' liability insurance premiums. When officers or employees are specially assigned to construction work, their pay and their traveling and incidental expenses while thus engaged shall be included in the cost of the work. No charge shall be made against road and equipment accounts for the pay of officers and employees who merely render services incidentally in connection with extensions, additions, or betterments, although traveling and incidental expenses incurred by such officers and employees solely on account of such work shall be included in the account to which the cost of the work is chargeable.

(b) "Cost of materials and supplies" includes the purchase price of materials and supplies, including small tools, at the point of free delivery, plus the cost of inspection and loading assumed by the carrier; also a suitable proportion of store expenses. (See § 10.04–16 Material store expenses and § 10.04–17 Stationery store expenses.) In calculating the cost of materials used, proper allowance shall be made for the value of unused portions and of cuttings, turnings, borings, etc.; for the value of the material recovered from temporary tracks, scaffolding, cofferdams, and other temporary structures used in construction; and for the value of small tools recovered and used for other purposes.

(c) "Cost of work-train service" includes amounts paid to others for rent and maintenance of equipment used; cost of labor of enginemen, trainmen, and enginehousemen, including wages of engine crews and train crews held in readiness for such service; and cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of work trains. It shall also include the cost of maintaining the carrier's own equipment used in construction service. However, no rent or return upon the investment in such equipment shall be included as a part of the cost of work-train service.

(d) "Cost of special machine service" includes the cost of labor expended and of materials and supplies consumed in maintaining and operating steam shovels, scrapers, rail unloaders, ballast unloaders, pile drivers, dredges, ditchers, weed burners, and other labor-saving machines; also rents paid for use of such machines. (See Note A under account 37, "Roadway machines," and tenth paragraph of general account 50, "Equipment.")

(e) "Cost of transportation" includes the amounts paid to other companies or individuals for the transportation of men, materials and supplies, special machine outfits, appliances, and tools in connection with construction. Freight charges paid foreign lines for the transportation of construction material to the carrier's line shall be included, so far as practicable, as a part of the cost of the material.

(f) "Cost of contract work" includes amounts paid for work performed under contract by other companies, firms, or individuals, and costs incident to the award of the contract.

(g) "Cost of protection from casualties" includes expenditures for protection against fire, such as payments for discovery or extinguishment of fires, cost of detecting and prosecuting incendiaries, witness fees in relation thereto, amounts paid to municipal corporations and others for fire protection, and other analogous items of expenditure in connection with construction work.

(h) "Cost of injuries and damages" includes expenditures on account of injuries to persons or damage to property when incident to construction projects, and shall be included in the cost of the work in connection with which the injury or damage occurs. It also includes that portion of premiums paid for insuring property applicable to the period prior to the completion or coming into service of the property insured. Insurance recovered on account of compensation paid for injuries to persons incident to construction shall be credited to the accounts to which such compensation is charged, and insurance recovered on account of damages to property incident to construction shall be credited to the accounts chargeable with the expenditures necessary for restoring the damaged property. The cost of injuries and damages incident to the removal of old structures, or parts thereof, shall be charged to operating expenses, except that such costs in connection with the removal of old structures which are incumbrances on newly acquired lands shall be included in account 2, "Land for transportation purposes," or 3, "Grading," as many be appropriate. (See § 10.01–7 Road property retired.)

(i) "Cost of privileges" includes compensation for temporary privileges, such as the use of public property or streets, in connection with the construction of the property of the carrier.

§ 10.01–5 Excavated material. The cost of disposing of material excavated in connection with construction shall be considered as a part of the cost of the work, except that when such material is used for filling, the cost of removal and dumping shall be equitably apportioned between the work in connection with which the removal occurs and the work in connection with which the material is used.

§ 10.01–6 Items to be credited. To these accounts shall be credited the ledger value of property retired.

"Ledger value of property" is the value at which the property is carried in the property investment account in the general ledger of the carrier. In case the value of any item of property is not shown separately in the ledger the ledger value of that item shall be its proportionate share of the value of the entire group in which the particular property is included.

"Property retired" means a unit of property whether replaced or not and a minor item not replaced, which is sold, abandoned, demolished, dismantled, or otherwise withdrawn from transportation service.

§ 10.01–7 Road property retired. (a) When a unit of road property, other than land, is retired from service, or a minor item is retired and not replaced, the ledger value of the unit or minor item shall be credited to the appropriate road accounts of this classification at the time of retirement from service. The amount of this credit shall be charged concurrently as follows:

(1) For depreciable property. The service value (ledger value less value of salvage) shall be charged, and insurance recovered, if any, shall be credited to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road." The charge for the salvage shall be in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered. The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property," or account 306, "Dismantling retired shop and power plant machinery," as may be appropriate.

NOTE: When property included in the depreciable accounts but excluded from the depreciation base is retired, the service value (including engineering expenditures assignable to the retired property but not included in the depreciation base) shall be charged to operating expenses.

(2) For nondepreciable property. The service value (ledger value less value of salvage) shall be charged to account 267 "Retirements-Road." The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property." The charge for the salvage shall be in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered.

An equitable proportion of any balances carried in accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, applicable to the road property retired, shall be credited thereto concurrently and charged to account 267, "Retirements-Road."

NOTE: For parts (minor items) of road property retired and replaced for both depreciable and nondepreciable accounts the cost of replacement including cost of removal, shall be charged to the accounts in operating expenses appropriate for the cost of repairing such property.

(b) The term "service value" as applied to road property means the ledger value thereof less the value of the salvage recovered therefrom.

(c) The term "minor item" as applied to road property means the associated parts of which units of road property are composed.

(d) The term "value of salvage" means the amount received for property retired, or for the material salvaged therefrom if sold; or if retained, the value at which the property or the material salvaged therefrom is chargeable to account 716, "Material and supplies," or other accounts of this system of accounts. When such material is retained and again used by the carrier, the value shall be determined by deducting a fair allowance for depreciation from current prices of the material as new. If the retired property is held without being torn down the estimated value of the salvage therefrom shall be included in account 722, "Other deferred assets," until the salvage is recovered.

(e) The term "unit of road property" means any structure or item of property that is physically distinct or separate, or any substantial part of a composite or continuous structure (except tracks) such as a bridge, a trestle, a snowshed, or right-of-way fence, the original cost of which can be readily ascertained with reasonable accuracy. With respect to buildings it means the entire structure including component parts. The foregoing is intended as a guide in determining what is a unit of road property and should be regarded as representative only.

(f) Leased property. When a unit of road property used but not owned, other than land, the rent for which is includible in account 542, "Rent for leased roads and equipment," is retired from service, or a minor item is retired and not replaced, the service value of nondepreciable property shall be charged to account 267, "Retirements—Road," by the lessee and the service value of depreciable property shall be charged to the depreciation reserve account by either the lessee or lessor, as appropriate. If under terms of the lease the lessor is obligated to reimburse the lessee for additions and betterments and is credited with the ledger value of retired property, the lessor shall credit the ledger value of the retired property to account 701, "Road and equipment property." If under terms of the lease the lessee bears the cost of additions and betterments without reimbursement and is not obligated to reimburse the lessor for the ledger value of retired property, the lessee shall credit the ledger value to account 702, "Improvements on leased property." The salvage shall be accounted for by the company that has title thereto and charged in accordance with the disposition of the material recovered.

When the lessee makes settlement with the lessor currently for retirements of property leased, the lessee shall credit to account 706, "Investments in affiliated companies," or 707, "Other investments," as applicable, the service value of nondepreciable property charged to account 267, "Retirements—Road," and the lessor shall make corresponding charge to account 757, "Amounts payable to affiliated companies," or other liability accounts, as may be appropriate.

The lessee shall furnish the lessor such information as is required to perform the necessary accounting.

§ 10.01–9 Equipment retired. The instructions for accounting for equipment retired are contained in the text of general account 50, "Equipment."

§ 10.01–10 Land retired. When any land, the cost of which is included in the accounts of this classification, is retired, the ledger value shall be credited to account 2, "Land for transportation purposes." If the land is retained by the carrier, its estimated value shall be charged to balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property," the necessary adjustment of the difference between the ledger value and the estimated value on acount of the loss in the property due to its retirement from transportation service shall be made through account 621, "Miscellaneous debits". If sold, the difference between the ledger value credited to account 2 and the amount received for the land shall be adjusted through accounts 607, "Miscellaneous credits," or 621, "Miscellaneous debits," as appropriate.

§ 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property. If a unit of equipment by its transfer from one class of service to another, with or without physical conversion, becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried, it shall be accounted for as retired. (See the text of general account 50, "Equipment.")

In accounting for the retirement of such a unit the retirement accounting should be on a basis consistent with the accounting which would be proper if the carrier were to make no further use of it, as in the case of demolition or sale. Following this principle, the salvage value to be used in arriving at the service value shall be the ledger value of the unit less an allowance to reflect consumed, expired or lost usefulness and in no case shall it be less than the estimated value of the scrap and reusable parts which would be recovered if the unit were dismantled. In arriving at this salvage value, the amount which would have been paid, had the old unit in its second-hand condition been purchased from another company, and the further use which it is contemplated will be made of the unit after conversion, are factors to be given consideration.

In accounting for the unit as converted, its ledger value shall be the estimated salvage value used in the retirement accounting less any salvage recovered and not used in the conversion process plus all expenditures for labor and material necessary to fit the unit for its future use, but not in excess of the cost (at current market prices of labor and material) of a new unit of equal capacity and equal expectation of life in service, less a suitable allowance on account of the second-hand portions remaining herein.

NOTE: The procedure outlined in the foregoing with regard to the transfer to equipment from one class of service to another shall be followed in accounting for fixed property when by its transfer from one class of service to another it becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried.

§ 10.01–12 Expenses in connection with additions and betterments. The cost of removing old material from equipment and from buildings, bridges, wharves, tracks, and other fixed improvements, shall be charged to the appropriate operating expense accounts. Such charges shall include the cost of removing old foundations and filling old excavations, and restoring condition of grounds after addition and betterment work; and maintaining or protecting traffic during the progress of addition and betterment work, including the cost of constructing, maintaining, and removing temporary tracks required for maintaining traffic during the progress of the work.

§ 10.01–13 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of "items," "details," etc., have been given as a part of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules in specific cases. The lists in every case are to be considered as merely representative, and not as excluding from any account analogous items which happen to be omitted from the list appended. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of the item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The item of boilers, for example, will be found under accounts 18, 27, 37, 44, and 45, and the proper charge in any one instance must be determined by the text of the account.

§ 10.01–14 Submission of questions. To the end that uniformity of accounting may be maintained from year to year, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation of the accounting rules to the Commission for consideration and decision.

PROPERTY ACCOUNTS

ROAD

§ 10.0 Road. The several primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the cost of land and road property owned by the carrier and devoted to transportation service.

§ 10.1 Engineering. This account shall include the pay and expenses of engineers, assistants, and clerks engaged in the survey and construction of new lines and extensions, or in making additions to and betterments of the carrier's road, including wharves and docks.

NOTE A: When employers designated above are engaged in the maintenance of the road, their pay and expenses while thus employed shall be charged to operating expenses.

NOTE B: Expenditures for tentative or preliminary surveys shall be carried in a suspense account until it is determined whether or not to continue the work. If the project is continued, expenditures for all surveys in connection therewith shall then be transferred to this account, and, if abandoned, to operating expenses, income, or profit and loss, as may be appropriate.

NOTE C: The cost of designing, making plans and specifications, and supervising the construction of equipment shall be included in the cost of the equipment.

NOTE D: The cost of stationery and printing supplies used for accounting purposes in connection with engineering work shall be included in account 74, "Stationery and printing," when not directly assignable to specific road or equipment accounts.

NOTE E: Fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of buildings shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the cost of the buildings constructed.

§ 10.2 Land for transportation purposes. This account shall include the cost of land of necessary width acquired for roadway; the cost of land for station, office, shop, and other grounds; for ingress to or egress from such grounds; for borrow pits, waste banks, snow fences, sand fences, and other railway appurtenances; and for storage of material adjoining the right of way; the cost of land for wharves and docks and the cost of riparian or water rights necessary therefor; the cost of removing from the right of way and locating elsewhere the property of others, and the cost of the necessary land for relocation of the property, when such costs are assumed by the accounting carrier.

The carrier's records shall be kept in such manner as to show separately the cost of land purchased by it and the estimated values at time of acquisition of lands donated.

Proceeds from the sale of timber or of improvements purchased with right of way, less any cost of removal, shall be credited to this account.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Abstracts.
Appraisals.
Arbitrators in condemnation cases.
Commissions paid to others.
Condemnation expenses, including court costs and special counsel fees.
Damages to property of others.
Deferred payments for right of way.
Ditches for waterways when part of consideration.
Judgments and decreed costs to clear or defend titles.
Notarial fees.
Plats.
Premiums on condemnation bonds.
Recording deeds.
Payments for relinquishment of cattle passes and other rights.
Removal and relocation of buildings and other structures not purchased.
Rent of land when part of consideration for purchase.
Right-of-way agents' compensation (engaged solely in acquiring right of way).
Taxes accrued and assumed at time of purchase.

NOTE: The cost of land acquired in excess of that necessary for transportation operations shall be included in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." When the purchase of land acquired for transportation operation involves the purchase of land not used for such purposes the charges to this account shall be based upon the estimated cost of only that portion which is used for such purposes, and the cost of the remaining land shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property." Only the actual cost borne by the carrier for right of way and other lands acquired through vacation of streets and highways shall be included in this account. No donations should be considered as involved in the acquisition of such property.

§ 10.2½ Other right-of-way expenditures. This account shall include the cost (in excess of cost of railway facilities installed, if any) actually borne by the carrier of improvement projects (other than public improvement projects), such as the construction of canals, farm and other private passes, pipe lines, drains, and other facilities across the carrier's right of way.

§ 10.3 Grading. This account shall include the cost of clearing and grading the roadway, and of constructing protection of a permanent character for the roadway, tracks, embankments, and cuts.

When a part of a bridge or trestle, or the entire structure, is converted by filling into an earth embankment, and the bridge is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such temporary trestle shall be included in the cost of the filling, and charged to this account. (See Note A, under account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts.")

When a tunnel is converted into an open cut, the cost of clearing, grubbing, and excavating shall be included in this account.

§ 10.5 Tunnels and subways. This account shall include the cost of tunnels and subways for the passage of trains, including apparatus for ventilating and lighting, and safety devices therein, other than signals.

NOTE A: The cost of tracks, including guard rails, in tunnels shall not be charged to this account.

NOTE B: Station subways not highway crossings are includible in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: If a tunnel be converted into an open cut the accounting shall be in accordance with § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property.

§ 10.6 Bridges, trestles, and culverts. This account shall include the cost of the substructure and superstructure of bridges, trestles, and culverts which carry the tracks of the carrier over watercourses, ravines, public and private highways, and other railways.

NOTE A: When a part of the entire structure of a bridge or trestle is converted, by filling, into an earth embankment, the ledger value of the structure, or of the portion thereof filled, shall be credited to this account. In case the bridge or trestle is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such temporary trestle shall be charged to account 3, "Grading." The ledger value of the structure or portion thereof, filled, less the value of the salvage and the estimated cost of trestle charged to account 3, shall be charged to account 702½C.

NOTE B: The cost of bridges to carry the carrier's tracks over undergrade crossings, including the necessary piers and abutments to sustain them shall be included in this account. (See "Cost" in paragraph (c) of § 10.01–2 Items to be charged.)

§ 10.7 Elevated structures. This account shall include the cost of elevated structures and foundations of elevated railway systems.

This account is applicable to structures other than earthwork, which are for the purpose of elevating tracks above the grade of streets, and which are not properly classable as bridges or trestles.

NOTE: The cost of stations and other structures built on elevated structures shall be accounted for according to the class of the structure thus superimposed and not in this account.

§ 10.8 Ties. This account shall include the cost of cross, switch, bridge, and other track ties used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), and the cost of additional ties subsequently laid in such tracks; also the excess cost of metal ties used in repair of track over the cost to replace in kind wooden ties removed.

The cost of handling ties in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when the ties are used for construction purposes.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and placing the ties in tracks and the cost of train service in connection with the distribution of ties laid shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The cost of ties used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the cost of ties used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.9 Rails. This account shall include the cost of rails used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), and the cost of the excess in weight of heavier rails laid in replacement of lighter rails.

The cost of handling rails in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when the rails are used for construction purposes.

To this account shall be credited the cost (at current prices at time of removal) of the excess weight of heavier rails replaced with lighter rails.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and placing the rails in track and of train service in connection with the distribution of the rails, shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE C: The cost of rails used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the cost of rails used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.10 Other track material. This account shall include the cost of material used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives and cars (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.), except ballast and material chargeable to foregoing accounts; also the excess cost of heavier or improved "other track material" used in repairs of tracks over the cost of replacing in kind such material removed.

The cost of handling "other track material" in general supply and storage yards shall be included as store expenses apportioned to this account when such material is used in the construction of new tracks.

ITEMS OF OTHER TRACK MATERIAL

Angle bars.
Anticreepers.
Bumping posts.
Compromise joints.
Connecting rods.
Crossings for steam and electric railways, including foundations or bases.
Derails.
Frog blocking.
Frogs.
Guard-rail blocking.
Guard-rail clamps.
Guard-rail fasteners.
Guard rails, switch and other.
Main rods.
Nut locks.
Nuts.
Offset bars.
Rail braces.
Rail chairs.
Rail clips.
Rail joints.
Rail rests.
Rail shims.
Rail splices.
Splice bars.
Step chairs.
Switch chairs.
Switch crossings.
Switch lamps.
Switch locks and keys.
Switch points.
Switch stands.
Switch targets.
Switches.
Tie plates.
Tie plugs.
Tie rods.
Track bolts.
Track insulators.
Track spikes.

NOTE A: The cost of labor and train service for distributing, unloading, and applying "other track material" shall be charged to account 12, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: No entry is required in this account with respect to improved "other track material" unless installed under a definite plan of changing standards, such as increasing the weight of rail.

NOTE C: The cost of "other track material" used in the construction of car floats shall be included in the cost of such floating equipment, and the cost of such track material used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.11 Ballast. This account shall include the cost of gravel, stone, slag, cinders, sand, and like material used in ballasting tracks (including tracks in shops, fuel stations, supply yards, etc.) not previously ballasted, including cost of work-train service and of unloading; cost of ballast applied in excess of ballast required to restore to its maximum height and width the ballast previously put on the roadbed; and the excess cost of improved ballast used in renewals over the cost to replace in kind to the original height and width the ballast removed. Charges to this account shall not exceed the cost of ballast applied to a depth of 24 inches beneath the tie, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission. (§ 10.04–11 gravel and sand pits and quarries applies to the accounting for pits from which ballast material is obtained either for construction work or for maintenance, or for both.)

NOTE A: The cost of ballast used in the construction of temporary tracks, such as gravel-pit and quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

NOTE B: Earth placed to form a crown in the middle of the track is not to be considered as ballast.

NOTE C: The cost of ballast material placed on the decking of bridges solely for fire-protection purposes shall be included in account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts."

NOTE D: No charge shall be made to the accounts of this classification representing the value of cinders accumulated by the carrier.

§ 10.12 Track laying and surfacing. This account shall include the cost of distributing (including train service), laying, and adjusting ties, rails, and other track material used in the construction of tracks for the movement or storage of locomotives or cars, including repair tracks, but not tracks on car floats or temporary tracks the cost of which is chargeable to clearing accounts. It shall also include the cost of the labor expended in placing ballast in tracks not previously ballasted.

NOTE A: The cost of distributing and adjusting ties, rails, ballast, and other track material for repairs shall be charged to operating expenses, both when such materials are replaced in kind and when replaced with improved and heavier material.

NOTE B: The cost of work-train service in delivering ballast and of unloading such material is provided for in account 11, "Ballast."

§ 10.13 Fences, snowsheds, and signs. This account shall include:

(a) The cost of right-of-way fences and snow and sand fences, farm gates, cattle guards, wing fences, aprons, and hedges, on property not previously fenced, excluding those around stockyards, fuel stations, station and shop grounds, and building sites.

(b) Snowsheds. The cost of snowsheds, including initial cost of planting trees for protecting tracks from snow.

(c) Signs. The initial cost of signs other than those for identification of bridges, signals, stations, and other structures.

SIGN ITEMS

Boundary signs.
Bridge-caution signs.
Crossing signs.
Curve and elevation markers.
Division-limit signs.
Mileposts.
Monuments.
Safety-first signs at crossings.
Section-limit signs.
Slow or stop signs.
Tunnel-caution signs.
Water-station signs.
Water-trough signs.
Whistle signs.
Yard-limit signs.

NOTE A: The cost of fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences) around stock yards, fuel and water stations, and other building sites, shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for the cost of the structures.

NOTE B: The cost of signs for identifying bridges, signals, stations, and other structures shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of the structures.

NOTE C: The cost of crossing signals, including crossing gates, shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: It shall also include the cost of replacing units of such property or substantial parts of fences or snowsheds the original cost of which were charged to this account.

§ 10.16 Station and office buildings. This account shall include the cost of station and office structures, their fixtures, appurtenances, and furniture necessary first to equip the buildings for use.

STATION AND OFFICE STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Baggage rooms.

NOTE A: The cost of distinct power plant buildings for shop purposes shall be included in account 29, "Power plants." The cost of distribution systems leading from such power plants to shops and enginehouses shall be included in account 31, "Power-transmission systems."

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of shop and enginehouse buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of shop buildings devoted solely to the maintenance of way and structures shall be included in account 17, "Roadway buildings."

§ 10.21 Grain elevators. This account shall include the cost of structures including the cost of conveyors, machinery, and fixtures which the railway companies operate for the transfer, treatment, and storage of grain.

The buildings referred to in this account are not small storage elevators at stations where grain is received for shipment, etc., but large elevators in which grain is stored for various owners.

NOTE A: Small storage elevators at way stations are classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of grain-elevator buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of grain elevators leased to noncarriers shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.22 Storage warehouses. This account shall include the cost of storage warehouses, including machinery and fixtures therein.

The buildings herein referred to are not the ordinary freight warehouses or stations where freight is received for shipment, etc., but warehouses in which merchandise is stored and which the railway companies operate as storage warehouses.

NOTE A: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of storage warehouse buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of warehouses leased to noncarriers shall be charged to account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.23 Wharves and docks. This account shall include the cost of wharves, docks, dry docks, slips, float bridges, and other landings for vessels, including the cost of necessary dredging, and the cost of float-bridge machinery; also the cost of piling, pile protection, cribs, cofferdams, walls, and other necessary devices and apparatus for the operation or protection of wharves and docks.

DETAILS OF WHARVES AND DOCKS

Bridge pontoons.
Bulkheads.
Caissons.
Cribwork.

Ferry-bridge machinery.
Ferry bridges.
Ferry racks.
Ferry slips.
Jetties.
Jetty inclines.
Transfer-bridge machinery.
Transfer bridges.

NOTE A: The cost of coal and ore wharves and docks shall be included in account 24, "Coal and ore wharves."

NOTE B: The cost of the land on which wharves are built and cost of riparian or water rights for wharves and docks shall be charged to account 2, "Land for transportation purposes."

NOTE C: The cost of buildings located on wharves shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the class of buildings.

NOTE D: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of wharves (other than coal and ore wharves) and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the wharves, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the wharves.

§ 10.24 Coal and ore wharves. This account shall include the cost of wharves and docks for the transfer, treatment, blending, or storage of coal or ore, including the cost of necessary dredging and of conveyors, machinery, and fixtures.

NOTE A: The structures referred to in this account do not include small transfer or storage trestles or wharves at stations where coal is stored or delivered, such trestles being classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of coal and ore wharves, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the wharves, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the wharves, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the wharves.

§ 10.26 Telegraph and telephone lines. This account shall include the cost of telegraph and telephone lines, including terminal equipment.

DETAILS OF TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE TERMINAL EQUIPMENT

Batteries.
Cables and wires, interior.
Conduits, interior.
Connecting wires.
Current-controlling instruments.
Electric generators and motors.
Electric meters.
Engines, stationary.
Fuses and mechanical protectors.
Rectifiers.
Rheostats.
Sending and receiving instruments.
Switchboards.
Testing outfits.
Transformers.

DETAILS OF TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE OUTSIDE PLANT

Aerial attachments.

Cable boxes and appurtenances.
Cables and wires, aerial.
Conduits and appurtenances.
Cross arms.
Guy stubs.
Guy wires.
Insulators.
Poles.
Submarine cables and connections.
Telephone pole boxes.
Towers.
Underground cables and connections.

§ 10.27 Signals and interlockers. This account shall include the cost of interlocking and other signal apparatus for governing the movements of locotives, cars, and trains, and for the protection of traffic at crossings, including towers and other buildings, furniture, fixtures, and machinery in connection therewith; roadway installations for train control and remote control including the cost of the initial tests of such installations; also the cost of buildings and machinery of power plants used primarily for the production of power for the operation of signals and interlockers.

ITEMS

Air compressors.
Automatic-train control devices other than on equipment.
Batteries.
Battery wells and houses.
Boilers.
Call-bell systems along track to call in flagmen.
Call boxes, electric.
Car-retarder systems.
Centralized traffic control.
Conduits for pipe and wire.
Crossing flasher-light signals.
Crossing gates, highway and railway.
Crossing signal bells.
Crossing warning signals.
Distant signals.
Dynamos.
Engines, stationary.
Home signals.
Impedance bonds.
Interlocker buildings.
Interlocker machinery.
Interlocker mechanism.
Levers.
Power apparatus primarily for the operation of signals and interlockers.
Power-distribution lines primarily for the operation of signals and interlockers.
Rail bonds.
Railway crossing signals.
Relays.
Semaphores.
Signal and switch levers.
Signal arms.
Signal blades.
Signal bridges.
Signal buildings.
Signal cables.
Signal-lamp brackets and connections.
Signal lamps.
Signal machinery.
Signal poles and foundations.
Signal pulleys and foundations.
Special appliances.
Station signals.
Train-order signals.
Wiring.

NOTE A: When signal or interlocking apparatus is located in a station building, only the cost of the signal or interlocking apparatus shall be charged to this account. The entire cost of the building shall be included in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE B: The cost of track material, such as switches, special rail braces, special rods, special track fastenings, split rails, derails, derail stands, and frogs, used in connection with interlockers, shall be included in account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE C: When derails are arranged so as to be thrown from switch stands, the cost of labor expended in the installation of the connections between the switch stand and derail and the devices for throwing the derail shall be included in account 12, "Track laying and surfacing." The cost of the material shall be included in account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE D: The cost of grading and preparing grounds both before and after the construction of signal and interlocker buildings, and the cost of constructing sidewalks, driveways, and fences thereon, shall be included in the cost of the buildings, as shall also the fees and expenses of architects specially employed for designing or supervising the construction of the buildings, but the cost of restoring the grounds after addition and betterment work shall be included in the appropriate operating expense accounts. The cost of permanent water rights shall also be included in the cost of the buildings.

§ 10.29 Power plants. This account shall include the cost of power-plant and substation buildings (housing machinery provided for in account 45, "Power-plant machinery"); all foundations other than those special to particular machines and apparatus; and also dams, canals, pipe lines, and accessories devoted to the utilization of water for power. Gas and sewer pipes and their connections, fixtures (including wiring) for lighting and heating, and furniture and miscellaneous fixtures, shall be considered as a part of the power-plant buildings.

POWER-PLANT STRUCTURE ITEMS

Buildings.
Coal pockets and trestles.
Coal bunkers.
Fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences).
Fixtures for lighting (including wiring) and heating power-plant buildings.
Foundations (except special foundations for machines and other apparatus).
Fuel-oil tanks.
Furniture.
Hose and appliances for protecting buildings against fire.
Pavement within ground limits.
Permanent rights in water supply.
Platforms.
Smoke stacks and chimneys and their foundations when distinct from and not resting on boilers.
Water, sewer, gas, and drainage pipes and connections.
Wells (but not pumps).

DAM, CANAL, AND PIPE-LINE ITEMS

Aqueducts.
Bridges.
Fences (Other than right-of-way boundary fences).
Footbridges.
Forebays.
Gates.
Grids.
Inlet valves.
Penstocks.
Reservoirs.
Roadways.
Sluices.
Valves.
Water rights.

NOTE A: The cost of power-plant machinery, including stacks resting on boilers, and special foundations for machines, shall be included in account 45, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of the buildings and of the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE C: Investment in buildings and machinery of detached plants for furnishing power both for operating purposes and for sale shall be included in this account and in account 45, "Power-plant machinery," respectively. When plants are intended and used primarily for generating power for sale to other than common carriers, the investment shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.31 Power-transmission systems. This account shall include the cost of systems for conveying electricity, steam, and compressed air from producing plants to place or building where used; also the cost of conduits and of poles, cross arms, insulator pins, brackets, and other pole fixtures, and of other structures for power-transmission and distribution systems, including those for electric railway operation, and lighting systems for general lighting purposes.

POWER-TRANSMISSION SYSTEM ITEMS

Air pipe-lines in car yards.
Cables.
Compressed air pipe-lines.
Compressed air storage tanks (not at power houses or shops).
Cut-outs (not at power houses and substations).
Feed wires.
Guard wires.
Insulators and connections.
Overhead trolley wires.
Rail-bond plugs.
Rail bonds.
Rail-insulating devices.
Span wires.
Steam-heating pipe-lines in car yards.
Steam pipe-lines.
Switchboards (not at power houses and substations).
Third rail.
Third-rail braces.
Third-rail insulation and protection.
Third-rail supports.
Transformers (not at power houses and substations).
Underground power tubes.

POLE-LINE AND CONDUIT ITEMS

Braces and other supports for holding poles in position.
Brackets and other pole fixtures.
Conduits for wires and cables.
Cross arms.
Cutting and trimming trees.
Guy stubs.
Guy wires.
Insulator pins.
Manholes.
Poles.
Sewer traps.
Stenciling or painting letters or numbers on poles.
Towers.

NOTE A: The cost of wire and pipe-distribution systems located within shop buildings and in stations and office buildings shall be included in the cost of the buildings, except that lateral service lines to equipment-shop machines shall be included in account 44, "Shop machinery." The cost of distribution systems used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE B: The cost of conduits and of poles and fixtures for telegraph and telephone, or signal lines shall be included in account 26, "Telegraph and telephone lines," or account 27, "Signals and interlockers," as appropriate. The cost of poles and conduits used for telegraph and telephone or signal lines and for power-distribution lines shall be included in the account appropriate according to their predominant use.

§ 10.35 Miscellaneous structures. This account shall include the cost of all permanent structures not provided for elsewhere, including all fixtures and furniture to equip them for use.

§ 10.37 Roadway machines. This account shall include the cost of the initial outfit of roadway machines provided for the maintenance of roadway and structures at the time the road is opened for commercial traffic, and the cost of additional roadway machines acquired subsequently.

LIST OF ROADWAY MACHINES

Boilers, portable.
Cars, hand.
Cars, lever.
Cars, motor inspection.
Cars, push.
Cars (small), crane, for supply yards and general use.
Concrete mixers.
Ditching machines.
Dredging machines.
Engines, portable.
Grading outfits.
Hydraulic outfits.
Jacks, hydraulic.
Log loaders.
Pile drivers.
Plows, unloading.
Rail unloaders.
Rock crushers.
Steam rollers.
Timber trucks.
Velocipedes.

NOTE A: When an important addition and betterment project or the construction of a new line necessitates the purchase of roadway machines to be used exclusively thereon, the cost shall be included in the accounts to which the cost of the work is charged. The amount realized from any subsequent sale, or the appraised value of the machines retained after the completion of the special work for which they were purchased, shall be credited to the accounts charged with the cost thereof. The appraised value of such machines retained shall be debited to this account and thereafter considered as the cost of such property.

NOTE B: The cost of machines for the equipment of roadway shops shall be included in account 17, "Roadway buildings," as provided for therein.

NOTE C: The cost of roadway machines, such as pile drivers, log loaders, hoist engines, and concrete mixers, when permanently mounted for movement on the carrier's tracks, shall be included in account 57, "Work equipment."

§ 10.38 Roadway small tools. This account shall include the cost of the initial outfit of roadway and track small tools provided for the maintenance of way and structures at the time the road is opened for commercial traffic; also the initial outfit of such tools provided for the maintenance of extensions of such road.

LIST OF ROADWAY TOOLS

NOTE: The cost of roadway and track small tools of which no specific record is kept shall be charged when acquired to an appropriate materials and supplies account, from which they shall be charged as issued to the appropriate road and equipment, operating expense, or other accounts. When such tools are used both for construction and maintenance work the cost shall be equitably apportioned among the accounts provided for the two classes of work.

§ 10.39 Public improvements; construction. This account shall include amounts assessed on carrier property by governmental authority (by mutual agreement or otherwise) to cover the cost of constructing public improvements, when such assessments are made against property within defined areas of taxing districts. It shall also include the cost borne by the carrier of public improvements constructed by it under governmental requirements.

The entire amount of each assessment for public improvements shall be included in this account as soon as it is determined.

ITEMS

Cost of land outside carrier's right of way to provide for the relocation of streets or highways or providing slopes therefor.
Cost of removal and relocation of buildings and other structures in connection with the construction of streets and highways.
Curbing streets and highways.
Damage to property of others when incidental to highway construction.
Drainage systems.
Engineering—When such costs apply to items chargeable to this account.
Flood protection.
Grading streets and highways.
Guttering streets and highways.
Irrigation systems.
Levees.
Overhead highway bridges, including approaches.
Paving streets and highways, including such pavings at crossings.
Planking, highway crossings.
Sewer systems.
Sidewalks.
Street-lighting systems.
Water works.

NOTE A: The cost of railway facilities installed in connection with joint public improvement projects if not in excess of total costs borne by the carrier shall be included in accounts other than account 39, "Public improvements—Construction," appropriate for the class of property installed. Any costs borne by the carrier in excess of the cost of railway facilities shall be charged to this account.

NOTE B: The cost to the carrier of maintaining public improvements shall be included in Operating Expenses.

NOTE C: Any portion of the cost of public improvements which is included in the general tax levy for a regular taxing district shall be included in the account appropriate for taxes.

NOTE D: The amount of the deferred payments of assessments for public improvements if payments are to be made within one year, shall be included in account 768, "Other current liabilities." If the payments are spread over a longer period they shall be credited to account 770, "Other deferred liabilities." The interest paid on such assessments shall be included in account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

NOTE E: Interest and penalties imposed, on basis of monthly or annual percentage rates, for failure to pay assessments within the allotted time shall be charged to account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

NOTE F: Assessments on noncarrier property for the cost of constructing public improvements shall be charged to account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.40 Revenues and operating expenses during construction. This account shall include the cost of operating a piece of road during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains, including rent and repairs of equipment used in commercial service during such period. It includes the cost of running construction trains over such section of road when the cost of operating such trains can not properly be charged to any specific account.

To this account shall be credited amounts collected for rents of buildings and other properties and for the transportation of commercial freight or of passengers on construction trains; also the net profits from boarding and commissarial outfits, and other sources of operating revenue.

Carriers which wish to subdivide this account shall use appropriate subaccounts corresponding to accounts prescribed for operating revenue, operating expense, or income accounts.

§ 10.42 Reconstruction of road property acquired. When road property acquired is in such physical condition that it is necessary to substantially rebuild the road in order to bring it up to the standard required by the carrier the accounting for such reconstruction including retirements in connection therewith shall be presented to the Commission for approval before being entered in the accounts.

NOTE: A comprehensive statement of the estimated amount necessary to reconstruct a road in accordance with the above provision shall be made to the Commission as soon as the estimate is made.

§ 10.43 Other expenditures; road. This account shall include items which can not properly be included in any of the foregoing accounts as a part of the cost of any specific work, amounts paid for rent and repairs of equipment and for injuries to persons incident to and in connection with original road, road extensions, or additions and betterments; and analogous items. When assignable, such expenditures shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with which the expenditure occurs.

NOTE: Rents paid for and repairs made to equipment used in commercial operations during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains shall be charged to account 40, "Revenues and operating expenses during construction."

§ 10.44 Shop machinery. This account shall include the cost of machinery and other apparatus in shops and engine houses, including the cost of special foundations and installation, and cost of small hand tools necessary first to equip a shop.

NOTE A: The cost of power machinery and other apparatus installed in a shop as part of the shop equipment shall be included in account 44, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of power machinery and other apparatus installed in station and office buildings shall be included in account 16, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of the buildings and the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: The cost of foundations other than those special to particular machines and other apparatus shall be included in the cost of the building and not in this account.

NOTE E: The cost of machinery and buildings of detached plants for producing power both for operating purposes and for sale shall be included in this account and in account 29, "Power plants," respectively. When plants are intended and used primarily for generating power for sale to non-carriers the investment shall be included in account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.47 Unapplied construction material and supplies. This account shall include the cost of material and supplies located at the point of use which have been purchased for projected new roads and road extensions.

The purpose of this account is to exclude from the current assets the cost of supplies and unapplied material which are located for use on projected new roads and road extensions, under the condition that the material will not be used for other purposes.

NOTE A: Material and supplies designed for projected new roads and road extensions which are carried in storehouses and store yards and included in the general stock of an operating company shall be included in balance-sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

NOTE B: The cost of unapplied materials and supplies on hand at the completion of construction work shall be transferred to balance-sheet account 716, "Material and supplies."

EQUIPMENT

§ 10.50 Equipment. The several primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the cost of the several classes of equipment owned by the carrier, or held under equipment trust agreements for purchase.

To the appropriate primary accounts in this general account shall be charged the cost of all equipment, such as steam locomotives, electric locomotives, passenger-train cars, freight-train cars, work equipment, floating equipment, and the necessary appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures first to equip for service, including the cost of inspection, setting up, and trying out, and transportation over foreign lines; also the cost of additions, such as headlights, mechanical stokers, power brakes, vestibules, machinery for self-propulsion, heating and lighting apparatus, and the like; and the excess cost of betterments, such as improved appliances, parts, or appurtenances, over the cost at current prices (as new) of the appliances, parts, or appurtenances removed. The cost of removing the old appliances and applying the improved shall be charged to operating expenses.

The ledger value of each unit of equipment shall be credited to the appropriate equipment account when it is permanently retired from service. (See Note A which follows.)

The service value (see Note B which follows) of the unit shall be charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment." An equitable proportion of any balances carried in accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, applicable to the equipment retired, shall be credited thereto concurrently and charged to account 330, "Retirements—Equipment."

The value of the salvage (see Note C which follows) from the unit shall be charged to account 716, "Material and supplies," or to other account appropriate according to the disposition thereof. In case the retired equipment is held without being torn down, the estimated value of the salvage therefrom shall be included in account 722, "Other deferred assets," until the salvage is recovered.

The cost of tearing down the retired unit and recovering the salvage shall be charged to account 329, "Dismantling retired equipment."

The ledger value (estimated if not known) of all parts of equipment retired and not replaced shall be credited to the property investment account and the service value thereof charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment."

When equipment of one class is converted so as to be includible in another class, the accounting shall be as provided in § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property.

When an important addition and betterment project or the construction of new lines necessitates the purchase of equipment to be used exclusively therein, the cost of such equipment shall be included in the accounts representing the cost of the work, and no charge shall be made to operating expenses for depreciation on such equipment while the cost remains so charged. The amount realized from any subsequent sale, or the appraised value of the equipment retained after the completion of the special work for which it was purchased, shall be credited to the accounts charged with its cost. The appraised value of such equipment retained shall be debited to the appropriate primary account herein, and thereafter, for the purposes of accounting, such appraised value shall be considered as the cost of the equipment.

When second-hand equipment acquired is in such physical condition that it is necessary to make extensive repairs to it to bring it up to the standard required by the carrier, the cost of such repairs shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of the equipment. A comprehensive statement of the amount estimated to be necessary to rebuild second-hand equipment in accordance with the above provision shall be furnished to the Commission as soon as the estimate is made.

When equipment is rebuilt in order to modernize and create an expectation of life fairly comparable with new units of similar type and capacity, the units shall be accounted for as retired from service and their cost as rebuilt shall be charged to the appropriate equipment account. Units of equipment accounted for as rebuilt shall conform to the requirements of the A. A. R. Code of Rules for rebuilt units. The cost of the rebuilt equipment shall be the sum of:

(1) Cost of new material applied.

(2) Current market price new of secondhand parts applied or remaining therein less allowance for secondhand condition.

(3) Cost of labor constructing rebuilt units. Provided, That such costs shall not be in excess of the cost (at current market prices of labor and material) of a new unit of equal capacity and equal expectancy of life in service, less a suitable allowance on account of the secondhand portions remaining therein.

The accounting for leased equipment retired shall be in accordance with provisions in § 10.01–7 Road property retired relating to leased road property retired.

NOTE A: The term "retired from service" as applied to equipment means equipment which has been permanently withdrawn from transportation service. The dismantling or tearing down of a unit of equipment in order to replace parts thereof with improved parts, when it does not constitute rebuilding such unit, shall be accounted for as repairs. In accounting for such repairs due consideration shall be given to the instructions with respect to accounting for additions and betterments.

NOTE B: The term "service value" as applied to equipment means the ledger value thereof less the value of the salvage therefrom.

NOTE C: The term "value of salvage" means the amount received for property retired, or for the material salvaged therefrom, if sold; or if retained, the value at which the property or the material salvaged therefrom is chargeable to account 716, "Material and supplies," or other account of this system of accounts.

The following list of units of equipment is prescribed for the purpose of designating items of equipment, the ledger value of which shall be credited to the property investment account at the time of retirement:

51. Steam locomotives.
  A complete locomotive.
  A locomotive, exclusive of tender.
  A tender.
  A locomotive booster.
52. Other locomotives.
  A complete locomotive.
  A complete motor equipment.
  A propulsion motor.
  A generator for propulsion power.
53. Freight-train cars.
  A complete car.
  A complete motor equipment.
  A freight container, complete.
  A propulsion motor.
  A generator for propulsion power.
54. Passenger-train cars.
  A complete car.
  A complete motor equipment.
  A propulsion motor.
  A generator for propulsion power.
56. Floating equipment.
  A complete vessel or boat.
  A boiler.
  A steam engine.
  An electric generator.
  A motor.
57. Work equipment.
  (a) Rail equipment:
    (1) A complete car or machine.
    (2) A boiler.
    (3) A steam engine.
    (4) A motor.
    (5) Machinery equipment (with or without tractive machinery) such as concrete mixer, snow plow, derrick, steam shovel, or pile driver.
    (6) A complete motor equipment.
    (7) A generator for propulsion power
  (b) Floating equipment—Work:
    (1) A complete vessel or boat.
    (2) A boiler.
    (3) A steam engine.
    (4) A motor.
    (5) An electric generator.
58. Miscellaneous equipment.
  A horse.
  A wagon.
  An automobile vehicle.

§ 10.51 Steam locomotives. This account shall include the cost of steam locomotives and tenders, purchased or built by the carrier, and of appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures necessary to equip them for service, including the cost of inspection, setting up, and trying out after receipt from builders, and transportation charges to the carrier's line.

LIST OF APPURTENANCES TO LOCOMOTIVES

Air-brake equipment and hose.	Metallic packing.
Arm rests.	Pneumatic sanding equipment.
Awnings.	Seat boxes.
Brake fixtures.	Signal lamps.
Cab cushions.	Speed recorders.
Cab lamps.	Steam-gauge lamps.
Clocks.	Steam-heat equipment and hose.
Coal boards.	Storm doors.
Fire-extinguishing apparatus.	Tool boxes.
Gongs.	Train-signal equipment and hose.
Head lamps.

§ 10.52 Other locomotives. This account shall include the cost of locomotives other than steam, purchased or built by the carrier, and of appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures necessary to equip them for service, including inspection, setting up, and trying out after receipt from builders, and transportation charges to the carrier's line.

NOTE. Cars with motor equipment are not to be classed as locomotives.

§ 10.53 Freight-train cars. This account shall include the cost of freight-train cars of all classes, including motor-driven cars, purchased or built by the carrier, including all appurtenances, furniture, and fixtures necessary to equip them for service, and the cost of inspection and transportation charges to the carrier's line.

§ 10.58 Miscellaneous equipment. This account shall include the cost of horses and harness; and cost of wagons, automobiles, and other highway vehicles.

GENERAL EXPENDITURES

§ 10.70 General expenditures. The primary accounts of this general account are designed to include expenditures made in connection with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, and with extensions, additions, and betterments to road and equipment property, when such expenditures can not properly be included in any of the foregoing accounts as a part of the cost of any specific work. When assignable, such expenditures shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with which the expenditures occur.

§ 10.71 Organization expenses. This account shall include all fees paid to governments for the privilege of incorporation, and office and other expenditures incident to organizing the corporation and putting it in readiness to do business; cost of preparing and distributing prospectuses; costs of soliciting subscriptions for stock; cash fees paid to promoters, and the actual cash value (at the time of the organization) of securities paid to promoters for their services in organizing the enterprise; special counsel fees; cost of preparing and issuing certificates of stock; cost of procuring the necessary certificates from State authorities; and other like costs.

NOTE: Cost of soliciting for loans or for the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be charged to balance-sheet account 725, "Discount on funded debt."

§ 10.72 General officers and clerks. This account shall include the pay and expenses of executive and general officers and of general office clerks engaged exclusively in connection with the construction of new road and extensions.

NOTE: The salaries and expenses of executive and general officers and of general office clerks engaged in connection with the conduct of commercial operations during the period before the regular operation of revenue trains shall be included in account 40, "Revenues and operating expenses during construction."

§ 10.73 Law. This account shall include specific and distinct expenditures, not provided for elsewhere, for law service in connection with the acquisition of new road, road extensions, additions, and betterments, such as pay and expenses of counsel, solicitors, and attorneys, their clerks and attendants, and expenses of their offices.

ITEMS OF EXPENSES

Arbitrators' services in settlement of disputed questions.
Cost of taking depositions.
Cost of testimony.
Costs of suits.

NOTE A: The cost of printing bonds, etc., in connection with the carrier's funded debt shall be included in balance-sheet account 725, "Discount on funded debt."

NOTE B: The cost of stationery and printing, when assignable, shall be included in the cost of the property in connection with the acquirement or construction of which the expenditure occurs.

§ 10.75 Taxes. This account shall include State, county, township, city, school, road, annual franchise, and all other taxes and assessments levied and paid on property belonging to the carrier during construction and before the facilities are used for commercial operations, except special assessments for street and other improvements chargeable to account 39, "Public improvements—Construction."

NOTE: Taxes during construction, when assignable, shall be included in the cost of the property acquired or constructed.

§ 10.76 Interest during construction. When any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness are sold, or any interest-bearing debt is incurred for acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, extensions, additions, and betterments, the interest accruing on the part of the debt representing the cost of property chargeable to road and equipment accounts (less interest, if any, allowed by depositaries on unexpended balances) after such funds become available for use and before the receipt or the completion or coming into service of the property so acquired shall be charged to this account.

When such securities are sold at a premium the proportion of such premium assignable to the time between the date of the actual issuance of the securities and the time when the property acquired or the improvement made becomes available for service shall be credited to this account.

This account shall also include such proportion of the discount and expense on funded debt issued for the acquisition of original road, original equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments, as is equitably assignable to the period between the date of the actual issuance of securities and the time when the property acquired or the improvement made becomes available for the service for which it is intended. The proportion of discount and expense thus chargeable shall be determined by the ratio between the period prior to the completion or coming into service of the facilities or improvements acquired and the period of the entire life of the securities issued.

NOTE A: Interest on bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness accruing before the proceeds from the sale of the securities become available for use shall not be included in this account, nor shall there be included any interest accruing after the property with respect to which the proceeds are expended is received or becomes available for use in connection with commercial service.

NOTE B: If any securities which have been issued or assumed by the carrier are sold or exchanged by or for the carrier for a consideration the actual money value of which at the time of such sale or exchange is less than the value of the securities at par and the accrued interest thereon, if any, the difference between the money value of the consideration received and the par value of the securities plus the accrued interest shall be deemed a discount. In no case (except as provided in the third paragraph of this account) shall discounts be included as part of the cost of anything charged to any account prescribed in this classification.

NOTE C: For definition of securities actually issued, see Note B, under general balance-sheet account 755, "Funded debt unmatured."

NOTE D: Whenever interest, premium or discount assignable to the construction period is incurred in connection with an expenditure covered by some specific road and equipment account or accounts, such interest, premium, or discount shall be charged directly to the specific accounts to which it is related.

NOTE E: This account shall not include interest during the construction period on the carrier's own funds expended in connection with the acquisition or construction of original road and equipment, extensions, additions, and betterments.

§ 10.77 Other expenditures; general. This account shall include all expenditures of a special and incidental nature in connection with the acquisition and construction of original road and equipment, road extensions, additions, and betterments which can not properly be included in any other account in this classification.

OPERATING REVENUES AND OPERATING EXPENSES

§ 10.02 General instructions. The carrier's records shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided herein for railway operations. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detail records to permit ready identification, and the detail records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

§ 10.02–1 Operating accounts. The accounts of this classification are designed to show the revenues and expenses (including the maintenance of the facilities used) of the carrier's railway operations, including rail-line transportation, water-line transportation, if any, and services incident to transportation.

"Transportation" includes the receipt, conveyance, and delivery of traffic.

"Rail-line transportation" includes not only the conveyance of traffic over tracks, but also the necessary conveyance by water transfers (ferriage, lighterage, and floatage) either between track terminals or between track terminals and points not reached by tracks.

Carriers are at liberty to subdivide the general and primary accounts here given, but if this option be exercised a statement of the accounts adopted shall be filed in the office of the Bureau of Accounts of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"The carrier" means the accounting carrier, except when otherwise specifically indicated.

§ 10.02–2 Unaudited items affecting operating accounts. When it is known that a transaction has occurred which affects operating revenues or operating expenses, but the amount involved and its effect upon the accounts cannot be determined with absolute accuracy, the amount thereof shall be estimated and included in the appropriate operating and balance-sheet accounts. Any such estimate shall be revised whenever and at the time a substantial change is indicated and shall be finally adjusted as soon as the exact amount is determined. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the operating accounts.

Any change in practice of accounting for accruals or any unusual accruals involving substantial amounts shall be reported promptly to the Commission. Accruals shall not be recorded for purely speculative items, but shall be limited to reasonable estimates on reliable information of transactions that will be consummated.

§ 10.02–3 Delayed items. Delayed items and adjustments, except adjustments pertaining to accounts 702½C, "Accrued depreciation — Road," and 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," arising during the current year which are applicable to prior years, shall be included in the same account which would have been charged or credited if the item had been taken up or adjusted in the year to which it pertained. When the amount of the delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the appropriate account for the current year would seriously distort the revenues, expenses or income of the current year, the amount of the delayed item may be credited to account 520, "Delayed income credits," or charged to account 557, "Delayed income debits," as may be appropriate.

When the amount of a delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the accounts for a single month will seriously distort those accounts it may be distributed in equal monthly charges to the remaining months of the calendar year.

"Delayed items" are items representing transactions which occurred before the calendar year.

§ 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations. The revenues and expenses of miscellaneous operations involving the use of such facilities as hotels, restaurants, grain elevators, storage warehouses, stock yards, power plants, cold storage plants, etc., shall not be included in the accounts of this classification unless the operation of the facilities is conducted by the railway companies in connection with furnishing transportation services.

§ 10.02–5 Submission of questions. To the end that uniformity of accounting may be maintained from year to year, carriers shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation of the accounting rules to the Commission for consideration and decision.

OPERATING REVENUES

§ 10.03 Special instructions.

§ 10.03–1 Accounts for operating revenues. The accounts provided for operating revenues are designed to show amounts of money which a carrier becomes entitled to receive from transportation and from operations incident thereto.

Credits to the revenue accounts shall as nearly as practicable be upon the basis of accruals of revenue.

Uncollected tariff charges on unclaimed and refused shipments of freight, such refused shipments having been transported in accordance with the contract of shipment, shall be charged to the appropriate revenue account to which shall be credited the proceeds derived from the sale of such unclaimed and refused freight.

The carrier's tariff charges on lost, destroyed, or damaged shipments, for which charges neither consignees nor consignors are liable, shall be charged to the revenue accounts previously credited.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the revenue accounts shall include collections in excess of proper charges, such collections being subject to refund, and there shall be charged to the revenue accounts uncollectible revenue charges determined after the service has been rendered.

§ 10.03–2 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of items to be credited and of items to be charged have been given as a part of the text of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules. They are not to be considered as comprising all the items creditable or chargeable to the several accounts, but merely as representative of them.

The items contained in the lists of items to be charged to the respective accounts are chargeable only when such items have been, through oversight, included in the credits to the accounts, or they are items of revenue payable to others for service to be rendered in accordance with the tariff provisions applicable to the rates upon which the credits to the several accounts have been based.

§ 10.03–3 Accruals of revenues. In order that operating revenue accounts may as nearly as practicable include the full amount of revenues accruing to the carrier each month, the carrier shall accrue currently in the appropriate revenue and balance-sheet accounts estimates of unaudited items affecting revenues. If these estimates are not fully adjusted in the following month, the balances in the balance-sheet accounts shall be kept separately by months until each is adjusted. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the revenue accounts.

§ 10.03–5 Delayed items. Cancellation of entries recorded in balance-sheet accounts relating to operating revenues of former years shall be recorded in accordance with § 10.02–3 Delayed items.

REVENUE ACCOUNTS

TRANSPORTATION

§ 10.100 Transportation; rail line. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show amounts of money which the carrier becomes entitled to receive or which accrue to its benefit from service rendered in transporting property or persons by rail line. (See § 10.02 General instructions.)

§ 10.101 Freight. This account shall include revenue from the transportation of freight and from transit, stop, and reconsigning privileges, upon the basis of lawful tariff rates.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

The carrier's proportion of refunds on account of errors in routing and billing.
The carrier's proportion of uncollected revenue on freight lost or destroyed in transit.
The carrier's proportion of uncollected tariff charges on damaged shipments for which charges neither shipper nor consignee is liable.

NOTE A: Amounts paid for switching empty cars otherwise than in connection with loaded movements shall be charged to operating expense account 411, "Other expenses," except that amounts paid for switching equipment for repairs shall be included in the appropriate equipment repair accounts.

NOTE B: Other carriers' proportion of revenue and of uncollectible undercharges paid by the carrier on account of its errors in routing and billing shall be charged to operating expense account 411, "Other expenses."

NOTE C: Other carriers' proportion of revenue paid by the carrier on freight lost, destroyed, or damaged in transit, for which neither consignees nor consignors are liable shall be charged to operating expense accounts 418, "Loss and damage—Freight."

NOTE D: When a lessee company transports freight over the tracks of another carrier on the basis of a proportion of revenues under a joint arrangement, it shall include the entire compensation in its revenues and statistics, charging the appropriate joint facility expense and rental accounts with the amounts paid the lessor company, and the lessor company shall credit the corresponding accounts.

The accounting in connection with transportation train service operated under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers shall be as provided in the second paragraph of § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.

NOTE E: The accrued revenue derived from the transportation of cream, sweet milk, etc., on a basis of lawful tariffs at rates per package, regardless of weights, shall be included in account 109, "Milk."

NOTE F: Revenue from the transportation of caretakers of freight shipments, when not included as a part of the freight charges on the waybill covering the freight shipments, shall be credited to account 102, "Passenger."

NOTE G: This account shall be maintained so as to show separately payments and allowances (a) to railway express agencies, (b) to motor truck companies and others, and (c) to shippers and consignees, for terminal collection and delivery services when performed in connection with line haul transportation of freight on the basis of freight tariff rates; also (d) payments for switching services when performed in connection wih line haul transportation of freight on the basis of switching tariffs and allowances out of freight rates, including the switching of empty cars in connection with a revenue movement.

§ 10.102 Passenger. This account shall include the revenue from transportation of passengers at passenger tariff fares; from the transportation of passengers at special fares as provided by law, and from incidental charges in connection therewith.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from local passenger fares.
(b) The carriers' proportion of revenue from interline passenger fares.
(c) Revenue from extra fares.
(d) Revenue from additional fares or charges for exclusive use of a passenger car, drawing room, compartment, bedroom, etc.
(e) Revenue from mileage and scrip coupons honored for all services covered by this account.
(f) Revenue from transportation of passengers in special cars or on special trains when charge is based on passenger fare per capita, regardless of the number of passengers actually transported.
(g) Revenue from a guaranteed minimum amount not based on per capita fare, for transportation of passengers on special or chartered trains.
(h) Cash fare penalty collections.
(i) Unclaimed collections and deposits for transportation of passengers.
(j) Passenger fare overcharges.
(k) Revenue from transportation of corpses, based on passenger fares.
(l) Revenue from water transfers (ferriage), bride tolls, and transfers between railway stations or between railway stations and docks, received as arbitraries in division of passenger fares.

ITEMS TO BE CHARGED

(a) Amounts paid as bridge tolls, and also for ferry, depots to depot and depot to dock passenger transfer service.
(b) Amounts paid for switch in completing a passenger transportation movement.
(c) Amounts paid for switch empty passenger-train cars in connection with transportation of passengers. (See Note C.)
(d) Redemptions of unused and partially unused local tickets and redemptions of carrier's proportions of unused and partially unused interline tickets.
(e) Refund of extra fares, cash fare penalty collections, and overcharges in excess of tariff fares.
(f) Uncollectible undercharges.
(g) Overcharges on baggage transactions.
(h) Revenue from transportation of emergency shipments and articles based on double gross weight, etc.
(i) Amounts received specifically to cover movement of special or chartered baggage cars including transportation of attendants regardless of whether the charge is based upon passenger tariff fares, a stated minimum, or any other basis. This includes box cars when used for baggage service.
(j) Revenue from issuing duplicate baggage checks.

NOTE A: Gross receipts from the sale of mileage tickets, and scrip books shall be credited to a suspense account. The suspense account shall be charged and this account credited with the value of coupons as honored, in connection with any of the services provided for in "Items To Be Credited."

NOTE B: When a lessee company transports passengers over the tracks of another company under a joint arrangement upon the basis of a proportion of the passenger revenue, it shall include the entire compensation in its passenger revenue and statistics, charging the appropriate joint facility expense and rental accounts with the amounts paid the lessor company and the lessor company shall credit the corresponding joint facility accounts.

The accounting in connection with transportation train service operating under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers shall be as provided in the second paragraph of § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts, and Case 297, Accounting Bulletin No. 15.

NOTE C: Amounts paid for switching empty passenger-train cars otherwise than in connection with loaded movements, shall be charged to account 411, "Other expenses," except that when switched for repairs, the amounts paid shall be included in account 317, "Passenger-train cars—Repairs."

NOTE D: Revenue from the transportation of automobiles, with or without trailers, in freight service, in connection with the transportation of passengers, also revenue from loading and unloading automobiles at point of origin, destination, or enroute, shall be credited to account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.103 Baggage. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of baggage, packages, baby carriages, bicycles, household pets, dogs, etc., on passenger trains at other than freight or express tariff rates.

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) Revenue from transportation of baggage in excess of free allowances.
(b) Revenue from transportation of packages, baby carriages, bicycles, household pets, dogs, etc., at baggage tariff rates.
(c) Revenue from transportation of baggage or other articles based upon excess value.
(d) Revenue from transportation of baggage when passenger does not make corresponding trip.
(e) Revenue from excess weight of corpses based on baggage tariff charges and from special charges for transferring corpses between depots.
(f) Revenue from scrip coupons honored for any of the above-mentioned services. (See Note B.)

NOTE A: Revenue derived from transportation of shipments of silk, fish, etc., in passenger trains at freight rates, shall be included in account 101, "Freight."

NOTE B: Amounts of refunds, uncollectible undercharges, etc., involved in these credits, shall be charged to this account.

NOTE C: Gross receipts from the sale of baggage scrip books shall be credited to a suspense account. The suspense account shall be charged and this account credited with the value of the coupons as honored for any of the services covered by this account.

§ 10.104 Sleeping car. This account shall include the revenue from berth and seat accommodations furnished in sleeping cars on the basis of berth or seat rates for the space occupied.

§ 10.105 Parlor and chair car. This account shall include the revenue from seat accommodations furnished in parlor, observation, chair, and other special passenger cars when operated in passenger-train service or in special-train service at seat rates for space occupied.

§ 10.106 Mail. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of mail at established rates for specified routes; from the use of railway post-office cars when in carrier's service transporting mails; from the use of special mail facilities; and from bonuses for special mail transportation.

To this account shall be charged fines and penalties imposed by the Government when not collected from agents or employees.

NOTE: The revenue from the transportation of mail matter and empty mail pouches on freight trains at freight tariff rates shall be included in account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.107 Express. This account shall include the revenue from transportation of express matters and from use of facilities on trains and at stations incident to such transportation.

When a railway company transacts an express business through its regular railway organization, the revenue therefrom shall be credited to this account.

NOTE: When contracts for express privileges provide specific amounts for the rent of facilities at stations, such amounts shall be included in revenue account 142, "Rents of buildings and other property."

§ 10.108 Other passenger-train. This account shall include the revenue derived from the operation of passenger trains not provided for elsewhere.

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) The carrier's proportion of contract revenue derived from the operation over its line of sleeping, parlor, chair, observation and other special passenger-train cars, owned and operated by other companies.

(b) Value of portions of mileage tickets or coupons, scrip books or coupons, including baggage, circus and show scrip, unpresented and unredeemed.
(c) Revenue from transportation of newspapers at local tariff rates or at proportions of interline tariff rates.

§ 10.109 Milk. This account shall include the revenue from the transportation of cream, sweet milk, skim milk, sour milk, buttermilk, condensed milk, butterfat, and smearcase or pot cheese, upon the basis of lawful tariffs at rates per package, regardless of weights.

NOTE: The revenue from the transportation of milk upon the basis of lawful tariffs at rates per specified weights shall be included in revenue account 101, "Freight."

§ 10.110 Switching. This account shall include the revenue from switching service upon the basis of lawful tariff rates.

To this account shall be credited the carrier's revenue upon the basis of tariff rates, or the carrier's allowance out of through rates, from the switching of cars of all kinds, loaded or empty, either locally at a station or within a switching district, between connecting lines, between local industries, or between connecting lines and local industries; revenue upon the basis of distinct tariff rates for "trap-car" and "ferry-car" service and for spotting cars; also the revenue from interwork switching at industrial plants, and the revenue from "penalty switching" incident to the improper delivery of cars by other carriers.

To this account shall be charged amounts paid other for switching when such switching service is provided for in the switching rate charged by the carrier.

NOTE: "Penalty switching" charges paid by the carrier shall be included in expense account 411, "Other expenses."

§ 10.113 Water transfers; freight. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer of freight by water transfers (ferriage, lighterage, and floatage) upon the basis of lawful tariff rates for local service.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line haul.

§ 10.114 Water transfers; passenger. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer of passengers by water transfers (ferriage) upon the basis of lawful tariff rates for local service.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line conveyance.

§ 10.115 Water transfers; vehicles and live stock. This account shall include the revenue from the transfer by water transfers upon the basis of lawful local tariff rates, of vehicles of all classes; horses, cattle, and other animals; and Government artillery and equipment.

NOTE: No revenue shall be included in this account upon the basis of arbitraries out of rates for transportation involving rail line haul.

§ 10.116 Water transfers; other. This account shall include the revenue from water transfers not otherwise provided for, such as the revenue from towing beyond lighterage limits and all other towing for which an extra charge is made; insurance of freight afloat when billed out at other than cost; storage of freight afloat; grain overage in boats; pumping performed for outside parties; and from other similar sources.

To this account shall be charged amounts payable to other companies or individuals for extra lighterage, extra towing, and for all other service when such payments represent revenue collected and credited to this account and not a direct expense.

INCIDENTAL

§ 10.130 Incidental. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the amounts which the carrier becomes entitled to receive from services rendered incidentally with rail-line and water-line transportation, for the use of facilities of which the expenses for operation and maintenance are not separable from railway expenses, and from incidental sources not provided for elsewhere.

§ 10.131 Dining and buffet. This account shall include the revenue from dining and buffet service on trains and transfer boats.

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from lunches furnished.
(b) Revenue from meals furnished.
(c) Revenue from liquors furnished.

§ 10.132 Hotel and restaurant. This account shall include the revenue from hotels, restaurants, and station lunch counters. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from the rent of rooms.
(b) Revenue from the use of baths.
(c) Revenue from the use of billiard tables.
(d) Revenue from the use of bowling alleys.
(e) Revenue from lunches furnished.
(f) Revenue from meals furnished.
(g) Revenue from liquors furnished.
(h) Revenue from tobacco furnished.
(i) Revenue from cigars furnished.
(j) Revenue from cigarettes furnished.
(k) Revenue from newspapers furnished.
(l) Revenue from periodicals furnished.
(m) Revenue from tonsorial service.
(n) Revenue from laundry work.

NOTE: This account shall not include the revenues from hotels and restaurants which are entirely distinct from the carrier's transportation plant and the cost of which is included in balance-sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property."

§ 10.133 Station, train, and boat privileges. This account shall include revenue from weighing, vending, and other automatic machines located at stations; from advertising at stations and on trains and on transfer boats; from the privilege of operating news stands at stations and selling papers, periodicals, fruit, etc., on trains and on transfer boats; from telephone companies for the privilege of installing and operating commercial telephones at stations; from the operation of eating houses and dining and buffet service on trains and transfer boats when such operation is conducted by individuals or companies other than railway companies and when the expenses incurred by the carrier in connection therewith are not separable from its regular operating expenses; and from similar sources.

§ 10.134 Parcel room. This account shall include the revenue from the operation of parcel rooms.

§ 10.135 Storage; freight. This account shall include the revenue from the storage of freight.

§ 10.136 Storage; baggage. This account shall include the revenue from the storage of baggage.

§ 10.137 Demurrage. This account shall include the revenue from the detention of cars incident to loading, unloading, reconsigning, and stops in transit upon the basis of lawful tariffs for demurrage.

§ 10.138 Telegraph and telephone. This account shall include the revenue from commercial telegraph and telephone operations; also amounts received from telegraph and telephone companies, whether as a proportion of earnings or otherwise, for the privilege of transacting a commercial telegraph or telephone business in offices along the carrier's lines, when the carrier furnishes some service of employees whose pay is included in its operating expenses.

NOTE: When a telegraph or telephone company rents the telegraph or telephone line of the carrier and pays all expenses incident to its maintenance and operation, the rent received shall be credited to income account 510, "Miscellaneous rent income."

§ 10.139 Grain elevator. This account shall include the revenue from the operation of grain elevators. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from the elevation of grain
(b) Revenue from the storage of grain.
(c) Revenue from bagging grain.
(d) Revenue from screening grain.
(e) Revenue from blowing grain.
(f) Revenue from cooling grain.
(g) Revenue from clipping grain.
(h) Revenue from cleaning grain.
(i) Revenue from mixing grain.
(j) Revenue from transferring grain in elevators.
(k) Revenue from loading grain into and unloading grain from boats not covered by elevation charges.
(l) Revenue from trimming grain in boats when performed by elevator employees.
(m) Revenue from the sale of screenings and sweepings.
(n) Revenue from inspecting grain in elevators.

§ 10.140 Stockyard. This account shall include the revenue from stockyards. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

ITEMS TO BE CREDITED

(a) Revenue from feeding livestock.
(b) Revenue from watering live stock.
(c) Revenue from bedding live stock.
(d) Revenue from otherwise caring for live stock.
(e) Revenue from shearing sheep.
(f) Revenue from dipping sheep and cattle.
(g) Revenue from stalling horses.
(h) Revenue from inspecting live stock.

§ 10.141 Power. This account shall include the revenue from the sale of electric current and other power. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

§ 10.142 Rents of buildings and other property. This account shall include the revenue from the exclusive use of buildings and other property or portions thereof, such as depot and station grounds and buildings, general and other offices, wharves, ferry landings, elevators, stockyards, fuel yards, enginehouses, repair shops, and section and other houses, when the property is operated and maintained in connection with the property used in the carrier's transportation operations and the expenses of maintaining and operating the rented portion cannot be separated from the expenses of that portion used by the carrier. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

NOTE: When the expenses of maintaining and those of operating property rented to others are separable, the rents received shall be credited and the expenses of maintenance and operation shall be charged to appropriate income accounts.

§ 10.143 Miscellaneous. This account shall include the revenue from railway operations not provided for elsewhere. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations.)

LIST OF ITEMS

(a) Amounts received for privilege of cutting hay along the right of way.
(b) Commissions received for collecting premiums on insurance policies from employees and installment payments for books, watches, etc., sold by dealers to employees.
(c) Profit from jobbing and installing electric power lines for others.
(d) Revenue from boat demurrage.
(e) Revenue from freight and passenger privileges over a carrier's wharves and docks.
(f) Revenue from garnishee fees.
(g) Revenue from operation of coal and ore wharves, cold-storage plants, coal-storage plants, cotton-compress plants, and wood-preserving plants.

(n) Revenue from weighing cars.
(o) The carrier's proportion of gross revenue from operation of clergy bureaus.
(p) The carrier's proportion of gross revenue from operation of ticket validation agencies.
(q) Collections made by station ushers (Red Caps) for the handling of passengers' baggage.

NOTE: When a bridge of one carrier is jointly used by itself and another carrier and such use is paid for on the basis of flat rent or charge per train-mile or toll per passenger, per ton, or per car, the compensation therefor shall be credited to the appropriate joint facility, operating expenses, and income accounts.

JOINT FACILITY

§ 10.150 Joint facility.

§ 10.151 Joint facility—Cr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of revenue collected by others in connection with the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts of revenue from the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities operated by other companies, which under existing contracts or agreements are credited by the operating company to the tenant companies which participate therein. The bill rendered by any creditor company against a debtor company for the latter's proportion of the expense of maintenance and operation of joint facilities, which includes also a credit covering a proportion of the revenue to be paid over, shall show the distribution of the credit for such proportion of the revenue separately from the distribution of the expense of operation.

NOTE B: No credits shall be made to this account representing amounts creditable by the operating company to primary accounts 101 to 109, 113 to 116, 121 to 128, 131, 132, 139, and 140.

§ 10.152 Joint facility—Dr. This account shall include that proportion of revenue from the operation of joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities, which is creditable to other companies.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amount of revenue from operation of a terminal company or other carrier which, under the terms of existing contracts or agreements covering the joint use of tracks, yards, and other facilities, is credited to other carriers that participate in the benefits from such joint use. The bill rendered by a creditor company against a debtor company for the latter's proportion of expense of maintaining and operating joint facilities, which includes a credit covering the debtor company's proportion of the revenues from operation of such joint facilities, shall indicate separately the proper distribution of both the revenues and the expenses included in the bill, and such distribution shall be adhered to by the debtor.

NOTE B: No debits shall be made to this account representing amounts creditable by the operating company to primary accounts 101 to 109, 113 to 116, 121 to 128, 131, 132, 139, and 140.

OPERATING EXPENSES

§ 10.04 Special instructions.

§ 10.04–1 Accounts for operating expenses. The accounts prescribed for operating expenses are designed to show expenses of furnishing transportation service including the expense of maintenance and depreciation of the plant used in the service. The account shall be, as nearly as practicable, upon the basis of accruals.

"Road property" means transportation property other than equipment.

Following the texts of the primary operating expense accounts, there are provided condensed groupings of the same accounts to be used by Class II and Class III carriers. For the purpose of these condensed classifications, Class II carriers shall be those having annual operating revenues of $100,000 to $1,000,000 and Class III those having annual operating revenues less than $100,000. Small carriers which elect to use the primary accounts for large railroads shall include in annual reports the group totals required by the condensed classifications for their class.

§ 10.04–2 Maintenance expenses. The accounts provided for maintenance of road property and of equipment are designed to show the cost of repairs and also the loss through depreciation of the property used in operations, including all such expenses resulting from ordinary wear and tear of service, exposure to the elements, inadequacy, obsolescence, or other depreciation, or from accident, fire, flood, or other casualty.

The cost of repairs which has been provided for in the several repair accounts shall include the cost of inspecting to determine the repairs necessary, and of adjusting or repairing parts, both of road property and of equipment, such as the repairing of locomotives, cars, frogs, switches, rails, etc.; the cost of inspecting and testing after repairs have been made, such as the testing of locomotives after repairs to determine whether the repairs have been properly made, and the running of repaired locomotives light in order to break them in for regular service; incidental costs of repairs, such as the construction or removal of false work in connection with maintenance, cost of demolishing retired road property and disposing of the wreckage therefrom when the proerty is dismantled by or for the carrier; cost of maintaining or protecting traffic during the progress of construction work, including the cost of constructing, maintaining and removing temporary tracks required for maintaining traffic during the progress of the work; cost of mowing and beautifying grounds around buildings; repairing fences, sidewalks, driveways, and streets within or adjacent to such grounds; cost of removing snow from roofs of buildings (when not removed by those employed in the buildings); cost of periodical restoration of seasonal features, such as gardens, shrubbery, and lawns; cost of operating hothouses in connection with the work of beautifying grounds; and cost of clearing and removing casual incumbrances, such as ice, snow, and fallen timber.

Distinct maintenance accounts have been provided for expenses of a general character, such as superintendence, stationery and printing, and injuries to persons, which, on account of established practice, it is deemed advisable to segregate.

§ 10.04–3 Cost of repairs. It is intended that the repair accounts of this classification shall include the cost of labor, materials and supplies, work-train service, floating equipment work service, special machine service, contract work, privileges, protection from casualties, and other analogous items of expense in connection with the maintenance of the plant used in railway service. The several items of cost here referred to are defined as follows:

(a) "Cost of labor" includes amounts paid for the labor of the carrier's own employees. Except where otherwise specified in the text of the accounts, the cost of boarding, traveling, and other incidental expenses of employees shall be included in the accounts to which the pay of the employees is chargeable.

(b) "Cost of materials and supplies" includes the cost of materials and supplies, including small tools, at the point of free delivery, plus freight charges of foreign lines, and the costs of inspection and loading assumed by the carrier; also a proportion of store expenses (see § 10.04–16 Material store expense). It should not, however, include expenses of transportation over the carrier's line. In calculating the cost of materials used proper allowance shall be made for the value of unused portions and of cuttings, turnings, borings, etc., and for the value of the material recovered from property repaired and from temporary tracks, scaffolding, cofferdams, and other temporary structures used in repair work.

(c) "Cost of work-train service" includes cost of labor of enginemen, trainmen, and enginehouse men, including the wages of engine crews and train crews held in readiness for such service; and the cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of work trains.

(d) "Cost of floating equipment work service" includes cost of labor of crews, including wages of crews held in readiness for service; and the cost of fuel and other supplies consumed in connection with the operation of floating equipment work service.

(e) "Cost of special machine service" includes the cost of labor expended and of materials and supplies consumed in operating steam shovels, scrapers, rail unloaders, ballast unloaders, pile drivers, dredges, ditchers, weed burners, and other labor-saving machines; also rents paid for use of such machines.

(f) "Cost of contract work" includes amounts paid for work performed under contract by other companies, firms, or individuals and specific expenses incident to the award of the contract.

(g) "Cost of privileges" includes amounts paid for special privileges, such as the temporary use of public property or streets, in connection with the repairs of the property of the carrier. (Periodical payments for such privileges in connection with permanent use of public property for railway operations shall be included in the income accounts.)

(h) "Cost of protection from casualties" includes expenditures for protection against damage by fire, flood, etc., such as payments for discovery or extinguishment of fires, cost of detecting and prosecuting incendiaries, expense for witnesses in relation thereto, amounts paid to municipal corporations and others for fire protection, and other analogous items of expense in connection with repair work, but does not include insurance premiums paid to assure reimbursement for prospective losses.

§ 10.04–4 Royalties on appliances. The royalties for patent rights on mechanical appliances used in repairs of equipment shall be included in the cost of the repairs.

§ 10.04–5 Road property retired. The service value (ledger value less salvage and insurance recovered, if any) of road property retired and replaced with property of like purpose, together with the cost of demolishing and removing the retired property, shall be accounted for in accordance with § 10.01–7 Road property retired.

§ 10.04–6 Distribution of charges for nondepreciable road property retired. In case the amount chargeable to operating expenses for nondepreciable property retired, as provided in § 10.01–7 Road property retired, is relatively large and its inclusion would seriously distort the expenses for the year, the carrier, if so authorized by the Commission, may charge the amount thereof to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it thereafter in accordance with the provisions of that account to operating expenses of the current and succeeding years.

§ 10.04–7 Adjustment for converted property. When a unit of equipment or fixed property by its transfer from one class of service to another, with or without physical conversion, becomes includible in a primary investment account other than that in which it has been carried, the procedure outlined in § 10.01–11 Adjustment for converted property shall be followed.

§ 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property. (a) There shall be charged monthly to operating expenses or other appropriate accounts and credited to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," during the service life of depreciable road property amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current repairs or covered by insurance. The charges for currently accruing depreciation shall be computed in conformity with the group plan by applying to the original cost or the estimated original cost of the road property as found by the Bureau of Valuation such percentage rates as will distribute the service value by the straight-line method in equal annual charges to operating expenses or other accounts during the estimated life of the property. Pending the compilation of the original cost figures to a current date by the Bureau of Valuation, the carrier shall use as a depreciation base that bureau's figures as far as they have been summarized and add thereto the cost for the subsequent years as recorded in its Order No. 3 records and accounts. Such adjustment of original cost figures as may be necessary after the original cost figures have been summarized by the Bureau of Valuation to a current date shall be made at that time.

NOTE: If a carrier submits proof that the actual cost to it of the depreciable road property which it owns or the actual cost to the owner of the depreciable road property which it uses and for which depreciation accounting is required, was substantially different from the original cost figures of the Bureau of Valuation, with the approval of the Commission, such carrier may use such actual cost figures as the depreciation base.

(b) As soon as the information can be assembled the carrier shall file with the Commission composite annual percentage rates estimated to be applicable to the original cost or estimated original cost of the property in each primary account covering depreciable road property owned or used by it. These percentage rates shall be based on the estimated service values and service lives of the road property developed by a study of the carrier's history and experience and such engineering and other information as may be available with respect to future conditions. Such percentage rates shall, for each primary account comprised of more than one class of road property, produce a charge for depreciation based on the original cost or estimated original cost of the depreciable property included in such account equal to the sum of the amounts that would otherwise be chargeable as depreciation for each of the various classes of property included in such account. The annual percentage rates when filed shall be accompanied by a sworn statement showing the bases therefor and the methods employed in their computation.

(c) The carrier shall keep such records of depreciable property and property retirements as will reflect the service life of property which has been retired, or will permit the determination of service life indications by mortality, turnover, or other appropriate methods; also such records as will reflect the percentage of value of the salvage for property retired from each class of depreciable property. The carrier shall be prepared at any time, upon direction of the Commission, to compute and submit for its approval revised percentage rates in cases where existing rates are deemed inapplicable.

(d) A separate composite annual percentage rate for each account covering depreciable property shall be used in computing depreciation charges. Such composite rates shall be those which are from time to time prescribed by the Commission except, that where no rates for any class of property have previously been prescribed for the carrier's use by the Commission, the carrier's estimate of composite annual percentage rates computed in accordance with paragraph (b) of this instruction shall be used prior to the date such rates are prescribed by the Commission.

NOTE: Until such time as the carrier's estimates of composite annual percentage rates have been computed, the carrier shall base its depreciation charges upon the percentage rates obtained from the Bureau of Valuation which is prepared to furnish such rates upon request.

(e) In computing monthly charges the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the depreciation base as of the first of each month and the result divided by twelve.

(f) In the event annual percentage rates prescribed by the Commission, in the judgment of the carrier, become no longer currently applicable, it shall in like manner file revised annual percentage rates which in its judgment should be established. Where property is acquired for which no rates have been prescribed the carrier shall immediately compile and submit to the Commission appropriate estimates developed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this instruction.

(g) For the purpose of the group plan of depreciation accounting for road property the following primary accounts under § 10.0 Road, are classed as depreciable accounts:

1. Engineering (as appropriately assigned, but not distributed, to the other depreciable accounts in arriving at the amounts used as the depreciation base).
$2\frac{1}{2}$. Other right-of-way expenditures.

8. Grading (depreciable property recorded in this account).
5. Tunnels and subways.
6. Bridges, trestles and culverts.
7. Elevated structures.
13. Fences, snowsheds, and signs.
16. Station and office buildings.
17. Roadway buildings.
18. Water stations.
19. Fuel stations.
20. Shops and enginehouses.
21. Grain elevators.
22. Storage warehouses.
23. Wharves and docks.
24. Coal and ore wharves.
26. Telegraph and telephone lines.
27. Signals and interlockers.
29. Power plants.
31. Power-transmission systems.
35. Miscellaneous structures.
37. Roadway machines.
39. Public improvements—construction.
44. Shop machinery.
45. Power-plant machinery.

NOTE: With respect to accounts 2½, 3, 5, and 39, carriers may confine the accruals to the depreciable property recorded therein by applying the percentage rates furnished by the Bureau of Valuation to the aggregate cost of such property (omitting nondepreciable property), in computing depreciation charges, or they may request the Bureau of Accounts to prescribe percentage rates covering obsolescence due to the premature retirement of certain nondepreciable property, in which case the composite percentage rates will be applied to the total amount recorded in each of the accounts in computing depreciation charges.

(h) The accounting for depreciation on road property leased from others shall be in accordance with § 10.05–2 Leased road and equipment; depreciation. The depreciation on road property includible in operating expenses by the lessee under that instruction shall be computed and stated under the group plan in accordance with the foregoing instructions pertaining to the carrier's own road property.

(i) The term "group plan" means the plan under which depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the original cost of depreciable road property for each primary road account using the service lives of the individual depreciable units in the accounts and properly weighting to determine the composite annual rate of depreciation. Upon the retirement of a unit of property, its full service value is chargeable to account 702½C, "Accrued depreciation—Road," whether or not the particular item has attained the average service life.

(j) The owning carrier shall include in the depreciation accounts in operating expenses the charges for depreciation on units of depreciable property jointly used with one or more other carriers. The owning carrier shall credit and each using carrier shall charge the appropriate joint facility accounts in operating expenses with the amounts billed by the owning carrier against each using carrier for its proportion of the service loss on property retired from service whether billed currently as depreciation or when retirements occur as the loss in service value. The using carriers shall be required to account for depreciation or retirement of units of road property jointly used but not owned only to the extent of their contract liability. The same principle shall apply to terminal companies and their nonowner tenants in accounting for depreciation accruals or retirement charges recorded in the accounts of the terminal companies.

(k) If the cause of the retirement of the unit or units of road property is not a recognized factor in depreciation and the loss is not covered by insurance, the carrier may upon proof that the charge will result in unduly depleting the depreciation reserve, and with the approval of the Commission, charge all or a part of the service value of the property, less the estimated depreciation accrued thereon, to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it from that account to account 267, "Retirements—Road."

§ 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts. Accounts thus designated have been provided for the joint users of tracks, bridges, yards, wharves, stations, and other facilities to indicate the proper accounting for settlements which cover income and operating expenses in connection with the use of such facilities, and for settlement covering cost of yard service. When the compensation for the use of facilities is a fixed amount or is based upon a charge per passenger, ton, car, or other unit, it shall be fairly apportioned by the operating company among the joint facility operating expense and income accounts. The creditor shall show the distribution of these charges upon its bills, and such distribution shall be adhered to by the debtor.

Train service in connection with the line haul of traffic, including that operated under a joint arrangement for the benefit of two or more carriers is not considered a joint facility operation and the settlements between carriers covering items chargeable to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall not be included in the joint facility accounts.

§ 10.04–10 Clearing accounts. In recognition of the fact that certain expenditures incident to the construction and the operation of property are not chargeable directly to any particular property investment or expense account, clearing accounts have been provided for the purpose of securing an equitable distribution of such items to the proper primary accounts, as hereinafter set forth.

§ 10.04–11 Gravel and sand pits and quarries. When a gravel or sand pit or quarry is opened for operations likely to extend over a long period, an account shall be set up designated "Operations of gravel pit at _____," or "Operations of quarry at _____," as the case may be. To this account shall be charged:

(a) That part of the cost of the land in excess of its estimated value after the gravel, sand, or stone has been removed, the amount thus charged being concurrently credited to the property account in which the cost of the land is included.

(b) Amounts paid for the right to enter upon and remove ballast from land not owned by the carrier.

(c) The cost of sinking test holes.

(d) The expenses for clearing, stripping, draining, and ditching the land, and of moving and changing fences and buildings preparatory to opening the pit or quarry.

(e) The cost, in excess of the estimated salvage value, of rails and fastenings used in constructing tracks to and in the gravel pit or quarry, the estimated salvage being carried in an appropriate suspense account.

(f) The cost, in excess of the estimated salvage value, of ties and other material, and of labor expended on such tracks.

(g) The cost of labor and train service employed in producing, quarrying, and loading ballast, including the cost of operation, repairs, and depreciation of stationary engines, steam shovels, stone crushers, and other similar machinery, and the pay and expenses of watchmen.

(h) The cost of explosives and hand tools, and miscellaneous expenses.

(i) The cost of installing, operating, and maintaining signals and interlockers at gravel pits.

Credit to these accounts shall be made each month to cover the cost of ballast material produced during the month. The cost of production shall include the expenses directly assignable to the monthly output, plus a proportion of the expenses not directly assignable, such as cost of land, tracks, machinery, and interlockers. This latter amount shall be computed upon the basis of the ratio which the monthly output bears to the total estimated yardage to be taken from the pit.

When any portion of the product of such pits or quarries is sold, the cost thereof shall be credited to this clearing account, and the profit thereon, if any, shall be credited to revenue account 143, "Miscellaneous."

§ 10.04–12 Power plant operations. The accounting for the expenses of maintaining and operating an electric, steam, or other power plant (both building and machinery) shall be determined by the purpose for which the power produced is used.

When the power plant is intended and used for producing power solely for the carrier's own operations and the cost of operating the plant is chargeable to clearing account "Shop expenses," or to any one specific account for operating expenses the expenses of maintenance shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance accounts, and the cost of operation to the account appropriate according to the use of the power.

When the power from such a plant is properly chargeable to more than one account, the expenses of maintaining and operating the plant shall be included in clearing account "Power plant operations." The expense of maintenance shall be cleared from that account to the appropriate maintenance accounts for operating expenses. The expenses of operation shall be apportioned to the appropriate accounts upon the basis of quantity of power used for the various purposes.

When a part of the power produced by a power plant is sold and the remainder is used in the carrier's own operations, the cost of maintaining and operating the plant shall be charged to a clearing account. The expense of maintenance shall be cleared from that account to the appropriate maintenance account in operating expenses. The proportion of the expenses of operation assignable to the power sold, on the basis of ratio of quantity of power sold to total quantity of power produced, shall be credited to this clearing account and charged to account 445, "Producing power sold." The remainder of the cost of operation shall be distributed to the appropriate expense accounts for the carrier's own operations, in the manner indicated in the preceding paragraphs.

When power plants are intended and used solely for furnishing power to others, the investment therein shall be included in balance sheet account 705, "Miscellaneous physical property," and the operation shall not be included in the accounts of this classification. (See § 10.02–4 Miscellaneous operations and income account 534, "Expenses of miscellaneous operations.")

§ 10.04–14 Maintaining transmission and distribution systems. The accounting for the maintenance of transmission systems and distribution systems shall be in accordance with instructions pertaining to power plant operations.

§ 10.04–15 Shop expenses. A clearing account entitled "Shop expenses" shall be kept, to which shall be charged items of expense at shops, enginehouses, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done, not assignable, directly to specific accounts. Such expenses shall be apportioned among the various accounts affected. The basis of distribution shall be the relative proportion which the total amount of charges to "Shop expenses" bears to the total of the directly distributed labor. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of shop expenses to the total of distributed labor, carriers are permitted to make the monthly apportionment on the basis of a percentage of the distributed labor, provided the shop expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year. The expenses assignable to this account are as follows:

(a) General shop employees. The pay of general foremen in small shops, who exercise direct supervision over all departments unassisted by department foremen; the pay of department foremen, assistant department foremen, other supervising or directing employees, and their clerks; pay of chauffeurs and oilers; pay of sweepers, cleaners, roustabouts, and other unskilled laborers employed in general work in and about shops and shop grounds; pay of watchmen, gatekeepers, and policemen at shops, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done; pay of employees while attending fires or fire drills; and pay of employees while making, repairing, or having charge of small shop tools.

(b) Power. The cost of fuel used in steam and other power plants in producing power for shops and for other places at which mechanical work is done; cost of oil, grease, waste, and other material used in the operation of such power plants; pay of stationary engineers, firemen, electricians, coal handlers, and other employees engaged in production of power; cost of carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, picks, pokers, scuttles, shovels, and other small tools and supplies; and cost of water and power purchased. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(c) Heating. The cost of fuel and other supplies used for heating shops and other places at which mechanical work is done, shop offices, watchmen's and gatekeepers' boxes, and inspectors' shanties; and the pay of firemen, coal handlers, and other employees engaged in operating heating boilers. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(d) Lighting. The cost of electric current, gas, oil, torches, lamp burners, lamp chimneys, lamps not permanently attached to buildings, incandescent lamps and carbons, and other material used in lighting shops and shop offices, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done, and cost of material used and labor expended in operating electric-light plants and repairing electric-light and other lamps at shops. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

(e) Switching locomotives. All expenses, including wages, fuel, and supplies, of operating switching locomotives when exclusively assigned to switching service at shops. (The expenses of incidental switching at shops by locomotives in transportation switching service shall be charged to appropriate transportation accounts.)

(f) Shop supplies. Fuel for forge and other shop work; supplies and small tools used by mechanics on miscellaneous work and not durable; test-room and laboratory supplies used in connection with shop work; lubricating material for shop machinery and tools; water used at shops and shop offices, repair tracks, and other places at which mechanical work is done; and other supplies used generally in shop work.

(g) Incidental expenses. Watchmen's uniforms, clocks, and call boxes; traveling expenses connected with the operation of shops and not directly chargeable to other accounts; removal of snow and ice from transfer tables and shop yards; cleaning of privy vaults; horse keep; cost of ice for shops; and other undistributed shop expenses.

§ 10.04–16 Material store expenses. To a clearing account called "Material store expenses" shall be charged expenses in connection with purchasing, handling and storing material in and distributing it from the company's storehouses, including the pay of officers and employees in the purchasing and store departments and their traveling, office, and other expenses; also all expenses, including wages, fuel, and supplies, of operating switching locomotives when exclusively assigned to the service of switching at material storehouses. (Expenses of incidental switching at material yards by locomotives in regular switching service shall be charged to the appropriate transportation accounts.) The pay and expenses of men employed in purchasing or inspecting a single class of material, such as ties, shall be added as store expenses to the cost of that particular material.

The total amount of storehouse expense charged to this account shall be so distributed among the accounts to which material has been charged that the amounts thus distributed will be, for each account, in proportion to the value of the material issued chargeable thereto, except that the amount representing the purchasing department expenses shall be apportioned on the value of the material issued which was purchased by that department. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of store expenses to the value of material purchased or issued, carriers may make monthly apportionment on the basis of fair percentage rates, provided the store expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year.

§ 10.04–17 Stationery store expenses. A clearing account entitled "Stationery store expenses" shall be kept, to which shall be charged expenses in connection with purchasing, handling, and storing stationery, and for distributing it from the stationery stores, including the pay of officers and employees in the stationery store department and their traveling, office, and other expenses. The amounts charged to this account shall be apportioned to the accounts to which is charged stationery issued from the store, upon the basis of the charges to these accounts for such stationery. To avoid monthly fluctuations in the ratio of store expenses to the value of material issued or purchased, carriers may make a monthly apportionment on the basis of fair percentage rates, provided the stationery store expense account be adjusted and closed out at the end of each year.

§ 10.04–18 Insurance. Provision has been made in each of the general accounts for premiums paid and amounts set aside for fire and other insurance. Amounts of insurance recovered on account of losses shall be credited to the accounts to which the losses are chargeable.

§ 10.04–19 Equalization of maintenance expenses. The cost of maintaining way and structures and equipment shall be included in the appropriate primary accounts in the month in which the expense is incurred. In case the carrier adopts a budget or estimate for all or a part of the calendar year of expenses includible in one or more primary maintenance accounts or for the general accounts 200, "Maintenance of way and structures," and 300, "Maintenance of equipment," an equitable monthly proportion of the difference between the budgeted or estimated expenses and the actual expenses chargeable each month may be debited or credited as appropriate to account 280, "Equalization—Way and structures," or account 338, "Equalization—Equipment," with contra entries in account 773½, "Equalization reserves." If certain primary accounts only are budgeted the carrier's records shall show for amounts included in the equalization accounts the amount of the equalization assignable to each such primary account.

Amounts included in account 773½, "Equalization reserves," in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, shall be cleared therefrom at the close of each calendar year through the equalization accounts originally charged or credited. (See § 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment.)

§ 10.04–20 Accruals of expenses. In order that operating expense accounts may as nearly as practicable include the full amount of expenses incurred by the carrier each month, the carrier shall accrue currently in the appropriate expense and balance-sheet accounts estimates of unaudited items affecting expenses. If these estimates are not fully adjusted in the following month, the balances in the balance-sheet accounts shall be kept separately by months until each is adjusted. The carrier is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the expense accounts.

§ 10.04–22 Interpretation of item lists. Lists of "items," "details," etc., have been given as a part of this classification for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the accounting rules in specific cases. The lists in every case are to be considered as merely representative and not as excluding from any account analogous items which happen to be omitted from the list appended. On the other hand, the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of such item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list—for example, the item of blank books under accounts 276, 334, 358, 410, and 458—and the proper charge in any one instance must be determined by the text of the account.

§ 10.04–23 Delayed items. Cancellation of entries recorded in balance-sheet accounts relating to operating expenses of former years shall be recorded in accordance with § 10.02–3 Delayed items.

§ 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment. The accounting for depreciation of equipment shall be in accordance with the following:

(a) There shall be currently charged to operating expenses, and other accounts and credited to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," during the service life of equipment, amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current repairs or covered by insurance. These charges for currently accruing depreciation shall be computed at such percentage rate of the ledger value of the equipment that the service value may be distributed under the straight-line method in equal annual charges to operating expenses and other accounts during the estimated service life of the equipment.

(b) All depreciation charges to operating expenses, and other accounts and concurrent credits to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation — Equipment," shall be made monthly in conformity with the group plan of accounting for depreciation. The term "group plan" as applied to equipment depreciation accounting means the plan under which "depreciation" charges are accrued upon the basis of the ledger value of the property included in each equipment primary account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive), using the average service life thereof properly weighted and, upon the retirement of any unit of such property, its full service value is charged to account 702½D, "Accrued depreciation—Equipment," whether or not the particular item has attained the estimated average service life. In determining such monthly charges and credits the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the ledger value, as of the first of each month, of the respective primary equipment accounts and the result divided by 12.

(c) For purposes of analysis the carrier shall maintain subsidiary records in which the reserve is broken down into component parts corresponding to each equipment primary account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive) showing in these records also in complete detail by each such primary account the current credits and debits to the reserve. Such detailed information shall be reported annually to this Commission.

(d) In determining monthly depreciation charges to operating expense, and other accounts, and the corresponding credits to the depreciation reserve, the annual percentage rates applied to the ledger value of the property included in each primary equipment account (51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive) shall be those which are prescribed from time to time by this Commission, except that where no rates previously have been prescribed, the carrier's estimate of the annual percentage rates computed in accordance with this instruction shall be used.

(e) The carrier shall keep such records of equipment retirements, as will reflect the service lives and value of salvage of each class of equipment; shall maintain in convenient and accessible form engineering and other data bearing on prospective service lives; and shall be prepared at any time upon direction of this Commission to compute and submit for its approval, new percentage rates to take the place of those based on service lives or value of salvage found to be inaccurate.

(f) If the cause of retirement of a unit of equipment is not a recognized factor in depreciation but is a cause against which the carrier is insured the depreciation reserve shall be credited with the full amount of the insurance recovered. If the cause is not a recognized factor in depreciation and the loss is not covered by insurance the carrier may upon proof that the charge will result in unduly depleting the depreciation reserve and with the approval of this Commission charge all or a part of the service value of the unit to account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," and distribute it from that account to account 330, "Retirements—Equipment."

(g) For the purpose of the group plan of depreciation accounting for equipment, the following primary accounts under account 50, "Equipment," are classed as depreciable accounts:

51. Steam locomotives.
52. Other locomotives.
53. Freight-train cars.
54. Passenger-train cars.
56. Floating equipment.
57. Work equipment.
58. Miscellaneous equipment.

(h) The accounting for the depreciation on equipment includible in operating expenses by the lessee under that instruction shall be stated under the group plan in accordance with the foregoing instructions pertaining to the carrier's owned equipment.

§ 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment. When so authorized by the Commission there may be included each month in account 268, "Deferred maintenance—Way and structures"; account 339, "Deferred maintenance—Equipment"; and account 340, "Major repairs—Equipment"; an equitable proportion of the amount estimated as necessary (a) to provide for the cost of repairs which the carrier finds it is unable to undertake or complete during any calendar year due to non-receipt of material and supplies because of priorities regulations or due to adverse labor conditions; (b) also in anticipation of major repairs to equipment when such repairs are made at intervals of several years. The amounts included in these accounts shall be concurrently credited to account 774, "Maintenance reserves." The cost of such repairs when made shall be charged according to the repairs to the appropriate primary accounts under maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment, and to the extent that provision has been made for such repairs, amounts included in account 774, "Maintenance reserves", shall be cleared therefrom through the accounts originally charged. The carrier in its application to the Commission shall give full particulars concerning the nature of the repair work specifically provided for in this section, and an estimate by primary accounts of the cost of such repairs.

Expense Accounts

Maintenance of Roadway

§ 10.200 Maintenance of way and structures. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the expenses of maintaining road property devoted to railway operations, with the exception of shop machinery, power plant machinery, and power plant apparatus, the expenses of maintaining which are includible in general account 300, "Maintenance of equipment."

The accounts for maintenance of way and structures shall be kept in such manner as to show separately, by primary accounts, the expenses directly assignable to sleeping car operations, dining and buffet service, hotels and restaurants, grain elevators, stockyards, producing power sold, and other miscellaneous operations.

§ 10.201 Superintendence. This account shall include:

(a) Pay of officers. The pay of officers directly in charge of or engaged in the maintenance of roadway and structures.

NOTE A: When employees designated above are specifically assigned to construction work, their pay and expenses while thus employed shall be charged to the work upon which engaged. (See § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

NOTE B: When officers designated above have supervision over more than one department, their salaries, the pay of their clerks and attendants and their office and other expenses shall be apportioned equitably among the departments over which they have jurisdiction.

NOTE C: No part of the pay and expenses of the officers and employees designated above shall be charged to other primary accounts under account 200, "Maintenance of way and structures."

NOTE D: The cost of stationery for maintenance of way and structures offices is chargeable to account 276, "Stationery and printing."

§ 10.202 Roadway maintenance. This account shall include:

(a) Care of roadbed. The cost of repairing roadbed.

ITEMS OF ROADWAY EXPENSE

Blasting rocks.
Building temporary tracks around slides and washouts.
Constructing and cleaning tile ditches, open ditches, and drains.
Crowning track ties with retaining earth.
Filling borrow and cattle pits.
Keeping tracks clear and repairing sub-grade in case of washouts.
Landscape gardening along roadway.
Oiling roadbed.
Removing temporary tracks around slides and washouts.
Repairing roadbed damaged by washouts.
Removing dangerous rocks.
Removing slides.
Restoring roadbed, cuts, fills, and embankments to standard width.
Sloping cuts.
Sodding roadway.

NOTE A: The cost of drains or sewers laid under tracks shall be included in account 208, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts." The cost of landscape gardening within the limits of the grounds around buildings shall be included in the appropriate repair accounts for buildings.

(b) General cleaning. The cost of cutting, removing, and disposing of brush, grass, and weeds from the right of way; plowing and digging fireguards; dressing ballast and cutting sod lines; removing miscellaneous scrap, drift, cinders, dirt, and other material from right of way and from road and terminal tracks (including tracks at stations, engine yards, and car yards); and cleaning streets used as roadways.

NOTE B: Loading ashes at engine-yard tracks shall be charged to the engine-house expense accounts.

(c) Watching roadway. The cost of extinguishing fires on right of way and adjacent thereto, and of walking, watching, and patrolling tracks and right of way.

NOTE C: The cost of watching and patrolling bridges, buildings, and miscellaneous property is provided for in accounts specifically relating to such property.

(d) Bank protection. Cost of protecting banks by repairing retaining walls, riprap, piling, piers, dikes, breakwaters, and revetments, and by changing the channels of streams to prevent cutting, washing, and sliding of embankments.

(e) Train service. The cost of work-train service in connection with work pertaining to roadway maintenance.

(f) Track changes. The cost of roadway work in connection with taking up and relocating tracks.

(g) Other expenses. The cost of roadway work not provided for elsewhere, such as official roadway inspection train service and premiums in connection with roadway maintenance.

NOTE D: Tools and supplies used by repair men and watchmen in roadway maintenance service shall be charged to account 271, "Small tools and supplies."

§ 10.206 Tunnels and subways. This account shall include the cost of repairing, ventilating, lighting, and watching tunnels and subways for the passage of trains, and the cost of special tools and supplies furnished in connection with the work.

NOTE: The cost of repairs to signals and to roadway and tracks in tunnels shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance of way accounts and not to this account.

§ 10.208 Bridges, trestles, and culverts. This account shall include the cost of repairing (including fuel and supplies used) and watching bridges, trestles, and culverts, including altering and bracing during process of filling, dredging and cleaning water channels for protection, and cleaning culverts.

The bridges, trestles, and culverts referred to in this account include only structures which carry the carrier's own tracks.

DETAILS OF BRIDGE STRUCTURES

Abutments.	Ice breakers.
Bridge signs.	Painting.
Cofferdams.	Pier protection.
Concrete and masonry ends for culverts.	Piers and foundations.
Cribs.	Pipe culverts.
Decking, including gravel for fire protection.	Retaining walls.
Dike protection.	Riprap around abutments.
Drainage systems.	Riprap at culvert ends.
Draw protection.	Supports.
Drawbridge engines and machinery.	Water channels.
False work.	Waterproofing.
Guard timbers.	Wing dams.
	Wing walls.

NOTE: When a part of the entire structure of a bridge or trestle is converted, by filling into an earth embankment, the ledger value of the structure, or of the portion thereof filled, shall be credited to road and equipment account 6, "Bridges, trestles, and culverts." In case the bridge is used in lieu of a temporary trestle for the purpose of filling, the estimated cost of such a temporary trestle shall be charged to road and equipment account 3, "Grading." The ledger value of the structure, or portion thereof, filled, less the value of the salvage and the estimated cost of trestle charged to road and equipment account 3, "Grading," shall be charged to account 702½C.

§ 10.210 Elevated structures. This account shall include the cost of repairing elevated structures and foundations of elevated railway systems.

§ 10.212 Ties. This account shall include the cost of cross, switch, bridge, and other track ties used in the repairs of tracks.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and putting ties in tracks, the cost of work-train service in connection with the distribution of the ties laid, and the cost of picking up and concentrating or disposing of the ties released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The excess cost of metal ties applied in place of wooden ties over the cost at current prices of replacing in kind the wooden ties removed shall be charged to road and equipment account 8, "Ties."

NOTE C: The cost of ties used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of ties used for repairs of tracks on car floats in account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.214 Rails. This account shall include the cost (less salvage) of rails used in the repairs of tracks; also the cost (at current prices at time of removal) of the excess in weight of heavy rails removed and lighter rails applied in repairs of tracks.

NOTE A: The cost of labor for unloading, distributing, and putting rails in tracks, the cost of work-train service in connection with the distribution of the rails laid, and the cost of picking up and concentrating the rails released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The cost of the excess weight of heavier rails applied in repairs of tracks in replacement of lighter rails shall be included in account 9, "Rails."

NOTE C: The cost of rails used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of rails used for repairs of tracks on car floats to account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.216 Other track material. This account shall include the cost (less salvage) of all track material used in the repairs of tracks, other than ballast, ties, and rails.

ITEMS OF OTHER TRACK MATERIAL

Angle bars.	Rail splices.
Anticreepers.	Splice bars.
Connecting rods.	Step chairs.
Derails.	Switch chairs.
Frog and guard-rail blocking.	Switch crossings.
Frogs.	Switch lamps.
Guard-rail clamps.	Switch locks and keys.
Guard-rail fasteners.	Switch points.
Guard rails.	Switch stands.
Main rods.	Switch-stand bolts.
Nut locks.	Switch targets.
Nuts.	Switches.
Offset bars.	Tie plates.
Rail braces.	Tie plugs.
Rail chairs.	Tie-rods.
Rail clips.	Track bolts.
Rail joints.	Track insulators.
Rail rests.	Track spikes.
Rail shims.

NOTE A: The cost of labor and train service for distributing, unloading, and applying "other track material" used, and the cost of picking up and concentrating the material released shall be charged to account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE B: The excess cost of improved or heavier track material applied for repairs of tracks, under a definite plan of changing standards, over the cost, at current prices, of material of the same weight and quality as that released, shall be charged to road and equipment account 10, "Other track material."

NOTE C: The cost of "other track material" used for repairs of tracks in quarries and ballast pits shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts, and of such track material used for repairs of tracks on car floats in account 323, "Floating equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.218 Ballast. This account shall include the cost of gravel, stone, slag, cinders, sand, and like ballast material used in the repairs of tracks, including the cost of work-train service and of unloading the material. (See § 10.04-11 Gravel and sand pits and quarries.)

When the ballast taken from a pit is not sufficient to justify the opening of a clearing account, the cost of gravel and quarry rights and cost of sinking test holes shall be included in this account.

NOTE A: The cost of loading cinders at ash pits shall be charged to account 388, "Enginehouse expenses—Yard," or to account 400, "Enginehouse expenses—Trains." No charge to cover the value of cinders accumulated by the carrier shall be included in this account.

NOTE B: The cost of labor putting ballast in tracks shall be included in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE C: The excess cost of ballasting tracks over the cost of replacing in kind to its maximum height and width the ballast previously put in the roadbed shall be charged to road and equipment account 11, "Ballast."

NOTE D: Earth placed to form a crown in the middle of the track is not to be considered as ballast.

NOTE E: The cost of ballast used for repairs of temporary tracks, such as gravel pit or quarry tracks, shall be included in the appropriate clearing accounts.

§ 10.220 Track laying and surfacing. This account shall include:

(a) Applying ballast. The cost of labor expended in preparing the roadbed, and applying ballast for repairs of tracks.

(b) Applying ties. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing and applying ties for repairs of tracks; in gathering up and disposing of the ties released; and in respacing ties.

(c) Applying rails. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing, cutting, slotting, drilling, adzing for, and laying rails for repairs of tracks; in gathering up and loading rails released; and in adjusting for expansion and contraction of rails.

(d) Applying other track material. The cost of labor expended in unloading, distributing, and applying other track material for repairs of tracks; and the cost of gathering up and loading the material released.

(e) Track maintenance. The cost of labor expended in alining, surfacing, gauging, and shimming tracks; in tightening track bolts and track spikes; in restoring rails, ties, and ballast in case of washouts, derailments, and wrecks; and in taking up tracks.

(f) Train service. The cost of work-train service (except work trains distributing ballast material) in connection with work pertaining to track laying and surfacing.

(g) Track changes. The cost of track work (exclusive of the cost of track material) in taking up and relocating tracks.

(h) Other expenses. The cost of track laying and surfacing work not provided for elsewhere, and expenses, such as repairing and replacing rail rests, official track inspection train service, and premiums in connection with track repairs.

NOTE: Tools and supplies used by track repair men and watchmen shall be charged to account 271, "Small tools and supplies."

§ 10.221 Fences, snowsheds, and signs. This account shall include:

(a) Fences. The cost of repairing right-of-way fences and snow and sand fences, farm gates, cattle guards, wing fences, aprons, and hedges, excluding those around stockyards, fuel stations, station and shop grounds, and building sites.

(b) Snowsheds. The cost of repairing snowsheds, including cost of replacing trees for protecting tracks from snow.

(c) Signs. The cost of repairing signs other than those for identification of bridges, signals, stations, and other structures. (For items of signs see account 13 "Fences, snowsheds, and signs.")

NOTE A: The cost of repairing fences (other than right-of-way boundary fences) around stockyards, fuel and water stations, and other building sites, shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for the cost of repairs of the structures.

NOTE B: The cost of repairing signs for identifying bridges, signals, stations, and other structures shall be included in the account appropriate for the cost of repairs of the structures.

NOTE C: The cost of repairing crossing signals, including crossing gates, shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

§ 10.227 Station and office buildings. This account shall include the cost of repairing station and office buildings, fixtures, and appurtenances (including those for heating and lighting), used by the carrier in its operations; also the cost of maintaining grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

STATION AND OFFICE STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Baggage rooms.	Platform, passenger, including planking between tracks.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.	Power distribution systems, interior.
Buildings and rooms for trainmen.	Reading rooms.
Buildings on piers.	Rooms for Y. M. C. A.
Call bells.	Scale houses.
Coal bins.	Sidewalks.
Coal-transferring machinery (not on coal and ore wharves).	Stables.
Coal trestles (not at fuel stations).	Station footbridges (not highway crossings).
Commissarial buildings.	Station intertrack fences.
Drainage and sewer systems.	Station platforms.
Dwellings.	Station signs.
Eating houses.	Station stairways.
Electric wiring.	Station subways (not highway crossings).
Elevators and machinery.	Station powerhouses.
Express buildings.	Stations, freight.
Fences.	Stations, passenger.
Fire-engine houses.	Stock pens.
Freight cranes.	Storehouses.
Freight derricks.	Telegraph offices.
Freight handling machinery.	Telpher systems.
Freight houses.	Track scales.
Garages.	Transfer houses.
Gas-supply systems.	Transfer platforms.
General office buildings.	Waiting rooms.
Grain cribs.	Warehouses.
Grain elevators.	Washrooms.
Grain warehouses.	Water-supply systems.
Greenhouses.
Hay houses.
Heating plants.

Office buildings.
Ore transferring machinery (not on coal and ore wharves).
Outhouses.
Pavement in ground limits.
Platforms, freight.

NOTE: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by station or office employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.229 Roadway buildings. This account shall include the cost of repairing roadway shops and other roadway buildings, including drainage, water, gas, and sewer pipes and their connections, machinery and other apparatus, fixtures, and furniture in the buildings; also the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

LIST OF ROADWAY STRUCTURES

Bins for material.	Pump houses.
Blacksmith shops.	Pumps.
Boarding houses.	Purifying plants.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.	Reservoirs.
Carpenter shops.	Settling basins.
Dwellings for roadway employees.	Stationary engines.
Fire-engine houses.	Steam pipes.
Frog shops used solely for repairs of track material.	Tanks and foundations.
Hand-car houses.	Track tanks.
Lumber sheds.	Tubs.
Offices.	Water cranes.
Outhouses.	Water-pipe lines.
Planing mills.	Water - treating plants.
Rail shops used solely for repairs of track material.	Wells.
Repair shops.	Windmills.
Scrap bins.
Section dwelling houses.
Stables.
Storehouses.
Tool houses.
Watch houses.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing signal and interlocker buildings and their appurtenances shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by employees regularly working in the buildings, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.231 Water stations. This account shall include the cost of repairing water stations, fixtures, and appurtenances used by the carrier in its operations, and the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such stations.

WATER STATION STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Boilers.	Cisterns.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.	Dams.
Buildings on piers.	Fences.
	Outhouses.
	Penstocks.

NOTE: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by water station employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.233 Fuel stations. This account shall include the cost of repairing fuel stations, fixtures, and appurtenances used by the carrier in its operations, and the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such stations.

FUEL STATION STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Breakwaters for protection of buildings.	Fuel-oil plants.
Buckets.	Fuel-oil pumps.
Buildings on piers.	Fuel-oil sumps.
Coal buggies.	Fuel-oil tanks.
Coal hoists.	Fuel platforms.
Coal pockets and chutes.	Fuel wharves.
Dumping machinery	Inclines.
Elevating machinery	Outhouses.
Fences.	Scales.
Fuel houses.	Sheds.
Fuel-oil columns.	Stationary engines.
	Tipple cars.
	Weighing apparatus.
	Wood racks.

NOTE: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by fuel station employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.235 Shops and enginehouses. This account shall include the cost of repairing shop and enginehouse buildings, fixtures, and appurtenances used by the carrier in repairing and preparing equipment, and the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

SHOP AND ENGINEHOUSE STRUCTURES AND DETAILS

Air-compressor houses.	Motor-crane tracks.
Ash pits and pockets.	Offices, shop.
Ash plants.	Oil houses.
Bins for material.	Outhouses.
Blacksmith shops.	Paint shops.
Breakwaters for protection of buildings.	Pipe lines, air, interior.
Buildings on piers.	Pipe lines, car-heating.
Car sheds.	Pipe lines, gas, interior.
Car shops.	Planing mills.
Carpenter shops.	Platforms, shop and yard.
Cinder pits.	Repair shops.
Cinder pockets.	Sand houses.
Drop pits.	Scale houses.
Dry houses.	Scrap bins.
Electric power distribution systems within buildings.	Sidewalks.
	Stables.
Enginehouses.	Steam distribution systems, interior.
Fire-engine houses.	Storehouses.
Footbridges (not public highways).	Tanks, gas.
	Tanks, oil.
Foundries.	Test rooms.
Gas-compressor houses.	Tin shops.
Heating plants.	Tool houses.
Hose houses.	Track scales.
Ice houses.	Transfer tables.
Laboratories.	Turntables
Lighting plants.	Upholstering shops.
Lumber sheds.	Warehouses.
Machine shops.	Wash rooms.
Material and supply truck tracks.	Watch houses.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing machinery and other apparatus, including special foundations in shops for maintenance of equipment shall be included in account 302, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by shop employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.237 Grain elevators. This account shall include the cost of repairing structures for the transfer, treatment, and storage of grain, including conveyors, machinery and fixtures; also the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such buildings.

The buildings referred to in this account are large elevators in which a regular grain business is handled or grain is stored for various owners.

NOTE A: Small storage elevators at way stations, where the freight is received for shipment, etc., are classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by grain elevator employees shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.239 Storage warehouse. This account shall include the cost of repairing storage warehouses, including machinery and fixtures therein; also the cost of maintaining the grounds appurtenant to such warehouses.

The buildings referred to herein are not the ordinary freight warehouses or stations where freight is received for shipment, etc., but are warehouses in which merchandise is stored and which the carrier operates as storage warehouses.

NOTE: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by storage warehouse employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.241 Wharves and docks. This account shall include the cost of repairing wharves located at marine, lake, or river docks; dredging waterways to approaches and around such structures, including removal of dredged-out material; and cutting ice in and around docks and wharves to prevent damage; also cost of repairs of cribwork, racks, or caissons for preserving the depth of water in docks; and cost of repairs of guards, piling, and other protection against damage by drift or ice.

DETAILS OF WHARVES AND DOCKS

Bridge pontoons.	Ferry bridges.
Bulkheads.	Ferry racks.
Caissons.	Ferry slips.
Cribwork.	Jetties and inclines.
Drydocks.	Transfer-bridge machinery.
Ferry-bridge machinery.	Transfer bridges.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing buildings, tracks, and machinery (not bridge machinery) on wharves and piers shall be charged to the appropriate expense accounts.

NOTE B The cost of repairing coal and ore wharves shall be charged to account 243, "Coal and ore wharves."

NOTE C: Incidental cleaning, when done by regular wharf employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.243 Coal and ore wharves. This account shall include the cost of repairing wharves and docks, including the cost of repairing conveyors, machinery, and fixtures for the transfer, treatment, blending, or storage of coal or ore.

NOTE A: The structures referred to in this account do not include small transfer or storage trestles at stations where coal is stored or delivered, such trestles being classed as station buildings.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by coal and ore wharf employees, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.247 Telegraph and telephone lines. This account shall include:

(a) Telegraph. The cost of repairs of telegraph outside plant and terminal equipment for which the carrier is responsible, including the cost of work-train service and of special tools provided for the work.

(b) Telephone. The cost of repairs of telephone outside plant and terminal equipment for which the carrier is responsible, including the cost of work-train service and of special tools provided for the work.

NOTE: The salaries, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of superintendents of telegraph and telephone, their assistants, clerks, and attendants, when engaged both in maintaining and operating telegraph and telephone lines, shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 407, "Telegraph and telephone operation."

§ 10.249 Signals and interlockers. This account shall include the cost of repairing signals and interlockers governing the movements of locomotives and trains, and for the protection of traffic at crossings, including towers and other buildings, furniture, fixtures, and machinery in connection therewith; also the cost of repairing buildings and machinery of power plants used primarily for the production of power for the operation of signals and interlockers.

For list of items see account 27, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE A: The pay and expenses of employees engaged both in maintaining and operating signals and interlockers shall be apportioned equitably between this account and account 404, "Signal and interlocker operation."

NOTE B: When signal or interlocking apparatus is located in station buildings, only the cost of repairing the signal or interlocking apparatus shall be charged to this account. The cost of repairing the building shall be included in account 227, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of repairs of track material such as special rail braces, special rods, switches, special track fastenings, split rails, derails, derail stands, and frogs, used in connection with interlockers shall be included in account 216, "Other track material."

NOTE D: When derails are arranged so as to be thrown from switch stands, the cost of labor expended for repairs of the connections between the switch stands and the derail and devices for throwing the derail, shall be included in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing."

NOTE E: The salaries, office expenses, and traveling expenses of supervisors or inspectors when engaged in maintaining both telegraph and telephone lines and signals and interlockers shall be equitably apportioned between this account and account 247, "Telegraph and telephone lines."

§ 10.253 Power plants. This account shall include the cost of repairing power-plant and substation buildings, including all foundations other than those special to particular machines and apparatus; and also dams, canals, pipe lines, and accessories devoted to the utilization of water for power. Gas and sewer pipes and their connections, fixtures (including wiring) for lighting and heating, and miscellaneous fixtures, shall be considered as a part of the power-plant buildings.

The power-plant buildings here referred to are those in which power is produced for the operation of trains and cars and for general purposes.

For list of items see road and equipment account 29, "Power plants."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power-plant machinery, including small stacks resting on boilers, and special foundations for machines, shall be included in account 304, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairng the buildings and the power machinery and other apparatus of plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

§ 10.257 Power-transmission systems. This account shall include the cost of repairing systems for conveying electricity, steam, and compressed air from producing plants to place or building where used; also the cost of conduits and poles, cross arms, insulator pins, brackets and other pole fixtures, and of other structures for power-transmission and distribution systems, including those for electric railway operation, and lighting systems for general lighting purposes.

For list of items see account 31, "Power-transmission systems."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing the portions of distribution systems located within shop buildings and station and office buildings shall be included in the accounts provided for the cost of maintaining the buildings. The cost of repairing distribution systems in plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing conduits and poles and fixtures for telegraph and telephone lines shall be included in account 247, "Telegraph and telephone lines." If poles and conduits are used both for telegraph and telephone lines, and for power-distribution lines, the cost of repairs thereof shall be included in the account appropriate according to their predominant use.

§ 10.265 Miscellaneous structures. This account shall include the cost of repairing permanent structures, not provided for elsewhere, including the cost of repairing all furniture and fixtures to equip them for use. It shall also include the cost of maintenance of the grounds appurtenant to such structures.

NOTE A: When separable the cost of maintaining structures which are rented to other companies or individuals shall be charged to the income account in which is included the rent received for use of the structures.

NOTE B: Incidental cleaning, including the cost of cleaning snow from roofs, when done by employees regularly working in miscellaneous buildings, shall not be included in this account.

§ 10.266 Road property; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of depreciable road property listed in paragraph (g) of § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property, with the exception of shop machinery and power-plant machinery.

NOTE: Depreciation charges applicable to shop machinery and power-plant machinery shall be included in account 305, "Shop and power-plant machinery—Depreciation."

§ 10.267 Retirements; road. This account shall include charges for the service value (ledger value less value of salvage) of nondepreciable road property retired, excluding rail, ties, and other track material, and ballast used in repairs, as defined in this classification. This account shall also include the proportion of the service value of nondepreciable and depreciable road property retired carried in account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," which by specific authority of the Commission shall be charged to current operating expenses.

When road property previously subject to amortization accounting under section 124, "Amortization deductions," of the Internal Revenue Code is retired, the difference between the service value (ledger value less value of salvage and insurance recovered) thereof, and the balance in account 702½E, "Accrued amortization of defense projects—Road," with respect to the specific facility retired, after appropriate adjustment for any depreciation accrued thereon, shall be included in this account.

This account shall also be charged with such amounts as are concurrently credited to accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, in accounting for the retirement of road property.

NOTE: The cost of dismantling or demolishing the property, if borne by the carrier, shall be charged to account 270, "Dismantling retired road property," or account 306, "Dismantling retired shop, and power-plant machinery," as may be appropriate.

§ 10.268 Deferred maintenance; way and structures. This account shall include the estimated cost of repairs to way and structures which cannot be made during the current year due to priorities for materials and supplies or shortage of labor.

This account shall be credited with amounts cleared from account 774, "Maintenance reserves", in accordance with the text of that account. (See § 10.04–25 Deferred maintenance, and major repairs to equipment.)

§ 10.269 Roadway machines. This account shall include the cost of repairing roadway machines which are used for the repairs of roadway and structures.

LIST OF ROADWAY MACHINES

Boilers, portable.	Engines, portable.
Cars, hand.	Grading outfits.
Cars, lever.	Hydraulic outfits.
Cars, motor inspection.	Jacks, hydraulic.
Cars, push.	Log loaders.
Cars (small), crane for supply yards and general use.	Pile drivers.

Ditching machines.	Rail unloaders.
Dredging machines.	Rock crushers.
	Steam rollers.
	Timber trucks.
	Velocipedes.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing machines in the maintenance of equipment shops shall be included in account 302, "Shop machinery," as provided for therein.

NOTE B: The cost of repairing roadway machines, such as pile drivers, log loaders, hoisting engines, and concrete mixers, when permanently mounted for movement on carrier's tracks, shall be included in account 326, "Work equipment—Repairs."

§ 10.270 Dismantling retired road property. This account shall include the cost of dismantling retired road property and recovering the salvage therefrom with the exception of track material recovered in connection with repairs of tracks as provided for in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing," and shop and power-plant machinery.

NOTE: The cost of removing, gathering up, and disposing of track material in connection with repairs of tracks is includible in account 220, "Track laying and surfacing," and of shop and power-plant machinery in account 306, "Dismantling retired shop and power-plant machinery."

§ 10.270½ Road; amortization of defense projects. This account shall include the amount of amortization charges accrued during the accounting period for road property with respect to which the carrier has elected to observe amortization accounting for income tax purposes under section 124, "Amortization deduction," of the Internal Revenue Code. The charges so included shall be in conformity with the allowances acceptable to the Bureau of Internal Revenue under the regulations prescribed by it.

NOTE A: Road property subject to amortization accounting with charges to this account is exempt from the accrual of depreciation under the accounting regulations otherwise applicable.

NOTE B: With respect to road property operated by a lessee, when under the terms of the lease the lessee assumes the amortization charge (either in a specified amount or as an undivided part of the rent), the amortization charges as authorized shall be included in the operating expense accounts of the lessee and the reserve shall be maintained in the accounts of the lessor.

§ 10.271 Small tools and supplies. This account shall include:

(a) Roadway and track tools. The cost of roadway tools (except special tools provided for elsewhere), including the cost of repairing such tools.

(b) Roadway and track supplies. The cost of supplies consumed in connection with the operation of roadway machines while used in repairs of roadway and tracks; and cost of supplies used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.

ITEMS OF ROADWAY SUPPLIES

Alcohol for hydraulic jacks.
Fuel for heating tool and other section houses.
Fuel for portable forges used in roadway and track work.
Gasoline for motor cars.
Oatmeal and ice for drinking water used by roadway and track repair men.
Oil and waste for hand cars, lever cars, motor inspection cars, and push cars.
Oil and wicks for lanterns used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.
Oil and wicks for lighting tool and other section houses.
Torpedoes used by trackwalkers, track watchmen, and roadway and track repair men.
Water for section houses.

§ 10.272 Removing snow, ice, and sand. This account shall include the cost of keeping track and roadway clear of snow, ice, and sand.

It shall include cost of preventing accumulation, such as the cost of distributing, setting up, inspecting, taking down, and regathering portable snow and sand fences; and cost of tools furnished for the purpose; also cost of storing fences.

It shall include cost of removing accumulations of snow, ice, and sand, cost of snow-plow and flanger service, and of work-train service; cost of applying and removing flangers from locomotives and cars, and of slatting pilots; cost of salt to keep switches clear; and cost of meals and lodging for men employed in removal service.

§ 10.273 Public improvements; maintenance. (a) This account shall include the portion borne by the carrier of the expense of maintenance of public improvements, whether done by public authority or by the carrier's employees under governmental requirement.

(b) By public improvements are meant improvements for public benefit such as curbing, grading, guttering, and paving of streets, overhead highway bridges, including approaches; drainage, sewer, irrigation, and water systems; flood protection, parks, sidewalks, etc.

For list of items see account 39, "Public improvements—Construction."

NOTE A: The expense of repairing paving within the grounds of buildings or other structures shall be charged to the accounts provided for repairs of the structures.

NOTE B: Assessments for maintaining public improvements included in the general tax levy for a regular taxing district shall be charged to the appropriate tax account in income.

NOTE C: Interest and penalties, based on monthly or annual percentage rates, for failure to pay assessments within the allotted time shall be included in account 547, "Interest on unfunded debt."

§ 10.274 Injuries to persons. This account shall include expenses on account of injuries to persons which occur directly in connection with the maintenance of way and structures, including injuries occurring in connection with the operation of work trains in such service, and injuries caused by defective highways within the right of way.

It shall also include expenses on account of injuries to employees incurred while demolishing structures, the maintenance of which would be chargeable to maintenance of way and structures; services of employees and others called in consultation in connection with claim adjustments; pay and expenses of employees while engaged as witnesses at inquests and lawsuits; and a suitable proportion of donations made to hospitals.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Artificial limbs.
Carriage fees.
Claim adjusters' and clerks' services.
Claim adjusters' office expenses.
Compensation for injuries or death.
Final judgments, including plaintiffs' court costs.
Funeral expenses.
Hospital attendance.
Medical and surgical services.
Medical and surgical supplies.

Undertakers' supplies.
Witnesses' fees and expenses at inquests and lawsuits.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to personal injury suits, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: Amounts donated by a carrier to hospitals shall be distributed, 25 percent to account 274, "Injuries to persons"; 25 percent to account 332, "Injuries to persons"; and 50 percent to accounts 420, "Injuries to persons."

NOTE C: The pay, office rent, office expenses, and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks and others in charge of or engaged in connection with claim cases, when not assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged.

§ 10.275 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to maintenance of way and structures; also premiums on fidelity bonds of employees whose pay is chargeable to maintenance of way and structures. (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance reserve account, to which account shall be charged the amounts of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies in reimbursement for losses under such reinsurance.

§ 10.276 Stationery and printing. This account shall include the cost of stationery and printing used in connection with maintenance of way and structures.

§ 10.277 Other expenses. This account shall include all expenses in connection with maintenance of way and structures not provided for elsewhere.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Pay and expenses of maintenance of way employees attending conferences with officers in connection with wage disputes.
Fees paid arbitrators in wage disputes with maintenance of way employees.
Payments to maintenance of way employees for time absent on account of sickness, when not compensation for personal injuries.
Gratuities paid to persons for discovering defective rails, etc.

§ 10.278 Maintaining joint tracks, yards, and other facilities—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of the costs incurred by others in maintaining joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities.

NOTE: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing against the carrier for its proportion of the cost of maintaining tracks, yards, and other roadway and structure facilities maintained by others and in the joint use of which the carrier participates. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

§ 10.279 Maintaining joint tracks, yards, and other facilities—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of the cost incurred by the carrier in maintaining joint tracks, yards, terminals, and other facilities.

NOTE: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing in favor of the carrier and against others for their proportions of the cost of maintaining tracks, yards, and other roadway and structure facilities maintained by the carrier and in the joint use of which others participate. (See § 10.04–9 Joint facility accounts.)

§ 10.280 Equalization; way and structures. This account shall include adjustments of the differences between the actual and the budgeted or authorized maintenance of way and structures expenses as provided in § 10.04–19 Equalization of maintenance expenses. The amounts included in this account shall concurrently be debited or credited to account 773½, "Equalization reserves."

§ 10.281 Right-of-way expenses. This account shall include the cost to the carrier of maintaining structures owned by or exclusively used by others, such costs having been assumed by the carrier in order to acquire or to secure a less restricted use of its right of way.

The structures here referred to are those such as bridges above the carrier's tracks, tunnels, and roadways under the carrier's tracks.

NOTE: The cost of maintaining public improvements is includible in account 273, "Public improvements—Maintenance."

MAINTENANCE OF EQUIPMENT

§ 10.300 Maintenance of equipment. The primary accounts included in this general account are designed to show the expenses of maintaining the carrier's equipment and the carrier's expense for the repairs of other equipment used in its operations, also the cost of maintaining road property classified as shop and power plant machinery. The repair accounts shall include foreign roads' freight charges for transporting the carrier's equipment to shops for repairs and for transporting such equipment to the carrier's line after repairs have been made. No charge shall be made to these accounts for transporting equipment in the carrier's transportation service trains to shops for repairs or from shops after repairs have been made.

The accounts for maintenance of equipment shall be kept in such manner as to show separately, by primary accounts, the expenses directly assignable to sleeping car operations, dining and buffet service, producing power sold, and other miscellaneous operations.

§ 10.301 Superintendence. This account shall include:

(a) Pay of officers. The pay of officers directly in charge of or engaged in the maintenance of equipment.

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power plant machinery for shop power when located in distinct buildings shall be included in account 304, "Power plant machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing boilers used exclusively for heating shall be included in the appropriate repair accounts for buildings.

NOTE C: The cost of small tools which are soon worn out, when used by mechanics on miscellaneous work, shall be included in clearing account "Shop expenses," and when used on repairs of equipment shall be included in the appropriate accounts for repairs of equipment.

NOTE D: The cost of repairing machinery and tools in shops used exclusively for maintenance of way and structures shall be included in account 229, "Roadway buildings."

§ 10.304 Power-plant machinery. This account shall include the cost of repairing machinery and other apparatus including special foundations in power plants and substations for generating and transforming power used for the operation of trains and cars or to furnish power, heat, and light for general purposes.

For list of items see account 45, "Power-plant machinery."

NOTE A: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in shop power plants shall be included in account 302, "Shop machinery."

NOTE B: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in stations and offices used primarily for station and office purposes shall be included in account 227, "Station and office buildings."

NOTE C: The cost of repairing power-machinery and apparatus in plants used primarily for operating signals and interlockers shall be included in account 249, "Signals and interlockers."

NOTE D: The cost of repairing foundations, other than those special to particular machines and other apparatus, shall be included in cost of repairing the building and not in this account.

NOTE E: The cost of repairing machinery in distinct plants for furnishing power both for carrier purposes and for sale shall be included in this account. When plants are used solely for generating power for sale the cost of repairs shall be included in account 534, "Expenses of miscellaneous operations."

§ 10.305 Shop and power-plant machinery; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of property the cost of which is includible in accounts 44, "Shop machinery" and 45, "Power-plant machinery." (See also § 10.04–8 Depreciation accounting; road property.)

§ 10.306 Dismantling retired shop and power-plant machinery. This account shall include the cost of dismantling retired shop and power-plant machinery and recovering the salvage therefrom.

§ 10.308 Steam locomotives; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairing transportation service steam locomotives and tenders, including all appurtenances, and the cost of small hand tools used in repair work.

This account shall also include the cost of work-train service for the transportation of locomotives without steam, to shops for repairs, including the pay and expenses of caretakers, and the pay and expenses of caretakers of locomotives without steam which are hauled in transportation service trains to shops for repairs; also notarial fees in connection with reports on conditions of locomotives.

NOTE: The cost of repairs to work equipment on account of construction work shall be included in the cost of the construction work on which it is used. (See paragraph (c) of § 10.01–4 Cost of construction.)

§ 10.328 Miscellaneous equipment; repairs. This account shall include the cost of repairing miscellaneous equipment, such as wagons, automobiles, and other highway vehicles, and harness.

§ 10.329 Dismantling retired equipment. This account shall include the cost of tearing down retired equipment and recovering the salvage therefrom.

§ 10.330 Retirements; equipment. This account shall include the proportion of the service value of equipment retired carried in account 726, "Property retired chargeable to operating expenses," which by specific authority of this Commission shall be charged to operating expenses in the period. (See paragraph (f) of § 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

When equipment previously subject to amortization accounting under section 124, "Amortization deductions," of the Internal Revenue Code is retired, the difference between the service value (ledger value less value of salvage and insurance recovered) thereof and the balance in account 702½F, "Accrued amortization of defense projects—Equipment," with respect to the specific equipment retired, after appropriate adjustment for any depreciation accrued thereon, shall be included in this account.

This account shall also be charged with such amounts as are concurrently credited to accounts 72 to 77, inclusive, in accounting for the retirement of equipment.

§ 10.331 Equipment; depreciation. This account shall include the amount of depreciation charges applicable to the accounting period for all classes of equipment the ledger value of which is includible in accounts 51 to 54 and 56 to 58, all inclusive. (See also § 10.04–24 Depreciation accounting; equipment.)

§ 10.331½ Equipment; amortization of defense projects. This account shall include the amount of amortization charges accrued during the accounting period for equipment with respect to which the carrier has elected to observe amortization accounting for income tax purposes under Section 124, "Amortization deductions," of the Internal Revenue Code. The charges so included shall be in conformity with the allowances acceptable to the Bureau of Internal Revenue under the regulations prescribed by it.

NOTE A: Equipment subject to amortization accounting with charges to this account is exempt from the application of sub-orders, prescribing depreciation rates, under the order in No. 15100, Depreciation Charges of Steam Railroad Companies.

NOTE B: With respect to equipment operated by a lessee, when under the terms of the lease the lessee assumes the amortization charge (either in a specified amount or as an undivided part of the rent), the amortization charges as authorized shall be included in the operating expense accounts of the lessee and the reserve shall be maintained in the accounts of the lessor.

§ 10.332 Injuries to persons. This account shall include expenses on account of injuries to persons which occur directly in connection with repairs of equipment.

Services of employees and others called in consultation in relation to claim adjustments, pay and expenses of employees while engaged as witnesses at inquests and lawsuits, and a suitable proportion of donations made to hospitals shall be included in this account.

This account shall also include amounts estimated to be sufficient to meet the probable liability of the carrier for unaudited expenses applicable thereto, except that it is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the account.

NOTE A: Expenses incident to personal injury suits, not otherwise provided for, shall be included in account 454, "Law expenses."

NOTE B: Amounts donated by a carrier to hospitals shall be distributed 25 percent to account 274, "Injuries to persons"; 25 percent to account 332, "Injuries to persons"; and 50 percent to account 420, "Injuries to persons."

NOTE C: The pay, office rent, and office and other expenses of claim adjusters, claim clerks, and others in charge of or engaged in connection with claim cases, when not assignable to a distinct class of claims, shall be apportioned equally among the several classes of claims over which they have jurisdiction or in connection with which they are engaged.

§ 10.333 Insurance. This account shall include premiums, except reinsurance premiums, for insuring the carrier against loss, through injuries to persons or damage to or destruction or loss of property, whether caused by fire, accident, or other cause, when such loss to the carrier would be chargeable to maintenance of equipment; also premiums on fidelity bonds of employees whose pay is chargeable to maintenance of equipment. (See § 10.04–18 Insurance.)

NOTE: The premiums paid by the carrier to its insurance fund shall be credited to an insurance reserve account, to which account shall be charged the amount of all claims for injuries to persons and damages to the property covered by its insurance. To such account shall also be charged all reinsurance premiums paid to insurance companies, and to it shall be credited all amounts recovered from insurance companies for damage to the property reinsured by them.

§ 10.334 Stationery and printing. This account shall include the cost of stationery and printing used in connection with maintenance of equipment.

Water cans.
Water coolers.
Water pails.
Wheelbarrows.
Whisk brooms.
Wicks.
Wrenches.

§ 10.377 Yardmasters and yard clerks. This account shall include the pay of general yardmaster, yardmaster, assistant yardmaster, general yard foreman, and yard clerks and attendants in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including employees engaged in calling yardmen and trainmen; also pay of policemen, watchmen, and detectives in yard service. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

§ 10.378 Yard conductors and brakemen. This account shall include the pay of yard conductors or foremen and yard brakemen or switchmen handling cars in passenger and freight yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including pay while dead-heading in connection with such service. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

NOTE: When conductors and brakemen are engaged in both train and yard service their pay shall be apportioned between the train and yard accounts on the basis of service rendered. This does not apply to train switching service performed by train crews, the entire pay of whom shall be charged to account 401, "Trainmen."

§ 10.379 Yard switch and signal tenders. This account shall include the pay of employees in yards where regular switching service is maintained, who are engaged in the operation of yard switches and signals, including interlockers used solely or principally for the government of all movements of locomotives and trains between main and yard tracks, movements of locomotives between yard tracks and engine houses, and yard switching movements. (See account 389, "Yard supplies and expenses.")

LIST OF EMPLOYEES

Battery men.
Interlocker oilers.
Lamp cleaners.
Lamp men.
Lamplighters.
Lever men.
Signalmen.
Switch oilers.
Switch tenders.
Tower men.

§ 10.380 Yard enginemen. This account shall include the pay of yard engineers, and firemen while engaged in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including pay of such employees while deadheading in connection with yard service.

NOTE: The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of enginemen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in account 392, "Train enginemen." The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.381 Yard motormen. This account shall include the pay of yard motormen while engaged in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service, including pay of such employees while deadheading in connection with yard service.

NOTE: The pay of motormen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of motormen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in account 393, "Train motormen." The pay of motormen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.382 Yard switching fuel. This account shall include the cost, delivered on locomotives or motor cars, of coal, coke, oil, wood, and other fuels consumed in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service, including a suitable proportion of the pay of fuel agents, fuel inspectors, fuel weighers, and clerks engaged in accounting for fuel at fuel stations; pay of foremen and other fuel-station employees; also a suitable proportion of the cost of tools, such as wheelbarrows, shovels, scoops, and picks, used for handling fuel at such stations and the cost of operating machinery at fuel stations.

NOTE A: The cost of repairs and renewals of coal chutes, buggies, pockets, air hoists, mechanical hoists, and mechanical conveyors at fuel stations shall be charged to account 233, "Fuel stations."

NOTE B: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives and motor cars in train switching service shall be included in accounts provided for train service. The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.383 Yard switching power produced. This account shall include the cost of the production and distribution of electric power used in operating locomotives and cars in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service.

(a) Employees. The pay of employees engaged in operating electric-power stations and substations, such as engineers, firemen, electricians, dynamo men, oilers, cleaners, and coal passers.

(b) Fuel. The cost of coal, oil, gas, and other fuel, including the cost of labor unloading or stocking fuel.

(c) Water. The cost of water used to produce steam or to operate water plants, including pumping, rent of ponds, streams, and pipe lines; also water tests, boiler compounds, and other like supplies and expenses.

(d) Other supplies and expenses. The cost of lubricants, such as oil and grease used in lubricating engines, shafting, dynamos, and pumps; cost of waste, carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, and other supplies; also the cost of heating and lighting power plants, and other expenses not elsewhere specified in connection with operation of electric-power plants. (See § 10.04–12 Power plant operations.)

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.384 Yard switching power purchased. This account shall include the cost of electric power purchased for the propulsion of engines and cars in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.385 Water for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of water supplied to locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained, and in terminal switching and transfer service, including rent of ponds, lakes, other sources of water supply, and right of way for pipe lines; cost of water purchased, expenses of work trains while engaged in hauling water for locomotive supply, and cost of testing water; also cost of labor expended and cost of materials and supplies used in the operation of water stations and purifying plants.

The cost of operating boilers, engines, and pumps at water stations; heating and lighting water stations, breaking ice in water tanks, thawing out tank spouts and water cars, keeping fires in tanks and water cars to prevent freezing, shoveling snow into locomotive tanks; also temporary connections between water cars and locomotive tenders, compounds injected into locomotive boilers to decrease scale formation, and other expenses directly incident to the supplying of water to such locomotives, shall be included in this account.

An equitable proportion of the pay and the office, traveling, and other expenses of superintendent of water service engaged in connection with water supply for locomotives shall be included in this account.

ITEMS OF WATER STATION SUPPLIES

Axes.	Hose.
Boiler compounds.	Oil.
Chemicals.	Rubber packing.
Coal.	Shovels.
Coal picks.	Siphons.
Engine igniter batteries.	Slice bars.
Gasoline.	Stove fixtures.
Gasoline drums.	Stoves.
Hand tools.	Waste.
	Wrenches.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.386 Lubricants for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of valve, engine, car, and other lubricating oils, grease, compounds, and waste used for lubrication of locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service.

NOTE: The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.387 Other supplies for yard locomotives. This account shall include the cost of supplies, other than fuel, water, and lubricants, used on locomotives in switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including the cost of repairs and renewals of furniture, tools, and other movable articles required for use on locomotives in yard service.

The cost of sand charged to this account shall include the cost of material and supplies used in preparing and drying the sand for use, such as the cost of fuel, wheelbarrows, shovels, and sand screens.

ITEMS OF TOOLS AND SUPPLIES

Ash hoes.	Hose (not air-brake, air-signal, or steam).
Ash-pan rods.	Hose, thaw-out.
Axes.	Hose reels.
Bars, buggy.	Ice.
Bell cords.	Jacks.
Boxes, portable.	Jackscrews.
Brooms.	Lanterns and parts.
Brushes.	Locks for portable boxes.
Buckets.	Matches.
Carbide for acetylene gas.	Oil cans.
Carbons for electric lights.	Oil for headlights.
Chimneys for headlights.	Oil for lanterns.
Chimneys for signal lamps.	Oil for signal lamps.
Chisels.	Oil for torches.
Clinker hooks.	Oilers.
Crowbars.	Packing hooks.
Files.	Packing spoons.
First-aid boxes.	Picks, coal.
Flags.	Pinch bars.
Globes for lanterns.	Plugging bars.
Grate shakers.	Pokers.
Hammers.	Sand.
Handsaws.	Saws.
Hatchets.	Scoops.
	Shovels.
Signal lamps.	Waste.
Sledges.	Water buckets.
Slice bars.	Water coolers.
Soap.	Wicks for headlights.
Switch chains.	Wicks for lanterns.
Switch poles.	Wicks for signal lamps.
Switch ropes.	Wicks for torches.
Tool boxes, portable.	Wrecking frogs.
Torches.	Wrenches.
Torpedoes.

NOTE A: Where the quantity of sand used on locomotives engaged in yard service is relatively small as compared with the quantity used by locomotives engaged in train service, the entire cost of such material shall be included in account 399, "Other supplies for train locomotives." Where the quantity used in yard service is relatively large, the entire cost shall be included in this account.

NOTE B: The cost of other supplies consumed by locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned upon the basis of service rendered. The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.388 Enginehouse expenses; yard. This account shall include the expense of caring for and preparing locomotives for switching service in yards where regular switching service is maintained and in terminal switching and transfer service, including a proportion of such expenses as are common to train, yard switching, and work service.

(a) Enginehouse men. The pay of enginehouse employees engaged in wiping, cleaning, watching, and dispatching locomotives; keeping and preparing fires, dumping ashes, washing boilers, cleaning fire boxes, packing driving boxes and truck boxes; cleaning smokestacks, air-brake equipment, and front ends of locomotives; checking locomotive tool equipment, cleaning ash and cinder pits; operating turntables, drying sand, inspecting smokestacks and ash pans; calling enginemen, and moving locomotives around engine yards when operated by hostlers; also a proportion of the pay of enginehouse foremen and their clerks.

(b) Miscellaneous expenses. The cost of tools, supplies, and sundry expenses on account of caring for and preparing locomotives at enginehouses.

ITEMS OF MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

Boiled oil.
Compounds for cleaning and polishing.
Enginehouse cupboards.
Gas, oil, and electricity for lighting.
Heating enginehouses, including offices.
Lampblack.
Lanterns used by enginehouse men.
Lighting enginehouses, including offices.
Lubricating oil for enginehouse, ash pit, transfer table, and turntable machinery.
Lye.
Packing tools.
Paint for front ends of locomotives.
Power for operation of turntables and transfer tables.
Rent of roundhouse stalls.
Shovels.
Signal lights on transfer tables and turntables.
Waste.
Water for cinder pits.
Water for washing boilers.
Water hose.
Wheelbarrows.

NOTE A: Enginehouse expenses of locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

NOTE B: The pay of mechanics and laborers engaged in locomotive repair work in enginehouses shall be charged to the appropriate accounts for locomotive repairs.

§ 10.389 Yard supplies and expenses. This account shall include the cost of supplies (except locomotive supplies) used in yard service, yard signal and interlocker supplies, and miscellaneous yard expenses for yards where regular switching service is maintained; also office and other expenses of employees whose pay is chargeable to accounts 377, 378, and 379.

ITEMS OF YARD SUPPLIES

Electric-light carbons.	Lubricants for machinery and switches.
Electric-light globes	Semaphore lamps.
Flags.	Signal lamps.
Fuel for heating.	Stoves.
Fuel for power.	Switch chains.
Illuminating oil.	Switch lamps.
Lamp burners.	Switch ropes.
Lamp chimneys.	Waste.
Lamp wicks.	Wrecking frogs.
Lantern globes.	Wrecking wedges.
Lantern wicks.
Lanterns.

ITEMS OF YARD EXPENSE

Electricity purchased for lighting yards and yard buildings.
Furniture repairs and renewals.
Gas purchased for lighting yards and yard buildings.
Power produced for operating switches and signals.
Power purchased for operating switches and signals.
Rent of telephones.
Rent of yard buildings (not jointly used).

§ 10.390 Operating joint yards and terminals—Dr. This account shall include the carrier's proportion of the costs incurred by others in their operation of joint yards and terminals, including signals, interlockers, and other facilities at such joint yards and terminals.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing against the carrier for its proportion of the cost of operating yards and terminals operated by others, and in the joint use of which the carrier participates. (See § 10.04-9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.391 Operating joint yards and terminals—Cr. This account shall include amounts chargeable to others as their proportions of the costs incurred by the carrier in the operation of joint yards and terminals, including signals, interlockers, and other facilities at such joint yards and terminals.

NOTE A: The purpose of this account is to show the amounts accruing in favor of the carrier and against others for their proportions of the cost of operating yards and terminals operated by the carrier and in the joint use of which others participate. (See § 10.04-9 Joint facility accounts.)

NOTE B: No portion of expenses chargeable by the operating carrier to accounts 392 to 403, inclusive, shall be included in this account.

§ 10.392 Train enginemen. This account shall include the pay of steam locomotive engineers and firemen while engaged in transportation train service or while deadheading in connection therewith and pay of such enginemen engaged in piloting trains over home lines; also the pay of employees while regularly engaged in shoveling coal forward on locomotive tenders.

NOTE: The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of enginemen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in this account. The pay of enginemen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.393 Train motormen. This account shall include the pay of motormen while engaged in running other than steam locomotives and cars in transportation train service or while deadheading in connection therewith; also the pay and expenses of motormen while engaged in piloting trains or cars over home lines.

NOTE: The pay of motormen on locomotives engaged in more than one class of service shall be apportioned on the basis of service rendered. Pay of motormen on train locomotives while engaged in train switching service shall be included in this account. The pay of motormen on locomotives engaged in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.394 Train fuel. This account shall include the cost, delivered on locomotives or motor cars, of coal, coke, oil, wood, and other fuel for propulsion of trains in transportation-train service, including a suitable proportion of the pay of fuel agents, fuel inspectors, fuel weighers, and clerks engaged in accounting for fuel at fuel stations; pay of foremen and other fuel station employees; also a suitable proportion of the cost of tools, such as wheelbarrows, shovels, scoops, and picks, used for handling fuel at such stations, and the cost of operating machinery at fuel stations.

NOTE A: The cost of repairs and renewals of coal chutes, buggies, pockets, air hoists, mechanical hoists, and mechanical conveyors at fuel stations shall be charged to account 233, "Fuel stations."

NOTE B: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives and motor cars in train-switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The cost of supplies consumed by locomotives and motor cars in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.395 Train power produced. This account shall include the cost of producing and distributing electric power for the propulsion of electric locomotives and cars in transportation train service.

(a) Employees. The pay of employees engaged in operating electric-power stations and substations, such as engineers, firemen, electricians, dynamo men, oilers, cleaners, and coal passers.

(b) Fuel. The cost of coal, oil, gas, and other fuel, including the cost of labor unloading or stocking fuel.

(c) Water. The cost of water used to produce steam or to operate water plants, including pumping, rent of ponds, streams, and pipe lines; also water tests, boiler compounds, and other like supplies and expenses.

(d) Other supplies and expenses. The cost of lubricants, such as oil and grease, used in lubricating engines, shafting, dynamos, and pumps; cost of waste, carbon brushes, fuses, lamps, and other supplies; also cost of heating and lighting power plants, and other expenses not elsewhere specified in connection with operation of electric-power plants. (See § 10.04-12 Power plant operations.)

NOTE: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work serve shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.396 Train power purchased. This account shall include the cost of electric power purchased for the propulsion of locomotives and cars in transportation train service.

NOTE: The entire cost of supplies consumed by train locomotives in train switching service shall be included in the accounts provided for train service. The supplies consumed by locomotives in work service shall be included in the cost of the work to which the service pertains.

§ 10.397 Water for train locomotives. This account shall include the cost of water supplied to locomotives in transportation train service, including rent of ponds, lakes, other sources of water supply, and right of way for pipe lines; cost of water purchased, expenses of supply trains while engaged in hauling water for locomotive supply, and cost of testing water; also cost of labor expended and cost of material and supplies used in the operation of water stations and purifying plants.

The cost of operating boilers, engines, and pumps at water stations, heating and lighting water stations, breaking ice in water tanks, thawing out tank spouts and water cars, keeping fires in tanks and water cars to prevent freezing, shoveling snow into locomotive tanks; also temporary connections between water cars and locomotive tenders, compounds injected into locomotive boilers to decrease scale formation, and other expenses directly incident to the supplying of water to such locomotives, shall be included in this account.

An equitable proportion of the pay and the office, traveling, and other expenses of superintendent of water service, engaged in connection with water supply for locomotives, shall be included in this account.
